PROXY STATEMENT FOR ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

May 9, 2001

GENERAL MATTERS

The Board of Directors of UnitedHealth Group Incorporated ("UnitedHealth Group" or the "Company") furnishes this Proxy Statement in connection with the Board's solicitation of the enclosed proxy. The Board will use the proxy at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders and at any adjournment thereof. The Annual Meeting will take place on Wednesday, May 9, 2001, at 10:00 a.m., Central Time, at UnitedHealth Group Center, 9900 Bren Road East, Minnetonka, Minnesota.

UnitedHealth Group is furnishing each shareholder a copy of UnitedHealth Group's Annual Report for the year ended December 31, 2000 with this Proxy Statement. Management of UnitedHealth Group is mailing this Proxy Statement and the enclosed form of proxy to shareholders beginning on or about April 6, 2001.

The Board will use the proxy for the purposes listed in the Notice of Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

Management will vote in the manner a shareholder directs in the proxy. If a shareholder gives no direction, management will vote FOR the election of the director nominees named in this Proxy Statement; FOR the increase in the authorized number of shares of Common Stock of the Company from 500,000,000 to 1,500,000,000; AGAINST the shareholder proposal; and FOR the ratification of the appointment of Arthur Andersen LLP to act as independent public accountants for fiscal year 2001.

Registered shareholders can vote their shares by toll-free telephone call or through the Internet as an alternative to completing the enclosed proxy card and mailing it to UnitedHealth Group. The instructions for telephone and Internet voting are provided on the proxy card. The telephone and Internet voting procedures are designed to verify shareholders' identities, allow shareholders to give voting instructions and confirm that their instructions have been recorded properly. Shareholders who vote through the Internet should be aware that they may incur costs to access the Internet, such as usage charges from telephone companies or Internet service providers, and that these costs must be borne by the shareholder.

Shareholders who vote by telephone or Internet need not return a proxy card by mail. Whether shareholders submit their proxies by mail, telephone or Internet, a shareholder may revoke a proxy at any time prior to its exercise by giving written notice of revocation to the Secretary of UnitedHealth Group, by submitting a new proxy with a later date by mail, telephone or Internet or by voting in person at the Annual Meeting. Unless so revoked, properly executed proxies will be voted in the manner set forth in this Proxy Statement or as otherwise specified by the shareholders giving such proxies.

UnitedHealth Group will appoint inspectors of election for the meeting. These inspectors will tabulate votes that shareholders cast by proxy or in person at the Annual Meeting. To determine if a quorum is present, UnitedHealth Group will count the number of shares represented in person or by proxy. UnitedHealth Group will treat a shareholder who abstains from voting on any matter as if he or she were present at the meeting for purposes of determining a quorum and calculating the vote on that matter. If a broker returns a "non-vote" proxy, indicating a lack of authority to vote on a matter, UnitedHealth Group will deem the shares covered by the non-vote to be present at the Annual Meeting for purposes of determining a quorum but not for purposes of calculating the vote regarding the matter. The affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of UnitedHealth Group's Common Stock represented at the Annual Meeting in person or by proxy is necessary to approve all matters proposed to the shareholders at the meeting.

Only shareholders of record at the close of business on March 12, 2001 will be entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. As of March 12, 2001, a total of 322,060,002 shares of Common Stock were outstanding. Each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote. There is no right to cumulative voting as to any matter.

UnitedHealth Group will pay expenses in connection with the solicitation of proxies. Management is primarily soliciting proxies by mail. In addition, directors, officers and employees of UnitedHealth Group, who will receive no extra compensation for their services, may solicit proxies by telephone, telecopier or personal calls. UnitedHealth Group has engaged Morrow & Co., Inc. to assist in proxy solicitation for an estimated fee of $11,000 plus out-of-pocket expenses.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors of UnitedHealth Group is divided into three classes as nearly equal in number as possible. Each class serves three years with the term of office of one class expiring at the Annual Meeting each year in successive years.

The Board has nominated four current directors for re-election: William C. Ballard, Jr., Richard T. Burke, Stephen J. Hemsley and William W. McGuire, M.D. If elected, each of these directors will serve a three-year term expiring at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held in 2004. All of the nominees have informed the Board of Directors that they are willing to serve as directors. If any nominee should decline or become unable to serve as a director for any reason, the proxies will vote for another person as they determine.

The Board of Directors recommends a vote FOR the election of the nominees. Management will vote proxies in favor of the election of the nominees unless otherwise specified.

The following table provides certain information about the nominees for election as directors of UnitedHealth Group and also provides information about other directors whose terms of office continue after the Annual Meeting.

Directors of UnitedHealth Group who are not Company employees receive grants of non-qualified stock options under the 1995 Non-employee Director Stock Option Plan (the "Director Plan"). Under the Director Plan, directors receive two types of option grants: initial grants and annual grants. The initial grants (non-qualified stock options to purchase 18,000 shares of UnitedHealth Group Common Stock) are made automatically on the date eligible directors are first elected to the Board of Directors and become exercisable over the following three-year period at the rate of 6,000 shares per year. The annual grants (non-qualified stock options to purchase 10,000 shares of UnitedHealth Group Common Stock) are made automatically in four quarterly installments on the first business day of each fiscal quarter. They become exercisable six months after grant. The exercise price for options granted under the Director Plan is the closing sale price of UnitedHealth Group Common Stock on the date the option is granted. In 2000, each non-employee director also received a special one-time grant of 3,000 shares of restricted stock. These shares become available in equal installments over a period of three years.

Committees and Meetings of the Board of Directors

During the year ended December 31, 2000, the Board of Directors held four regular meetings. Except for Ms. Wilensky and Mr. Kean, all incumbent directors attended at least 75% of the meetings of the Board and any committees of which they were members.

The Board of Directors has established five standing committees: an Audit Committee, a Compensation and Human Resources Committee, an Executive Committee, a Nominating Committee and a Compliance and Government Affairs Committee. These committees help the Board fulfill its responsibilities and assist it in making informed decisions as to UnitedHealth Group's operations.

