PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period. (Attach extra sheets if needed.)

Defense Industries International, Inc. (the "Company") is in the process of preparing its Annual Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2012 (the "Form 10-Q"). The Company will not be able to file the Form 10-Q on or before the fifth calendar day following the required filing date as prescribed in Rule 12b-25. The delay in filing the Form 10-Q is the result of the delay in filing the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2011 (the "Form 10-K"), which has been delayed due changes in key personnel responsible for the financial reporting of the Company and material weaknesses in the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

The Company expects to file both the Form 10-O and Form 10-K by the end of June 2012. This timeline is subject to completion of various milestones in the Company's financial close, reporting and disclosure processes.

This Form 12b-25 contains certain statements that constitute "forward-looking statements." There are numerous risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results and the timing of events to differ materially from those anticipated by the forward-looking statements in this Form 12b-25. Specifically, this Form 12b-25 includes a forward-looking statement regarding the Company's expectation to file the Forms 10-Q and 10-K by the end of June. There can be no assurances that such forward-looking statements will be achieved, with risks and uncertainties arising from (among other factors) the following:

- changes in key positions responsible of the financial reporting such as new CFO, replacement of controller and replacement of auditors;
- the ineffectiveness of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures resulting in its inability to file its periodic reports under the federal securities laws in a timely manner due to material weaknesses and significant deficiencies in internal control over financial reporting and the potential that the Company may be unable to effectively implement appropriate remedial measures in a timely manner;

- the continuation of material weaknesses or the discovery of additional material weaknesses in the Company's internal control over financial reporting and any delay in the implementation of remedial measures; and
- the ability of the Company's subsidiaries to provide it with their financial information in a timely manner.

The Company undertakes no commitment to update or revise forward-looking statements except as required by law.
