The Black-Scholes option valuation model was developed for use in estimating the fair value of traded options which have no vesting restrictions and are fully transferable. In addition, option valuation models require the input of highly subjective assumptions including the expected stock price volatility. Because the Company's stock options have characteristics significantly different from those of traded options, and because changes in the subjective input assumptions can materially affect the fair value estimate, in management's opinion, the Black-Scholes model does not necessarily provide a reliable measure of the fair value of the Company's stock options.

The following table sets forth information concerning option exercises and the value of unexercised options as of February 2, 2002 for the executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table above.

Employees Retirement Plan

As of December 31, 1999, substantially all employees of the Company were covered under the Company's Employees Retirement Plan (the Retirement Plan). The Retirement Plan is a defined benefit pension plan. As of January 1, 2000, the Retirement Plan was amended so that employees no longer earn benefits for subsequent service. Subsequent service continues to be the basis for vesting of benefits not yet vested at December 31, 1999 and the Retirement Plan will continue to hold assets and pay benefits. The amendment was treated as a curtailment in fiscal 1999.

A participant's annual benefit is determined for an employee, including an officer, generally as (i) 0.7% of the participant's average annual pay as determined in accordance with the Retirement Plan up to Social Security-covered compensation, multiplied by the participant's years of credited service, plus (ii) 1.3% of the participant's average annual pay as determined in accordance with the Retirement Plan in excess of Social Security-covered compensation, multiplied by the participant's years of credited service. A participant's maximum benefit is limited pursuant to Section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), to $130,000 for 1999, indexed annually. Compensation recognized is limited to $160,000 based upon the Retirement Plan.

Credited years of service under the Retirement Plan as of February 2, 2002 for the individuals named in the Summary Compensation Table above are: Leonard Riggio 12 years; Mitchell S. Klipper 11 years; J. Alan Kahn 2 years; and David S. Deason 10 years. Maureen E. O'Connell is not a participant.

Table of Contents

The following table illustrates the maximum annual amounts payable at age 65 under the Retirement Plan, based on various levels of highest average annual salary and years of credited service:

Assumed Highest Average Salary	Years of Credited Service
	15	20	25	30	35
$125,000	21,135	28,180	35,225	42,270	49,315
$150,000	26,010	34,680	43,350	52,020	60,690
$160,000 and above(1)	27,960	37,280	46,600	55,920	65,240

- (1) The benefits shown corresponding to this compensation reflect the compensation limit under Section 401(a)(17) of the Code. A participant's compensation in excess of $150,000 (as adjusted to reflect cost-of-living increases) is disregarded for purposes of determining highest average earnings in plan years beginning in 1994 through 1996. A participant's compensation in excess of $160,000 (as adjusted to reflect cost-of-living increases) is disregarded for purposes of determining highest average earnings in plan years beginning in 1997 through 1999. Benefits accrued as of the last day of the plan year beginning in 1993 on the basis of compensation in excess of $150,000 are preserved.

Employment Agreements

Stephen Riggio has an employment agreement for his services as Vice Chairman entered into as of January 2000 and expiring in 2005. The agreement provides for a minimum annual salary of $500,000, and an annual bonus determined in accordance with the Barnes & Noble, Inc. Supplemental Compensation Plan. The agreement also provides for life and long-term disability insurance, a severance arrangement of salary continuation for two years in the event his employment terminates other than as a result of death, disability or resignation, and a two-year post-employment, non-competition agreement. The agreement renews annually upon expiration, unless terminated by either party on 12 months prior notice. Mr. Riggio's principal duties under the agreement are to oversee and develop investments in the Company's existing and future affiliates, including Barnes & Noble.com and iUniverse.com, and any cash compensation received by him from any such affiliates is credited against the Company's salary payment obligations. The employment agreement is currently being renegotiated in light of Mr. Riggio's promotion to Chief Executive Officer in February 2002.

Mitchell S. Klipper entered into a new employment agreement expiring in 2005 in connection with his promotion to Chief Operating Officer in February 2002. The agreement provides for a minimum annual salary of $600,000, and an annual bonus determined in accordance with the Barnes & Noble, Inc. Supplemental Compensation Plan. The agreement also provides for life and long-term disability insurance, a car allowance and a two-year post-employment, non-competition agreement. The agreement also provides for grants of options to purchase 800,000 shares of Common Stock (but not exceeding 700,000 in any calendar year) at exercise prices not exceeding the fair market value of the Common Stock on the date of the employment agreement. The agreement also provides for lump sum severance payments equal to two years salary, bonus and benefits in the event his employment terminates involuntarily without Cause (as defined), and equal to three years salary, bonus and benefits in the event his employment terminates involuntarily (or voluntarily for Good Cause, as defined) within two years following a change in control of the Company. The agreement renews annually upon expiration, unless terminated by either party on 12 months prior notice.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Company's executive officer compensation program is administered by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors, consisting of the three non-employee directors listed below. The program is based upon the following guiding principles:

1. The pay and benefits provided by the Company to its executive officers should be competitive and allow the Company to attract and retain individuals whose skills are critical to the long-term success of the Company.

Table of Contents

2. The compensation offered by the Company should reward and motivate individual and team performance in attaining business objectives and maximizing stockholder value.

The Compensation Committee reviews the Company's executive compensation program each year. This review includes a comparison of the Company's executive compensation, corporate performance, stock appreciation and total return to the stockholders with that of other companies, including other retailers.

The key elements of the Company's executive compensation package consist of base salary, annual bonus and stock options. The Company's policies with respect to each of these elements are discussed below. In addition, while the elements of compensation described below are considered separately, the Compensation Committee also considers and reviews the full compensation package afforded by the Company to its executive officers, including pension, insurance and other benefits. The Compensation Committee makes its determinations after receiving and considering the recommendations of the Company's chief executive officer.

Base Salaries. An executive officer's base salary is determined by evaluating the responsibilities of the position held, the individual's experience and the competitive marketplace for executive talent. The base salary is intended to be competitive with base salaries paid to executive officers with comparable qualifications, experience and responsibilities at other companies.

Annual Bonuses. In addition to a base salary, each executive officer is eligible for an annual cash bonus. Bonuses for senior executive officers of the Company are based upon annual net earnings of the Company and are determined pursuant to the Barnes & Noble, Inc. Supplemental Compensation Plan (the Supplemental Compensation Plan), which was approved by the Company's shareholders at their annual meeting on May 31, 1995.

The Supplemental Compensation Plan provides that senior executive officers designated by the Compensation Committee are entitled to a cash bonus in accordance with a sliding scale formula based on the extent to which a pre-established earnings-per-share target is attained. In general, not later than 90 days after the commencement of each fiscal year of the Company (and before 25% of the relevant period of service has elapsed), the Compensation Committee establishes in writing a target earnings-per-share (the Target), the attainment of which is substantially uncertain. The Target which is established for each fiscal year must exceed the earnings-per-share for the immediately previous fiscal year. Targets are subject to adjustment for recapitalizations, dividends, stock splits and reverse splits, reorganizations, issuances of additional shares, redemptions of shares, option or warrant exercises, reclassifications, significant acquisitions and divestitures and other extraordinary events.

Each participating executive officer is entitled to receive a cash bonus based on a percentage of his or her base salary for the fiscal year (Base Salary) as follows:

If Actual Earnings-Per-Share are:	Then the Amount of the Cash Bonus is:
Less than 80% of Target	None
80% or more but less than 91% of Target	30% of Base Salary
91% or more but less than 100% of Target	45% of Base Salary
100% or more but less than 109% of Target	60% of Base Salary
109% or more but less than 118% of Target	70% of Base Salary
118% or more of Target	80% of Base Salary

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event will the maximum cash bonus payable to any participating executive officer under the Supplemental Compensation Plan exceed $900,000 with respect to any fiscal year. In addition, no participating executive officer is entitled to receive any bonus under the Supplemental Compensation Plan with respect to any fiscal year unless the Company's actual earnings-per-share for such fiscal year (subject to adjustment as provided above) exceeds earnings-per-share for the prior fiscal year. No bonuses are paid until the Compensation Committee certifies the extent to which the Target has been attained.

Table of Contents

Leonard Riggio, Stephen Riggio, Mitchell S. Klipper, J. Alan Kahn and Maureen E. O'Connell are the senior executive officers of the Company currently participating in the Supplemental Compensation Plan.

Stock Options. The general purpose of long-term awards, currently in the form of stock options, is to align the interests of the executive officers with the interests of the Company's stockholders. Additionally, long-term awards offer executive officers an incentive for the achievement of superior performance over time and foster the retention of key management personnel. In determining annual stock option grants, the Compensation Committee has based its decision on the individual's performance and potential to improve stockholder value. The issuance of options at 100 percent of the fair market value also assures that executives will receive a benefit only when the stock price increases.

