Item 2. Acquisition Or Disposition Of Assets

On April 30, 2001, Coherent, Inc. (Coherent, we or our) completed the sale of the assets of the Coherent Medical segment (CMG) to ESC Medical Systems, Ltd. (ESC) for consideration preliminarily valued at $236.0 million, consisting of cash of $100.0 million, notes receivable of $12.9 million and 5,432,099 shares of ESC common stock. The final consideration will be based on the amount of the net assets as of the date of sale and the completion of the valuation of the ESC common stock. The agreement provides for an adjustment to the notes received if the actual net assets sold are more or less than a predetermined amount. In addition, the agreement provides a future earnout payment of up to $25.0 million based on the future sales of certain medical laser and light-based products. We expect to record a resulting after-tax gain of approximately $60.0 to $80.0 million in the third quarter of fiscal 2001. The gain is subject to adjustment based on the actual assets sold to ESC, actual transaction expenses incurred and completion of the valuation of the ESC common stock received.

ESC is a publicly traded company with its common shares listed on the Nasdaq National Market under the symbol "ESCM". ESCM's common stock closed at $26.94 per share on April 27, 2001.

COHERENT, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(Dollars in thousands)

- (1) Represents estimated net cash proceeds from the disposition of CMG, calculated as follows:

Cash purchase price	$100,000
Less: estimated related cash expenses	(10,032)

Net cash proceeds	$ 89,968
	=====

- (2) Represents adjustments to remove the net current and non-current assets of discontinued operations as of March 31, 2001 and the reclassification of cash of $1,696 not sold to ESC, which is included in net current assets of discontinued operations.
- (3) Represents the estimated provision for income taxes of $44,781 on the preliminary estimated pre-tax gain of $113,715 as of March 31, 2001 resulting from the CMG sale to ESC. Such provision consists of (i) a current income tax liability of $25,917 and utilization of $18,864 of deferred income tax assets included as a component of net current assets of discontinued operations as of March 31, 2001.
- (4) Represents the preliminary estimated value of 5,432,099 shares of ESC common stock and $12,900 note receivable as follows:

Shares of ESC common stock	$124,390
Note receivable	11,610

	$136,000
	=====

Edgar Filing: COHERENT INC - Form 8-K

The value of the ESC common stock is subject to adjustment for the completion of the valuation of the stock. The amount of the note receivable is subject to adjustment if the actual net assets sold as of April 30, 2001 are more or less than a predetermined amount.

- (5) Amount represents the difference between the consideration received (cash, ESC common stock and note receivable) and the net assets of discontinued operations as of March 31, 2001 (excluding cash and deferred income tax assets). This amount differs from the estimated gain on disposition as of March 31, 2001 of $68,935 by (i) the amount of estimated cash expenses of $10,032, (ii) $12,576 of stock compensation expense relating to acceleration of vesting of stock options of certain employees of CMG and (iii) the estimated provision for income taxes of $44,781 on the preliminary estimated pre-tax gain of $113,715. The determination of such gain based on account balances as of March 31, 2001 is preliminary as it is (i) subject to finalization of post-closing purchase price adjustment provisions of the asset purchase agreement, (ii) is subject to finalization of estimated related expenses incurred in connection with the CMG Sale as discussed in (1) above, and (iii) is subject to finalization of the valuation of the ESC stock received, and as such, the gain is not necessarily indicative of the gain that will actually be recognized for the CMG Sale.
- (6) To eliminate the results of discontinued operations assuming the sale of CMG to ESC occurred at the beginning of the earliest period presented. Sales and cost of sales amounts have been adjusted to include the sales and related cost of sales from continuing operations of the Company to CMG. After completion of the sale of CMG to ESC, the Company will supply ESC with certain components used in CMG products. Historically, these sales of $22,175, $15,221 and $19,110 in the years ended September 30, 2000, October 2, 1999, and September 26, 1998, respectively, were recorded as intercompany transactions and, therefore, were eliminated in consolidation in the Company's historical financial statements.