The Audit Committee consists of Messrs. Leatherdale (Chairman), Ballard, Johnson and Ryan, each of whom is a non-employee director and independent of Company management. The Audit Committee held four regular meetings and one special meeting in 2000. The Audit Committee assists the Board by overseeing UnitedHealth Group's financial reporting, public disclosure and compliance activities. The Committee operates as a direct line of communication between the Board and UnitedHealth Group's independent public accountants, as well as UnitedHealth Group's internal audit, compliance and legal personnel.

The Compensation and Human Resources Committee consists of Messrs. Spears (Chairman) and Kean and Ms. Munding, each of whom is a non-employee director and independent of Company management. The Compensation and Human Resources Committee held four regular meetings and one special meeting during 2000 and passed several resolutions by written consent. The Compensation and Human Resources Committee is responsible for overseeing UnitedHealth Group's compensation, employee benefit and stock-based programs. The Committee also negotiates and administers UnitedHealth Group's employment arrangements with its Chief Executive Officer and President, supervises incentive compensation programs for UnitedHealth Group's employees and reviews and monitors director compensation programs.

The Compliance and Government Affairs Committee consists of Messrs. Mondale (Chairman) and Burke and Ms. Wilensky. The Compliance and Government Affairs Committee held three meetings during 2000. The Compliance and Government Affairs Committee is responsible for the development of guidelines and procedures for ethical and legal compliance; ensuring adequate guidance, reporting and investigation processes; monitoring compliance with compliance guidelines and ethics policies; and monitoring and evaluating corporate governance.

The Executive Committee consists of Dr. McGuire (Chairman) and Messrs. Spears, Ballard and Leatherdale. The Executive Committee held no meetings during 2000 and passed several resolutions by written consent. The Executive Committee is authorized to exercise all of the powers of the Board when the Board is not in session.

The Nominating Committee consists of Messrs. Ballard (Chairman), Kean, Leatherdale and Spears and Dr. McGuire. The Nominating Committee held one meeting in 2000. The Nominating Committee's duties include identifying and nominating individuals to be proposed for election as directors at the annual meeting of shareholders, filling board vacancies and overseeing the director evaluation process. The Nominating Committee will consider candidates proposed by shareholders upon timely written notice to UnitedHealth Group's Secretary. To be timely for the next Annual Meeting, notice must be received at UnitedHealth Group's principal executive offices on or before December 7, 2001. A shareholder must include in such notice the information specified in the Company's Bylaws that will enable the Nominating Committee to evaluate the qualifications of the recommended nominee.

AMENDMENT TO THE SECOND RESTATED ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

The Board of Directors proposes that the Company's Second Restated Articles of Incorporation be amended to increase the number of authorized shares of Common Stock of the Company from 500,000,000 to 1,500,000,000.

General

UnitedHealth Group's Second Restated Articles of Incorporation currently authorize the issuance of 500,000,000 shares of Common Stock, par value $.01 per share. The Board of Directors recommends that the Second Restated Articles of Incorporation be amended to increase the authorized number of shares of Common Stock from 500,000,000 to 1,500,000,000. Such increase, if approved, will be effected by amending Article 3(a) of the Company's Second Restated Articles of Incorporation to increase to 1,500,000,000 the number of authorized shares of Common Stock of the Company. The full text of the proposed amended Article 3(a) is set forth in Appendix A hereto.

As of March 12, 2001, the Company had 322,060,002 shares of Common Stock outstanding, approximately 46,000,000 shares reserved for issuance pursuant to the Company's employee stock purchase plan and options outstanding under the Company's stock option plans and 110,000,000 shares reserved in connection with the Company's stock repurchase program. As a component of the Company's share repurchase activities, the Company has entered into agreements to purchase shares of its Common Stock where the number of shares that may be repurchased is dependent upon market conditions and other contractual terms. In order to comply with certain accounting requirements, the Company reserves shares of its Common Stock for issuance pursuant to these contracts to enable settlement of the resulting transactions in shares of Common Stock. Based upon the foregoing number of outstanding and reserved shares of Common Stock, the Company currently has approximately 22,000,000 shares remaining available for other purposes.

The Board of Directors believes that the availability of additional authorized but unissued shares will provide the Company with the flexibility to issue Common Stock for a variety of corporate purposes, such as to effect future stock splits in the form of stock dividends, to raise equity capital, to adopt additional employee benefit plans or to reserve additional shares for issuance under such plans and under employee benefit plans of acquired companies. Although the Company is not currently contemplating any material acquisitions, the Board of Directors believes the continued growth of the Company will necessitate additional authorized shares of Common Stock for use in acquisitions, equity capital raising activities and stock splits. Since 1992, UnitedHealth Group has effected three stock splits and acquired numerous companies using UnitedHealth Group Common Stock as consideration. Absent additional authorized shares, the Company will not have the flexibility to declare a stock split or use its stock in acquiring companies without receiving prior shareholder approval. Having to obtain future shareholder approval would hinder the Board of Directors' ability to declare a stock split at the most advantageous time for shareholders, and could prevent the Company from making certain strategic acquisitions.

Shareholders of the Company have no preemptive rights with respect to Common Stock. Thus, should the Board of Directors elect to issue additional shares with respect to Common Stock, existing shareholders would not have any preferential rights to purchase such shares. If the Board of Directors elects to issue additional shares of Common Stock, such issuance could have a dilutive effect on the earnings per share, book value per share, voting power and shareholdings of current shareholders.

Although an increase in the number of authorized shares of Common Stock could, under certain circumstances, be construed as having an anti-takeover effect (for example, by diluting the stock ownership of a person seeking to effect a change in the composition of the Board of Directors or contemplating a tender offer or other transaction for the combination of the Company with another company), the Company is not proposing this amendment to the

Second Restated Articles of Incorporation in response to any effort to accumulate the Company's stock or to obtain control of the Company by means of a merger, tender offer, or solicitation in opposition to management.

The Board of Directors recommends a vote FOR this proposal. Management will vote proxies in favor of this proposal unless otherwise specified.