Compensation of Chief Executive Officer. Leonard Riggio's compensation is determined pursuant to the principles noted above, including a bonus as determined by the Supplemental Compensation Plan. Specific consideration is given to Mr. Riggio's responsibilities and experience in the industry and the compensation package awarded to chief executive officers of other comparable companies.

Impact of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Compensation Committee has considered the potential impact of Section 162(m) of the Code, adopted under the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993. This section disallows a tax deduction for any publicly held corporation, for individual compensation exceeding $1,000,000 in any taxable year paid to its chief executive officer or any of its four other highest paid officers unless (i) the compensation is payable solely on account of the attainment of performance goals, (ii) the performance goals are determined by a Compensation Committee of two or more outside directors, (iii) the material terms under which compensation is to be paid are disclosed to and approved by stockholders and (iv) the Compensation Committee certifies that the performance goals were met. Because it is in the best interests of the Company to qualify to the maximum extent possible the compensation of its executives for deductibility under applicable tax laws, the Company has implemented the Supplemental Compensation Plan, which provides for the payment of compensation in compliance with the above guidelines.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

The Company believes that the transactions and agreements discussed below (including renewals of any existing agreements) between the Company and its affiliates are at least as favorable to the Company as could be obtained from unaffiliated parties. The Board of Directors and the Audit Committee must approve in advance any such proposed transaction or agreement with affiliates and will utilize procedures in evaluating the terms and provisions of such proposed transaction or agreement as are appropriate in light of the fiduciary duties of directors under Delaware law. See Election of Directors Meetings and Committees of the Board Audit Committee.

The Company leases space for its executive offices in properties in which Leonard Riggio, Chairman of the Board and principal stockholder of Barnes & Noble, has a minority interest. The Company leases a 75,000-square-foot office/warehouse from a partnership in which Leonard Riggio has a 50 percent interest, pursuant to a lease expiring in 2023. Pursuant to such lease, the Company paid $490,000 in fiscal 2001.

The Company leases retail space in a building in which B&N College, a company owned by Leonard Riggio, subleases space for its executive offices from the Company. Occupancy costs allocated by the Company to B&N College for this space totaled $748,000 for fiscal 2001. The amount paid by B&N College to the Company approximates the cost per square foot paid by the Company to its unaffiliated third-party landlord.

The Company subleases warehouse space from Barnes & Noble.com in Reno, Nevada. The Company paid Barnes & Noble.com $1,838,000 for such subleased space during fiscal 2001. Additionally, in January 2001, the Company purchased $6,186,000 of warehouse equipment (valued at original cost) from Barnes & Noble.com's Reno warehouse. Barnes & Noble.com recently determined it could not effectively utilize the full capacity of the Reno, Nevada distribution center. As a result, Barnes & Noble.com's Board of Directors approved the transfer of the Reno warehouse lease and the sale of inventory located in Reno to the Company. The Company purchased the inventory from Barnes & Noble.com at cost for approximately $10,000,000. In addition, the Company intends to spend approximately $2,000,000 to refurbish the facility. The Company's Board of Directors also approved the Company's assumption of the lease, which expires in 2010, and the hiring of all of the employees at the Reno facility. The Company intends to use the Reno facility to facilitate distribution to its current and future West Coast stores. In connection with the transition, Barnes & Noble.com will pay rent for the Reno facility through December 31, 2002 of $1,600,000. The Reno lease assignment and the transfer of the operations of the Reno facility to the Company is expected to be completed during the first half of 2002.

The Company subleases to Barnes & Noble.com approximately one-third of a 300,000-square-foot warehouse facility located in New Jersey. The Company has received from Barnes & Noble.com $479,000 for such subleased space during fiscal 2001. The amount paid by Barnes & Noble.com to the Company approximates the cost per square foot paid by the Company as a tenant pursuant to the lease of the space from an unaffiliated third party.

The Company has entered into an agreement (the Supply Agreement) with Barnes & Noble.com whereby the Company charges Barnes & Noble.com the costs associated with such purchases plus incremental overhead incurred by the Company in connection with providing such inventory. The Supply Agreement is subject to certain termination provisions. The Company has entered into agreements whereby Barnes & Noble.com receives various services from the Company, including, among others, services for payroll processing, benefits administration, insurance (property and casualty, medical, dental and life), tax, traffic, fulfillment and telecommunications. In accordance with the terms of such agreements the Company has received, and expects to continue to receive, fees in an amount equal to the direct costs plus incremental expenses associated with providing such services. The Company received $5,465,000 for such services during fiscal 2001.

The aggregate receivable from Barnes & Noble.com in connection with the agreements described above was $47,204,000 as of February 2, 2002.

The Company and Barnes & Noble.com commenced a marketing program in November 2000, whereby a customer purchases a Readers Advantage card for an annual membership fee of $25.00. With this card, customers can receive discounts of 10 percent on all Company purchases and 5 percent on all Barnes & Noble.com purchases. The Company and Barnes & Noble.com have agreed to share the expenses, net of revenue from the sale of the cards, related to this program in proportion to the discounts customers receive on purchases with each company.

Barnes & Noble.com, through its fulfillment centers, ships various customer orders for the Company to its retail stores as well as to the Company's customers' homes. Barnes & Noble.com charges the Company the costs associated with such shipments plus any incremental overhead incurred by Barnes & Noble.com to process these orders. The Company paid Barnes & Noble.com $1,030,000 for shipping and handling during fiscal 2001. In addition, during fiscal 2001, the Company and Barnes & Noble.com reached an agreement whereby the Company pays a commission on all items ordered by customers at the Company's stores and shipped directly to customers' homes by Barnes & Noble.com. Commissions paid for these sales were $359,000 during fiscal 2001.

The Company paid B&N College certain operating costs B&N College incurred on the Company's behalf. These charges approximated $188,000 for fiscal 2001. B&N College purchased $41,452,000 of merchandise from the Company during fiscal 2001. The Company is provided with national freight distribution, including trucking, services by the LTA Group, Inc. (LTA), a company in which a brother of Leonard Riggio owns a 20 percent interest. The Company paid LTA $17,746,000 for such services during fiscal 2001. The Company believes the cost of freight delivered to the stores compares favorably to the prices charged by publishers and other third-party freight distributors.

Since 1993, the Company has used AEC One Stop Group, Inc. (AEC) as its primary music and video supplier and to provide a music and video database. AEC is one of the largest wholesale distributors of music and videos in the United States. APPROVAL OF THE AMENDMENT TO THE BARNES & NOBLE, INC.
1996 INCENTIVE PLAN

PROPOSAL 2

The Board of Directors has approved, subject to the approval of the Company's stockholders, amendments to the 1996 Incentive Plan (the Incentive Plan), which: (1) increase the maximum number of shares that may be the subject of awards from 11,000,000 to 14,500,000 shares; (2) extend the expiration date of the Incentive Plan from May 28, 2006 to December 31, 2010; and (3) revise certain provisions (described below) to reflect changes to Rule 16b-3 (Rule 16b-3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), that have occurred since the adoption of the Incentive Plan in 1996.

Table of Contents

The purpose of the Incentive Plan is to assist the Company in attracting and retaining selected individuals to serve as Directors, officers, consultants, advisors and employees of the Company who will contribute to the Company's success and to achieve long-term objectives which will inure to the benefit of all stockholders of the Company through the additional incentive inherent in the ownership of the Common Stock. The Incentive Plan provides that options to acquire shares of Common Stock (Shares) may be granted to key officers, employees, consultants, advisors and Directors of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates as shall be selected from time to time by a committee of not fewer than two Directors of the Company (the Committee), as designated by the Board of Directors. Awards under the Incentive Plan may take the form of stock options (Options), including corresponding share appreciation rights (SARs) and reload options, restricted stock awards and stock purchase awards.

As of the date of this Proxy Statement, substantially all of the Shares currently issuable under the Incentive Plan were reserved for issuance for outstanding options previously issued under the Incentive Plan. Grants under the Incentive Plan have been used by the Company to incentivize all levels of Company management, including store managers. As of the date of this Proxy Statement, Options granted under the Incentive Plan were held by approximately 1,400 employees of the Company.

