1. Assumes a Step Payment of $565.

2. The hypothetical Redemption Amounts set forth above are for illustrative purposes only, are based on hypothetical terms, and may not be the actual returns applicable to you.

Certain Product Risks

You may lose up to 100% of your investment. If the Ending Value is equal to or less than the Threshold Value, you will lose 1% of the principal amount for each 1% that the Ending Value is less than Starting Value.

The notes do not bear interest.

Any payment on the notes is subject to our credit risk.

The public offering price you pay for the notes will exceed their initial estimated value.

The notes are expected to have limited liquidity.

The Redemption Amount will not reflect changes in the level of the Market Measure other than on the calculation day.

The U.S. federal income tax consequences of an investment in the notes are uncertain, and may be adverse to a holder of the notes.

(See "Additional Risk Considerations" on the next page.)

Additional Risk Considerations

If you attempt to sell notes prior to maturity, their market value, if any, will be affected by various factors that interrelate in complex ways, and their market value may be less than the principal amount.

You will have no rights as a security holder, you will have no rights to receive any of the securities represented by the Market Measure, and you will not be entitled to dividends or other distributions by the issuers of these securities.

The risks set forth in the section entitled “Certain Product Risks” on the preceding page and this section “Additional Risk Considerations” are only intended as summaries of some of the risks relating to an investment in the notes. Prior to investing in the notes, you should, in particular, review the “Risk Factors” sections in the preliminary pricing supplement, the product supplement, the prospectus supplement and the prospectus, which set forth important risks related to an investment in the notes.
