Dear Fellow Colleagues:

Today is a special day in our companies' history. We are thrilled to share with you news of a transformational development for all of us, for our clients and for our industry.

Publicis Groupe and Omnicom are announcing a merger of equals that will create the world's leading advertising, marketing services, digital and communications firm. The new company, which we are calling Publicis Omnicom Group, will have 130,000 employees and combined annual revenue of $22.7 billion / €17.7 billion.

This merger is a historic opportunity for us to reshape our industry and set a new standard for best-in-class service. Our combined group brings together the most talented teams in the industry and the world's largest portfolio of iconic brands. Together, we will be able to serve our clients with exceptional expertise, collaboration and creativity across the full spectrum of disciplines and geographies, at scale and in an ever-changing environment.

We believe Publicis Omnicom Group will be exceptionally well positioned to not only embrace the pace of change in our business, but also capture the many opportunities that change creates. We have seen the rapid development of new media giants, the blurring of roles among media players, and the fundamental changes in consumer behavior as people adopt new technologies. Publicis Omnicom Group will create powerful and innovative solutions to support our clients' brands in this evolving environment. Equally important, it will create exciting new opportunities for our talented employees to build their skills and their future.

It is important to emphasize that we are bringing our businesses together as a true merger of equals. We share common values and respect for each other, which have only deepened since we began working side-by-side to make Publicis Omnicom Group a reality.

Upon the receipt of regulatory and shareholder approvals, we expect the transaction to close in the fourth quarter of this year or the first quarter of 2014.

We are committed to keeping you updated on our progress. In the meantime, please continue to focus on what you are the best in the world at providing – great work and outstanding service.

We hope you share our enthusiasm for this merger and our exciting future together. Welcome to Publicis Omnicom Group!

Sincerely,

Maurice Lévy John Wren

Forward-looking statements

This communication contains forward-looking statements (including within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995) concerning Omnicom, Publicis Groupe, Publicis Omnicom Group, the proposed transactions and other matters. These statements may discuss goals, intentions and expectations as to future plans, trends, events, results of operations or financial condition, or otherwise, based on current beliefs of the management of Omnicom and Publicis Groupe as well as assumptions made by, and information currently available to, such management. Forward-looking statements may be accompanied by words such as “aim,” “anticipate,” “believe,” “plan,” “could,” “would,” “should,” “estimate,” “expect,” “forecast,” “future,” “guidance,” “intend,” “may,” “will,” “possible,” “potential,” “prudent,” or similar words, phrases or expressions. These forward-looking statements are subject to various risks and uncertainties, many of which are outside the parties’ control. Therefore, you should not place undue reliance on such statements. Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements include failure to obtain applicable regulatory or shareholder approvals in a timely manner or otherwise; failure to satisfy other closing conditions to the proposed transactions; risks that the new businesses will not be integrated successfully or that the combined companies will not realize estimated cost savings, value of certain tax assets, synergies and growth or that such benefits may take longer to realize than expected; failure to realize anticipated benefits of the combined operations; risks relating to unanticipated costs of integration; losses on media purchases and production costs incurred on behalf of clients; reductions in client spending, a slowdown in client payments and changes in client communication requirements; failure to manage potential conflicts of interest between or among clients; unanticipated changes relating to competitive factors in the advertising and marketing industries; ability to hire and retain key personnel; ability to successfully integrate the companies’ businesses; the potential impact of announcement or consummation of the proposed transactions on relationships with third parties, including clients, employees and competitors; ability to attract new clients and retain existing clients in the manner anticipated; reliance on and integration of information technology systems; changes in legislation or governmental regulations affecting the companies; international, national or local economic, social or political conditions that could adversely affect the companies or their clients; conditions in the credit markets; risks associated with assumptions the parties make in connection with the parties’ critical accounting estimates and legal proceedings; and the parties’ international operations, which are subject to the risks of currency fluctuations and foreign exchange controls. The foregoing list of factors is not exhaustive. You should carefully consider the foregoing factors and the other risks and uncertainties that affect the parties’ businesses, including those described in Omnicom’s Annual Report on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, Current Reports on Form 8-K and other documents filed from time to time with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) and those described in Publicis Groupe’s annual reports, registration documents and other documents filed from time to time with the French financial market regulator (Autorité des Marchés Financiers or “AMF”). Except as required under applicable law, the parties do not assume any obligation to update these forward-looking statements.

No Offer or Solicitation

This communication is not intended to and does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to subscribe for or buy or an invitation to purchase or subscribe for any securities or the solicitation of any vote in any jurisdiction pursuant to the proposed transactions or otherwise, nor shall there be any sale, issuance or transfer of securities in any jurisdiction in contravention of applicable law. No offer of securities shall be made except by means of a prospectus meeting the requirements of Section 10 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and applicable European regulations. Subject to certain exceptions to be approved by the relevant regulators or certain facts to be ascertained, the public offer will not be made directly or indirectly, in or into any jurisdiction where to do so would constitute a violation of the laws of such jurisdiction, or by use of the mails or by any means or instrumentality (including without limitation, facsimile transmission, telephone and the internet) of interstate or foreign commerce, or any facility of a national securities exchange, of any such jurisdiction.

Important Additional Information Will be Filed with the SEC