With respect to the proposed increased Shares under the Incentive Plan, the Company anticipates granting Options to acquire Shares to employees and key executives in amounts calculated based upon salary, as well as special grants in lieu of promotions (in amounts not expected to exceed 5,000 Shares) and for new hires. The Company's policy is to award annual Option grants to a broad spectrum of its management at fair market value exercise prices, generally vesting over four years. For each annual Option grant, recipients generally receive Share amounts in the same percentage of their salary as other recipients. All exceptions are approved by the Compensation Committee. It is the Company's intention to exclude Leonard Riggio and Stephen Riggio from any grants of the increased Shares under the Incentive Plan.

Additional changes to the Incentive Plan, designed to reflect changes to Rule 16b-3 that have occurred since the adoption of the Incentive Plan in 1996, are: (1) providing that the Incentive Plan be administered by a committee comprised of Non-Employee Directors within the meaning of current Rule 16b-3, instead of disinterested persons within the meaning of former Rule 16(b)-3(c)(2)(i) of the Exchange Act; (2) eliminating formula grants to Non-Employee Directors and providing that grants to members of the Committee shall be on terms consistent with awards made to other Non-Employee Directors who are not on the Committee; and (3) eliminating the narrow exercise window for stock appreciation rights previously required by former Rule 16(b)-3(e)(1)(ii) under the Exchange Act.

The Board of Directors believes that stock options provide performance incentives to eligible participants to the benefit of the Company and its stockholders, and recommends approval of the amendments to the Incentive Plan by the stockholders.

The following is a summary of the Incentive Plan, incorporating the proposed amendments. This summary is qualified in all respects by reference to the full text of the Incentive Plan included herein as Appendix A.

Share Authorization

The maximum number of Shares that may be the subject of awards under the Incentive Plan is 14,500,000 Shares. The Incentive Plan provides that in any given year, the maximum number of Shares with respect to which Options or SARs may be granted to any employee is 700,000 Shares. Shares covered by any unexercised portions of terminated Options, Shares forfeited by participants and Shares subject to any awards that are otherwise surrendered by a participant without receiving any payment or other benefit with respect thereto may again be subject to new awards under the Incentive Plan. In the event the purchase price of an Option is paid in whole or in part through the delivery of Shares, the number of Shares issuable in connection with the exercise of the Option shall not again be available for the grant of awards under the Incentive Plan. Shares subject to Options, or portions thereof, with respect to which SARs are exercised, are not again available for the grant of awards under the Incentive Plan. The Shares to be issued or delivered under the Incentive Plan are authorized and unissued Shares, or issued Shares that have been acquired by the Company, or both.

Incentive Plan Administration

The Incentive Plan is to be administered by a committee (the Committee) of at least two Directors, all of whom are to be Non-Employee Directors within the meaning of Rule 16b-3 and disinterested directors within the meaning of Section 162(m)(4)(C)(i) of the Code. The Compensation Committee of the Board, currently consisting of Messrs. Berdon (Chairman) and Sheluck and Ms. Monaco, constitute the current members of the Committee. The Board of Directors may remove from, add members to, or fill vacancies in the Committee. The Committee is authorized, subject to the provisions of the Incentive Plan, to establish such rules and regulations as it may deem appropriate for the conduct of meetings and proper administration of the Incentive Plan. Subject to the provisions of the Incentive Plan, the Committee shall have authority, in its sole discretion, to grant awards under the Incentive Plan, to interpret the provisions of the Incentive Plan and, subject to the requirements of applicable law, to prescribe, amend, and rescind rules and regulations relating to the Incentive Plan or any award thereunder as it may deem necessary or advisable. Any award to a member of the Committee shall be on terms consistent with awards made to other Non-Employee Directors who are not on the Committee.

Options

Incentive Stock Options meeting requirements of Section 422 of the Code and Nonqualified Stock Options that do not meet such requirements are both available for grant under the Incentive Plan. The term of each Option will be determined by the Committee, but no Option will be exercisable more than ten years after the date of grant (except in the case of Options that are Nonqualified Stock Options, where the Committee can specify a longer period). Options may also be subject to restrictions on exercise, such as exercise in periodic installments, as determined by the Committee. In general, the exercise price for Incentive Options must be at least equal to 100% of the fair market value of the Shares on the date of the grant and the exercise price for Nonqualified Stock Options will be determined by the Committee at the time of the grant. The exercise price can be paid in cash, or if approved by the Committee, by tendering Shares owned by the participant.

Options are not transferable except by will or the laws of descent and distribution and may be exercised only by the participant (or his guardian or legal representative) during his or her lifetime, except as provided below, provided, however, that Nonqualified Stock Options may, under certain circumstances, be transferable to family members and trusts for the benefit of the participant or his family members. If a participant's employment with the Company or service as a consultant or Director terminates for any reason (other than death or disability), any unexercised or unexpired Options will be deemed canceled and terminated on the date of such termination, unless the Committee decides to extend the term of such Options. In addition, where a participant's service terminates other than by reason of death or disability, under conditions satisfactory to the Company, the Committee may, in its sole discretion, allow any unexercised or unexpired Nonqualified Stock Options to be exercisable for a period of time to be specified by the Committee. If a participant dies while employed by the Company or during his term as a consultant or Director, any unexercised or unexpired Options will be, to the extent exercisable on the date of death, exercisable by the participant's estate or by any person who acquires such Options by bequest or inheritance, at any time generally within one year after such death. If a participant becomes totally disabled and his employment or service as a consultant or Director terminates as a result of such disability, the participant (or his guardian or legal representative) will have the unqualified right to exercise any unexercised and unexpired Options, to the extent exercisable at the time of total disability, generally for one year after such termination.

Share Appreciation Rights

The Incentive Plan provides that SARs may be granted in connection with the grant of Options. Each SAR must be associated with a specific Option and must be granted at the time of grant of such Option. A SAR is exercisable only to the extent the related Option is exercisable. Upon the exercise of a SAR, the recipient is entitled to receive from the Company, without the payment of any cash (except for any applicable withholding taxes), up to, but no more than, an amount in cash or Shares equal to the excess of (A) the fair market value of one Share on the date of such exercise over (B) the exercise price of any related Option, multiplied by the number of Shares in respect of which such SAR shall have been exercised. Upon the exercise of a SAR, the related Option, or the portion thereof in respect of which such SAR is exercised, will terminate. Upon the exercise of an Option granted in tandem with a SAR, such tandem SAR will terminate.

Reload Options

The Committee may grant, concurrently with the award of any Option (an Underlying Option), a reload option (a Reload Option) to such participant to purchase for cash or Shares a number of Shares equal to the number of Shares delivered by the participant to the Company to exercise the Underlying Option. Although an Underlying Option may be an Incentive Stock Option, a Reload Option is not intended to qualify as an Incentive Stock Option. A Reload Option will have the same expiration date as the Underlying Option and an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the Shares on the date of grant of the Reload Option. A Reload Option is exercisable six months from the date of grant. A Reload Option permits a participant to retain the potential Share appreciation in the number of already-owned Shares that are used to exercise an Underlying Option. Retention of such potential appreciation is accomplished by granting options for the number of Shares used to pay the exercise price of the Underlying Option. In this way, Reload Options provide a participant with the opportunity to build up ownership of Shares covered by an Underlying Option earlier during the Option term than through a single exercise at or near the end of the Option term.

Restricted Stock

The Company may award restricted Shares under the Incentive Plan. Such a grant gives a participant the right to receive Shares subject to a risk of forfeiture based upon certain conditions. The forfeiture restrictions on the Shares may be based upon performance standards, length of service or other criteria as the Committee may determine. Until all restrictions are satisfied, lapsed or waived, the Company will maintain custody over the restricted Shares but the participant will be able to vote the Shares and will be entitled to all distributions paid with respect to the Shares, as provided by the Committee. During such restrictive period, the restricted Shares may not be sold, assigned, transferred, pledged or otherwise encumbered. Upon termination of employment, the participant forfeits the right to the Shares to the extent the applicable performance standards, length of service requirements, or other measurement criteria have not been met.

Stock Purchase Awards

The Incentive Plan also permits the grant of stock purchase awards. Participants who are granted a stock purchase award are provided with a stock purchase loan to enable them to pay the purchase price for the Shares acquired pursuant to the award. A stock purchase loan will have a term of years to be determined by the Committee. The purchase price of Shares acquired with a stock purchase loan is the price equal to the fair market value on the date of the award. The Incentive Plan provides that up to 100% of the stock purchase loan may be forgiven over the loan term subject to such terms and conditions as the Committee shall determine, provided that the participant has not resigned as an employee of the Company. At the end of the loan term, the unpaid balance of the stock purchase loan will be due and payable. The interest rate on a stock purchase loan will be determined by the Committee. Stock purchase loans will be secured by a pledge to the Company of the Shares purchased pursuant to the stock purchase award and such loans will be recourse or non-recourse to a participant, as determined from time to time by the Committee.