SHAREHOLDER PROPOSAL CONCERNING CONFIDENTIAL VOTING

UnitedHealth Group has been informed that the Trust For The International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers' Pension Benefit Fund, 1125 Fifteenth St. N.W., Washington, D.C. 20005, a beneficial holder of 12,796 shares of Common Stock, intends to introduce at the Annual Meeting the following resolution:

"BE IT RESOLVED: That the stockholders of UnitedHealthcare ("Company"), recommend that our Board of Directors take the steps necessary to adopt and implement a policy of Confidential Voting at all meetings of its stockholders, which includes the following provisions:

That the voting of all proxies, consents and authorizations be secret, and that no such document shall be available for examination nor shall the vote or identity of any shareholder be disclosed except to the extent necessary to meet the legal requirements, if any, of the Corporation's state of incorporation; and 2.
That the receipt, certification, and tabulation of such votes shall be performed by independent election inspectors."

The proponent has furnished the following statement:

It is the proponents' belief that it is vitally important that a system of Confidential Proxy Voting be established at UnitedHealthcare. Confidential balloting is a basic tenet of our political electoral process ensuring its integrity. The integrity of corporate board elections should also be protected against potential abuses given the importance of corporate policies and practices to corporate owners (stockholders) and our national economy.

The implementation of a Confidential Voting System would enhance shareholder rights in several ways. First, in protecting the confidentiality of the corporate ballot, shareholders would feel free to oppose management nominees and issue positions. This is especially important for money managers.

A second important benefit of Confidential Voting would be to invigorate the corporate governance process at the Corporation. We believe that shareholders activism would be promoted within the Corporation. It is our belief that shareholders empowered with a free and protected vote would be more active in the proposing of corporate policy resolutions and alternate board candidates.

Finally, it is our belief that the enhancement of the proxy voting process would change the system where too often shareholders vote "with their feet," not with their ballots. This change would help to develop a long-term investment perspective where corporate assets could be deployed, and used in a more effective and efficient manner.

WE URGE YOU TO VOTE FOR THIS PROPOSAL

Statement of the Board of Directors in opposition to the shareholder proposal:

The Company's current proxy voting procedures comply in all respects with the proxy rules of the Securities Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and the Minnesota Business Corporation Act, the law under which the Company is incorporated. The SEC does not require confidential voting and has revised the proxy rules to facilitate the ability of shareholders to communicate among themselves. The Board of Directors believes that the Company's current procedures are in the best interests of its shareholders, and that the voting policy described by the proponent should not be adopted for the following reasons:

UnitedHealth Group already has independent inspectors of election and a policy of confidential voting. The Company has used its transfer agent, Wells Fargo Shareowner Services, to tabulate votes and serve as independent inspectors of election for a number of years. Proxies received for tabulation are kept at the transfer agent. Although the transfer agent forwards the Company any proxy card which has been returned with written comments, the Company does not otherwise request access to individual proxy cards. Further, the Board of Directors' Principles of Governance, which are reviewed annually, set forth the steps the Board of Directors believes the Company should follow in supporting the role of shareholders in corporate governance. One of these steps includes confidential voting on the election of directors and other significant corporate actions.

Shareholders may wish to communicate with management. A confidential voting policy as described by the proponent would also effectively eliminate a convenient, cost-effective method for shareholders to communicate with the Company. Many shareholders use the proxy card to communicate with the Company on various matters of concern to them, such as changes of address, or lost or stolen stock certificates, as well as matters relating to the Company's business. These shareholders intend and expect the Company to be able to identify them from the proxy card. The Company values this opportunity to receive communication from its shareholders.

The Company may wish to communicate with shareholders. The confidential voting policy described by the proponent would hinder the Company's ability to communicate with shareholders. When issues critical to the success of the Company are involved, the Board of Directors needs to be informed of shareholder opinions so that it may fully discuss these issues with particular shareholders. In addition, the Company may need to contact shareholders who have not returned their proxies to assure a quorum, or to contact those whose proxy cards contain errors or deficiencies so that such shareholders may correct their proxies and cast their votes as intended.

The Company values shareholder input. The supporting statement of the proponent asserts that given a policy of confidential voting, "shareholders would feel free to oppose management nominees and issue positions." The Company thoroughly disputes any suggestion by the proponent that the Company discourages shareholder input. The Board of Directors and management of the Company respect the right of each shareholder to vote in accordance with his or her own best judgment free from any form of coercion.

Most shareholders can choose to be anonymous. Under the Company's current proxy procedures, any shareholder who desires confidential voting may achieve this goal by registering his or her shares in the name of a bank, broker or other nominee. In this way, each shareholder may choose whether his or her vote will be disclosed, rather than having this decision made in advance by the adoption of the proposed confidential voting policy.

The Board of Directors therefore recommends a vote AGAINST this proposal. Management will vote proxies against this proposal unless shareholders specify otherwise.

RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

The Board of Directors has appointed Arthur Andersen LLP as independent public accountants for UnitedHealth Group for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2001. The Board has proposed that the shareholders ratify this appointment at the Annual Meeting. Arthur Andersen LLP has audited UnitedHealth Group's financial statements since 1981. Representatives of Arthur Andersen LLP are expected to be present at the Annual Meeting, will have an opportunity to make a statement and will be available to respond to appropriate questions from shareholders. If the shareholders do not ratify the appointment, the Board of Directors is not obligated to appoint other independent public accountants, but will reconsider the appointment.

Audit Fees

Arthur Andersen LLP's fees for the audit of the Company's annual financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2000, and for reviews of the Company's financial statements included in the Company's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q for the 2000 fiscal year were $3,467,000.

Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees

No fees were billed to the Company by Arthur Andersen LLP during the 2000 fiscal year for services related to the design and implementation of financial information systems.

All Other Fees

Edgar Filing: UNITEDHEALTH GROUP INC - Form DEF 14A

UnitedHealth Group incurred fees of $7,120,000 related to all other non-audit services provided by Arthur Andersen LLP during 2000. A substantial amount of these fees relates to services traditionally provided by auditors, such as transaction analysis and due diligence, work related to the filing of registration statements with the SEC, tax services, business risk management consulting and other services.

The Audit Committee has considered whether the provision of non-audit services is compatible with maintaining the independence of Arthur Andersen LLP.

The Board of Directors recommends a vote FOR this proposal. Management will vote proxies in favor of ratifying this appointment unless otherwise specified.

