NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Dollars in thousands except per share data)

Note 1: Basis of Interim Presentation

In the opinion of the management of Sonoco Products Company (the “Company” or “Sonoco”), the accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements contain all adjustments (consisting of only normal recurring adjustments, unless otherwise stated) necessary to state fairly the consolidated financial position, results of operations and cash flows for the interim periods reported herein. Operating results for the three and nine months ended October 1, 2017, are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ending December 31, 2017. These condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto included in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2016.

With respect to the unaudited condensed consolidated financial information of the Company for the three- and nine-month periods ended October 1, 2017 and October 2, 2016 included in this Form 10-Q, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP reported that they have applied limited procedures in accordance with professional standards for a review of such information. However, their separate report dated October 31, 2017 appearing herein, states that they did not audit and they do not express an opinion on that unaudited financial information. Accordingly, the degree of reliance on their report on such information should be restricted in light of the limited nature of the review procedures applied. PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP is not subject to the liability provisions of Section 11 of the Securities Act of 1933 for their report on the unaudited financial information because that report is not a “report” or a “part” of a registration statement prepared or certified by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP within the meaning of Sections 7 and 11 of the Act.

Note 2: New Accounting Pronouncements

In August 2017, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) issued Accounting Standards Update (“ASU”) ASU 2017-12, Derivatives and Hedging: Targeted Improvements to Accounting for Hedging Activities, which expands and refines hedge accounting for both financial and non-financial risk components, aligns the recognition and presentation of the effects of hedging instruments and hedge items in the financial statements, and includes certain targeted improvements to ease the application of current guidance related to the assessment of hedge effectiveness. The update to the standard is effective for periods beginning after December 15, 2018, with early adoption permitted in any interim period after issuance of this update. The Company does not expect the implementation of ASU 2017-12 to have a material effect on its consolidated financial statements.

In March 2017, the FASB issued ASU 2017-07, “Improving the Presentation of Net Periodic Pension Cost and Net Periodic Postretirement Benefit Cost,” which requires an employer to report service cost in the same line item as other compensation costs arising from employees during the period. The other components of net benefit cost as defined are required to be presented separately from the service cost component and outside a subtotal of income from operations, if one is presented, or disclosed. This update also allows only the service cost component to be eligible for capitalization when applicable and is effective for periods beginning after December 15, 2017. The amendments should be applied retrospectively for the presentation of the components of net benefit cost in the income statement and prospectively for the capitalization of the service cost component. The Company does not expect the implementation of ASU 2017-07 to have a material effect on its consolidated financial statements.

In November 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-18, “Restricted Cash,” requiring that a statement of cash flows explain the change during the period in the total of cash, cash equivalents, and amounts generally described as restricted cash or restricted cash equivalents. Therefore, amounts generally described as restricted cash and restricted cash equivalents should be included with cash and cash equivalents when reconciling the beginning-of-period and end-of-period total amounts shown on the statement of cash flows. The amendments in ASU 2016-18 do not provide a definition of restricted cash or restricted cash equivalents. The guidance is effective for periods beginning after December 15, 2017, on a retrospective basis. The Company does not expect the implementation of ASU 2016-18 to have a material impact on its consolidated financial statements.

SONOCO PRODUCTS COMPANY

NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Dollars in thousands except per share data)

In August 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-15, "Classification of Certain Cash Receipts and Cash Payments," providing clarification on eight cash flow classification issues, including 1) debt prepayment or debt extinguishment costs, 2) settlement of relatively insignificant debt instruments, 3) contingent consideration payments, 4) insurance claim settlements, 5) life insurance settlements, 6) distributions received from equity method investees, 7) beneficial interests in securitization transactions, and 8) separately identifiable cash flows. The guidance is effective for public business entities for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2017, and interim periods within those fiscal years. The Company does not expect the implementation of ASU 2016-15 to have a material effect on its consolidated financial statements.

In March 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-09, "Improvements to Employee Share-Based Payment Accounting," which impacts several aspects of the accounting for share-based payment transactions, including among others, the classification of excess tax benefits in the statements of income and cash flows and accounting for forfeitures. The Company's adoption of this update effective January 1, 2017 resulted in the recognition of $2,273 of excess tax benefits in the income statement during the nine-month period ended October 1, 2017. In accordance with the provisions of this ASU, excess tax benefits have also been recognized on a prospective basis within the operating section of the consolidated statement of cash flows for the nine-month period ended October 1, 2017, rather than the financing section. Pursuant to adoption of the new ASU, the Company recorded a cumulative charge to retained earnings of $318 for the elimination of estimated forfeitures associated with the Company's share-based compensation. The Company has elected to recognize forfeitures prospectively as they occur beginning January 1, 2017.

In March 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-08, "Revenue from Contracts with Customers, Principal versus Agent Considerations (Reporting Revenue Gross versus Net)," which provides guidance on recording revenue on a gross basis versus a net basis based on the determination of whether an entity is a principal or an agent when another party is involved in providing goods or services to a customer. The amendments in this update affect the guidance in ASU No. 2014-09 and are effective in the same time frame as ASU 2014-09 as discussed below.

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-02, "Leases" which changes accounting for leases and requires lessees to recognize the assets and liabilities arising from all leases, including those classified as operating leases under previous accounting guidance on the balance sheet and requires disclosure of key information about leasing arrangements to increase transparency and comparability among organizations. The accounting for lessors does not fundamentally change except for changes to conform and align guidance to the lessee guidance. The guidance is effective for reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2018, including interim periods within those fiscal years and requires retrospective application. The Company is still assessing the impact of ASU 2016-02 on its consolidated financial statements.

In May 2014, the FASB issued ASU 2014-09, "Revenue From Contracts With Customers," which changes the definitions/criteria used to determine when revenue should be recognized from being based on risks and rewards to being based on control. Among other changes, ASU 2014-09 changes the manner in which variable consideration is recognized, requires recognition of the time value of money when payment terms exceed one year, provides clarification on accounting for contract costs, and expands disclosure requirements. ASU 2014-09 is effective for reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2017. Although the Company will not complete its final assessment and quantification of the impact of ASU 2014-09 on its consolidated financial statements until adoption, it expects the adoption to have the effect of accelerating the timing of revenue recognition compared to current standards for those arrangements under which the Company is producing customer-specific products without alternative use and would be entitled to payment for work completed, including a reasonable margin. The Company is still in the process of developing an estimate of the impact of the transition adjustment on its consolidated financial statements. The Company plans to adopt ASU 2014-09 in the first quarter of fiscal 2018 following the modified retrospective transition method.

During the three- and nine-month periods ended October 1, 2017, there have been no other newly issued nor newly applicable accounting pronouncements that have had, or are expected to have, a material impact on the Company's financial statements. Further, at October 1, 2017, there were no other pronouncements pending adoption that are expected to have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

Acquisition-related costs of $4,285 and non-recurring expenses related to fair value adjustments to acquisition-date inventory of $5,750 were recognized in 2017 in connection with the acquisitions of Packaging Holdings and Clear Lam. These costs are excluded from 2017 pro forma net income and reflected as though having been incurred on January 1, 2016.

During the nine-month period ended October 1, 2017, the Company updated its valuations of the assets and liabilities acquired in conjunction with the 2016 acquisitions of Plastic Packaging Inc. ("PPI") and Laminar Medica ("Laminar") based on information obtained about facts and circumstances that existed as of their respective acquisition dates. As a result, measurement period adjustments were made to the previously disclosed provisional fair values of PPI's net assets that increased identifiable intangibles by $1,400, increased property, plant and equipment by $400, increased the deferred tax liability by $1,085, and decreased goodwill by $715. The measurement period adjustments to the previously disclosed provisional fair values of Laminar's net assets decreased goodwill by $326, decreased deferred tax liabilities by $487 and decreased property, plant and equipment by $161.

Earnings per Share

The following table sets forth the computation of basic and diluted earnings per share (dollars and shares in thousands, except per share data):

	Three Months Ended October 1, 2017		Nine Months Ended October 1, 2017
	October 2, 2016	October 1, 2017	October 2, 2016	October 1, 2017

Denominator:

Dilutive effect of stock-based compensation	409	654	579	640
Diluted	100,684	101,579	100,793	101,960
Net income attributable to Sonoco per common share:
Basic	$0.73	$ 0.65	$ 1.69	$ 1.79
Diluted	$0.72	$ 0.64	$ 1.68	$ 1.78

Potentially dilutive securities are calculated in accordance with the treasury stock method, which assumes the proceeds from the exercise of all dilutive stock appreciation rights (SARs) are used to repurchase the Company's common stock. Certain SARs are not dilutive because either the exercise price is greater than the average market price of the stock during the reporting period or assumed repurchases from proceeds from the exercise of the SARs were antidilutive. These stock appreciation rights may become dilutive in the future if the market price of the Company's common stock appreciates.