If a participant's employment with the Company is terminated for any reason other than death or disability, the balance of the stock purchase loans to such participant will be immediately due and payable, unless otherwise determined by the Committee. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a participant's employment terminates by reason of death, disability, termination without cause or a change of control, the balance of such participant's stock purchase loans may be forgiven in full by the Committee.

Antidilution Provisions

The number of Shares authorized to be issued under the Incentive Plan and subject to outstanding awards (and the grant or exercise price thereof) may be adjusted to prevent dilution or enlargement of rights in the event of any dividend or other distribution, recapitalization, stock split, reverse stock split, reorganization, merger, consolidation, split-up, spin-off, combination, repurchase or exchange of Shares or other securities, the issuance of warrants or other rights to purchase Shares or other securities, or other similar capitalization change.

Certain Federal Income Tax Consequences of The Incentive Plan

The following is a brief summary of the principal federal income tax consequences of awards under the Incentive Plan. The summary is based upon current federal income tax laws and interpretations thereof, all of which are subject to change at any time, possibly with retroactive effect. The summary is not intended to be exhaustive and, among other things, does not describe state, local or foreign tax consequences.

A participant is not subject to federal income tax either at the time of grant or at the time of exercise of an Incentive Stock Option. However, upon exercise, the difference between the fair market value of the Shares and the exercise price is an item of tax preference subject to the possible application of the alternative minimum tax. If a participant does not dispose of Shares acquired through the exercise of an Incentive Stock Option in a disqualifying disposition (i.e., no disposition occurs within two years from the date of grant of the Incentive Stock Option nor within one year of the transfer of the Shares to the participant), then the participant will be taxed only upon the gain, if any, from the sale of such Shares, and such gain will be taxable as gain from the sale of a capital asset.

The Company will not receive any tax deduction on the exercise of an Incentive Stock Option or, if the above holding period requirements are met, on the sale of the underlying Shares. If there is a disqualifying disposition (i.e., one of the holding period requirements is not met), the participant will be treated as receiving compensation subject to ordinary income tax in the year of the disqualifying disposition and the Company will be entitled to a deduction for compensation expense in an amount equal to the amount included in income by the participant. The participant generally will be required to include in income an amount equal to the difference between the fair market value of the Shares at the time of exercise and the exercise price. Any appreciation in value after the time of exercise will be taxed as capital gain and will not result in any deduction by the Company.

If Nonqualified Stock Options are granted to a participant, there are no federal income tax consequences at the time of grant. Upon exercise of the Option, the participant must report as ordinary income an amount equal to the difference between the exercise price and the fair market value of the Shares on the date of exercise. The Company will receive a tax deduction in like amount. Any appreciation in value after the time of exercise will be taxed as capital gain and will not result in any deduction by the Company.

No income will be realized by the participant in connection with the grant of any SAR. The participant must include in ordinary income the amount of cash received and the fair market value on the exercise date of any Shares received upon the exercise of a SAR. The Company will be entitled to a deduction equal to the amount included in such participant's income by reason of the exercise of any SAR.

The receipt of a Reload Option by a holder of an Incentive Stock Option or a Nonqualified Stock Option who pays the exercise price in full or in part with previously acquired Shares should not affect the tax treatment of the exercise of such Incentive Stock Option or Nonqualified Stock Option (including the amount of ordinary income, if any, recognized upon exercise). A participant will not be subject to tax at the time a Reload Option is granted (except for any income recognized upon the exercise of a Nonqualified Stock Option at the time of grant of the Reload Option). A Reload Option will constitute a Nonqualified Stock Option for federal income tax purposes and will be taxed as such in the manner set forth above.

Except as described in the following paragraph, a grant of restricted Shares does not constitute a taxable event for either a participant or the Company. However, the participant will be subject to tax, at ordinary income rates, based on the fair market value of the Shares when they are no longer subject to a substantial risk of forfeiture or they become transferable. The Company will be entitled to take a commensurate deduction at that time.

A participant may elect to recognize taxable ordinary income at the time restricted Shares are awarded in amount equal to the fair market value of the Shares at the time of grant, determined without regard to any forfeiture restrictions. Any such election must be filed with the Internal Revenue Service within 30 days following the date of grant. If such an election is made, the Company will be entitled to a deduction at that time in the same amount. Future appreciation on the Shares will be taxed at the capital gains rate when the Shares are sold. However, if, after making such an election, the Shares are forfeited, the participant will be unable to claim a deduction.

A participant who receives a stock purchase award incurs no tax liability and the Company does not receive any deduction at the time Shares are acquired through a stock purchase award. However, to the extent the stock purchase loan is forgiven, the participant will be required to recognize income in an amount equal to the forgiven portion of the loan. The Company will be entitled to take a commensurate deduction at such time. In general, stated interest paid or accrued on a stock purchase loan will be taxable income to the Company, and may or may not be deductible by the participant. In general, to the extent a stock purchase loan does not state adequate interest, interest may be imputed resulting in a participant recognizing compensation income; however, where a participant is a current employee, he should have a commensurate interest expense (which may or may not be deductible by the participant).

Change in Control

Upon the occurrence of a change in control of the Company, all Options and related SARs may become immediately exercisable, the restricted Shares may fully vest and stock purchase loans may be forgiven in full.

Termination, Amendment and ERISA Status

The Incentive Plan will terminate by its terms and without any action by the Board of Directors on December 31, 2010. No awards may be made after that date. Awards outstanding on December 31, 2010 will remain valid in accordance with their terms.

The Committee may amend or alter the terms of awards under the Incentive Plan, including to provide for the forgiveness in whole or in part of stock purchase loans, the release of the Shares securing such loans or the termination or modification of the vesting or performance provisions of the grants of restricted Shares, but no such action shall in any way impair the rights of a participant under any award, without such participant's consent.

If the Board of Directors determines that the Incentive Plan cannot, or that an award need not, satisfy the requirements for exemption under Section 16(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or that the exemption requirements under Section 16(b) no longer require such provisions, then the Committee can waive or modify those provisions in the Incentive Plan pertaining to such Section 16(b) requirements including certain holding period requirements, restrictions on the transferability of certain options, restrictions on the frequency of amending the Incentive Plan, and the time period for exercising SARs.

The Board of Directors may amend or terminate the Incentive Plan. No such amendments or termination of the Incentive Plan shall in any way impair the rights of a participant under any award previously granted, without such participant's consent. In addition, any amendment or termination will be subject to stockholder approval if approval is required by federal or state law or regulation or rule of any stock exchange or quotation system on which the Shares are listed or quoted.

The Incentive Plan is not subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT THE STOCKHOLDERS VOTE FOR THE ADOPTION OF THE AMENDMENTS TO THE 1996 INCENTIVE PLAN. PROXIES SOLICITED HEREBY WILL BE VOTED FOR THE PROPOSAL UNLESS A VOTE AGAINST THE PROPOSAL OR ABSTENTION IS SPECIFICALLY INDICATED.

AMENDED AND RESTATED BARNES & NOBLE, INC. 1996 INCENTIVE PLAN*

BARNES & NOBLE, INC., a corporation formed under the laws of the State of Delaware (the Company), hereby establishes and adopts the following 1996 Incentive Plan (the Plan).

RECITALS

WHEREAS, the Company desires to encourage high levels of performance by those individuals who are key to the success of the Company, to attract new individuals who are highly motivated and who will contribute to the success of the Company and to encourage such individuals to remain as directors, employees, consultants and/or advisors of the Company and its subsidiaries by increasing their proprietary interest in the Company's growth and success.

WHEREAS, to attain these ends, the Company has formulated the Plan embodied herein to authorize the granting of incentive awards through grants of stock options (Options), grants of stock appreciation rights, grants of Stock Purchase Awards (hereafter defined), and grants of Restricted Stock Awards (hereafter defined) to those individuals whose judgment, initiative and efforts are or have been responsible for the success of the Company.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Company hereby constitutes, establishes and adopts the following Plan and agrees to the following provisions:

ARTICLE 1

PURPOSE OF THE PLAN

1.1. Purpose. The purpose of the Plan is to assist the Company in attracting and retaining selected individuals to serve as directors, officers, consultants, advisors and employees of the Company who will contribute to the Company's success and to achieve long-term objectives which will inure to the benefit of all stockholders of the Company through the additional incentive inherent in the ownership of the Company's shares of common stock (Shares). Options granted under the Plan will be either incentive stock options, intended to qualify as such under the provisions of section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as from time to time amended (the Code), or nonqualified stock options. For purposes of the Plan, the term subsidiary shall mean subsidiary corporation, as such term is defined in section 424(f) of the Code, and affiliate shall have the meaning set forth in Rule 12b-2 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act). For purposes of the Plan, the term Award shall mean a grant of an Option, a grant of a stock appreciation right, a grant of a Stock Purchase Award, a grant of a Restricted Stock Award, or any other award made under the terms of the Plan.