PERFORMANCE GRAPH

The following graph compares the cumulative total return to shareholders with the Standard & Poor's 500 stock index and an index of a group of peer companies selected by UnitedHealth Group for the five-year period ended December 31, 2000. The comparison assumes the investment of $100 on December 31, 1995 in each index and that dividends were reinvested when paid. The companies included in the peer group are Aetna, Inc., First Health Group Corporation, Humana, Inc., Oxford Health Plans, Inc., PacifiCare Health Systems, Inc., Sierra Health Services, Inc., and Wellpoint Health Networks, Inc. UnitedHealth Group is not included in the peer group index. In calculating the cumulative total shareholder return of the peer group index, the shareholder returns of the peer group companies are weighted according to the stock market capitalizations of the companies.

The Audit Committee's responsibility is to monitor and oversee these processes.

In this context, the Audit Committee has met and held discussions with management and the independent accountants. Management represented to the Audit Committee that the Company's consolidated financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and the Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the consolidated financial statements with management and the independent accountants. The Audit Committee discussed with the independent accountants matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communications with Audit Committees). The Company's independent accountants also provided to the Audit Committee the written disclosures and the letter required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), and the Audit Committee discussed with the independent accountants the accounting firm's independence.

Based upon the Audit Committee's discussion with management and the independent accountants and the Audit Committee's review of the representation of management and the report of the independent accountants to the Audit Committee, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited consolidated financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2000 filed with the SEC.

COMPENSATION AND HUMAN RESOURCES COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Board of Directors has delegated to the Compensation and Human Resources Committee (the "Committee") the authority to make certain decisions with respect to the compensation of UnitedHealth Group's Chief Executive Officer, as well as various aspects of other compensation and fringe benefit matters affecting all of UnitedHealth Group's employees, including executive officers. In addition, the Committee administers UnitedHealth Group's stock option and stock based incentive plans.

Compensation Policies for Executive Officers. UnitedHealth Group seeks to attract, retain and motivate highly qualified executives who will contribute to UnitedHealth Group's continued success. To achieve these goals, UnitedHealth Group emphasizes cash compensation and stock programs that are tied to Company performance. Specifically, UnitedHealth Group's stock programs give key employees the opportunity to acquire a significant ownership interest in UnitedHealth Group through various stock option and stock purchase plans. UnitedHealth Group also makes available to its executive officers a broad range of benefit programs, which also are available to employees generally, including life and disability insurance, a 401(k) savings plan, an employee stock ownership plan and other benefit programs.

Along with other highly compensated employees of UnitedHealth Group, executive officers also are eligible to participate in UnitedHealth Group's non-qualified compensation deferral plans. These deferral plans include a component under which UnitedHealth Group matches a portion of the amount of compensation deferred by the employee, up to a certain percentage. The employee also may defer compensation without a Company match. Part of the compensation paid to UnitedHealth Group's executive officers is determined by employment agreements between UnitedHealth Group and certain officers. The employment agreements with the named executive officers are described elsewhere in this Proxy Statement.

In addition, certain of UnitedHealth Group's executive officers are eligible to participate in the Company's Supplemental Long Term Executive Compensation Plan. This plan is intended to incent the Company's most senior executives to achieve superior and sustaining levels of overall performance. The plan has a two-year start up cycle with three-year cycles thereafter. Funding is considered at the end of each cycle based on the achievement of goals established for such cycle. Performance targets must be achieved before any payments are made under the plan.

The Committee recognizes that the industry in which UnitedHealth Group operates is highly competitive. The industry is continually undergoing significant changes resulting in a substantial demand for qualified, experienced executive personnel. In addition, significant opportunities exist for the Company's executives in other industries. In the Committee's opinion, compensation levels at companies of comparable size and complexity across all industries are a competitive factor that need to be considered in determining executive compensation. One aim of UnitedHealth Group's executive compensation policies is to make it possible for executives to earn cash compensation equaling or exceeding the amount the executive would earn in a comparable position in any industry. The Committee believes, however, that the higher level of compensation should be paid only when performance warrants. For these reasons, UnitedHealth Group's executive cash compensation consists of fixed base salary and incentive compensation. The Committee reviews the base salary ranges for the executive officers periodically. The Committee may increase (or decrease) these ranges to reflect changes in the responsibilities of a particular position, changes in the base salaries paid to executives at other companies of similar size and operating complexity, changes in the size and scope of UnitedHealth Group's operations, or the effect of inflation. Increases to an executive's base salary are based upon the executive's personal contribution to corporate performance, increases in his or her responsibilities, and salaries paid to executives at other companies of similar size and operating complexity.

The other, and potentially more significant, part of executive cash compensation is incentive payments under UnitedHealth Group's 2000 Leadership Incentive Program. Under the 2000 Leadership Incentive Program, an executive's annual incentive compensation payment generally depends on three performance factors: (i) the overall performance of UnitedHealth Group; (ii) the overall performance of the business segment or corporate division in which the executive serves; and (iii) the executive's individual performance. With UnitedHealth Group's realignment of resources and activities to more directly support the operations of its businesses, the 2000 Leadership Incentive Program tailors the performance factors to match those of the business segment or corporate division in which the particular executive serves. The Committee establishes performance objectives for UnitedHealth Group, and management sets the objectives for each business segment or corporate division based on UnitedHealth Group's operating budget and targets for the upcoming year, along with projections for growth and strategic objectives. The Committee takes into account UnitedHealth Group's goal to remain a growing, highly respected leader in the health and well-being market. The performance objectives consist of financial goals, including earnings per share and operating income, and non-financial goals, including quality, compliance, corporate integrity and service initiatives. Individual executive performance is measured against an annual incentive target, which represents a percentage of base salary the executive can earn as bonus compensation if performance warrants. The incentive target is set at a higher percentage for more senior officers. As a result, the more senior executive officers have a higher percentage of their potential total compensation subject to UnitedHealth Group's results and to their individual performance.

