PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report portion thereof could not be filed within the prescribed time period. (Attach extra sheets if needed.)

Alliance One International, Inc. (the Company) will be unable to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year end March 31, 2008 within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort or expense. The delay is the result of time required to finalize accounting related to reserves and financial statement presentation concerning farmer rural credit accounting. Management, in consultation with the Company's Audit Committee of the Board of Directors, is in the process of completing the necessary analysis. The Company expects to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended March 31, 2008, as soon as practicable after the completion of these additional procedures, which the Company expects will be no later than July 1, 2008.

Annex A

The following description is being included solely to address the disclosure requirements of this Form 12b-25 and is not intended as a complete discussion or analysis of results of operations for the periods covered. The Company expects to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended March 31, 2008, no later than July 1, 2008, and such report will contain a more complete discussion and analysis of the Company's financial position and results of operations.

Management is still in the process of preparing the financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2008. As a result, it is not possible to quantify any changes in results of operations that may be reflected by the earnings statement to be included therein at this time. Such changes could be significant in comparison to the Company's earning statement for its fiscal year ended March 31, 2007.

This filing contains "forward-looking statements" as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements are based on current expectations of future events. Such statements include, but are not limited to, statements about future financial and operating results, plans, objectives, expectations and intentions and other statements that are not historical facts. Such statements are based on the current beliefs and expectations of Alliance One's management and are subject to significant risks and uncertainties. If underlying assumptions prove inaccurate or unknown risks or uncertainties materialize, actual results may differ materially from current expectations and projections. The following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ from those set forth in the forward-looking statements: changes in the timing of anticipated shipments, changes in anticipated geographic product sourcing, political instability in sourcing locations, our ability to implement cost savings initiatives, currency and interest rate fluctuations, shifts in the global supply and demand position for tobacco products, and the impact of regulation and litigation on Alliance One's customers. Additional factors that could cause Alliance One's results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements can be found in Alliance One's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2007, and other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") which are available at the SEC's website (www.sec.gov).