SHARES SUBJECT TO AWARDS

2.1. Number of Shares. Subject to the adjustment provisions of Section 9.10 hereof, the aggregate number of Shares which may be issued under Awards under the Plan, whether pursuant to Options, stock appreciation rights, Stock Purchase Awards or Restricted Stock Awards shall not exceed 14,500,000. No

* Revised to reflect the amendment effected and approved by stockholders on June 3, 1998 and the currently proposed amendments.

Table of Contents

Options to purchase fractional Shares shall be granted or issued under the Plan. For purposes of this Section 2.1, the Shares that shall be counted toward such limitation shall include all Shares:

- (1) issued or issuable pursuant to Options that have been or may be exercised;
- (2) issued or issuable pursuant to Stock Purchase Awards; and
- (3) issued as, or subject to issuance as, a Restricted Stock Award.

2.2. Shares Subject to Terminated Awards. The Shares covered by any unexercised portions of terminated Options granted under Articles 4 and 6, Shares forfeited as provided in Section 8.2(a) and Shares subject to any Awards which are otherwise surrendered by the Participant without receiving any payment or other benefit with respect thereto may again be subject to new Awards under the Plan. In the event the purchase price of an Option is paid in whole or in part through the delivery of Shares, the number of Shares issuable in connection with the exercise of the Option shall not again be available for the grant of Awards under the Plan. Shares subject to Options, or portions thereof, which have been surrendered in connection with the exercise of stock appreciation rights shall not again be available for the grant of Awards under the Plan.

2.3. Character of Shares. Shares delivered under the Plan may be authorized and unissued Shares or Shares acquired by the Company, or both.

2.4. Limitations on Grants to Individual Participant. Subject to adjustments pursuant to the provisions of Section 9.10 hereof, the number of Shares which may be granted hereunder to any employee during any fiscal year under all forms of Awards shall not exceed 700,000 Shares. If an Option is cancelled, the cancelled Option shall continue to be counted toward the 700,000 limit for the year granted. An Option (or a stock appreciation right) that is repriced during any fiscal year is treated as the cancellation of the Option (or stock appreciation right) and a grant of a new Option (or stock appreciation right), both of which shall be counted toward the 700,000 limit for that fiscal year.

ELIGIBILITY AND ADMINISTRATION

3.1. Awards to Employees and Directors. (a) Participants who receive (i) Options under Articles 4 and 6 hereof or stock appreciation rights under Article 5 (Optionees), and (ii) Stock Purchase Awards under Article 7 or Restricted Stock Awards under Article 8 (in either case, a Participant), shall consist of such key officers, employees, consultants, advisors and directors of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates as the Committee shall select from time to time, provided, however, that an Option that is intended to qualify as an incentive stock option may be granted only to an individual that is an employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries. The Committee's designation of an Optionee or Participant in any year shall not require the Committee to designate such person to receive Awards or grants in any other year. The designation of an Optionee or Participant to receive Awards or grants under one portion of the Plan shall not require the Committee to include such Optionee or Participant under other portions of the Plan.

(b) No Option which is intended to qualify as an incentive stock option may be granted to any employee who, at the time of such grant, owns, directly or indirectly (within the meaning of sections 422(b)(6) and 424(d) of the Code), shares of stock possessing more than ten percent (10%) of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates, unless at the time of such grant, (i) the option price is fixed at not less than 110% of the Fair Market Value (as defined below) of the Shares subject to such Option, determined on the date of the grant, and (ii) the exercise of such Option is prohibited by its terms after the expiration of five years from the date such Option is granted.

3.2. Administration. (a) The Plan shall be administered by a committee (the Committee) consisting of not fewer than two directors of the Company (the directors of the Company being hereinafter referred to as the Directors), as designated by the Directors. The Directors may remove from, add members to, or fill vacancies in the Committee. Each member of the Committee shall be a Non-Employee Director within the meaning of Rule 16b-3 (or any successor rule) of the Exchange Act and an outside director within the meaning of Section 162(m)(4)(C)(i) of the Code, except that if the Directors determine that (i) the Plan cannot satisfy the requirements of Rule 16b-3 of the Exchange Act (such that grants of Awards are not exempt from Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act), then the members of the Committee need not be Non-Employee Directors, or (ii) they no longer want the Plan to comply with the requirements of Code Section 162(m), then the members of the Committee need not be outside directors. Any Award to a member of the Committee shall be made strictly in accordance with the terms of Section 4.1(b).

(b) The Committee is authorized, subject to the provisions of the Plan, to establish such rules and regulations as it may deem appropriate for the conduct of meetings and proper administration of the Plan. All actions of the Committee shall be taken by majority vote of its members.

(c) Subject to the provisions of the Plan, the Committee shall have authority, in its sole discretion, to grant Awards under the Plan, to interpret the provisions of the Plan and, subject to the requirements of applicable law, including Rule 16b-3 of the Exchange Act, to prescribe, amend, and rescind rules and regulations relating to the Plan or any Award thereunder as it may deem necessary or advisable. All decisions made by the Committee pursuant to the provisions of the Plan shall be final, conclusive and binding on all persons, including the Company, its stockholders, Directors and employees, and other Plan participants.

OPTIONS

4.1. Grant of Options. (a) Key Individuals, Directors and Employees. The Committee shall determine, within the limitations of the Plan, those key individuals and the Directors and employees of the Company and its subsidiaries and affiliates to whom Options are to be granted under the Plan, the number of Shares that may be purchased under each such Option and the option price, and shall designate such Options at the time of the grant as either incentive stock options or nonqualified stock options ; provided, however, that Options granted to employees of an affiliate (that is not also a subsidiary) or to non-employees of the Company may only be nonqualified stock options.

(b) Committee Members. Any Award to a member of the Committee shall be on terms consistent with awards made to other directors who are not members of the Committee and who are not employees of the Company.

4.2. Stock Option Agreements; etc. All Options granted pursuant to Article 4 and Article 6 herein (a) shall be authorized by the Committee and (b) shall be evidenced in writing by stock option agreements (Stock Option Agreements) in such form and containing such terms and conditions as the Committee shall determine which are not inconsistent with the provisions of the Plan, and, with respect to any Stock Option Agreement granting Options which are intended to qualify as incentive stock options, are not inconsistent with Section 422 of the Code. Granting of an Option pursuant to the Plan shall impose no obligation on the recipient to exercise such option. Any individual who is granted an Option pursuant to this Article 4 and Article 6 herein may hold more than one Option granted pursuant to such Articles at the same time and may hold both incentive stock options and nonqualified stock options at the same time. To the extent that any Option does not qualify as an incentive stock option (whether because of its provisions, the time or manner of its exercise or otherwise) such Option or the portion thereof which does not so qualify shall constitute a separate nonqualified stock option.

4.3. Option Price. Subject to Section 3.1(b), the option price per each Share purchasable under any incentive stock option granted pursuant to this Article 4 and any nonqualified stock option granted pursuant to Article 6 herein shall not be less than 100% of the Fair Market Value (as hereinafter defined) of such Share on the date of the grant of such Option. The option price per each Share purchasable under any nonqualified stock option granted pursuant to this Article 4 shall be such amount as the Committee shall determine at the time of the grant of such Option. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the option price per each Share purchasable under any Option granted to a Non-Employee Director pursuant to Section 4.1(b) shall be equal to 100% of the Fair Market Value of such Share on the date of grant of such Option.

4.4. Other Provisions. Options granted pursuant to this Article 4 shall be made in accordance with the terms and provisions of Article 9 hereof and any other applicable terms and provisions of the Plan.

STOCK APPRECIATION RIGHTS

5.1. Grant and Exercise. Stock appreciation rights may be granted in conjunction with all or part of any Option granted under the Plan provided such rights are granted at the time of the grant of such Option. A stock appreciation right is a right to receive cash or Shares, as provided in this Article 5, in lieu of the purchase of a Share under a related Option. A stock appreciation right or applicable portion thereof shall terminate and no longer be exercisable upon the termination or exercise of the related Option, and a stock appreciation right granted with respect to less than the full number of Shares covered by a related Option shall not be reduced until, and then only to the extent that, the exercise or termination of the related Option exceeds the number of Shares not covered by the stock appreciation right. A stock appreciation right may be exercised by the holder thereof (the Holder), in accordance with Section 5.2 of this Article 5, by giving written notice thereof to the Company and surrendering the applicable portion of the related Option. Upon giving such notice and surrender, the Holder shall be entitled to receive an amount determined in the manner prescribed in Section 5.2 of this Article 5. Options which have been so surrendered, in whole or in part, shall no longer be exercisable to the extent the related stock appreciation rights have been exercised.