The Committee concluded that UnitedHealth Group performed very well in 2000. Among other milestones reached by UnitedHealth Group in 2000, the Company achieved record revenues of $21.1 billion, record operating earnings of $1.2 billion, record net earnings applicable to common shareholders of $705 million, record cash flows of more than $1.5 billion generated from operating activities and a return on shareholders' equity of 19.0%, up from 14.1% in 1999. Recognition of this performance was reflected in an increase in the Company's stock price of approximately 130% compared to a decline of approximately 9% in the Standard and Poor's 500 stock index. The Committee recognized that UnitedHealth Group, as a consolidated entity, and most of the Company's business segments and functional units, met or exceeded goals established for them. In light of these factors, the Committee adopted management's recommendations for 2000 and paid approximately $65 million in cash incentive compensation. Payments favored the business segments and functional units that achieved the highest performance relative to established goals, while units with lesser results received reduced payments. The Committee further concluded that the strong performance UnitedHealth Group achieved resulted in significant part from the leadership efforts of the Company's Chief Executive Officer and President, and, in the Committee's opinion, these efforts justified an award under UnitedHealth Group's incentive program for these officers.

The Committee believes that it is important to provide executive officers with a longer-term interest in UnitedHealth Group's performance through various stock ownership programs, which, in the Committee's opinion, have contributed to employee productivity and loyalty. UnitedHealth Group has traditionally encouraged the alignment of employee and shareholder interests through these programs, and has tried to have at least 10% of its fully diluted shares outstanding held by employees and directors in the form of unexercised stock options, stock grants or owned shares. In light of the Company's on-going and significant share repurchase program, this percentage could be higher. The Company's primary stock ownership programs include an employee stock purchase plan, an employee stock ownership plan and stock option plans. The employee stock purchase plan is a tax qualified plan that enables eligible employees to set aside from 1% to 10% of their salary to purchase shares of Common Stock at a discounted price. The employee stock ownership plan gives all eligible employees a personal stake in the Company's performance by providing them an opportunity to own Common Stock. Participation in this plan is automatic beginning on the first day of the month following an employee's one-year service anniversary.

The Committee continues to place emphasis on stock option programs as a means of incenting employees on a long-term basis. Options granted to executives generally vest over a two to four year period, subject to certain conditions. In determining the number of stock options to grant to executive officers, the Committee considers various factors, including: (i) the executive's responsibilities and potential for directly contributing to UnitedHealth Group's performance; (ii) base salary amount; and (iii) the total number of options previously granted to the executive.

Chief Executive Officer's 2000 Compensation. The Committee determines Dr. McGuire's compensation consistent with the principles noted above and by the terms of his employment agreement with UnitedHealth Group. As UnitedHealth Group's Chief Executive Officer, a significant amount of Dr. McGuire's cash compensation varies with overall Company performance.

Dr. McGuire's 2000 base salary of $1,700,000 was established based on the Committee's review of his performance on behalf of UnitedHealth Group and according to his employment agreement. The Committee determines any increases in Dr. McGuire's annual base salary from year to year, in addition to any increases required by his employment agreement, to be competitive with compensation paid similarly situated chief executives in the health care industry, as well as other companies of comparable size and operating complexity. Based on the periodic advice it has received from an independent compensation consulting firm to help develop Dr. McGuire's compensation package, the Committee believes

Dr. McGuire's base salary is appropriate in relation to compensation for chief executive officers of other companies of comparable size, complexity and overall condition.

In addition, Dr. McGuire received a payment under the Company's 2000 Leadership Incentive Program of $3,053,077. In determining the amount of this payment, the Committee considered the Company's performance in 2000 in relation to the goals established and compared that performance to prior years' results. In that regard, the Committee identified a number of significant operational achievements, including record revenues and earnings and an increase in the Company's stock price of approximately 130%. The Committee also considered the continuing evolution of the Company's realignment into five strategically linked businesses. Finally, the Committee considered the marketplace generally and established incentive compensation levels for corporate executive positions. On the basis of these and other factors, it was the Committee's conclusion that the $3,053,077 award was an appropriate incentive amount.

The Committee believes it is important to link a significant portion of Dr. McGuire's potential compensation to future Company performance. As part of his overall compensation package, Dr. McGuire receives grants of stock options and restricted stock awards from time to time. Pursuant to the terms of his employment agreement, the Company granted to Dr. McGuire in 2000 an option to purchase 650,000 shares at an exercise price of $23.8125 per share, which was the fair market value of the stock on the grant date. This option may be exercised at the rate of 25% per year over a period of four years on the first day of each year, beginning on January 1, 2001.

Compliance with Internal Revenue Code Section 162(m). Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, enacted in 1993, generally disallows a tax deduction to publicly held companies for compensation exceeding $1 million paid to each of the corporation's chief executive officer and four other most highly compensated executive officers. Qualifying performance-based compensation will not be subject to the deduction limit if certain requirements are met. UnitedHealth Group's 1991 Stock and Incentive Plan has been structured in a manner that appears to comply with the statute's requirements. As a result, UnitedHealth Group generally does not expect compensation associated with stock options issued pursuant to the 1991 Stock and Incentive Plan to be subject to the deduction limit. Because the majority of UnitedHealth Group's executive officers' compensation that could exceed the $1 million limitation is associated with such stock options, UnitedHealth Group does not expect this deduction limitation to have a material effect on its operations or financial condition. UnitedHealth Group does not expect to take any further action with respect to its compensation programs to avoid paying compensation that exceeds the $1 million limitation and for which UnitedHealth Group would lose the corresponding tax deduction.

Executive Employment Agreements

UnitedHealth Group has entered into an employment agreement with each of the executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table.

William W. McGuire, M.D. Dr. McGuire entered into a revised employment agreement, effective October 13, 1999, to serve as Chief Executive Officer. The initial term of this agreement is five years ending on October 13, 2004 and is automatically extended for additional one-year periods on each anniversary of the effective date unless either party delivers prior notice of intent not to renew.

