Procedures to be performed prior to proceeding with discussing the agenda

ARTICLE 9 – (1) The Chairman reads or has the agenda of the meeting read to the general assembly. It is asked whether there is any change proposal with respect to discussing order of the agenda items by the Chairman. If there is any proposal, it is submitted for the general assembly's approval. The discussing order of the agenda items can be changed by the resolution of the majority of the votes present in the meeting.

Agenda and discussing agenda items

ARTICLE 10 – (1) The agenda of the ordinary general assembly meeting should include the following issues necessarily:

- a) Opening and constitution of the Presidency Board.
- b) Discussion of the annual report of the board of directors, the independent auditor's reports and the financial statements
- c) Discharge of the members of the board of directors as well as the auditors, if any.
- d) Selection of the members of the board of directors and the independent auditor whose duty period is expired.
- e) Determination of remunerations as well as other rights of the members of the board of directors like attendance fee, bonus and premium.
- e) Determination of use method and distribution of the profit as well as dividend share ratios.
- f) Discussion of amendments to the articles of association, if any.
- g) Other issues considered as necessary.

(2) The agenda of the extraordinary general assembly meeting is constituted by the reasons requiring such meeting.

(3) The issues not included in the agenda of the meeting may not be discussed and resolved save for the exceptions specified hereunder:

- a) Any issue may be added into the agenda unanimously in cases where all of the shareholders are present.
- b) Pursuant to the article 438 of the Code, special auditing request of any shareholder is resolved by the general assembly without considering whether such request is included in the agenda.
- c) The issues related with dismissal of the members of the board of directors and election of the new ones are considered as related with the discussion of the year-end financial statements and resolved by discussing the same directly upon request without considering whether there is any item in the agenda related thereto.
- d) In case of valid grounds like corruption, incapacity, violation of loyalty obligation, difficulty in performance of the duty due to membership to multiple companies, dissension, fraud on a power, the issues related with dismissal of the members of the board of directors and election of the new ones are included into the agenda by majority of votes of those present in general assembly meeting even if there is no item in the agenda related thereto.

- (4) Any agenda item discussed and resolved in the general assembly meeting may not be discussed and resolved again unless a resolution for this purpose is adopted by unanimous votes of those present.
- (5) The issues requested to be discussed in the general assembly meeting of the company by the Ministry as a result of conducted inspection or for any other reason are included into the agenda.
- (6) The agenda is determined by the party convoking the general assembly for meeting.

Having a speech at the meeting

ARTICLE 11 – (1) The shareholders or other concerned parties wishing to make a speech about the agenda item under discussion notify the case to the Presidency Board. The chairmanship discloses the persons who shall make the speech to the general assembly and grants right to speak to these persons in order of application. If the person whose turn to make a speech comes is not present in the meeting place, he/she loses his/her right to make a speech. The speeches are made from the place allocated for this purpose by addressing to the general assembly. The persons can change their order to make speech between each other. In cases where speech time is limited, any person making his/her speech in his/her turn can continue his/her speech when his/her speech time expired only if the person who shall make the speech immediately after him/her grants his/her right to speak to the said person provided that completing his/her speech within the speech time of the person who shall take the floor immediately after him/her. The speech time may not be extended otherwise.

(2) The members of the board of directors can make a speech, as well as the auditor requesting to make explanation about the matters under discussion by the Chairman irrespective of order.

(3) The speech times are determined by the general assembly upon recommendation of the Chairman or the shareholders considering the density of the agenda, the quantity and the importance of the issues that should be discussed as well as the number of the persons wishing to make a speech. In such cases, the general assembly decides on whether limiting the speech time is necessary first and then, on the length of time by means of separate voting.

(4) As to communication of the opinions and the suggestions by the shareholders or their proxies attending to the general assembly meeting electronically pursuant to the article 1527 of the Code, the procedures and the principles determined in said article and subordinate arrangements related thereto are applied.

Vote and voting procedure

ARTICLE 12 – (1) Prior to commencing the voting, the Chairman discloses the issue to be voted to the general assembly. If a draft resolution shall be voted, the voting is proceeded with after such draft is determined in writing and read. The speech can be asked about the procedure only after disclosing the fact that the voting shall be proceeded with. During this process, if there is any shareholder not granted with the right to make a speech despite his/her request, such shareholder exercise his/her right make a speech on condition that he/she reminds the case and the case is verified by the Chairman. The speech may not be given after commencement of the voting.

(2) The votes related with the issues discussed in the meeting are cast by show of hands. However, upon request of those possessing one-tenth of the capital represented by the present shareholders, secret voting can be applied. These votes are scrutinized by the Presidency Board. The Presidency Board is entitled to charge persons in sufficient number for the purpose of helping in counting the votes when necessary. Those not showing their hands are deemed as casted “against” vote and such votes are considered as casted against the relevant resolution during the assessment.

(3) As to voting by the shareholders or their proxies attending to the general assembly meeting electronically pursuant to the article 1527 of the Code, the procedures and the principles determined in said article and subordinate arrangements related thereto are applied.

(4) Pursuant to the provisions of the article 17 of the articles of association, the resolution quorum in the general assembly meetings of the company is the majority of the affirmative votes of the shareholders present in the meeting save for the cases where higher quorums are stipulated by the Code. As an exception of this provision, it is obligatory to obtain affirmative votes of 2/3 of the present shareholders for the amendments to the company’s articles of association other than those related with increase in upper limit of registered capital.

Issuance of meeting minutes

ARTICLE 13 – (1) An attendance list showing the shareholders or their representatives, the shares owned by them, groups, numbers and nominal values thereof is signed as well as issuance of the minutes in accordance with the principles set forth in the Code and the relevant legislation through specifying the questions asked and responses given in general assembly meeting in summary as well as adopted resolutions and the numbers of votes casted for and against each resolution on the minutes clearly is ensured by the Chairman.