5.2. Terms and Conditions. Stock appreciation rights shall be subject to such terms and conditions, not inconsistent with the provisions of the Plan, as shall be determined from time to time by the Committee, including the following:

- (a) Stock appreciation rights shall be exercisable only at such time or times and to the extent that the Options to which they relate shall be exercisable in accordance with the provisions of the Plan.
- (b) Upon the exercise of a stock appreciation right, a Holder shall be entitled to receive up to, but no more than, an amount in cash or whole Shares equal to the excess of the then Fair Market Value of one Share over the option price per Share specified in the related Option multiplied by the number of Shares in respect of which the stock appreciation right shall have been exercised. The Holder shall specify in his written notice of exercise, whether payment shall be made in cash or in whole Shares; provided, however, in the case of a stock appreciation right exercised by a person subject to Section 16 of the Exchange Act, the Holder's written notice specifying the form of payment is subject to the approval of the Committee. Each stock appreciation right may be exercised only at the time and so long as a related Option, if any, would be exercisable or as otherwise permitted by applicable law; provided, however, that no stock appreciation right granted under the Plan to a person then subject to Section 16 of the Exchange Act shall be exercised during the first six months of its term for cash.
- (c) No stock appreciation right shall be transferable by a Holder otherwise than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution, and stock appreciation rights shall be exercisable, during the Holder's lifetime, only by the Holder.
- (d) Upon the exercise of a stock appreciation right, the Option or part thereof to which such stock appreciation right is related shall be deemed to have been exercised for the purpose of the limitation of the number of Shares to be issued under the Plan, as set forth in Section 2.1 of the Plan.
- (e) Stock appreciation rights granted in connection with an Option may be exercised only when the Fair Market Value of the Shares subject to the Option exceeds the option price at which Shares can be acquired pursuant to the Option.

RELOAD OPTIONS

6.1. Authorization of Reload Options. Concurrently with the award of any Option (such Option hereinafter referred to as the Underlying Option) to any participant in the Plan, the Committee may grant a reload option (a Reload Option) to such participant to purchase for cash or Shares a number of Shares as specified below. A Reload Option shall be exercisable for an amount of Shares equal to (i) the number of Shares delivered by the Optionee to the Company to exercise the Underlying Option, and (ii) to the extent authorized by the Committee, the number of Shares used to satisfy any tax withholding requirement incident to the exercise of the Underlying Option, subject to the availability of Shares under the Plan at the time of such exercise. The grant of a Reload Option shall become effective upon the exercise of an Underlying Option by delivering to the Company Shares held by the Optionee for at least six months. Notwithstanding the fact that the Underlying Option may be an incentive stock option, a Reload Option is not intended to qualify as an incentive stock option under Section 422 of the Code.

6.2. Reload Option Amendment. Each Stock Option Agreement shall state whether the Committee has authorized Reload Options with respect to the Underlying Option. Upon the exercise of an Underlying Option, the Reload Option will be evidenced by an amendment to the underlying Stock Option Agreement.

6.3. Reload Option Price. The option price per Share deliverable upon the exercise of a Reload Option shall be the Fair Market Value of a Share on the date the grant of the Reload Option becomes effective.

6.4. Term and Exercise. Each Reload Option is fully exercisable six months from the effective date of grant. The term of each Reload Option shall be equal to the remaining option term of the Underlying Option.

6.5. Termination of Employment. No Reload Option shall be granted to an Optionee when Options are exercised pursuant to the terms of this Plan following termination of the Optionee's employment.

6.6. Applicability of Other Sections. Except as otherwise provided in this Article 6, the provisions of Article 9 applicable to Options shall apply equally to Reload Options.

STOCK PURCHASE AWARDS

7.1. Grant of Stock Purchase Awards. The term Stock Purchase Award means the right to purchase Shares of the Company and to pay for such Shares through a loan made by the Company to an employee (a Purchase Loan) as set forth in this Article 7.

7.2. Terms of Purchase Loans. (a) Purchase Loan. Each Purchase Loan shall be evidenced by a promissory note. The term of the Purchase Loan shall be a period of years, as determined by the Committee, and the proceeds of the Purchase Loan shall be used exclusively by the Participant for purchase of Shares from the Company at a purchase price equal to their Fair Market Value on the date of the Stock Purchase Award.

(b) Interest on Purchase Loan. A Purchase Loan shall be non-interest bearing or shall bear interest at whatever rate the Committee shall determine (but not in excess of the maximum rate permissible under applicable law), payable in a manner and at such times as the Committee shall determine. Those terms and provisions as the Committee shall determine shall be incorporated into the promissory note evidencing the Purchase Loan.

(c) Forgiveness of Purchase Loan. Subject to Section 7.4 hereof, the Company may forgive the repayment of up to 100% of the principal amount of the Purchase Loan, subject to such terms and conditions as the Committee shall determine and set forth in the promissory note evidencing the Purchase Loan (the Conditions). A Participant's Purchase Loan can be prepaid at any time, and from time to time, without penalty.

7.3. Security for Loans. (a) Stock Power and Pledge. Purchase Loans granted to Participants shall be secured by a pledge of the Shares acquired pursuant to the Stock Purchase Award. Such pledge shall be evidenced by a pledge agreement (the Pledge Agreement) containing such terms and conditions as the Committee shall determine. Purchase Loans shall be recourse or non-recourse with respect to a Participant, as determined from time to time by the Committee. The share certificates for the Shares purchased by a Participant pursuant to a Stock Purchase Award shall be issued in the Participant s name, but shall be held by the Company as security for repayment of the Participant s Purchase Loan together with a stock power executed in blank by the Participant (the execution and delivery of which by the Participant shall be a condition to the issuance of the Stock Purchase Award). The Participant shall be entitled to exercise all rights applicable to such Shares, including, but not limited to, the right to vote such Shares and the right to receive dividends and other distributions made with respect to such Shares. When the Purchase Loan and any accrued but unpaid interest thereon has been repaid or otherwise satisfied in full, the Company shall deliver to the Participant the share certificates for the Shares purchased by a Participant under the Stock Purchase Award.

(b) Release and Delivery of Share Certificates During the Term of the Purchase Loan. The Company shall release and deliver to each Participant certificates for Shares purchased by a Participant pursuant to a Stock Purchase Award, in such amounts and on such terms and conditions as the Committee shall determine, which shall be set forth in the Pledge Agreement.

(c) Release and Delivery of Share Certificates Upon Repayment of the Purchase Loan. The Company shall release and deliver to each Participant certificates for the Shares purchased by the Participant under the Stock Purchase Award and then held by the Company, provided the Participant has paid or otherwise satisfied in full the balance of the Purchase Loan and any accrued but unpaid interest thereon. In the event the balance of the Purchase Loan is not repaid, forgiven or otherwise satisfied within 90 days after (i) the date repayment of the Purchase Loan is due (whether in accordance with its term, by reason of acceleration or otherwise), or (ii) such longer time as the Committee, in its discretion, shall provide for repayment or satisfaction, the Company shall retain those Shares then held by the Company in accordance with the Pledge Agreement.

7.4. Termination of Employment. (a) Termination of Employment by Death, Disability or by the Company Without Cause; Change of Control. In the event of a Participant s termination of employment by reason of death, disability or by the Company without cause, or in the event of a change of control, the Committee shall have the right (but shall not be required) to forgive the remaining unpaid amount (principal and interest) of the Purchase Loan in whole or in part as of the date of such occurrence. Change of Control, disability and cause shall have the respective meanings as set forth in the promissory note evidencing the Purchase Loan.

(b) Termination of Employment by Voluntary Resignation. In the event of a Participant s termination of employment for any reason other than death or disability, the Participant shall repay to the Company the entire balance of the Purchase Loan and any accrued but unpaid interest thereon, which amounts shall become immediately due and payable, unless otherwise determined by the Committee.

7.5. Restrictions on Transfer. No Stock Purchase Award or Shares purchased through such an Award and pledged to the Company as collateral security for the Participant s Purchase Loan (and accrued and unpaid interest thereon) may be otherwise pledged, sold, assigned or transferred (other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution).

