PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

McGill University Health Center renews IT partnership with CGI

Montreal, Quebec, May 27, 2004 - McGill University Health Centre (MUHC) and CGI Group Inc. (CGI) (TSX: GIB.A; NYSE: GIB) today announced the signing of a five-year information technology (IT) outsourcing contract renewal valued at CDN$18 million. CGI will continue to assume responsibility for mainframe data center operations and mainframe printing services.

We are very pleased with our partnership with CGI which spans over 10 years. During this time we have developed a solid business relationship and CGI has developed a clear view of our needs. The more we collaborate, the more we find ways of being more efficient and saving money that can be reinvested as a result in systems and infrastructure to support patient care, said Jean Huot, chief information officer of Syscor, the MUHC's IT company.

Michael Roach, president and chief operating officer, of CGI added: We have developed what we believe to be a highly effective model for collaboration that results in real savings for our client. We have studied many such models and feel that our mix of healthcare knowledge and experience, full outsourcing capabilities and commitment to creating a true partnership whereby both parties will benefit ultimately results in a win-win relationship.

CGI employs 600 professionals across North America dedicated to the healthcare and biotechnology sectors. Services beyond the full end-to-end IT offerings include; managed care solutions, a healthcare adapted ASP solution and HIPPA compliance and bioinformatics. Clients include provincial and federal healthcare organizations, regional boards, teaching hospitals and HMOs. During the past decade, CGI has delivered industry-leading solutions to more than five hundred hospitals, health systems and other healthcare providers, as well as health insurers, managed care companies and government payers.