Pursuant to the agreement, Dr. McGuire currently receives a base annual salary of $1,700,000 which is subject to a minimum increase of $100,000 each year. During each calendar year of the initial five-year term of the agreement, Dr. McGuire receives a nonqualified stock option to purchase a minimum of 650,000 shares of UnitedHealth Group Common Stock. This stock option vests over a period of four years at the rate of 25% per year, subject to additional vesting provisions if specified future events occur. Dr. McGuire is eligible to participate in UnitedHealth Group's incentive bonus plan at prescribed levels and in its other employee benefit programs. In addition, UnitedHealth Group provides and pays for life and disability policies on Dr. McGuire that he owns. The agreement provides Dr. McGuire with a supplemental retirement benefit equal to a percentage of his cash compensation during the three calendar years preceding his retirement.

The employment agreement provides severance benefits if Dr. McGuire's employment by UnitedHealth Group ends under certain circumstances. If his employment is terminated by UnitedHealth Group without cause or by Dr. McGuire for good reason as those terms are defined in the agreement, UnitedHealth Group will pay Dr. McGuire his salary and bonus for the 36 months following the termination of his employment. In addition, Dr. McGuire will continue to receive credited service under his supplemental retirement benefit for the 36-month period. Certain stock options and restricted stock awards granted to Dr. McGuire will also vest and all of his options will remain exercisable for a period of up to 72 months but not beyond the expiration date of the respective option.

If Dr. McGuire's employment is terminated because of his death or permanent disability, UnitedHealth Group will pay his beneficiaries or him his salary and bonus for a period of 24 months. In addition, he or his beneficiaries will receive the proceeds from his disability or life insurance policies, and certain of his stock options will vest immediately and all of his options will remain exercisable for up to 36 months following his death or permanent disability but not beyond the expiration date of the respective option.

If Dr. McGuire voluntarily terminates his employment without good reason, UnitedHealth Group will pay his beneficiaries or him his salary and bonus for a period of 24 months. Any vested stock options at the time of the termination of his employment will remain exercisable for up to 36 months following termination of his employment but not beyond the expiration date of the respective option. In addition, in the event of any termination of Dr. McGuire's employment other than a termination for cause, UnitedHealth Group will continue to provide health coverage for Dr. McGuire and his spouse for the remainder of their lives and his children until age 25.

Pursuant to the employment agreement, Dr. McGuire is subject to provisions prohibiting his solicitation of UnitedHealth Group employees and competition with UnitedHealth Group during the term of the agreement, for the period of the severance payments and one-year thereafter. In addition, he is prohibited at all times from disclosing confidential information related to UnitedHealth Group.

Stephen J. Hemsley. Mr. Hemsley entered into an employment agreement, effective October 13, 1999, to serve as President of UnitedHealth Group. The term of this agreement continues until it is terminated in accordance with its terms as discussed below.

During each calendar year of the agreement, Mr. Hemsley receives a nonqualified stock option to purchase a minimum of 300,000 shares of UnitedHealth Group Common Stock. This stock option vests over a period of four years at the rate of 25% per year (or such greater rate as the Committee may establish) based on the achievement of performance goals established at the time of grant or upon the ninth anniversary of the date of grant, subject to additional vesting provisions if specified future events occur. Mr. Hemsley is eligible to participate in UnitedHealth Group's incentive bonus plan at prescribed levels and in its other employee benefit programs. In addition, UnitedHealth Group provides and pays for life and disability policies on Mr. Hemsley that he owns. Pursuant to the terms of the agreement, UnitedHealth Group is in the process of establishing a supplemental retirement benefit plan for Mr. Hemsley that will be reasonable and customary for executives of a similar position in comparably sized companies.

The employment agreement provides severance benefits if Mr. Hemsley's employment by UnitedHealth Group ends under certain circumstances. If his employment is terminated by UnitedHealth Group without cause or by Mr. Hemsley for good reason other than in connection with a change of control as those terms are defined in the agreement, UnitedHealth Group will pay Mr. Hemsley two times his annual salary and bonus over the 12 months following the termination of his employment. If such termination is in connection with a change of control, Mr. Hemsley will receive three times his annual salary and bonus over the 12 months following the termination of his employment. If the termination is in connection with a change of control, any stock options or restricted stock awards granted to Mr. Hemsley will also vest and the stock options will remain exercisable for a period of 36 months but not longer than the expiration date under the respective option. If the termination is not in connection with a change of control, the Compensation and Human Resources Committee will give consideration to the vesting of any unvested options and the period that the vested options remain exercisable after termination of Mr. Hemsley's employment.

If Mr. Hemsley's employment is terminated because of his death or permanent disability, UnitedHealth Group will pay his beneficiaries or him his salary and bonus for a period of 12 months. In addition, he or his beneficiaries will receive the proceeds from his disability or life insurance policies, and certain of his stock options will vest immediately and all of his stock options will remain exercisable for up to 36 months following his death or permanent disability but not beyond the expiration date of the respective option. In addition, in the event of any termination of Mr. Hemsley's employment, other than a termination for cause, UnitedHealth Group will continue to provide health coverage for Mr. Hemsley and his spouse until age 65 and his children until age 25.

Pursuant to the employment agreement, Mr. Hemsley is subject to provisions prohibiting his solicitation of UnitedHealth Group employees during the term of the agreement, for the period of the severance payments and for one year thereafter. Mr. Hemsley is also prevented from competing with UnitedHealth Group during the term of his employment and the period that severance payments are made to him under the employment agreement. In addition, he is prohibited at all times from disclosing confidential information related to UnitedHealth Group.

Edgar Filing: UNITEDHEALTH GROUP INC - Form DEF 14A

David J. Lubben. Mr. Lubben entered into an employment agreement, effective October 16, 1998, to serve as General Counsel of UnitedHealth Group. This agreement remains in effect until it is terminated by either party under certain circumstances. Under this agreement, Mr. Lubben is eligible to participate in UnitedHealth Group's incentive bonus and stock plans and its other employee benefit plans.

Jeannine M. Rivet. Ms. Rivet entered into an employment agreement, effective October 16, 1998, to serve as an executive officer of UnitedHealth Group. This agreement remains in effect until it is terminated by either party under certain circumstances. Under this agreement, Ms. Rivet is eligible to participate in UnitedHealth Group's incentive bonus and stock plans and its other employee benefit plans.