RESTRICTED STOCK AWARDS

8.1. Restricted Stock Awards. (a) Grant. A grant of Shares made pursuant to this Article 8 is referred to as a Restricted Stock Award. The Committee may grant to any employee an amount of Shares in such manner, and subject to such terms and conditions relating to vesting, forfeitability and restrictions on delivery and transfer (whether based on performance standards, periods of service or otherwise) as the Committee shall establish (such Shares, Restricted Shares). The terms of any Restricted Stock Award granted under this Plan shall be set forth in a written agreement (a Restricted Stock Agreement) which shall contain provisions determined by the Committee and not inconsistent with this Plan. The provisions of Restricted Stock Awards need not be the same for each Participant receiving such Awards.

(b) Issuance of Restricted Shares. As soon as practicable after the date of grant of a Restricted Stock Award by the Committee, the Company shall cause to be transferred on the books of the Company, Shares registered in the name of the Company, as nominee for the Participant, evidencing the Restricted Shares covered by the Award; provided, however, such Shares shall be subject to forfeiture to the Company retroactive to the date of grant, if a Restricted Stock Agreement delivered to the Participant by the Company with respect to the Restricted Shares covered by the Award is not duly executed by the Participant and timely returned to the Company. All Restricted Shares covered by Awards under this Article 8 shall be subject to the restrictions, terms and conditions contained in the Plan and the Restricted Stock Agreement entered into by and between the Company and the Participant. Until the lapse or release of all restrictions applicable to an Award of Restricted Shares, the share certificates representing such Restricted Shares shall be held in custody by the Company or its designee.

(c) Stockholder Rights. Beginning on the date of grant of the Restricted Stock Award and subject to execution of the Restricted Stock Agreement as provided in Sections 8.1(a) and (b), the Participant shall become a stockholder of the Company with respect to all Shares subject to the Restricted Stock Agreement and shall have all of the rights of a stockholder, including, but not limited to, the right to vote such Shares and the right to receive distributions made with respect to such Shares; provided, however, that any Shares distributed as a dividend or otherwise with respect to any Restricted Shares as to which the restrictions have not yet lapsed shall be subject to the same restrictions as such Restricted Shares and shall be represented by book entry and held as prescribed in Section 8.1(b).

(d) Restriction on Transferability. None of the Restricted Shares may be assigned or transferred (other than by will or the laws of descent and distribution), pledged or sold prior to lapse or release of the restrictions applicable thereto.

(e) Delivery of Shares Upon Release of Restrictions. Upon expiration or earlier termination of the forfeiture period without a forfeiture and the satisfaction of or release from any other conditions prescribed by the Committee, the restrictions applicable to the Restricted Shares shall lapse. As promptly as administratively feasible thereafter, subject to the requirements of Section 10.1, the Company shall deliver to the Participant or, in case of the Participant's death, to the Participant's beneficiary, one or more stock certificates for the appropriate number of Shares, free of all such restrictions, except for any restrictions that may be imposed by law.

8.2. Terms of Restricted Shares. (a) Forfeiture of Restricted Shares. Subject to Section 8.2(b), all Restricted Shares shall be forfeited and returned to the Company and all rights of the Participant with respect to such Restricted Shares shall terminate unless the Participant continues in the service of the Company as an employee until the expiration of the forfeiture period for such Restricted Shares and satisfies any and all other conditions set forth in the Restricted Stock Agreement. The Committee in its sole discretion, shall determine the forfeiture period (which may, but need not, lapse in installments) and any other terms and conditions applicable with respect to any Restricted Stock Award.

(b) Waiver of Forfeiture Period. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Article 8 to the contrary, the Committee may, in its sole discretion, waive the forfeiture period and any other conditions set forth in any Restricted Stock Agreement under appropriate circumstances (including the death, disability or retirement of the Participant or a material change in circumstances arising after the date of an Award) and subject to such terms and conditions (including forfeiture of a proportionate number of the Restricted Shares) as the Committee shall deem appropriate.

GENERALLY APPLICABLE PROVISIONS

9.1. Option Period. Subject to Section 3.1(b), the period for which an Option is exercisable shall not exceed ten years from the date such Option is granted, provided, however, in the case of an Option that is not intended to be an incentive stock option, the Committee may prescribe a period in excess of ten years. After the Option is granted, the option period may not be reduced.

9.2. Fair Market Value. If the Shares are listed or admitted to trading on a securities exchange registered under the Exchange Act, the Fair Market Value of a Share as of a specified date shall mean the per Share closing price of the Shares for the day immediately preceding the date as of which Fair Market Value is being determined (or if there was no reported closing price on such date, on the last preceding date on which the closing price was reported) reported on the principal securities exchange on which the Shares are listed or admitted to trading. If the Shares are not listed or admitted to trading on any such exchange but are listed as a national market security on the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. Automated Quotations System (NASDAQ), traded in the over-the-counter market or listed or traded on any similar system then in use, the Fair Market Value of a Share shall be the last sales price for the day immediately preceding the date as of which the Fair Market Value is being determined (or if there was no reported sale on such date, on the last preceding date on which any reported sale occurred) reported on such system. If the Shares are not listed or admitted to trading on any such exchange, are not listed as a national market security on NASDAQ and are not traded in the over-the-counter market or listed or traded on any similar system then in use, but are quoted on NASDAQ or any similar system then in use, the Fair Market Value of a Share shall be the average of the closing high bid and low asked quotations on such system for the Shares on the date in question. If the Shares are not publicly traded, Fair Market Value shall be determined by the Committee in its sole discretion using appropriate criteria. An Option shall be considered granted on the date the Committee acts to grant the Option or such later date as the Committee shall specify.

9.3. Exercise of Options. Options granted under the Plan shall be exercised by the Optionee thereof (or by his executors, administrators, guardian or legal representative, as provided in Sections 9.6 and 9.7 hereof) as to all or part of the Shares covered thereby, by the giving of written notice of exercise to the Company, specifying the number of Shares to be purchased, accompanied by payment of the full purchase price for the Shares being purchased. Full payment of such purchase price shall be made within five business days following the date of exercise and shall be made (i) in cash or by certified check or bank check, (ii) with the consent of the Committee, by delivery of a promissory note in favor of the Company upon such terms and conditions as determined by the Committee, (iii) with the consent of Committee, by tendering previously acquired Shares (valued at its Fair Market Value, as determined by the Committee as of the date of tender), or (iv) with the consent of the Committee, any combination of (i), (ii) and (iii); provided, however, that payment may not be pursuant to (iii) above unless the Optionee shall have owned the Shares being tendered in payment for a period of at least six months prior to the date of exercise of the Option. Such notice of exercise, accompanied by such payment, shall be delivered to the Company at its principal business office or such other office as the Committee may from time to time direct, and shall be in such form, containing such further provisions consistent with the provisions of the Plan, as the Committee may from time to time prescribe. In no event may any Option granted hereunder be exercised for a fraction of a Share. The Company shall effect the transfer of Shares purchased pursuant to an Option as soon as practicable, and, within a reasonable time thereafter, such transfer shall be evidenced on the books of the Company. No person exercising an Option shall have any of the rights of a holder of Shares subject to an Option until certificates for such Shares shall have been issued following the exercise of such Option. No adjustment shall be made for cash dividends or other rights for which the record date is prior to the date of such issuance.

9.4. Non-Transferability of Options. Except as provided in Section 9.11, no Option shall be assignable or transferable by the Optionee, other than by will or the laws of descent and distribution, and may be exercised during the life of the Optionee only by the Optionee or his guardian or legal representative.

9.5. Termination of Employment. In the event of the termination of employment of an Optionee or the termination or separation from service of an advisor or consultant or a Director (who is an Optionee) for any reason (other than death or disability as provided below), any Option(s) granted to such Optionee under this Plan and not previously exercised or expired shall be deemed cancelled and terminated on the day of such termination or separation, unless the Committee decides, in its sole discretion, to extend the term of the Option for a period not to exceed three months after the date of such termination or separation, provided, however, that in no instance may the term of the Option, as so extended, exceed the maximum term established pursuant to Section 3.1(b)(ii) or 9.1 above. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of the termination or separation from service of an Optionee for any reason other than death or disability, under conditions satisfactory to the Company, the Committee may, in its sole discretion, allow any nonqualified stock options granted to such Optionee under the Plan and not previously exercised or expired to be exercisable for a period of time to be specified by the Committee, provided, however, that in no instance may the term of the Option, as so extended, exceed the maximum term established pursuant to Section 9.1 above.