The average number of stock appreciation rights that were not dilutive and therefore not included in the computation of diluted earnings per share during the three- and nine-month periods ended October 1, 2017 and October 2, 2016 was as follows (in thousands):

	Three Months Ended October 1, 2017		Nine Months Ended October 1, 2017
	October 2, 2016	October 1, 2017	October 2, 2016	October 1, 2017

Anti-dilutive stock appreciation rights	531	—	473	477

No adjustments were made to net income attributable to Sonoco in the computations of earnings per share.

Stock Repurchases

On February 10, 2016, the Company's Board of Directors authorized the repurchase of up to 5,000 shares of the Company's common stock. A total of 2,030 shares were purchased during 2016 at a cost of $100,000, leaving a total of 2,970 shares remaining available for repurchase at December 31, 2016. No shares were repurchased under this authorization during the nine months ended October 1, 2017. At October 1, 2017, a total of 2,970 shares remain available for repurchase.

announced plan or program, totaled 113 shares in the nine months ended October 1, 2017 at a cost of $5,942, and 136 shares in the nine months ended October 2, 2016 at a cost of $6,072.

“Other costs” consist primarily of costs related to plant closures including equipment removal, utilities, plant security, property taxes and insurance. The Company expects to pay the majority of the remaining 2016 Actions restructuring costs by the end of 2017 using cash generated from operations.

2015 and Earlier Actions

2015 and Earlier Actions are comprised of a number of plant closures and workforce reductions initiated prior to 2016. Included in "Total Charges and Adjustments" below is a gain of $2,022 related to the sale of land and building of a rigid paper plant in Manchester, England (part of the Consumer Packaging Segment). The Company received proceeds from the sale of $2,741 and wrote off assets of $719. Additional charges for these actions in both 2017 and 2016 primarily relate to the cost of plant closures including severance, equipment removal, plant security, property taxes and insurance.

The Company expects to recognize future pretax charges of approximately $100 associated with 2015 and Earlier Actions.

Below is a summary of expenses incurred by segment for 2015 and Earlier Actions for the three- and nine- month periods ended October 1, 2017 and October 2, 2016.

	2017		2016
	Third	Nine	Third	Nine

Total Charges and Adjustments	$(1,233)	$ 2,365	$2,941	$9,402

The accrual for 2015 and Earlier Actions totaled $3,211 and $3,608 at October 1, 2017 and December 31, 2016, respectively, and is included in “Accrued expenses and other” on the Company’s Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets. The accrual relates primarily to unpaid severance and building lease terminations. The Company expects the majority of the liability associated with 2015 and Earlier Actions to be paid by the end of 2017 using cash generated from operations.

Other asset impairments

In addition to the restructuring charges discussed above, as a result of the continued devaluation of the Venezuelan Bolivar in 2017, the Company recognized impairment charges against inventories and certain long-term nonmonetary assets totaling $338. The assets were deemed to be impaired as the U.S. dollar value of the projected cash flows from these assets was no longer sufficient to recover their U.S. dollar carrying values. In addition, the Company has recognized foreign exchange remeasurement losses on net monetary assets of $202.

During the Company's annual goodwill impairment testing conducted during the third quarter of 2016, management concluded that goodwill associated with the Company's Paper and Industrial Converted Products - Brazil reporting unit had become impaired as a result of the continued deterioration of economic conditions in Brazil. Accordingly, an impairment charge totaling $2,617, the entire amount of goodwill associated with this reporting unit, was recognized during the third quarter of 2016.

The asset impairment charges and remeasurement loss are included in "Restructuring/Asset impairment charges" in the Company's Condensed Consolidated Statements of Income.

In addition, measurement period adjustments were made in the first nine months of 2017 to the provisional fair values of the assets acquired and the liabilities assumed in the November 2016 acquisition of PPI and the September 2016 acquisition of Laminar, resulting in reductions in goodwill of $715 for PPI and $326 for Laminar. See Note 3 for additional information.

The Company assesses goodwill for impairment annually and from time to time when warranted by the facts and circumstances surrounding individual reporting units or the Company as a whole. The Company completed its most recent annual goodwill impairment testing during the third quarter of 2017. As part of this testing, the Company analyzed certain qualitative and quantitative factors in determining goodwill impairment. The Company's assessments reflected a number of significant management assumptions and estimates including the Company's forecast of sales volumes and prices, profit margins, income taxes, capital expenditures and changes in working capital requirements. Changes in these assumptions and/or discount rates could materially impact the Company's conclusions. Based on its assessments, the Company concluded that there was no impairment of goodwill for any of its reporting units.

Although no reporting units failed the assessments noted above, in management's opinion, the reporting units having the greatest risk of a significant future impairment if actual results fall short of expectations are Display and Packaging, and Paper and Industrial Converted Products - Europe. Total goodwill associated with these reporting units was $203,414 and $93,277, respectively, at October 1, 2017. A large portion of projected sales in the Display and Packaging reporting unit is concentrated in two customers, the loss of either of which could impact the Company's conclusion regarding the likelihood of goodwill impairment for the unit.

The Packaging Holdings acquisition in March 2017 resulted in the addition of $60,190 of intangible assets, of which $48,400 related to customer lists, $8,790 related to patents, and $3,000 related to trade names. The Clear Lam acquisition in July 2017 resulted in the addition of $77,600 of intangible assets, of which $75,500 related to customer lists and $2,100 related to trade names. In addition, measurement period adjustments were made in the first quarter of 2017 to the provisional fair values of the assets acquired and the liabilities assumed in the November 2016 acquisition of PPI which resulted in the recognition of an additional $1,400 of intangible assets, all of which related to customer lists. These intangible assets will be amortized over an expected average useful life of 13.4 years.

Other intangible assets are amortized on a straight-line basis over their respective useful lives, which generally range from three to forty years. The Company has no intangible assets with indefinite lives.

Aggregate amortization expense was $10,117 and $7,767 for the three months ended October 1, 2017 and October 2, 2016, respectively, and $26,706 and $24,334 for the nine months ended October 1, 2017 and October 2, 2016, respectively. Amortization expense on other intangible assets is expected to total approximately $37,500 in 2017, $42,700 in 2018, $41,500 in 2019, $38,900 in 2020 and $37,100 in 2021.

Note 8: Debt

On July 20, 2017, the Company entered into a Credit Agreement in connection with a new $750,000 bank credit facility which replaced an existing credit facility entered into on October 2, 2014, and reflects substantially the same terms and conditions. Included in the new facility are a $500,000 five-year revolving credit facility and a $250,000 five-year term loan. Based on the pricing grid in the Credit Agreement and the Company's current credit ratings, the borrowing has an all-in drawn margin above the London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR) of 112.5 basis points. Borrowings under the Credit Agreement are pre-payable at any time at the discretion of the Company and the term loan has annual amortization payments totaling $12,500.

Consistent with prior facilities, the $500,000 revolving credit facility will continue to support the Company's $350,000 commercial paper program. Proceeds from the $250,000 term loan were used to repay the $150,000 term loan entered into on March 13, 2017, and the remaining $100,000 was used to partially fund the Clear Lam acquisition.

Note 9: Financial Instruments and Derivatives

The following table sets forth the carrying amounts and fair values of the Company's significant financial instruments for which the carrying amount differs from the fair value.

	October 1, 2017		December 31, 2016
	Carrying	Fair	Carrying	Fair
	Amount	Value	Amount	Value
Long-term debt, net of current portion	$1,300,191	$1,428,716	$1,020,698	$1,116,336

The carrying value of cash and cash equivalents, short-term debt and long-term variable-rate debt approximates fair value. The fair value of long-term debt is determined based on recent trade information in the financial markets of the Company's public debt or is determined by discounting future cash flows using interest rates available to the Company for issues with similar terms and maturities. It is considered a Level 2 fair value measurement.

Cash Flow Hedges

At October 1, 2017 and December 31, 2016, the Company had derivative financial instruments outstanding to hedge anticipated transactions and certain asset and liability related cash flows. These contracts, which have maturities ranging to December 2019, qualify as cash flow hedges under U.S. GAAP. To the extent considered effective, the changes in fair value of these contracts are recorded in other comprehensive income and reclassified to income or expense in the period in which the hedged item impacts earnings. The Company has determined all hedges to be highly effective and as a result no material ineffectiveness has been recorded.

