Item 8.01 Other Events.

Following the recommendation of Imperial Oil Limited's nominations and corporate governance committee, on February 29, 2008, the board of directors of Imperial revised the slate of nominees for director for the May 1, 2008 annual meeting by adding R.C. Olsen as a nominee for director, replacing R.L. Broiles on the slate of nominees.

Mr. Olsen has been appointed the Executive Vice-President of ExxonMobil's global Production Company, and will be located in Houston, Texas. He has been an employee of ExxonMobil for over 35 years. Mr. Olsen has spent his career in a number of upstream assignments in the United States, Asia, Australia and Europe. His previous position was located in London, England, and was as Chairman and Production Director of ExxonMobil International Limited with responsibility for that company's producing business in Europe, the Caspian and Russia.

Mr. Broiles is Imperial's Senior Vice-President, Resources Division and he will continue in that capacity.