9.6. Death. In the event an Optionee dies while employed by the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates or during his term as a Director of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates, as the case may be, any Option(s) granted to him not previously exercised or exercised shall, to the extent exercisable on the date of death, be exercisable by the estate of such Optionee or by any person who acquired such Option by bequest or inheritance, at any time within one year after the death of the Optionee, unless earlier terminated pursuant to its terms, provided, however, that if the term of such Option would expire by its terms within six months after the Optionee's death, the term of such Option shall be extended until six months after the Optionee's death, provided further, however, that in no instance may the term of the Option, as so extended, exceed the maximum term established pursuant to Section 3.1(b)(ii) or 9.1 above.

9.7. Disability. In the event of the termination of employment of an Optionee or the separation from service of a Director (who is an Optionee) due to total disability, the Optionee, or his guardian or legal representative, shall have the unqualified right to exercise any Option(s) which have not been previously exercised or expired and which the Optionee was eligible to exercise as of the first date of total disability (as determined by the Committee), at any time within one year after such termination or separation, unless earlier terminated pursuant to its terms, provided, however, that if the term of such Option would expire by its terms within six months after such termination or separation, the term of such Option shall be extended until six months after such termination or separation, provided further, however, that in no instance may the term of the Option, as so extended, exceed the maximum term established pursuant to Section 3.1(b)(ii) or 9.1 above. The term total disability shall, for purposes of this Plan, be defined in the same manner as such term is defined in Section 22(e)(3) of the Code.

9.8. Six-Month Holding Period. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, each Option (or the Shares underlying the Option) granted to an individual who is subject to Section 16 of the Exchange Act, must be held by such individual for a combined period of at least six months from the date the Option is granted (or until such earlier date as satisfies any legal requirement for exemption under Rule 16b-3 of the Exchange Act and as satisfies all other applicable law); provided that the sale, transfer or other disposition of any Shares underlying any Option shall be permitted within such period to the extent the sale, transfer or other disposition is exempt under Rule 16b-3 of the Exchange Act and all other applicable law.

9.9. Amendment and Modification of the Plan. The Board of Directors of the Company may, from time to time, alter, amend, suspend or terminate the Plan as it shall deem advisable, subject to any requirement for stockholder approval imposed by applicable law or any rule of any stock exchange or quotation system on which Shares are listed or quoted; provided that the Board of Directors may not amend the Plan in any manner that would result in noncompliance with Rule 16b-3 of the Exchange Act or any applicable law, except as otherwise provided in Sections 3.2 or 9.11 hereof; and further provided that the Board of Directors may not, without the approval of the Company's stockholders, amend the Plan to (a) increase the number of Shares that may be the subject of Options under the Plan (except for adjustments pursuant to Section 9.10 hereof), (b) reduce the minimum option price specified by Sections 3.1(b) and 4.3 hereof, (c) increase the maximum permissible term of any Option specified by Section 3.1(b)(ii) or 9.1 hereof, and (d) remove responsibility for administering the Plan from the Committee. In addition, no amendments to, or termination of, the Plan shall in any way impair the rights of an Optionee or a Participant under any Award previously granted without such Optionee's or Participant's consent.

9.10. Adjustments. In the event that the Committee shall determine that any dividend or other distribution (whether in the form of cash, Shares, other securities, or other property), recapitalization, stock split, reverse stock split, reorganization, merger, consolidation, split-up, spin-off, combination, repurchase, or exchange of Shares or other securities, the issuance of warrants or other rights to purchase Shares or other securities, or other similar corporate transaction or event affects the Shares with respect to which Options have been or may be issued under the Plan, such that an adjustment is determined by the Committee to be appropriate in order to prevent dilution or enlargement of the benefits or potential benefits intended to be made available under the Plan, then the Committee shall, in such manner as the Committee may deem equitable, adjust any or all of (i) the number and type of Shares that thereafter may be made the subject of Options, (ii) the number and type of Shares subject to outstanding Options and stock appreciation rights, and (iii) the grant or exercise price with respect to any Option, or, if deemed appropriate, make provision for a cash payment to the holder of any outstanding Option; provided, in each case, that with respect to incentive stock options, no such adjustment shall be authorized to the extent that such adjustment would cause such options to violate Section 422(b) of the Code or any successor provision; and provided further, that the number of Shares subject to any Option denominated in Shares shall always be a whole number.

9.11. Other Provisions. Notwithstanding anything in this Plan to the contrary, if the Board of Directors determine that the Plan cannot, or that an Award need not, satisfy the requirements of Rule 16b-3 of the Exchange Act (such that grants of Awards are not exempt from Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act), or that such provisions are no longer necessary to comply with Rule 16b-3 of the Exchange Act, then the Committee shall have the authority to waive or modify those provisions of the Plan which are intended to satisfy such Rule 16b-3 requirements and shall allow an Optionee who has been granted nonqualified stock options to transfer any or all of such options to any one or more of the following persons: (i) the spouse, parent, issue, spouse of issue, or issue of spouse (issue shall include all descendants whether natural or adopted) of such Optionee; or (ii) a trust for the benefit of those persons described in clause (i) above or for the benefit of such Optionee, or for the benefit of any such persons and such Optionee; provided, however, that such transferee shall be bound by all of the terms and conditions of this Plan and shall execute an agreement satisfactory to the Company evidencing such obligation; and provided further, however, that such Optionee shall remain bound by the terms and conditions of this Plan. The Company shall cooperate with an Optionee's transferee and the Company's transfer agent in effectuating any transfer permitted pursuant to this Section 9.11.

MISCELLANEOUS

10.1. Tax Withholding. The Company shall notify an Optionee or Participant of any income tax withholding requirements arising as a result of the grant of any Award, exercise of an Option or stock appreciation rights or any other event occurring pursuant to this Plan. The Company shall have the right to withhold from such Optionee or Participant such withholding taxes as may be required by law, or to otherwise require the Optionee or Participant to pay such withholding taxes. If the Optionee or Participant shall fail to make such tax payments as are required, the Company or its subsidiaries or affiliates shall, to the extent permitted by law, have the right to deduct any such taxes from any payment of any kind otherwise due to such Optionee or Participant or to take such other action as may be necessary to satisfy such withholding obligations.

10.2. Right of Discharge Reserved. Nothing in the Plan nor the grant of an Award hereunder shall confer upon any employee, Director or other individual the right to continue in the employment or service of the Company or any subsidiary or affiliate of the Company or affect any right that the Company or any subsidiary or affiliate of the Company may have to terminate the employment or service of (or to demote or to exclude from future Options under the Plan) any such employee, Director or other individual at any time for any reason. Except as specifically provided by the Committee, the Company shall not be liable for the loss of existing or potential profit from an Award granted in the event of termination of an employment or other relationship even if the termination is in violation of an obligation of the Company or any subsidiary or affiliate of the Company to the employee or Director.

10.3. Nature of Payments. All Awards made pursuant to the Plan are in consideration of services performed or to be performed for the Company or any subsidiary or affiliate of the Company. Any income or gain realized pursuant to Awards under the Plan and any stock appreciation rights constitutes a special incentive payment to the Optionee, Participant or Holder and shall not be taken into account, to the extent permissible under applicable law, as compensation for purposes of any of the employee benefit plans of the Company or any subsidiary or affiliate of the Company except as may be determined by the Committee or by the Directors or directors of the applicable subsidiary or affiliate of the Company.

10.4. Severability. If any provision of the Plan shall be held unlawful or otherwise invalid or unenforceable in whole or in part, such unlawfulness, invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect any other provision of the Plan or part thereof, each of which remain in full force and effect. If the making of any payment or the provision of any other benefit required under the Plan shall be held unlawful or otherwise invalid or unenforceable, such unlawfulness, invalidity or unenforceability shall not prevent any other payment or benefit from being made or provided under the Plan, and if the making of any payment in full or the provision of any other benefit required under the Plan in full would be unlawful or otherwise invalid or unenforceable, then such unlawfulness, invalidity or unenforceability shall not prevent such payment or benefit from being made or provided in part, to the extent that it would not be unlawful, invalid or unenforceable, and the maximum payment or benefit that would not be unlawful, invalid or unenforceable shall be made or provided under the Plan.

10.5. Gender and Number. In order to shorten and to improve the understandability of the Plan document by eliminating the repeated usage of such phrases as his or her and any masculine terminology herein shall also include the feminine, and the definition of any term herein in the singular shall also include the plural except when otherwise indicated by the context.

10.6. Governing Law. The Plan and all determinations made and actions taken thereunder, to the extent not otherwise governed by the Code or the laws of the United States, shall be governed by the laws of the State of Delaware and construed accordingly.