Commodity Cash Flow Hedges

The Company has entered into certain derivative contracts to manage the cost of anticipated purchases of natural gas and aluminum. At October 1, 2017, natural gas swaps covering approximately 5.8 MMBTUs were outstanding. These contracts represent approximately 89%, 54%, and 35% of anticipated U.S. and Canadian usage for the remainder of 2017, 2018 and 2019, respectively. Additionally, the Company had swap contracts covering 1,210 metric tons of aluminum, representing approximately 63% of anticipated usage for the remainder of 2017. The fair values of the Company's commodity cash flow hedges netted to a loss position of $(33) at October 1, 2017, and a gain position of $3,636 at December 31, 2016. The amount of the loss included in Accumulated Other Comprehensive Loss at October 1, 2017, that is expected to be reclassified to the income statement during the next twelve months is $(24).

Foreign Currency Cash Flow Hedges

The Company has entered into forward contracts to hedge certain anticipated foreign currency denominated sales and purchases forecast to occur in 2017. The net positions of these contracts at October 1, 2017 were as follows (in thousands):

Currency	Action	Quantity
Colombian peso	purchase	890,854
Mexican peso	purchase	147,650
Canadian dollar	purchase	13,568
British pound	purchase	7,240
Turkish lira	purchase	3,600
Russian ruble	purchase	1,880
New Zealand dollar	sell	(170)
Australian dollar	sell	(195)
Polish zloty	sell	(907)
Euro	sell	(4,101)

The fair value of these foreign currency cash flow hedges netted to loss positions of $(2,158) at October 1, 2017 and $(184) at December 31, 2016. In addition, the Company has entered into forward contracts to hedge certain foreign currency cash flow transactions related to construction in progress. As of October 1, 2017, the net position of these contracts was $313 and during the nine months ended October 1, 2017, gains from these hedges totaling $15 were reclassified from accumulated other comprehensive loss and included in the carrying value of the assets acquired. For all cash flow hedges, losses of $(2,471) are expected to be reclassified from Accumulated Other Comprehensive Loss to the income statement during the next twelve months.

Other Derivatives

The Company routinely enters into forward contracts or swaps to economically hedge the currency exposure of intercompany debt and existing foreign currency denominated receivables and payables. The Company does not apply hedge accounting treatment under ASC 815 for these instruments. As such, changes in fair value are recorded directly to income and expense in the periods that they occur.

The net positions of these contracts at October 1, 2017, were as follows (in thousands):

Currency	Action	Quantity
Colombian peso	purchase	3,309,227
Mexican peso	purchase	304,162
Canadian dollar	purchase	18,882

The fair value of the Company's other derivatives was in a gain position of $124 and a loss position of $(696) at October 1, 2017 and December 31, 2016, respectively.

The following table sets forth the location and fair values of the Company's derivative instruments at October 1, 2017 and December 31, 2016:

Description	Balance Sheet Location	October 1, 2017	December 31, 2016

Derivatives not designated as hedging instruments:

While certain of the Company's derivative contract arrangements with its counterparties provide for the ability to settle contracts on a net basis, the Company reports its derivative positions on a gross basis. There are no collateral arrangements or requirements in these agreements.

Note 10: Fair Value Measurements

Fair value is defined as an exit price, representing the amount that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants. Fair value is a market-based measurement that is determined based on assumptions that market participants would use in pricing an asset or liability. A three-tier fair value hierarchy is used to prioritize the inputs in measuring fair value as follows:

Level 1 - Observable inputs such as quoted market prices in active markets;

Level 2 - Inputs, other than quoted prices in active markets, that are observable either directly or indirectly; and

Level 3 - Unobservable inputs for which there is little or no market data, which require the reporting entity to develop its own assumptions.

The following table sets forth information regarding the Company's financial assets and financial liabilities, excluding retirement and postretirement plan assets, measured at fair value on a recurring basis:

Description	October 1, 2017	Assets measured at NAV	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3
Hedge derivatives, net:
Commodity contracts	$ (33)	$	—	$ (33)	$ —
Foreign exchange contracts	$ (2,471)	$	—	$ (2,471)	$ —
Non-hedge derivatives, net:
Foreign exchange contracts	$ 124	$	—	$ 124	$ —
Deferred compensation plan assets	$ 255	$	—	$ —	$ —

Description	December 31, 2016	Assets measured at NAV	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3
Hedge derivatives, net:
Commodity contracts	$ 3,636	$	—	$ 3,636	$ —
Foreign exchange contracts	$ (185)	$	—	$ (185)	$ —
Non-hedge derivatives, net:
Foreign exchange contracts	$ (696)	$	—	$ (696)	$ —
Deferred compensation plan assets	$ 349	$	—	$ —	$ —

As discussed in Note 9, the Company uses derivatives to mitigate the effect of raw material and energy cost fluctuations, foreign currency fluctuations and, from time to time, interest rate movements. Fair value measurements for the Company's derivatives are classified under Level 2 because such measurements are estimated based on observable inputs such as interest rates, yield curves, spot and future commodity prices and spot and future exchange rates.

Certain deferred compensation plan liabilities are funded by assets invested in various exchange traded mutual funds. These assets are measured using quoted prices in accessible active markets for identical assets.

The Company does not currently have any non-financial assets or liabilities that are recognized or disclosed at fair value on a recurring basis. None of the Company's financial assets or liabilities are measured at fair value using significant unobservable inputs. There were no transfers in or out of Level 1 or Level 2 fair value measurements during the three- and nine-month periods ended October 1, 2017.

Note 11: Employee Benefit Plans

Retirement Plans and Retiree Health and Life Insurance Plans

The Company provides non-contributory defined benefit pension plans to certain of its employees in the United States and certain of its employees in Mexico and Belgium. The Company also sponsors contributory defined benefit pension plans covering the majority of its employees in the United Kingdom, Canada, and the Netherlands. In addition, the Company provides postretirement healthcare and life insurance benefits to a limited number of its retirees and their dependents in the United States and Canada, based on certain age and/or service eligibility requirements.

The Company froze participation in its U.S. qualified defined benefit pension plan for newly hired salaried and non-union hourly employees effective December 31, 2003. To replace this benefit, the Company provides non-union U.S. employees hired on or after January 1, 2004, with an annual contribution, called the Sonoco Retirement Contribution (SRC), to their participant accounts in the Sonoco Retirement and Savings Plan. The SRC is equal to 4% of the participant's eligible pay plus 4% of eligible pay in excess of the social security wage base. Also eligible for the SRC are former participants of the U.S. qualified defined benefit pension plan who elected to transfer out of that plan under a one-time option effective January 1, 2010.

On February 4, 2009, the U.S. qualified defined benefit pension plan was amended to freeze plan benefits for all active participants effective December 31, 2018. Remaining active participants in the U.S. qualified plan will become eligible for SRC contributions effective January 1, 2019.

The components of net periodic benefit cost include the following:

The Company expects to make additional aggregate contributions of approximately $55,000 to its defined benefit retirement and retiree health and life insurance plans over the remainder of 2017, which includes a $50,000 voluntary contribution to its U.S. qualified defined benefit pension plan made on October 25, 2017.

In February 2017, the Company initiated a program through which it offered certain terminated vested participants in the U.S. qualified retirement plans the opportunity to receive their benefits early as either a lump sum or an annuity. This population comprised approximately 15% of the projected benefit obligation of these plans. At the close of the election period, approximately 51% of the eligible participants elected to take the early payment. These payments were distributed from plan assets in May and June 2017. As a result of settling these obligations, the Company recognized a non-cash, pre-tax settlement charge of $31,074 in the second quarter of 2017. Additional settlement charges of $476 were recognized in the third quarter of 2017 for settlements to certain plan participants who were eligible to select a lump sum payment option upon retirement.

Sonoco Retirement Contribution (SRC)

The SRC, which is funded annually in the first quarter, totaled $14,066 during the nine months ended October 1, 2017, and $13,352 during the nine months ended October 2, 2016. No additional SRC contributions are expected during the remainder of 2017. The Company recognized expense related to the SRC of $3,239 and $3,682 for the quarters ended October 1, 2017 and October 2, 2016, respectively, and $10,930 and $10,277 for the nine-month periods ended October 1, 2017 and October 2, 2016, respectively.

Note 12: Income Taxes

The Company's effective tax rate for the three- and nine-month periods ending October 1, 2017, was 33.4% and 32.3%, respectively, and its effective rate for the three- and nine-month periods ending October 2, 2016, was 32.1% and 32.3%, respectively. The rates for the three- and nine-month periods of both years varied from the U.S. statutory rate due primarily to the favorable effect of certain international operations that are subject to tax rates generally lower than the U.S. rate. The 2017 year-to-date rate also varied from the statutory rate due to the Company's January 1, 2017, adoption of ASU 2016-09 regarding accounting for share-based compensation, which requires excess tax benefits to be utilized as an offset to tax expense and was not required to be applied retrospectively.

The Company and/or its subsidiaries file federal, state and local income tax returns in the United States and various foreign jurisdictions. With few exceptions, the Company is no longer subject to U.S. federal, or non-U.S., income tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2012. With respect to state and local income taxes, the Company is no longer subject to examination for years prior to 2012, with few exceptions. The Company is currently under audit by the Internal Revenue Service for the 2012 and 2013 tax years.

The Company's reserve for uncertain tax benefits has decreased by approximately $2,400 since December 31, 2016, due to the settlement of a prior year's audit. The Company believes that it is reasonably possible that the amount reserved for unrecognized tax benefits at October 1, 2017 will increase by approximately $200 over the next twelve months. This change includes the anticipated increase in reserves related to existing positions offset by settlements of issues currently under examination and the release of existing reserves due to the expiration of the statute of limitations. Although the Company's estimate for the potential outcome for any uncertain tax issue is highly judgmental, management believes that any reasonably foreseeable outcomes related to these matters have been adequately provided for. However, future results may include favorable or unfavorable adjustments to estimated tax liabilities in the period the assessments are made or resolved or when statutes of limitation on potential assessments expire. Additionally, the jurisdictions in which earnings or deductions are realized may differ from current estimates. As a result, the Company's effective tax rate may fluctuate significantly on a quarterly basis. The Company has operations and pays taxes in many countries outside of the U.S. and taxes on those earnings are subject to varying rates. The Company is not dependent upon the favorable benefit of any one jurisdiction to an extent that loss of those benefits would have a material effect on the Company's overall effective tax rate.

As previously disclosed, the Company received a draft Notice of Proposed Adjustment ("NOPA") from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) in February 2017 proposing an adjustment to income for the 2013 tax year based on the IRS's recharacterization of a distribution of an intercompany note made in 2012, and the subsequent repayment of the note over the course of 2013, as if it were a cash distribution made in 2013. In March 2017, the Company received a draft NOPA proposing penalties of $18,000 associated with the IRS's recharacterization, as well as an Information Document Request ("IDR") requesting the Company's analysis of why such penalties should not apply. The Company responded to this IDR in April 2017. On October 5, 2017, the Company received two revised draft NOPAs proposing the same adjustments and penalties as in the prior NOPAs. At the time the distribution was paid in 2012, it was characterized as a dividend to the extent of earnings and profits, with the remainder as a tax free return of basis and taxable capital gain. As the IRS

NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Dollars in thousands except per share data)

proposes to recharacterize the distribution, the entire distribution would be characterized as a dividend. The incremental tax liability associated with the income adjustment proposed in the NOPA would be approximately $84,000, excluding interest and the previously referenced penalties. Should a final NOPA be issued, the Company intends to file a protest to the proposed deficiency with the IRS, which will cause the matter to be referred to the Appeals Division of the IRS. The Company strongly believes the position of the IRS with regard to this matter is inconsistent with applicable tax laws and existing Treasury regulations, and that the Company's previously reported income tax provision for the year in question is appropriate. However, there can be no assurance that this matter will be resolved in the Company's favor. Regardless of whether the matter is resolved in the Company's favor, the final resolution of this matter could be expensive and time consuming to defend and/or settle. While the Company believes that the amount of tax originally paid with respect to this distribution is correct, and accordingly has not provided additional reserve for tax uncertainty, there is still a possibility that an adverse outcome of the matter could have a material effect on its results of operations and financial condition.

Note 13: Segment Reporting

The Company reports its financial results in four reportable segments: Consumer Packaging, Display and Packaging, Paper and Industrial Converted Products, and Protective Solutions.

The Consumer Packaging segment includes the following products and services: round and shaped rigid containers and trays (both composite and thermoformed plastic); extruded and injection-molded plastic products; printed flexible packaging; global brand artwork management; and metal and peelable membrane ends and closures. This segment also included blow-molded plastic bottles and jars through November 7, 2016, when the Company completed the sale of its rigid plastics blow molding operations.

The Display and Packaging segment includes the following products and services: point-of-purchase displays; supply chain management services; retail packaging, including printed backer cards, thermoformed blisters and heat sealing equipment; and paperboard specialties, such as coasters and glass covers.

The Paper and Industrial Converted Products segment includes the following products: paperboard tubes and cores; fiber-based construction tubes and forms; wooden, metal and composite wire and cable reels and spools; and recycled paperboard, linerboard, corrugating medium, recovered paper and material recycling services.

The Protective Solutions segment includes the following products: custom-engineered, paperboard-based and expanded foam protective packaging and components; and temperature-assured packaging.

The following table sets forth net sales, intersegment sales and operating profit for the Company's reportable segments. "Segment operating profit" is defined as the segment's portion of "Income before interest and income taxes" excluding restructuring charges, asset impairment charges, acquisition-related costs, pension settlement charges, and certain other items, if any, the exclusion of which the Company believes improves comparability and analysis of the financial performance of the business. General corporate expenses have been allocated as operating costs to each of the Company's reportable segments. "Other, net" for the three- and nine-months ended October 1, 2017 includes pension settlement charges of $476 and $31,550, respectively. See note 11 for additional information.

Note 14: Commitments and Contingencies

Pursuant to U.S. GAAP, accruals for estimated losses are recorded at the time information becomes available indicating that losses are probable and that the amounts are reasonably estimable. As is the case with other companies in similar industries, the Company faces exposure from actual or potential claims and legal proceedings from a variety of sources. Some of these exposures, as discussed below, have the potential to be material.

Environmental Matters

The Company is subject to a variety of environmental and pollution control laws and regulations in all jurisdictions in which it operates.

Fox River

In January 2017, U.S. Paper Mills Corp. (U.S. Mills), a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, obtained Court approval of a final settlement of cost recovery claims made by Appvion, Inc. for $3,334. The settlement was paid during the first quarter of 2017, and related legal and professional fees totaling $369 were paid during the first and second quarters of 2017. As a result of the settlement becoming final, the Company and U.S. Mills have resolved all pending or threatened legal proceedings related to the Fox River matter, as well as any such proceedings known to be contemplated by government authorities.

Spartanburg

In connection with its acquisition of Tegrant in November 2011, the Company identified potential environmental contamination at a site in Spartanburg, South Carolina. The total remediation cost of the Spartanburg site was estimated to be $17,400 at the time of acquisition and an accrual in this amount was recorded on Tegrant's opening balance sheet. Since the acquisition, the Company has spent a total of $851 on remediation of the Spartanburg site. During previous years, the Company has increased its reserves for this site by a total of $117 in order to reflect its best estimate of what it is likely to pay in order to complete the remediation. At October 1, 2017 and December 31, 2016, the Company's accrual for environmental contingencies related to the Spartanburg site totaled $16,666 and $16,821, respectively. The Company cannot currently estimate its potential liability, damages or range of potential loss, if any, beyond the amounts accrued with respect to this exposure. However, the Company does not believe that the resolution of this matter has a reasonable possibility of having a material adverse effect on the Company's financial statements.

(Dollars in thousands except per share data)

Other environmental matters

The Company has been named as a potentially responsible party at several other environmentally contaminated sites. All of the sites are also the responsibility of other parties. The potential remediation liabilities are shared with such other parties, and, in most cases, the Company's share, if any, cannot be reasonably estimated at the current time. However, the Company does not believe that the resolution of these matters has a reasonable possibility of having a material adverse effect on the Company's financial statements.

Summary

As of October 1, 2017 and December 31, 2016, the Company (and its subsidiaries) had accrued $20,539 and $24,515, respectively, related to environmental contingencies. These accruals are included in "Accrued expenses and other" on the Company's Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets.

Other Legal Matters

In addition to those matters described above, the Company is subject to other various legal proceedings, claims, and litigation arising in the ordinary course of business. While the outcome of these matters could differ from management's expectations, the Company does not believe the resolution of these matters has a reasonable possibility of having a material adverse effect on the Company's financial statements.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Shareholders and Directors of Sonoco Products Company:

We have reviewed the accompanying condensed consolidated balance sheet of Sonoco Products Company and its subsidiaries as of October 1, 2017, and the related condensed consolidated statements of income and comprehensive income for the three-month and nine-month periods ended October 1, 2017 and October 2, 2016 and the condensed consolidated statement of cash flows for the nine-month periods ended October 1, 2017 and October 2, 2016. These interim financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management.

We conducted our review in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). A review of interim financial information consists principally of applying analytical procedures and making inquiries of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters. It is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements taken as a whole.

Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the accompanying condensed consolidated interim financial statements for them to be in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

We previously audited, in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), the consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2016, and the related consolidated statements of income, of comprehensive income, of changes in total equity and of cash flows for the year then ended (not presented herein), and in our report dated March 1, 2017, which included a paragraph describing a change in the manner of accounting for Debt Issuance Costs in the 2016 financial statements, we expressed an unqualified opinion on those consolidated financial statements. In our opinion, the information set forth in the accompanying condensed consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2016, is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the consolidated balance sheet from which it has been derived.

RECONCILIATIONS OF GAAP TO NON-GAAP FINANCIAL MEASURES

Measures calculated and presented in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles are referred to as GAAP financial measures. The following tables reconcile the Company's non-GAAP financial measures to their most directly comparable GAAP financial measures in the Company's Condensed Consolidated Statements of Income for each of the periods presented. These non-GAAP financial measures (referred to as "Base") are the GAAP measures adjusted to exclude (dependent upon the applicable period) restructuring charges, asset impairment charges, acquisition charges, specifically identified tax adjustments, pension settlement charges and certain other items, if any, the exclusion of which the Company believes improves comparability and analysis of the underlying financial performance of the business. More information about the Company's use of Non-GAAP financial measures is provided in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016 under Item 7 - "Management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations," under the heading "Use of non-GAAP financial measures."

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following discussion provides a review of results for the three months ended October 1, 2017 versus the three months ended October 2, 2016.

OVERVIEW

Net sales for the third quarter of 2017 increased 9.6% to $1,325 million, compared with $1,209 million in the same period last year. The increase in sales was the result of higher selling prices, the effect on sales of acquisitions, net of dispositions, and the positive impact of foreign exchange. Sales price increases primarily reflect higher raw material costs which the Company was able to pass through to customers.

Net income attributable to Sonoco for the third quarter of 2017 increased 11.3% to $72.8 million, $0.72 per diluted share, compared to $65.4 million, $0.64 per diluted share, reported for the same period of 2016. Current quarter net income includes after-tax, non-base charges totaling $3.8 million. These charges consist mostly of acquisition and acquisition-related charges as well as non-base tax charges related to tax rate changes and reserve adjustments. Results for the third quarter of 2016 include after-tax restructuring and asset impairment charges of $6.8 million and after-tax acquisition and non-base tax charges of $1.3 million. Adjusted for these items, third-quarter base net income attributable to Sonoco (base earnings) increased 4.2% to $76.6 million, $0.76 per diluted share, from $73.5 million, $0.72 per diluted share, in 2016.

The higher third-quarter 2017 earnings were largely the result of a positive price/cost impact, particularly in the Company's Paper and Industrial Converted Products segment, as third quarter selling prices to many of the segment's customers were reset during the second quarter of 2017 when old corrugated containers (OCC) prices were higher than what they subsequently averaged during the third quarter of 2017. Strong manufacturing productivity in the Company's Consumer Packaging segment and lower restructuring and asset impairment charges also contributed to the overall increase in earnings over the previous year's third quarter. These positive factors were slightly offset by higher wage and other inflation.

SONOCO PRODUCTS COMPANY

OPERATING REVENUE

Net sales for the third quarter of 2017 increased $116 million from the prior-year quarter.

The components of the sales change were:

	($ in millions)
Volume/mix	$ (1)
Selling prices	58
Acquisitions and Divestitures	38
Foreign currency translation and other, net	21
Total sales increase	$ 116

COSTS AND EXPENSES

The Company's gross profit margin percentage declined to 18.9% this quarter compared to 19.5% in the prior-year quarter. The 60 basis point decline in gross profit margin was largely attributable to the effect on margin percentages from passing through higher material prices and other operating costs. The translation impact of a weaker dollar increased reported cost of goods sold by approximately $13 million compared to the third quarter of 2016. These negative impacts to the gross profit margin percentage were somewhat offset by manufacturing and procurement productivity.

Selling, general and administrative ("SG&A") costs for the quarter increased $8.7 million, or 7.2%, year over year due primarily to SG&A expenses incurred by the operations of acquired businesses, net of divested businesses, and wage inflation.

Third quarter restructuring costs and asset impairment charges totaled $0.5 million compared with $8.9 million in the same period last year. Additional information regarding restructuring and asset impairment charges is provided in Note 5 to the Company's Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements included in Part I, Item 1 of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q.

Net interest expense for the third quarter increased to $13.6 million, compared with $12.4 million during the third quarter of 2016. The increase was primarily due to higher average borrowings in the current-year quarter stemming from acquisition financing.

The effective tax rate on GAAP and base earnings in the third quarter of 2017 was 33.4% and 31.8%, respectively, compared with 32.1% and 30.7%, respectively, for last year's quarter. The 2016 GAAP and base tax rates were both positively affected by favorable discrete tax adjustments, including a benefit from the release of reserves for uncertain tax positions while the current-year rates reflect the negative impacts of less benefit from the manufacturer's deduction and a higher overall state tax rate.

Segment results viewed by Company management to evaluate segment performance do not include restructuring charges, asset impairment charges, acquisition-related charges, interest expense, income taxes, or certain other items, if any, the exclusion of which the Company believes improves the comparability and analysis of the ongoing operating performance of the business. Accordingly, the term “segment operating profit” is defined as the segment’s portion of “Income before interest and income taxes” excluding those items. All other general corporate expenses have been allocated as operating costs to each of the Company’s reportable segments.

Consumer Packaging

The Consumer Packaging segment includes the following products and services: round and shaped rigid containers and trays (both composite and thermoformed plastic); extruded and injection-molded plastic products; printed flexible packaging; global brand artwork management; and metal and peelable membrane ends and closures. This segment also included blow-molded plastic bottles and jars through November 7, 2016, when the Company completed the sale of its rigid plastics blow molding operations.

Segment sales increased 8.9% compared to the prior-year quarter due to acquisitions, net of divestitures, higher selling prices and the positive impact of foreign exchange which more than offset modestly lower volume/mix.

Segment operating profit grew 6.4% compared to the prior-year quarter due to strong improvement in manufacturing productivity and a positive price/cost relationship. These positive factors were partially offset by lower volume in metal ends and composite cans in North America and flexible packaging.

SONOCO PRODUCTS COMPANY

Display and Packaging

The Display and Packaging segment includes the following products and services: designing, manufacturing, assembling, packing and distributing temporary, semi-permanent and permanent point-of-purchase displays; supply chain management services, including contract packing, fulfillment and scalable service centers; retail packaging, including printed backer cards, thermoformed blisters and heat sealing equipment; and paper amenities, such as coasters and glass covers.

Sales for the quarter were up 2.7% compared to last year's quarter due primarily to the positive impact of foreign exchange.

Segment operating profit decreased $3.2 million, or 61.9%, from the prior year's quarter due to higher operating costs associated with the ramp up of operations at a new domestic retail packaging fulfillment center.

Paper and Industrial Converted Products

The Paper and Industrial Converted Products segment includes the following products: paperboard tubes and cores; fiber-based construction tubes and forms; wooden, metal and composite wire and cable reels and spools; and recycled paperboard, linerboard, corrugating medium, recovered paper and material recycling services.

Reported segment sales increased approximately 13.8% for the quarter due to higher selling prices implemented to recover higher raw material costs, the positive impact of foreign exchange, and improved volume/mix of business.

The higher third-quarter selling prices were the result of contract pricing resets tied to the market price for OCC which was significantly higher this year compared to when prices were set for last year's third quarter.

Operating profit increased 26.8% due to a positive price/cost relationship, improved volume in international tubes and cores and global paper operations, and gains from manufacturing productivity. Results in the Company's corrugating medium operations improved over the prior-year quarter due to higher selling prices and stronger demand. Although the Company's corrugating medium operation showed significant improvement quarter over quarter, it continues to under perform long-term expectations. This operation, which consists of only one machine, has been and continues to be under pressure due to market supply in North America exceeding demand. This has resulted in generally lower prices and reduced volume for our corrugating medium operation. Management is continuing to seek both near and long-term solutions including, but not limited to, modified run schedules, targeted cost reductions, strategic partnerships, and potential closure of the operation.

Protective Solutions

The Protective Solutions segment includes the following products: custom-engineered, paperboard-based and expanded foam protective packaging and components; and temperature-assured packaging.

Segment sales for the quarter were up 5.7% year over year driven by sales from acquisitions, higher selling prices, and the positive impact of foreign exchange.

Operating profits decreased 10.4% from the prior-year quarter due primarily to lower volume in automotive components and the related unfavorable impact on manufacturing productivity.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following discussion provides a review of results for the nine months ended October 1, 2017 versus the nine months ended October 2, 2016.

OVERVIEW

Net sales for the first nine months of 2017 were $3,738 million, a 2.7% increase from the $3,641 million reported in the same period last year. The modest sales growth was the result of higher selling prices implemented to recover rising material costs and the impact of acquisitions, net of divestitures. These positive factors were partially offset by lower volume/mix and the loss of contract packaging business in Mexico and Brazil.

Net income attributable to Sonoco for the first nine months of 2017 decreased 6.5% to $169.7 million, $1.68 per diluted share, compared to $181.6 million, $1.78 per diluted share, reported for the same period of 2016. Current period net income includes after-tax restructuring and asset impairment charges of $8.4 million, after-tax pension settlement charges of $19.5 million, and other after-tax, non-base items netting to a charge of $10.7 million. These other items primarily consist of charges for acquisition-related costs, the settlement of a tax audit in Canada and changes in deferred tax amounts, partially offset by insurance settlement gains and a favorable tax adjustment related to a prior-year disposition. Results for the third quarter of 2016 include after-tax restructuring and asset impairment charges of $30.9 million, and after-tax acquisition-related costs of $2.2 million. Adjusted for these items, base net income attributable to Sonoco (base earnings) decreased 3.0% to $208.3 million, $2.07 per diluted share, in the first nine months of 2017 down from $214.7 million, $2.11 per diluted share, in 2016.

The lower earnings in the first nine months of 2017 were the result of volume declines and unfavorable product mix, particularly in global rigid paper containers and retail packaging and fulfillment. The divestiture of the Company's rigid plastic blowmolding operations in November 2016 also contributed to the lower year-over-year earnings in the first nine months of 2017. These negative impacts were partially offset by a positive year-to-date price/cost relationship compared to the prior-year as third-quarter selling price resets allowed the Company to fully recover the margin impact of higher OCC costs on a year-to-date basis. Productivity improvements and lower management incentive costs also benefited year-over-year earnings.

OPERATING REVENUE

Net sales for the first nine months of 2017 increased $97 million from the same period in 2016. The components of the sales change were:

	($ in millions)
Volume/mix	$ (51)
Selling prices	141
Acquisitions and Divestitures	19
Foreign currency translation and other, net	(12)

Total sales increase$ 97

In order to enhance the meaningfulness of reported changes in volume/mix, a $20.9 million reduction in packaging center sales resulting from changes in the level of activity, primarily from the previously reported losses of contract packaging business in Mexico and Brazil, is classified above as "other" due to the low/inconsistent correlation that typically exists between changes in revenue and operating profit in certain packaging center operations.

COSTS AND EXPENSES

The gross profit margin percentage declined to 18.9% for the first nine months compared to 19.8% in the prior-year period. The 90 basis point decline in gross profit margin was largely attributable to volume declines in Global Rigid Containers and Flexible Packaging. The translation impact of a stronger dollar lowered reported cost of goods sold by approximately $5 million compared to the same period of 2016.

In the nine months ended October 1, 2017 selling, general and administrative ("SG&A") costs increased $31.2 million or 8.2%, from the nine months ended October 2, 2016. This increase was driven by the previously mentioned pension settlement charges totaling $31.6 million, before-tax. Additionally, legal and professional fees related to acquisitions and potential acquisitions, SG&A expenses incurred by the operations of acquired businesses, net of divested businesses, and higher wages all contributed to the increase in SG&A costs year over year. These items were partially offset by fixed cost reductions, including lower management incentive costs.

In the first nine months of 2017, restructuring costs and asset impairment charges totaled $12.5 million compared with $41.5 million in the same period last year. Additional information regarding restructuring and asset impairment charges is provided in Note 5 to the Company's Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements included in Part I, Item 1 of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q.

Net interest expense for the nine months ended October 1, 2017 decreased to $38.5 million, compared with $39.8 million during the same period of 2016. The decrease was due to lower average interest rates applicable to debt and an increase in interest income.

The effective tax rate on GAAP and base earnings in the first nine months of 2017 was 32.3% and 31.6%, respectively, compared with 32.3% and 31.1%, respectively, for the same period last year. The GAAP and base tax rates were both affected by favorable 2016 discrete tax adjustments including a benefit from the settlement of a contested state tax audit. The current year rates benefitted from the adoption of FASB Accounting Standards Update 2016-9 regarding accounting for share-based compensation which requires excess tax benefits on settlements of share-based compensation to be recognized within the income statement. The Company adopted ASU 2016-09 effective January 1, 2017 using the prospective method.

Segment results viewed by Company management to evaluate segment performance do not include restructuring charges, asset impairment charges, acquisition-related charges, pension settlement charges, interest expense, income taxes, or certain other items, if any, the exclusion of which the Company believes improves the comparability and analysis of the ongoing operating performance of the business. Accordingly, the term "segment operating profit" is defined as the segment's portion of "Income before interest and income taxes" excluding those items. All other general corporate expenses have been allocated as operating costs to each of the Company's reportable segments.

Consumer Packaging

Year to date segment sales increased 0.7% from the prior year due to the net impact of businesses acquired and sold, and higher sales prices. The positive factors were mostly offset by lower volume in composite cans in Europe and metal ends in North America and the negative impact of foreign currency translation from a stronger U.S. dollar year over year.

Segment operating profit decreased 0.6% year over year due to lower volumes and negative mix and the net impact of businesses acquired and sold. In addition, results were negatively impacted by higher labor, maintenance, and other operating expenses. These negative factors were partially offset by productivity gains and a favorable price/cost relationship.

Display and Packaging

Reported sales for the first nine months of 2017 were down 10.2% compared to last year's period due primarily to the previously disclosed loss of the Company's contract packaging business in Mexico and Brazil. Lower volumes in our domestic displays and retail security packaging businesses also negatively impacted year-over-year sales. These declines were partially offset by the positive effect of foreign exchange rates.

Segment operating profit decreased $6.9 million, or 51.0%, from the prior year's first nine months due to lower volume/mix in domestic display and retail packaging and higher operating costs associated with the ramp up of operations at a new domestic retail packaging fulfillment center. These negative factors were partially offset by improved fixed-cost productivity.

Paper and Industrial Converted Products

Segment sales increased 8.9% as higher selling prices due to contract pricing resets and announced price increases, both driven by increased raw material costs, more than offset the impacts of the divestiture of a paperboard mill in France, volume declines, and foreign currency translation.

Operating profit increased 6.1% largely due to a positive year-over-year price/cost relationship driven by a current year third-quarter decline in OCC prices following selling price resets that occurred at the end of the second quarter of 2017 when old corrugated containers (OCC) prices were higher. As a result, the Company has recovered all of the negative profit impact caused by OCC cost increases during the first six months of 2017. Manufacturing productivity improvements were essentially offset by higher labor, maintenance, and other operating expenses.

The Company's corrugating medium operation continues to under perform long-term expectations. This operation, which consists of only one machine, has been and continues to be under pressure due to market supply in North America exceeding demand. This has resulted in lower prices and reduced volume for our corrugating medium operation.

SONOCO PRODUCTS COMPANY

Management is continuing to seek both near and long-term solutions including, but not limited to, modified run schedules, targeted cost reductions, strategic partnerships, and potential closure of the operation.

Protective Solutions

Segment sales were up 3.3% year over year as sales from acquisitions and higher selling prices were only partially offset by unfavorable changes in volume/mix.

Operating profits decreased 14.8% on unfavorable changes in volume/mix, declines in manufacturing productivity, and a negative price/cost relationship. These were partially offset by fixed-cost productivity improvements.

OTHER ITEMS

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

Income taxes

As previously disclosed, the Company received a draft Notice of Proposed Adjustment (“NOPA”) from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) in February 2017 proposing an adjustment to income for the 2013 tax year based on the IRS's recharacterization of a distribution of an intercompany note made in 2012, and the subsequent repayment of the note over the course of 2013, as if it were a cash distribution made in 2013. In March 2017, the Company received a draft NOPA proposing penalties of $18.0 million associated with the IRS's recharacterization, as well as an Information Document Request (“IDR”) requesting the Company's analysis of why such penalties should not apply. The Company responded to this IDR in April 2017. On October 5, 2017, the Company received two revised draft NOPAs proposing the same adjustments and penalties as in the prior NOPAs. At the time of the distribution in 2012, it was characterized as a dividend to the extent of earnings and profits, with the remainder as a tax free return of basis and taxable capital gain. As the IRS proposes to recharacterize the distribution, the entire distribution would be characterized as a dividend. The incremental tax liability associated with the income adjustment proposed in the NOPA would be approximately $84.0 million, excluding interest and the previously referenced penalties. Should a final NOPA be issued, the Company intends to file a protest to the proposed deficiency with the IRS, which will cause the matter to be referred to the Appeals Division of the IRS. The Company strongly believes the position of the IRS with regard to this matter is inconsistent with applicable tax laws and existing Treasury regulations, and that the Company's previously reported income tax provision for the year in question is appropriate. However, there can be no assurance that this matter will be resolved in the Company's favor. Regardless of whether the matter is resolved in the Company's favor, the final resolution of this matter could be expensive and time consuming to defend and/or settle. While the Company believes that the amount of tax originally paid with respect to this distribution is correct, and accordingly has not provided additional reserve for tax uncertainty, there is still a possibility that an adverse outcome of the matter could have a material effect on its results of operations and financial condition.

Pension and postretirement benefit plans

In February 2017, the Company initiated a program through which it offered certain terminated vested participants in the Sonoco Pension Plan for Inactive Participants, a qualified retirement plan in the United States, the opportunity to receive their benefits early as either a lump sum or an annuity. The terminated vested population comprised approximately 15% of the projected benefit obligation of this plan. At the close of the election period, approximately 51% of the eligible participants elected to take the early payment. These payments were distributed from plan assets in May and June 2017. As a result of settling these obligations, the Company recognized a non-cash pre-tax settlement charge of approximately $31.1 million in the second quarter of 2017. Additional settlement charges of $0.5 million were recognized in the third quarter of 2017 for settlements to certain plan participants who were eligible to select a lump sum payment option upon retirement.

SONOCO PRODUCTS COMPANY

Goodwill impairment evaluation

The Company assesses its goodwill for impairment annually and from time to time when warranted by the facts and circumstances surrounding individual reporting units or the Company as a whole. If the carrying value of a reporting unit's goodwill exceeds the implied fair value of that goodwill, an impairment charge is recognized for the excess. The Company's reporting units are one level below its operating segments, as determined in accordance with ASC 350. The Company completed its most recent annual goodwill impairment testing during the third quarter of 2017. For testing purposes, the Company performed an assessment of each reporting unit using either a qualitative evaluation or a quantitative test. The qualitative evaluations considered factors such as the macroeconomic environment, Company stock price and market capitalization movement, business strategy changes, and significant customer wins and losses. The quantitative tests considered factors such as current year operating performance as compared to prior projections and implied fair values from comparable trading and transaction multiples.

When the Company estimates the fair value of its reporting units, it does so using a discounted cash flow model based on projections of future years' operating results and associated cash flows, together with comparable trading and transaction multiples. The Company's model discounts projected future cash flows, forecasted over a ten-year period, with an estimated residual growth rate. The Company's projections incorporate management's estimates of the most-likely expected future results, including significant assumptions and estimates related to, among other things: sales volumes and prices, new business, profit margins, income taxes, capital expenditures and changes in working capital requirements and, where applicable, improved operating margins. Projected future cash flows are discounted to present value using a discount rate appropriate for the reporting unit.

The Company's assessments, whether qualitative or quantitative, incorporate management's expectations for the future, including forecasted growth rates and/or margin improvements. Therefore, should there be changes in the relevant facts and circumstances and/or expectations, management's assessment regarding goodwill impairment may change as well. Management's projections related to revenue growth and/or margin improvements are based on a combination of factors, including expectations for volume growth with existing customers and customer retention, product expansion, changes in price/cost relationships, productivity gains, fixed cost leverage, and stability or improvement in general economic conditions.

In considering the level of uncertainty regarding the potential for goodwill impairment, management has concluded that any such impairment would likely be the result of adverse changes in more than one assumption. Management does not consider any of its assumptions to be either aggressive or conservative, but rather its best estimates across a range of possible outcomes based on available evidence at the time of the assessment. Other than in Display and Packaging, which is discussed below, there is no specific singular event or single change in circumstances management has identified that it believes could reasonably result in a change to expected future results in any of its reporting units sufficient to result in goodwill impairment. In management's opinion, a change of such magnitude would more likely be the result of changes to some combination of the factors identified above, a general deterioration in competitive position, introduction of a superior technology, significant unexpected changes in customer preferences, an inability to pass through significant raw material cost increases, and other such items as identified in "Item 1A. Risk Factors" on pages 9-15 of the Company's 2016 Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Although no reporting units failed the testing noted above, in management's opinion, the reporting units having the greatest risk of a significant future impairment if actual results fall short of expectations are Display and Packaging, and Paper and Industrial Converted Products - Europe.

Display and Packaging

The Display and Packaging reporting unit designs, manufactures, assembles, packs and distributes temporary, semi-permanent and permanent point-of-purchase displays; provides supply chain management services, including contract packing, fulfillment and scalable service centers; and manufactures retail packaging, including printed backer cards, thermoformed blisters and heat sealing equipment. The updated goodwill impairment analysis reflects expectations for moderate sales growth and improved percentage profit margins based largely on the expected successful ramp up of operations at the Company's new battery packaging facility. In addition, the analysis reflects expected cash flow improvements from future productivity initiatives and increased capacity. A large portion of expected sales in this reporting unit is concentrated in two customers and if the business with either one of these customers is lost, or other projected synergies and productivity gains are not realized, a goodwill impairment charge could be incurred. Total goodwill associated with this reporting unit was approximately $203 million at October 1, 2017. Based on the valuation work performed for the current year's test, the estimated fair value of Display and Packaging exceeded its carrying value by approximately 37%.

Paper and Industrial Converted Products - Europe

Paper and Industrial Converted Products - Europe manufactures paperboard tubes and cores, fiber-based construction tubes and forms and recycled paperboard. In recent years the Eurozone has faced persistent high unemployment, spillover effects of geo-political conflicts in Eastern Europe and the Middle East, and uncertainties over the United Kingdom's exit negotiations with the European Union. Despite these issues, the economy experienced steady year over year growth in the last couple of years and the Company expects the momentum to continue in the near future. This outlook is supported by accommodative monetary policy, recovery in manufacturing and export activities, and lower inflation related to energy price declines. The growth is expected to slow down slightly in the outer years as the European Central Bank gradually tightens its monetary policies. In addition, the reporting unit has experienced a significant increase in raw material costs this year which it has not yet been able to fully offset through higher selling prices. Despite the challenges, management believes the reporting unit should be able to grow at or above the Eurozone's projected GDP growth rates and continue to mitigate the impact of these factors. However, if economic conditions were to deteriorate and management was unable to fully mitigate the impacts, or be unable to consistently recover additional significant cost increases or otherwise achieve expected sales volumes and profit margins, a goodwill impairment charge could be incurred. Total goodwill associated with this reporting unit was approximately $93 million at October 1, 2017. Based on the valuation work performed for the current year test, the estimated fair value of Paper and Industrial Converted Products - Europe exceeded its carrying value by approximately 29%.

Sensitivity Analysis

In its 2017 goodwill impairment analysis, projected future cash flows were discounted at 10.2% and 8.5% for Display and Packaging and Paper and Industrial Converted Products - Europe, respectively. Holding other valuation assumptions constant, Display and Packaging projected operating profits across all future periods would have to be reduced approximately 23%, or the discount rate increased to 12.7%, in order for the estimated fair value to fall below the reporting unit's carrying value. The corresponding percentages for Paper and Industrial Converted Products - Europe are 19% and 10.4%, respectively.

Financial Position, Liquidity and Capital Resources

Cash flows provided by operations totaled $282.1 million in the nine months ended October 1, 2017 compared with $348.7 million during the same period last year, a decline of $66.6 million. The year-over-year decrease in net income of $11.5 million was offset by an increase in year-to-date net pension and post-retirement plan expenses and contributions of $19.5 million. However, changes in tax accounts consumed $30.0 million more cash in the first nine months of 2017 compared to 2016. This increased consumption was partially driven by the settlement of outstanding taxes payable at the end of 2016 related to the disposal of the Company's blow molded plastics business. Asset impairment charges/losses on the dispositions of assets was $19.6 million less of a benefit in the current period compared to 2016. The benefit in 2016 included non-cash losses related to dispositions of a paper mill in France and retail packaging business in Puerto Rico, along with other previously announced restructuring actions and a goodwill impairment of the Company's industrial converted products business in Brazil.

Inventories consumed $15.0 million in the first nine months of 2017 compared with $11.3 million consumed in the first nine months of 2016. Trade accounts payable provided $29.3 million of cash during the nine months ended October 1, 2017 while consuming $7.7 million in the same period last year. Although the first nine months of both 2016 and 2017 saw increased rates of business activity following seasonal year-end slow downs, there were higher levels of deferred payments at December 31, 2015 than at December 31, 2016. As a result, more cash was used in 2016 to settle prior-year payables than was used in 2017. This difference was a primary contributor to the $21.6 million year-over-year improvement in cash provided by trade accounts payable.

Increases in accrued expenses provided $1.2 million of cash in the nine months ended October 1, 2017 while providing $16.4 million in the same period last year, primarily due to lower year-over-year accruals for management incentives, restructuring activities, payroll, payroll-related taxes and withholdings. Also reflected in the current year accrued expense reduction is a $3.3 million payment for the final settlement of environmental claims related to Fox

River. Changes in prepaid expenses and other assets and liabilities used $22.0 million of additional cash in 2017 compared to 2016, largely attributable to a current year increase in miscellaneous prepaid expenses and the collection of miscellaneous receivables in the first nine months of 2016 that were outstanding at the end of 2015. Similar levels of miscellaneous receivable items were not outstanding at the end of 2016.

Cash used in investing activities was $522.6 million in the nine months ended October 1, 2017, compared with $165.2 million in the same period last year. The $357.4 million increase in the net use of cash reflects the 2017 acquisition of Packaging Holdings and Clear Lam for $383.4 million and capital spending increased $2.7 million year over year.

Capital spending for the remainder of 2017 is expected to total approximately $45 million.

Cash provided by financing activities totaled $218.3 million in the nine months ended October 1, 2017, $422.6 million more than the $204.3 million use of cash in the same period last year. Outstanding debt was $1,426.1 million at October 1, 2017 compared with $1,052.7 million at December 31, 2016. Net debt borrowings provided $338.1 million of cash during the nine months ended October 1, 2017. This activity included proceeds from a $250.0 million term loan which were used to repay the $150.0 million term loan entered into on March 13, 2017, and the remaining $100.0 million was used to partially fund the Clear Lam acquisition. There was also a $98.0 million increase in borrowings from commercial paper year over year. In the prior-year period, net debt repayments used $38.6 million of cash. The Company paid cash dividends of $114.4 million during the nine months ended October 1, 2017, an increase of $4.5 million over the same period last year. Cash used to repurchase the Company's common stock was lower year over year by $59.1 million as throughout 2016 the Company was engaged in a $100 million stock buyback program that was concluded by the end of the year.

On July 20, 2017, the Company entered into a Credit Agreement in connection with a new $750 million bank credit facility which replaced the credit facility entered into on October 2, 2014, and reflected substantially the same terms and conditions. Included in the new facility are a $500 million five-year revolving credit facility and a $250 million five-year term loan. The Company is continuing to explore strategic acquisition opportunities which may result in the additional use of cash. Given the nature of acquisitions, the timing and amounts of such utilization are not predictable. The Company expects that acquisitions requiring funding in excess of cash on hand would be financed using available borrowing capacity.

Cash and cash equivalents totaled $247.9 million and $257.2 million at October 1, 2017 and December 31, 2016, respectively. Of these totals, approximately $222 million and $175 million, respectively, were held outside of the United States by the Company's foreign subsidiaries. Cash held outside of the United States is available to meet local liquidity needs, or for capital expenditures, acquisitions, and other offshore growth opportunities. Under current law, cash repatriated to the United States is subject to federal income taxes, less applicable foreign tax credits. Because the Company has domestic liquidity through a combination of on-going operating cash flow and access to bank and capital markets borrowings, it has generally considered its offshore cash balances to be indefinitely invested outside the United States and the Company currently has no plans to repatriate any of these cash balances. Accordingly, as of October 1, 2017, the Company is not providing for any deferred tax liability on the foreign earnings associated with these balances. However, if any such balances were to be repatriated, additional income tax payments could result. Computation of the potential deferred tax liability associated with unremitted earnings deemed to be indefinitely reinvested is not practicable.

The Company uses a notional pooling arrangement with an international bank to help manage global liquidity requirements. Under this pooling arrangement, the Company and its participating subsidiaries may maintain either cash deposit or borrowing positions through local currency accounts with the bank, so long as the aggregate position of the global pool is a notionally calculated net cash deposit. Because the bank maintains a security interest in the cash deposits, and has the right to offset the cash deposits against the borrowings, the bank provides the Company and its subsidiaries favorable interest terms on both.

During the nine months ended October 1, 2017, the Company reported a net increase in cash and cash equivalents of $12.9 million due to a weaker U.S. dollar relative to certain foreign currencies, most notably the Canadian dollar, Euro, and Mexican peso.

Certain of the Company's debt agreements impose restrictions with respect to the maintenance of financial ratios and the disposition of assets. The most restrictive covenants currently require the Company to maintain a minimum level of interest coverage, and a minimum level of net worth, as defined in the agreements. As of October 1, 2017, the Company's interest coverage and net worth were substantially above the minimum levels required under these covenants.

The Company expects to make additional contributions to its pension and postretirement plans of approximately $55 million during the remainder of 2017, which includes a voluntary contribution to its U.S. qualified defined benefit pension plan of $50 million made on October 25, 2017. Contributions to its pension and postretirement plans are expected to total approximately $107 million in 2017. Future funding requirements beyond the current year will vary depending largely on actual investment returns, future actuarial assumptions, and legislative actions.

45

Fair Value Measurements, Foreign Exchange Exposure and Risk Management

Certain assets and liabilities are reported in the Company's financial statements at fair value, the fluctuation of which can impact the Company's financial position and results of operations. Items reported by the Company at fair value on a recurring basis include derivative contracts and pension and deferred compensation related assets. The valuation of the vast majority of these items is based either on quoted prices in active and accessible markets or on other observable inputs.

As a result of operating globally, the Company is exposed to changes in foreign exchange rates. The exposure is well diversified, as the Company's operations are located throughout the world, and the Company generally sells in the same countries where it produces with both revenue and costs transacted in the local currency. The Company monitors these exposures and may use traditional currency swaps and forward exchange contracts to hedge a portion of forecasted transactions that are denominated in foreign currencies, foreign currency assets and liabilities or net investment in foreign subsidiaries. The Company's foreign operations are exposed to political, geopolitical and cultural risks, but the risks are mitigated by diversification and the relative stability of the countries in which the Company has significant operations.

Prior to July 1, 2015, the Company used Venezuela's official exchange rate to report the results of its operations in Venezuela. As a result of significant inflationary increases, and to avoid distortion of its consolidated results from translation of its Venezuelan operations, the Company concluded that it was an appropriate time to begin translating its Venezuelan operations at an alternative exchange rate. Accordingly, effective July 1, 2015, the Company began translating its Venezuelan operating results and all monetary assets and liabilities in Venezuela using the alternative rate known as the SIMADI rate (replaced in 2016 by the DICOM rate). At October 1, 2017, the carrying value of the Company's net investment in its Venezuelan operations was approximately $2.3 million. In addition, at October 1, 2017, the Company's Accumulated Other Comprehensive Loss included a translation loss of $3.8 million related to its Venezuelan operations which would need to be reclassified to net income in the event of a complete exit of the business or a deconsolidation of these operations.

At October 1, 2017, the Company had commodity contracts outstanding to fix the cost of a portion of anticipated raw materials and natural gas purchases. The total net fair market value of these instruments was $0.0 million and a favorable position of $3.6 million at October 1, 2017 and December 31, 2016, respectively. Natural gas and aluminum hedge contracts covering an equivalent of 5.8 MMBTUs and 1,210 metric tons, respectively, were outstanding at October 1, 2017. PART II. OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. Legal Proceedings.

Information with respect to legal proceedings and other exposures appears in Part I - Item 3 - "Legal Proceedings" and Part II - Item 8 - "Financial Statements and Supplementary Data" (Note 14 - "Commitments and Contingencies") in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016, and in Part I - Item 1 - "Financial Statements" (Note 13 - "Commitments and Contingencies") of this report.

Environmental Matters

The Company has been named as a potentially responsible party (PRP) at several environmentally contaminated sites not owned by the Company. All of the sites are also the responsibility of other parties. The Company's liability, if any, is shared with such other parties, but the Company's share has not been finally determined in most cases. In some cases, the Company has cost-sharing arrangements with other PRPs with respect to a particular site. Such agreements relate to the sharing of legal defense costs or cleanup costs, or both. The Company has assumed, for purposes of estimating amounts to be accrued, that the other parties to such cost-sharing agreements will perform as agreed. It appears that final resolution of some of the sites is years away, and actual costs to be incurred for these environmental matters in future periods is likely to vary from current estimates because of the inherent uncertainties in evaluating environmental exposures. Accordingly, the ultimate cost to the Company with respect to such sites, beyond what has been accrued at October 1, 2017, cannot be determined. As of October 1, 2017 and December 31, 2016, the Company had accrued $20.5 million and $24.5 million, respectively, related to environmental contingencies. The Company periodically reevaluates the assumptions used in determining the appropriate reserves for environmental matters as additional information becomes available and, when warranted, makes appropriate adjustments.

Fox River

In January 2017, U.S. Paper Mills Corp. (U.S. Mills), a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, obtained Court approval of a final settlement of cost recovery claims made by Appvion, Inc. for $3.3 million. The settlement was paid during the first quarter of 2017. Legal and professional fees relating to the settlement, totaling $0.4 million, were paid during the first and second quarters of 2017. As a result of the settlement becoming final, the Company and U.S. Mills have resolved all pending or threatened legal proceedings related to the Fox River matter, as well as any such proceedings known to be contemplated by government authorities.