R. Channing Wheeler. Mr. Wheeler entered into an employment agreement, effective June 9, 1998, to serve as Chief Executive Officer of Uniprise. The initial term of this agreement is three years; after the initial term, this agreement automatically renews for additional one year terms unless either party provides prior notice of intent not to renew. Under this agreement, Mr. Wheeler is eligible to participate in UnitedHealth Group's incentive bonus and stock plans and its other employee benefit plans.

Pursuant to their agreements, each of Ms. Rivet and Messrs. Wheeler and Lubben are entitled to receive severance compensation for a 12-month period equal to the executive's base salary and bonus (as determined by his or her agreement) if the executive's employment is terminated by UnitedHealth Group without cause or if a change in employment occurs (each as defined in his or her agreement). This severance compensation is greater if these events occur within two years following a change in control (as defined in his or her agreement). During the term of these agreements and during certain periods of time following termination of these agreements, each executive is subject to a non-solicitation provision and each of Ms. Rivet and Mr. Wheeler is subject to a non-competition provision.

Severance Arrangements and Change-in-Control Provisions

According to UnitedHealth Group's Severance Pay Plan, which applies to all regular Company employees, certain of the executive officers may be eligible to receive severance pay following their termination in certain events. However, any payments an executive officer receives in connection with a change in control (as defined in and pursuant to an employment agreement with UnitedHealth Group) will replace and be in lieu of payment and/or benefits under any Company severance program, including UnitedHealth Group's Severance Pay Plan. Under UnitedHealth Group's Severance Pay Plan, the amount of severance pay following termination depends upon the executive officer's length of service, grade level within UnitedHealth Group, and the execution of a Company-approved release.

In the case of a change in control of UnitedHealth Group, certain of the outstanding stock options granted under UnitedHealth Group's Amended and Restated 1991 Stock and Incentive Plan and 1998 Board-Based Stock Incentive Plan will become exercisable in full. Change in control is defined for this purpose as the sale of all or substantially all of UnitedHealth Group's assets, or any merger, reorganization or exchange or tender offer that will result in a change in the power to elect 50% or more of the members of UnitedHealth Group's Board of Directors.

SECTION 16(A) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires executive officers and directors, and persons who beneficially own more than 10% of UnitedHealth Group Common Stock, to file initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership with the SEC and the New York Stock Exchange. Executive officers, directors and greater than 10% beneficial owners are required by SEC regulations to furnish UnitedHealth Group with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

Based solely on UnitedHealth Group's review of copies of such reports and written representations from UnitedHealth Group's executive officers and directors, UnitedHealth Group believes that its executive officers and directors complied with all Section 16(a) filing requirements during 2000, except for the following filings. On May 12, 2000, Ms. Wilensky sold 17,500 shares of Common Stock that she acquired pursuant to an exercise of options.

Although the acquisition of such shares was timely reported, the sale was reported on an amended Form 4, which was filed in July 2000. On May 12, 2000, David J. Lubben sold 16,667 shares of Common Stock that he acquired pursuant to an exercise of options. Although the acquisition of such shares was timely reported, the sale was reported on an amended Form 4, which was filed in July 2000. On May 17, 2000, Mr. Wheeler sold 29,313 shares of Common Stock that he acquired pursuant to an exercise of options. Although the acquisition of 18,063 of these shares was timely reported, the acquisition of the remaining 11,250 shares was reported on an amended Form 4, which was filed in June 2000, and the sale was reported on an amended Form 4, which was filed in July 2000.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND TRANSACTIONS

Dorsey & Whitney LLP is UnitedHealth Group's corporate legal counsel. Mr. Mondale is a partner of Dorsey & Whitney LLP.

OTHER MATTERS

In accordance with the requirements of advance notice described in the Company's Bylaws, no other proposals of shareholders will be presented at the Annual Meeting. The Board of Directors of UnitedHealth Group knows of no other matters that may come before the Annual Meeting. However, if any matters calling for a vote of the shareholders, other than those referred to in this Proxy Statement, should properly come before the meeting, the persons named in the enclosed proxy will vote such proxy according to their individual judgment.

SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS FOR THE NEXT ANNUAL MEETING

In order to be eligible for inclusion in the Company's next Proxy Statement or consideration at the Company's next Annual Meeting, shareholder proposals must be in writing and must be delivered to UnitedHealth Group's principal executive offices at UnitedHealth Group Center, 9900 Bren Road East, Minnetonka, Minnesota 55343, to the attention of the Company's Secretary, not later than December 7, 2001. Shareholder proposals must be in the form provided in the Company's Bylaws.

If the Company does not receive timely notice, shareholder proposals will be excluded from inclusion in the Proxy Statement and from consideration at the meeting. This advance notice requirement supersedes the statutory notice period in Rule 14a-4(c)(1) of the federal proxy rules regarding the discretionary proxy voting authority of the Board of Directors in connection with such shareholder business.

UNITEDHEALTH GROUP
BOARD OF DIRECTORS
AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER

INTRODUCTION AND PURPOSE

UnitedHealth Group Incorporated (the "Company") is a publicly-held company and operates in a complex, dynamic, highly competitive, and regulated environment. In order to assure the kind of informed decision making beneficial to the Company, much of the Board's oversight occurs through the standing committees of the Board, such as the Audit Committee. The primary function of the Audit Committee is to assist the Board of Directors in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities by reviewing (a) the Company's financial reporting and public disclosure activities, (b) the Company's system of internal controls regarding finance, accounting and integrity that management and the Board have established, (c) the Company's auditing, accounting, and financial reporting processes generally, and (d) management's identification and control of key business and financial risks. The Audit Committee's primary duties and responsibilities are to:

Serve as an independent and objective party to monitor the Company's financial reporting process and internal control system;

Review and appraise the audit efforts of the Company's independent outside auditor and its Business Risk Management Group, including such group's oversight of the Company's outsourced internal audit function;

Provide an open avenue of communication among the independent outside auditor, financial and senior management, the Business Risk Management Group, the outsourced internal audit function, and the Board of Directors.

The Audit Committee's job is one of oversight. The Company's management is responsible for preparing the Company's financial statements and the independent outside auditor is responsible for auditing those financial statements. The Audit Committee recognizes that financial management (including the outsourced internal auditing function), as well as the independent outside auditor, have more time, knowledge and detailed information on the Company than do Audit Committee members. Consequently, in carrying out its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee is not providing any expert or special assurance as to the Company's financial statements or any professional certification as to the independent outside auditor's work.

COMPOSITION

The Audit Committee shall be comprised of three or more directors as determined by the Board, each of whom shall be independent directors, and free from any relationship that, in the opinion of the Board, would interfere with the exercise of his or her independent judgment as a member of the Committee. In particular, no member of the Audit Committee:

Shall have been employed by the Company or any of its affiliates for any of the past five years;

Shall receive compensation from the Company or any of its affiliates other than compensation for Board service or benefits under a tax-qualified retirement plan;

Shall be a member of the immediate family of an individual who is, or has been in any of the past five years, employed by the Company or any of its affiliates as an executive officer;

Shall be a partner in, or a controlling shareholder or executive officer of, any business or professional services organization to which the Company made, or from which the Company received, payments that are or have been significant to the Company or the business or professional services organization in any of the past five years;

Shall have had a direct business relationship with the Company under which the Company made, or from which the Company received, payments that are or have been significant to the Company or the member in any of the past five years;

Shall be employed as an executive of another company for which any of the Company's executives serves on that other company's compensation committee.

All members of the Committee shall be, either at the time of appointment or within a reasonable time after appointment, "financially literate," that is, at a minimum, have the ability to read and understand fundamental financial statements, including the Company's balance sheet, income statement, and cash flow statement. In addition, at least one member of the Committee shall have accounting or related financial management expertise. Committee members may enhance their familiarity with finance and accounting by participating in educational programs conducted by the Company or an outside consultant.

The members of the Committee shall be elected by the Board at the annual organizational meeting of the Board and shall serve until their successors shall be duly elected and qualified. Unless a Chair is elected by the full Board, the members of the Committee may designate a Chair by majority vote of the full Committee membership.

MEETINGS

The Committee shall meet at least five times annually, or more frequently as circumstances dictate. One of those meetings shall take place in March and focus on review and approval of annual audited consolidated financial statements and related information prior to filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission. To the extent practicable, each of the Committee members shall attend each of the regularly scheduled meetings in person. As part of its job to foster open communication, time should be set aside at each meeting for the Committee to meet with management and the independent outside auditor in separate sessions to discuss any matters that the Committee or each of these groups believe should be discussed privately. The Committee may ask members of management or others to attend the meetings and provide pertinent information, as necessary.

A majority of the Committee members currently holding office constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business. The Committee shall take action by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Committee members present at a duly held meeting.

RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

The Audit Committee shall be subject to the following principles and shall undertake the following responsibilities and duties.

Documents/Reports Review

On an annual basis, the Committee shall receive from the selected independent outside auditor a written statement delineating all significant relationships (and related fees) the Company's independent outside auditor has with the Company. The Committee is responsible for actively engaging in a dialogue with the independent outside auditor with respect to any disclosed relationship or services that may impact the objectivity and independence of the independent outside auditor and for recommending that the Board of Directors take appropriate action in response to the report to satisfy itself of the independent outside auditor's independence.

Review the performance of the Company's independent outside auditor and approve any proposed discharge of the Company's independent outside auditor when circumstances warrant.

Review the prior year's audit fee and the current year's fee estimate.

Periodically consult with the Company's independent outside auditor, outside of the presence of management, about the auditor's judgments about the quality, and not just the acceptability, of the Company's accounting principles as applied to its financial reporting, and the Company's internal controls and the fullness and accuracy of the Company's financial statements.

Financial Reporting Processes

In consultation with the Company's independent outside auditor, Business Risk Management Group and its outsourced internal auditors, review the integrity of the Company's financial reporting processes, both internal and external.

Consider the independent outside auditor's judgments about the quality and appropriateness of the Company's accounting principles as applied in its financial reporting.

Consider and approve, if appropriate, major changes to the Company's auditing and accounting principles and practices or major adjustments to the Company's accounting entries, as suggested by the Company's independent outside auditor, management, or the outsourced internal auditors.

Process Analysis and Review

Establish regular and separate systems of reporting to the Audit Committee by each of management and the independent outside auditor regarding any significant judgments made in management's preparation of the financial statements and the view of each as to appropriateness of such judgments.

Review and discuss the scope of the annual audit plans for both the outsourced internal auditor and the independent outside auditor.

Following completion of the annual audit, review separately with each of management and the independent outside auditor, any significant difficulties encountered during the course of the audit, including any restrictions on the scope of work or access to required information.

Review any significant disagreement among management and the independent outside auditor in connection with the preparation of the financial statements.

Other Activities

Evaluate off-balance sheet risks the Company may have and management's controls with respect to such risks.

Consider and review with the Company's Business Risk Management Group the outsourced internal audit budget and staffing, including activities, organizational structure, auditor qualifications, and quality assurance reviews.

Review and concur in the appointment, replacement, reassignment, or dismissal of the Company's outsourced internal audit vendor(s).

Ensure that management has the proper review system in place to ensure that the Company's financial statements, reports, and other financial information disseminated to governmental organizations and the public satisfy legal requirements.

Inquire of management, the Business Risk Management Group, and the Company's independent outside auditor about significant business/financial risks or exposures and assess the steps management has taken to minimize such risk to the Company.

Review reports from management on significant fraud losses or defalcations ascertaining whether loss resulted due to circumvention of existing controls or lack thereof. In addition, the Committee should review losses in any amount which, in the opinion of management or the auditors, are indicative of serious control problems or which involve senior officers of the Company.

B-5

Report Committee actions to the Board of Directors with such recommendations as the Committee may deem appropriate.

The Audit Committee shall have the power to conduct or authorize investigations into any matters within the Committee's scope of responsibilities. The Committee shall be empowered to retain independent counsel, accountants, or others to assist it in the conduct of any investigation.

The Audit Committee will perform such other functions as assigned by law, the Company's charter or Bylaws, or the Board of Directors.

The Audit Committee, in conjunction with the Company's Compliance and Government Affairs Committee, as appropriate, shall:
