MERGER PROPOSAL--YOUR VOTE IS IMPORTANT

The boards of directors of Pfizer Inc. and Pharmacia Corporation have approved a merger designed to create the world's largest pharmaceutical company. We believe the combined company will be able to create substantially more shareholder value than could be achieved by either company individually.

If the merger is completed, Pharmacia shareholders will receive 1.4 shares of Pfizer common stock for each share of Pharmacia common stock, plus cash in lieu of fractional shares. Each share of Pharmacia convertible perpetual preferred stock will be exchanged for a newly created class of Pfizer convertible perpetual preferred stock with substantially identical rights. Pfizer shareholders will continue to own their existing Pfizer shares. We estimate that Pfizer may issue up to 1.804 billion shares of Pfizer common stock to Pharmacia shareholders. Upon completion of the merger, Pfizer's shareholders will own approximately 77% of the combined company on a fully diluted basis, and Pharmacia shareholders will own approximately 23% of the combined company on a fully diluted basis. The shares of the combined company will be traded on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "PFE."

We are asking the PFIZER shareholders to approve the issuance of shares of Pfizer common stock in the merger and an amendment to the Pfizer certificate of incorporation. Pfizer's special meeting will be held:

[DATE]

[TIME]

[PLACE]

Pfizer's board of directors unanimously recommends that Pfizer shareholders vote FOR the issuance of shares of Pfizer common stock in the merger and the amendment to the Pfizer certificate of incorporation.

We are asking the PHARMACIA shareholders to adopt the merger agreement. Pharmacia's special meeting will be held:

[TIME]

[PLACE]

Pharmacia's board of directors unanimously recommends that Pharmacia shareholders vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement.

We cannot complete the merger unless the shareholders of Pharmacia adopt the merger agreement and the shareholders of Pfizer approve the issuance of shares of Pfizer common stock in the merger and the amendment to the Pfizer certificate of incorporation. YOUR VOTE IS IMPORTANT.

We believe this merger will create a strong combined company that will deliver important benefits to its shareholders and customers.

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

CHAPTER ONE

THE MERGER

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

Q: WHAT DO I NEED TO DO NOW?

A: After you carefully read this document, mail your signed proxy card in the enclosed return envelope, or submit your proxy by telephone or on the Internet, as soon as possible, so that your shares may be represented at your meeting. In order to assure that your vote is recorded, please vote your proxy as instructed on your proxy card even if you currently plan to attend your meeting in person.

Q: WHY IS MY VOTE IMPORTANT?

A: If you do not return your proxy card or submit your proxy by telephone or through the Internet or vote in person at your special meeting, it will be more difficult for Pfizer and Pharmacia to obtain the necessary quorum to hold their special meetings. In addition, if you are a Pfizer shareholder, your failure to vote will have the effect of reducing the number of affirmative votes required to approve the issuance of shares of Pfizer common stock in the merger and will have the same effect as a vote against the amendment to the Pfizer certificate of incorporation. If you are a Pharmacia shareholder, your failure to vote will have the same effect as a vote against the adoption of the merger agreement.

Q: IF MY SHARES ARE HELD IN "STREET NAME" BY MY BROKER, WILL MY BROKER VOTE MY SHARES FOR ME?

A: No. If you do not provide your broker with instructions on how to vote your "street name" shares, your broker will not be permitted to vote them on either the adoption of the merger agreement by Pharmacia shareholders or approval of the issuance of shares of Pfizer common stock in the merger and amendment to the Pfizer certificate of incorporation by Pfizer shareholders.

You should therefore be sure to provide your broker with instructions on how to vote your shares. Please check the voting form used by your broker to see if it offers telephone or Internet submission of proxies.

Q: WHAT IF I FAIL TO INSTRUCT MY BROKER?

A: If you fail to instruct your broker to vote your shares and the broker submits an unvoted proxy, the resulting broker "non-vote" will be counted toward a quorum at the respective special meeting, but it will otherwise have the consequences set forth above under "WHY IS MY VOTE IMPORTANT?"

Q: CAN I CHANGE MY VOTE AFTER I HAVE MAILED MY PROXY CARD?

A: Yes. You can change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at your company's special meeting. You can do this in one of three ways:

- timely delivery of a valid, later-dated proxy or a later-dated proxy by telephone or Internet;
- written notice to your company's Secretary before the meeting that you have revoked your proxy; or
- voting by ballot at either the Pfizer special meeting or the Pharmacia special meeting.

If you have instructed a broker to vote your shares, you must follow directions from your broker to change those instructions.

Q: WHEN AND WHERE ARE THE SPECIAL MEETINGS?

A: The Pfizer special meeting will take place on [DATE] at [PLACE] at [TIME].
The Pharmacia special meeting will take place on [DATE] at [PLACE] at [TIME].

Q: SHOULD I SEND IN MY STOCK CERTIFICATES NOW?

A: No. After the merger is completed, Pfizer will send Pharmacia shareholders written instructions for exchanging their stock certificates. Pfizer shareholders will keep their existing stock certificates.

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

Q: WHEN DO YOU EXPECT THE MERGER TO BE COMPLETED?

A: We are working to complete the merger by the end of 2002. However, it is possible that factors outside of our control could require us to complete the merger at a later time or not complete it at all. We hope to complete the merger as soon as reasonably practicable.

Q: WILL PFIZER SHAREHOLDERS RECEIVE ANY SHARES AS A RESULT OF THE MERGER?

A: No. Pfizer shareholders will continue to hold the Pfizer shares they currently own.

Q: WHO DO I CALL IF I HAVE QUESTIONS ABOUT THE MEETINGS OR THE MERGER?

A: Pfizer shareholders may call [].

WHAT PHARMACIA SHAREHOLDERS WILL RECEIVE IN THE MERGER (SEE PAGE)

Pharmacia shareholders will receive 1.4 shares of Pfizer common stock for each share of Pharmacia common stock they hold. Pfizer will not issue fractional shares in the merger. As a result, the total number of shares of Pfizer common stock that each Pharmacia shareholder will receive in the merger will be rounded down to the nearest whole number, and each Pharmacia shareholder will receive a cash payment for the remaining fraction of a share of Pfizer common stock that he or she would otherwise receive, if any, based on the market value of Pfizer common stock at the close of business at the date the merger became effective.

Example: If you currently own 151 shares of Pharmacia common stock, you will be entitled to receive 211 shares of Pfizer common stock and a check for the market value of 0.4 shares of Pfizer common stock at the close of business on the date the merger becomes effective.

The holder of Pharmacia Series C convertible perpetual preferred stock (which will be received by the holder in exchange for its Pharmacia Series B convertible perpetual preferred stock prior to the completion of the merger) will receive one share of Pfizer Series A convertible perpetual preferred stock for each share of Pharmacia Series C convertible perpetual preferred stock, having substantially similar terms.

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

RECOMMENDATIONS TO SHAREHOLDERS (SEE PAGE)

TO PFIZER SHAREHOLDERS:

Pfizer's board of directors believes the merger is advisable, fair to you and in your best interests and recommends that you vote FOR the proposal to issue shares of Pfizer common stock in the merger.

Pfizer's board of directors also recommends that you vote FOR the proposal to amend the Pfizer certificate of incorporation to increase the authorized share capital.

TO PHARMACIA SHAREHOLDERS:

Pharmacia's board of directors believes the merger is advisable, fair to you and in your best interests and recommends that you vote FOR the proposal to adopt the merger agreement.

REASONS FOR THE MERGER (SEE PAGE)

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

The boards of directors of Pfizer and Pharmacia believe that this merger will create the world's largest pharmaceutical company, with the scientific depth, global marketing strength and financial resources to take greater advantage of new opportunities and to bring innovative new products to market faster.

The boards of both companies believe that by combining our companies, we will be able to benefit from:

- Enhanced revenue potential resulting from, among other things:
 - access to late stage pipeline drugs;
 - enhanced capability to bring new products to market; and
 - increased scale.
- Significant cost savings from, among other things, increased purchasing power as a combined company;
- Combination of operational factors, such as growth opportunities and risk reductions with respect to research and development; and
- Leadership in major therapeutic categories.

SHAREHOLDER VOTES REQUIRED (SEE PAGE)

FOR PFIZER SHAREHOLDERS:

Approval of the proposal to issue shares of Pfizer common stock in the merger requires the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the votes cast by the holders of Pfizer common stock as long as a quorum, which is a majority of the shares outstanding, is present in person or by proxy. Approval of the proposal to amend the Pfizer certificate of incorporation requires the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Pfizer common stock. The amendment to the Pfizer certificate of incorporation is necessary to provide Pfizer with sufficient shares of common stock to pay the merger consideration to Pharmacia shareholders. Approval of the proposal to issue shares of Pfizer common stock in the merger and the proposal to amend the Pfizer certificate of incorporation are conditions to the completion of the merger. Therefore, if shareholders wish to have the merger completed, they must approve both proposals.

On the record date, directors and executive officers of Pfizer and their affiliates beneficially owned or had the right to vote [] shares of Pfizer common stock, representing less than []% of the shares of Pfizer common stock outstanding on the record date. To Pfizer's knowledge, directors and executive officers of Pfizer and their affiliates intend to vote their common stock in favor of the proposal to issue shares of Pfizer common stock in the merger and the proposal to amend the Pfizer certificate of incorporation.

I-4

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

FOR PHARMACIA SHAREHOLDERS:

Adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the votes represented by the outstanding shares of Pharmacia common stock and Pharmacia Series B convertible perpetual preferred stock, voting together as a single class. On the record date, directors and executive officers of Pharmacia and their affiliates beneficially owned or had the right to vote [] shares of Pharmacia common stock, or approximately []% of the outstanding shares of Pharmacia common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting. To Pharmacia's knowledge, directors and executive officers of Pharmacia and their affiliates intend to vote their common stock in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement.

THE MERGER (SEE PAGE)

Under the terms of the proposed merger, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Pfizer, formed for the purpose of the merger, will merge with and into Pharmacia. As a result, Pharmacia will survive the merger and will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Pfizer upon completion of the merger.

The merger agreement is attached as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. We encourage you to read the merger agreement carefully and fully as it is the legal document that governs the merger.

TREATMENT OF PHARMACIA STOCK OPTIONS, RESTRICTED STOCK, AND OTHER EQUITY-BASED AWARDS (SEE PAGE)

Each outstanding Pharmacia stock option will become fully vested and exercisable either upon adoption of the merger agreement by Pharmacia shareholders or upon completion of the merger, depending on the terms of the stock option plan, grant, employment agreement or other arrangement under which such option was granted. In the merger, each then-outstanding option to purchase Pharmacia common stock will be converted into an option to purchase Pfizer common stock. The number of shares of Pfizer common stock underlying the new Pfizer option will equal the number of shares of Pharmacia common stock for which the corresponding Pharmacia option was exercisable, multiplied by 1.4. The per share exercise price of each new Pfizer option will equal the exercise price of the corresponding Pharmacia option divided by 1.4.

All shares of Pharmacia restricted common stock will vest either upon adoption of the merger agreement by Pharmacia shareholders or upon completion of the merger, depending on the terms of the stock option plan, grant, employment agreement or other arrangement under which such restricted stock was granted, and will be treated in the merger like other shares of Pharmacia common stock.

All awards under Pharmacia benefit plans that provide for cash payments based on the value of Pharmacia common stock shall become fully vested either upon adoption of the merger agreement by Pharmacia shareholders or upon completion of the merger, depending on the terms of the plans under which such payments are to be made.

OWNERSHIP OF PFIZER AFTER THE MERGER

Pfizer may issue up to 1.804 billion shares of Pfizer common stock to Pharmacia shareholders in the merger. Immediately following completion of the merger, it is expected that there will be approximately 7.986 billion shares of common stock outstanding. The shares of Pfizer common stock to be issued to Pharmacia shareholders in the merger will represent approximately 23% of the outstanding Pfizer common stock after the merger on a fully diluted basis. This information is based on the number of Pfizer and Pharmacia shares and options outstanding on June 30, 2002.

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

CONDITIONS TO THE COMPLETION OF THE MERGER (SEE PAGE)

The completion of the merger depends upon the satisfaction or waiver of a number of conditions, including the following:

- adoption of the merger agreement by the Pharmacia shareholders and approval of the issuance of shares of Pfizer common stock in the merger and amendment to the Pfizer certificate of incorporation by the Pfizer shareholders;
- expiration or termination of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, and approval of the merger by the European Commission;
- absence of any law or court order in the United States or European Union prohibiting the merger;
- receipt of opinions of counsel to Pfizer and Pharmacia that the merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization;
- material accuracy, as of the closing, of the representations and warranties made by the parties and material compliance by the parties with their respective obligations under the merger agreement; and
- neither party having suffered any change that would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on that party.

TERMINATION OF MERGER AGREEMENT (SEE PAGE)

Right to Terminate. The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the effective time in any of the following ways:

- by our mutual written consent;
- by either one of us:
 - if the merger has not been completed by April 15, 2003 or, if the conditions to closing relating to antitrust or other governmental approvals of the merger have not been satisfied, but all other conditions to closing are satisfied or are capable of being satisfied, this date is automatically extended to July 15, 2003; except that a party may not terminate the merger agreement if the cause of the merger not being completed is that party's failure to fulfill its obligations under the merger agreement;
 - if a governmental authority or a court in the United States or European Union permanently prohibits the completion of the merger or a governmental authority in the United States or European Union fails to grant any necessary approval of the merger, except that a party may not terminate the merger agreement if the cause of the prohibition or failure to obtain approval is a result of that party's failure to fulfill its obligations under the provision of the merger agreement which, among other requirements, requires each party to use its reasonable best efforts to obtain government approvals for the completions of the merger and requires each party to divest certain assets in response to requirements imposed by antitrust authorities;
 - if the other party has breached in any material respect any of its representations or warranties, or has failed to perform in any material respect any of its covenants or obligations under the merger agreement and such breach:

- (1) would result in the failure of certain closing conditions to the merger being satisfied; and
 - (2) is incapable of being cured or remains uncured at April 15, 2003.
- if either Pfizer's shareholders fail to approve the issuance of shares of Pfizer common stock in the merger

I-6

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

or the amendment to the Pfizer certificate of incorporation, or Pharmacia's shareholders fail to adopt the merger agreement.

- by Pfizer:

- if Pharmacia's board of directors either changes its recommendation in a manner adverse to Pfizer, or fails to call the Pharmacia special meeting to vote on the merger by January 13, 2003 (which deadline will be extended if this registration statement has not become effective by November 14, 2002).

- by Pharmacia:

- if Pfizer's board of directors either changes its recommendation in a manner adverse to Pharmacia, or fails to call the Pfizer special meeting to vote on the proposal to issue shares of Pfizer common stock in the merger or the proposal to amend the Pfizer certificate of incorporation by January 13, 2003 (which deadline will be extended if this registration statement has not become effective by November 14, 2002); or
- if Pharmacia's board of directors authorizes Pharmacia to enter into a written agreement concerning a transaction that Pharmacia's board of directors has determined in accordance with the merger agreement is a superior proposal, except that Pharmacia cannot terminate the merger agreement for this reason unless it has complied with certain procedural obligations to Pfizer and pays Pfizer the termination fee described below at or prior to such termination.

Termination Fees Payable by Pharmacia. Pharmacia has agreed to pay Pfizer a termination fee of $1.6 billion (within one business day after the earlier of the date Pharmacia enters into a definitive agreement with respect to, or consummates, a business combination), if the merger agreement is terminated under one of the following circumstances:

- the merger agreement is (1) terminated by Pfizer because the board of directors of Pharmacia withdraws or changes its recommendation in a manner adverse to Pfizer or for any reason Pharmacia fails to call or hold its shareholders' meeting by January 13, 2003 or until this registration statement becomes effective if such date is extended (but only if, on or before the date the agreement is terminated, there was an offer or proposal for, or announcement with respect to, a "business combination" involving Pharmacia) and (2) within twelve months of the termination, Pharmacia enters into a definitive agreement or completes a transaction with respect to a business combination with a third party;

- the merger agreement is (1) terminated by Pfizer or Pharmacia because Pharmacia's shareholders failed to adopt the merger agreement (but only if, prior to the date of the Pharmacia special meeting, there was made public to a significant number of Pharmacia's shareholders an offer or proposal for, or any public announcement with respect to, a business combination involving Pharmacia) and (2) within twelve months of the termination, Pharmacia enters into a definitive agreement or completes a transaction with respect to a business combination with a third party; or
- the merger agreement is (1) terminated by Pfizer or Pharmacia because the necessary regulatory approvals have not been obtained and the merger has not been completed by April 15, 2003 (or July 15, 2003 if the termination date is extended), and at the time of termination Pharmacia has not yet obtained its shareholder approval and prior to April 15, 2003 (or July 15, 2003 if the termination date is extended), there has been an offer or proposal for, or announcement with respect to, a business combination involving Pharmacia and (2) within twelve months of the termination, Pharmacia enters into a definitive agreement or completes a transaction with respect to a business combination with a third party.

Pharmacia also has agreed to pay Pfizer a termination fee of $1.6 billion (at or prior to such termination), if Pharmacia terminates the merger agreement because Pharmacia's board of directors has authorized Pharmacia to enter into a written agreement for a superior proposal and Pfizer has not, within five business days of notice from Pharmacia, made an offer that the board of directors of Pharmacia determines is at least as favorable as the superior proposal Pharmacia has received from a third party.

REGULATORY APPROVALS (SEE PAGE)

Under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, the merger cannot be completed until we have made required notifications, we have given certain information and materials to the Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division of the United States Department of Justice and specified waiting period requirements have expired. Pfizer and Pharmacia intend to file the required notification and report forms with the Antitrust Division and the Federal Trade Commission shortly.

Pfizer and Pharmacia each conduct business in member states of the European Union, and the merger therefore also requires the review of the European Commission. Pfizer and Pharmacia intend to seek approval of the European Commission for the merger shortly.

Pfizer and Pharmacia are not permitted to complete the merger unless the regulatory conditions to completion of the merger described above are satisfied. In addition, the companies have agreed that, if necessary to secure regulatory approval of the merger, Pfizer will hold assets separate or conduct any portion of its business in a specified manner for up to 6 months and Pfizer and Pharmacia will divest or hold separate assets so long as such divestitures do not have a material adverse effect on Pharmacia (including, for this purpose, on

MATERIAL FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER (SEE PAGE)

A Pharmacia shareholder's receipt of Pfizer common stock in the merger generally will be tax-free for United States federal income tax purposes, except for taxes which may result from any receipt of cash in lieu of fractional shares of Pfizer common stock.

THE UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES DESCRIBED ABOVE MAY NOT APPLY TO SOME HOLDERS OF PHARMACIA STOCK, INCLUDING SOME TYPES OF HOLDERS SPECIFICALLY REFERRED TO ON PAGE I-[]. THE TAX CONSEQUENCES TO PHARMACIA SHAREHOLDERS WILL DEPEND UPON THEIR OWN PERSONAL SITUATION. ACCORDINGLY, WE STRONGLY URGE PHARMACIA SHAREHOLDERS TO CONSULT THEIR TAX ADVISORS FOR A FULL UNDERSTANDING OF THE PARTICULAR TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER TO THEM.

LISTING OF PFIZER COMMON STOCK

The shares of Pfizer common stock to be issued in the merger will be listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the ticker symbol "PFE." Pfizer common stock is also listed on the London, Euronext and Swiss stock exchanges and is also traded on various United States regional stock exchanges.

APPRAISAL RIGHTS (SEE PAGE)

Neither the holders of Pharmacia common stock nor the holders of Pfizer common stock have any right to an appraisal of the value of their shares in connection with the merger or the amendment to the Pfizer certificate of incorporation. The holder of Pharmacia Series B convertible perpetual preferred stock has appraisal rights for its shares if it complies with the procedures required under Delaware law.

I-8

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

INTERESTS OF OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS IN THE MERGER (SEE PAGE)

When Pharmacia shareholders consider their board of directors' recommendation that they vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement, Pharmacia shareholders should be aware that Pharmacia executive officers and directors may have interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, shareholders' interests.

ACCOUNTING TREATMENT OF THE MERGER (SEE PAGE)

Pfizer will account for the merger under the purchase method of accounting for business combinations under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

OPINIONS OF PFIZER'S FINANCIAL ADVISORS (SEE PAGE)

In connection with the merger, the Pfizer board of directors considered the opinion of Lazard Freres & Co. LLC and of Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc., Pfizer's financial advisors. The Pfizer board of directors received written opinions from each of Lazard and Bear Stearns as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Pfizer of the exchange ratio in the merger as of July 13, 2002. These opinions, which are attached as Annex B and Annex C, respectively, set forth the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken by each of Lazard and Bear Stearns in providing their respective opinions. We encourage you to read these opinions carefully and in their entirety.

THESE OPINIONS ARE DIRECTED TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF PFIZER AND DO NOT CONSTITUTE RECOMMENDATIONS TO ANY SHAREHOLDER AS TO HOW THAT SHAREHOLDER SHOULD VOTE ON, OR TAKE ANY OTHER ACTION WITH RESPECT TO, THE MERGER.

OPINION OF PHARMACIA'S FINANCIAL ADVISOR (SEE PAGE)

Goldman, Sachs & Co. delivered its opinion to the Pharmacia board of directors that, as of July 13, 2002 and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth therein, the exchange ratio pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to the holders of Pharmacia common stock.

AMENDMENT TO THE PFIZER CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION (SEE PAGE)

At the Pfizer special meeting, holders of Pfizer common stock will be asked to approve an amendment to the Pfizer certificate of incorporation increasing the authorized number of shares of common stock from 9 billion to 12 billion and the number of shares of preferred stock from 12 million to 27 million.

The merger cannot be completed unless Pfizer shareholders approve the amendment to the Pfizer certificate of incorporation.

RECENT CLOSING PRICES

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

The following table sets forth the closing prices per share of Pfizer common stock and Pharmacia common stock as reported on the NYSE Composite Transaction Tape on July 12, 2002, the last full trading day prior to the announcement of the merger agreement, and [], the most recent practicable date prior to the mailing of this joint proxy statement/prospectus to Pfizer's and Pharmacia's shareholders. This table also sets forth the imputed value of Pharmacia common stock on July 12, 2002 and the equivalent price per share of Pharmacia common stock on those dates. The equivalent price per share is equal to the closing price of a share of Pfizer common stock on that date multiplied by 1.4, the applicable exchange ratio in the merger. These prices will fluctuate prior to the special meetings and the merger, and shareholders are urged to obtain current market quotations prior to making any decision with respect to the merger.

* Includes value of Monsanto Company shares held by Pharmacia.

 This value has been calculated by subtracting from the closing price of Pharmacia common stock on July 12, 2002, the amount of $3.01, which is the value of Pharmacia's interest in Monsanto Company common stock calculated on a per share of Pharmacia's common stock basis. Pharmacia distributed its Monsanto Company shares to holders of Pharmacia Common Stock on August 13, 2002.

Although dividends are subject to future approval and declaration by Pfizer's and Pharmacia's respective boards of directors, Pfizer and Pharmacia each currently plan to continue to pay regular quarterly dividends on their common stock until closing of the merger, although Pfizer and Pharmacia have agreed to coordinate their dividend policy prior to the merger so that Pharmacia shareholders do not receive two dividends, or fail to receive a dividend in any calendar quarter. The dividend policy following the merger will be determined by the combined company's board of directors following the merger.

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

RISK FACTORS

PFIZER AND PHARMACIA SHAREHOLDERS SHOULD CAREFULLY CONSIDER THE FOLLOWING FACTORS, IN ADDITION TO THOSE FACTORS DISCUSSED IN THE DOCUMENTS THAT WE HAVE FILED WITH THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION AND WHICH WE HAVE INCORPORATED INTO THIS DOCUMENT AND THE OTHER INFORMATION IN THIS JOINT PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS, BEFORE VOTING AT THEIR RESPECTIVE SPECIAL MEETINGS.

THE VALUE OF PFIZER SHARES RECEIVED WILL FLUCTUATE

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

The number of shares of Pfizer common stock issued in the merger for each share of Pharmacia common stock is fixed. The market prices of Pfizer common stock and Pharmacia common stock when the merger is completed may vary from their market prices at the date of this document and at the date of the special meetings of Pfizer and Pharmacia. For example, during the 12 month period ending on [], the most recent practical date prior to the mailing of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, Pfizer common stock traded in a range from a low of $[] to a high of $[] and ended that period at $[], and Pharmacia common stock traded in a range from a low of $[] to a high of $[] and ended that period at $[]. See "Comparative Per Share Market Price and Dividend Information" on page [] for more detailed share price information.

These variations may be the result of various factors including:

- changes in the business, operations or prospects of Pfizer or Pharmacia;
- governmental and/or litigation developments and/or regulatory considerations;
- market assessments as to whether and when the merger will be consummated;
- governmental action affecting the pharmaceutical industry generally;
- loss of patent protection and competition from generic drugs; and
- general market and economic conditions.

The merger may not be completed until a significant period of time has passed after the Pfizer and Pharmacia special meetings. At the time of their respective special meetings, Pfizer and Pharmacia shareholders will not know the exact value of the Pfizer common stock that will be issued in connection with the merger.

Shareholders of Pfizer and Pharmacia are urged to obtain current market quotations for Pfizer and Pharmacia common stock.

WE MAY BE UNABLE TO SUCCESSFULLY INTEGRATE OUR OPERATIONS AND REALIZE THE FULL COST SAVINGS WE ANTICIPATE

The merger involves the integration of two companies that have previously operated independently. The difficulties of combining the companies' operations include:

- the necessity of coordinating geographically separated organizations, systems and facilities; and
- integrating personnel with diverse business backgrounds.

The process of integrating operations could cause an interruption of, or loss of momentum in, the activities of one or more of the combined company's businesses and the loss of key personnel. The diversion of management's attention and any delays or difficulties encountered in connection with the merger and the integration of the two companies' operations could have an adverse effect on the business, results of operations, financial condition or prospects of the combined company after the merger.

Among the factors considered by the Pfizer and the Pharmacia boards of directors in connection with their respective approvals of the merger agreement were the opportunities for operating efficiencies that could result from the merger. We cannot give any assurance that these savings will be realized within the time periods contemplated or even if they will be realized at all.

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

WE WILL INCUR SIGNIFICANT TRANSACTION, MERGER-RELATED AND RESTRUCTURING COSTS IN CONNECTION WITH THE MERGER

Pfizer and Pharmacia expect to incur costs associated with combining the operations of the two companies, transaction fees and other costs related to the merger. The total estimate includes approximately $100 million for transaction costs and between $3.5 and $4.0 billion of restructuring and integration costs. The estimated $100 million of transaction costs are expected to be recorded as a component of the purchase price. Approximately $1 billion of the restructuring costs are expected to be included as a liability in the purchase price allocation. These amounts are preliminary estimates and subject to change. Additional unanticipated costs may be incurred in the integration of the businesses of Pfizer and Pharmacia. Although Pfizer and Pharmacia expect that the elimination of duplicative costs, as well as the realization of other efficiencies related to the integration of the businesses, may offset incremental transaction, merger-related and restructuring costs over time, we cannot give any assurance that this net benefit will be achieved in the near term, or at all.

OBTAINING REQUIRED APPROVALS AND SATISFYING CLOSING CONDITIONS MAY DELAY OR PREVENT COMPLETION OF THE MERGER

Completion of the merger is conditioned upon the receipt of all material governmental authorizations, consents, orders and approvals, including the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting periods, and any extension of the waiting periods, under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, and approval by the European Commission. Pfizer and Pharmacia intend to pursue all required approvals in accordance with the merger agreement. The requirement for these approvals could delay the completion of the merger for a significant period of time after Pfizer and Pharmacia shareholders have approved the proposals relating to the merger at their respective special meetings. See "The Merger Agreement -- Conditions" on page for a discussion of the conditions to the completion of the merger and "The Proposed Merger -- Regulatory Matters Relating to the Merger" on page for a description of the regulatory approvals necessary in connection with the merger. No assurance can be given, however, that these approvals will be obtained or that the required conditions to closing will be satisfied, and, if all such approvals are obtained and the conditions are satisfied, no assurance can be given as to the terms, conditions and timing of the approvals or that they will satisfy the terms of the merger agreement.

PFIZER AND PHARMACIA ARE THE SUBJECT OF VARIOUS LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

Pfizer and Pharmacia are involved in various patent, product liability, consumer, environmental and tax claims and litigations and additional matters that arise from time to time in the ordinary course of business. These include challenges to the coverage and/or validity of patents on products or processes and allegations of injuries caused by drugs or medical devices. In addition, Pfizer and Pharmacia are subject to national, state and local environmental laws and regulations. Pfizer and Pharmacia are also involved in or are the subject of governmental or regulatory agency inquiries or investigations from time to time. For more information about Pfizer's and Pharmacia's legal proceedings, see our filings with the SEC that are incorporated by reference into this document under the headings "Commitments, Contingent Liabilities and Litigation" and "Legal Proceedings."

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

THE PROPOSED MERGER

GENERAL

Pfizer's board of directors is using this joint proxy statement/prospectus to solicit proxies from the holders of Pfizer common stock for use at the Pfizer special meeting. Pharmacia's board of directors is also using this document to solicit proxies from the holders of Pharmacia common stock and Pharmacia Series B convertible perpetual preferred stock for use at the Pharmacia special meeting.

PFIZER PROPOSALS

At the Pfizer special meeting, holders of Pfizer common stock are being asked to vote on:

- the issuance of shares of Pfizer common stock in the merger; and
- an amendment to the Pfizer certificate of incorporation which would increase the authorized share capital.

THE MERGER WILL NOT BE COMPLETED UNLESS PFIZER'S SHAREHOLDERS APPROVE BOTH (1) THE ISSUANCE OF SHARES OF PFIZER COMMON STOCK IN THE MERGER; AND (2) THE AMENDMENT TO THE PFIZER CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION, WHICH IS NECESSARY SO THAT PFIZER WILL HAVE SUFFICIENT AUTHORIZED SHARES TO ISSUE SHARES OF PFIZER COMMON STOCK TO SHAREHOLDERS OF PHARMACIA.

PHARMACIA PROPOSAL

At the Pharmacia special meeting, holders of Pharmacia common stock and Pharmacia Series B convertible perpetual preferred stock will be asked to vote upon the adoption of the merger agreement.

THE MERGER WILL NOT BE COMPLETED UNLESS PHARMACIA'S SHAREHOLDERS ADOPT THE MERGER AGREEMENT.

BACKGROUND OF THE MERGER

The management of Pfizer has periodically explored and assessed strategic options for Pfizer as part of its ongoing effort to strengthen its business and improve its product mix. During the past three years, management of Pfizer has periodically considered the possibility of a business combination or other strategic transaction with Pharmacia and its predecessor companies.

An informal discussion on the subject was pursued by Dr. McKinnell, currently Chairman of Pfizer, with Mr. Hassan, Chairman of Pharmacia, on January 16, 2001. At that time, Mr. Hassan indicated that it was Pharmacia's desire and strategy to grow on its own. Mr. Hassan subsequently updated the Pharmacia board of directors on this discussion at its regularly scheduled meeting on February 21, 2001. In June 2001, at a regularly scheduled meeting of Pharmacia's board of directors, Pharmacia's board and management discussed the company's strategic direction and alternatives, and the board affirmed the general strategic direction being pursued by Pharmacia as an independent company as the best growth strategy.

Accordingly, no material discussions between Pharmacia and Pfizer regarding a possible business transaction occurred until April 2002.

On April 9, 2002, Dr. McKinnell met with other members of Pfizer management, representatives of its investment banker, Lazard Freres & Co. LLC, and representatives of its legal advisor, Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft, to discuss the possibility of making informal inquiries of Pharmacia's management about a possible business combination or other strategic transaction between Pfizer and Pharmacia. At this meeting, it was decided that Dr. McKinnell would approach Mr. Hassan, at the launch of Bextra(R), a new product being co-promoted and co-marketed by Pfizer and Pharmacia, to gauge Pharmacia's interest in a possible business combination or other strategic transaction.

At the Bextra(R) launch, which took place between April 9 and April 11, 2002, Dr. McKinnell met briefly with Mr. Hassan and suggested that it might be productive for the two of them to get together and discuss the state of the pharmaceutical industry, including the possibility of a strategic transaction between Pfizer and Pharmacia in order to better position the two companies in a volatile economic climate. Mr. Hassan indicated that he believed that the board of directors of Pharmacia was not interested in exploring any transaction at the time, but he planned to meet with Dr. McKinnell to discuss the changing climate in the pharmaceutical industry.

I-24

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

On April 22, 2002, Mr. Hassan followed up with a telephone call to Dr. McKinnell to arrange a meeting to further discuss industry issues. Dr. McKinnell and Mr. Hassan agreed to meet in early May.

On April 25, 2002, at a regularly scheduled meeting of Pfizer's board of directors, Dr. McKinnell briefed the Pfizer board of directors on his recent informal discussions with Mr. Hassan as well as the strategic considerations for a possible business combination between Pfizer and Pharmacia. Pfizer's investment banker and legal advisors also discussed the respective financial and legal considerations that would likely affect any strategic transaction between the companies, including the impact of Pharmacia's proposed spin-off of its interest in one of its subsidiaries, Monsanto Company.

On April 30, 2002, Mr. Hassan updated the Pharmacia board of directors at its regularly scheduled meeting on the approach from Pfizer. Mr. Hassan recommended and the board supported continuation of the company's existing strategy to grow on its own. The board did, however, authorize Mr. Hassan to meet with Dr. McKinnell to seek a better understanding of Pfizer's intentions.

On May 9, 2002, Dr. McKinnell and Mr. Hassan met in New York. These discussions, however, did not progress beyond Dr. McKinnell's preliminary indications of interest in an acquisition of Pharmacia. Mr. Hassan stated that he believed that Pharmacia's board of directors was not interested in being acquired by anyone. No additional meetings were scheduled or planned at the time.

On May 13, 2002, Mr. Hassan had a telephone conference with the Pharmacia board of directors to update the board on his meeting with Dr. McKinnell. The board agreed to meet in person to discuss the preliminary indication of interest in more detail. On May 13, 2002, Pharmacia retained Goldman, Sachs & Co. as its investment banker.

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

On June 4, 2002, Dr. McKinnell met with representatives of Lazard and Cadwalader as well as other members of Pfizer management to discuss making a proposal to acquire Pharmacia. It was concluded that Dr. McKinnell should attempt to arrange a meeting with Mr. Hassan and at such meeting present a specific proposal for a possible business combination between Pfizer and Pharmacia. In early June, 2002, Dr. McKinnell called Mr. Hassan to request a meeting.

On June 7, 2002, at a special meeting of Pharmacia's board, Mr. Hassan described Dr. McKinnell's interest in discussing a potential transaction between the parties. The board reviewed Pharmacia's performance, prospects and strategic alternatives with members of senior management and representatives of the company's financial advisor, Goldman Sachs, and representatives of Pharmacia's legal advisor, Sullivan & Cromwell. The board authorized Mr. Hassan to meet with Dr. McKinnell to listen to his proposal.

On June 11, 2002, Dr. McKinnell met with Mr. Hassan and presented an offer to merge Pfizer and Pharmacia. Dr. McKinnell proposed a transaction in which Pharmacia's shareholders would receive 1.3 shares of Pfizer common stock in exchange for each share of Pharmacia common stock, taking into account the spin-off of Pharmacia's interest in Monsanto Company. Mr. Hassan indicated that he believed the offer was unacceptable but that he would present it to Pharmacia's board of directors for consideration.

I-25

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

On June 14, 2002, Pfizer engaged Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc. to act as its financial advisor along with Lazard.

On June 18, 2002, Pharmacia's board held a regularly scheduled meeting at which the proposed transaction with Pfizer was discussed. Mr. Hassan reviewed his discussions to date with Dr. McKinnell, including the proposal made by Dr. McKinnell. The board reviewed Pharmacia's performance, prospects and strategic alternatives with members of senior management and representatives of Goldman Sachs and Sullivan & Cromwell. Members of senior management discussed with the board various forecasts for both companies and potential synergies that might result from a combination of the two companies. The company's legal advisors reviewed with the board their fiduciary duties under the circumstances. The board determined that the proposal from Pfizer was inadequate, but authorized Mr. Hassan and members of senior management to continue discussions with Pfizer.

On June 24, 2002, Mr. Hassan telephoned Dr. McKinnell and informed him that the Pharmacia board of directors had met and, while still supporting the company's current strategic direction as an independent company and believing the proposed exchange ratio of 1.3 to be inadequate, had authorized him to remain open to further discussions regarding a possible business combination between Pfizer and Pharmacia. Mr. Hassan emphasized that the Pharmacia board believed the exchange ratio offered by Pfizer did not accurately reflect Pharmacia's intrinsic value and could not be the basis for any such transaction.

On June 27, 2002, Pfizer and Pharmacia entered into a customary confidentiality agreement to allow the exchange of information between the two companies and their respective legal and financial advisors. On June 27 and 28, 2002, David Shedlarz, the chief financial officer of Pfizer, and Christopher Coughlin, the chief financial officer of Pharmacia, met several times to discuss the parameters and details for due diligence. At about the same time, Dr. McKinnell, in discussions with Mr. Hassan, suggested an exchange ratio of 1.4

shares of Pfizer common stock for each share of Pharmacia common stock, taking into account the spin-off of Pharmacia's interest in Monsanto Company, which exchange ratio was dependent upon, among other things, Pharmacia providing satisfactory information, including information relating to operational efficiencies of the combined company, to justify such an exchange ratio, and agreement on the terms of mutually satisfactory definitive agreements and approval by the Pfizer board of directors.

At a regularly scheduled meeting of the board of directors on June 27, 2002, Dr. McKinnell briefed the Pfizer board of directors regarding his discussions with Mr. Hassan. The members of the board of directors concurred that it would be advisable to continue to proceed with negotiations of a possible business combination with Pharmacia and emphasized the importance of the due diligence review to be undertaken by Pfizer.

On June 28, 2002, at a special telephonic meeting of the board of directors, Mr. Hassan updated the Pharmacia board on his discussions with Dr. McKinnell. The board authorized Mr. Hassan to continue discussions with Dr. McKinnell regarding the transaction.

On June 30 and July 1, 2002, Dr. McKinnell and Mr. Hassan spoke several times by telephone regarding the possible business combination. On June 30, 2002, Dr. McKinnell also conferred with members of Pfizer's senior management and representatives of Pfizer's financial and legal advisors. After these discussions, Dr. McKinnell and Mr. Hassan continued to discuss an exchange ratio of 1.4, taking into account the spin-off of Pharmacia's interest in Monsanto Company, subject to completion of each party's due diligence review, negotiation of mutually satisfactory definitive agreements and final approval by each company's board of directors.

On July 1, 2002, members of Pfizer's management, including Dr. McKinnell and Mr. Shedlarz, met with Pfizer's internal and outside legal advisors and its financial advisors to discuss the timing and procedures to complete a due diligence review of Pharmacia and Pfizer and to negotiate definitive agreements for the possible business combination.

I-26

On July 2, 2002, Mr. Hassan reviewed with the members of the Pharmacia board of directors in a telephonic meeting the new proposal from Pfizer, noting that such proposal was subject to completion of satisfactory due diligence by both parties, mutual agreement on definitive agreements and approval of the Pfizer board of directors. The members of the board discussed the proposal and authorized Mr. Hassan to continue discussions with Pfizer with a view to reaching agreement on the terms of a definitive agreement consistent with the proposal discussed at the meeting.

From July 2 until July 13, 2002, the respective legal and financial advisors of Pfizer and Pharmacia conducted extensive due diligence investigations of the other company. Members of Pfizer's senior management, its internal and external legal team as well as its financial advisors and external auditors, conducted a due diligence review from an operational, financial, accounting, tax and legal perspective. Pfizer's due diligence review included interviews of Pharmacia's senior management and review of documents. During the same time, members of Pharmacia's senior management, its internal and external legal team as well as its financial advisors and external auditors, conducted a due diligence review from an operational, financial, accounting, tax and legal perspective. Pharmacia's due diligence review included interviews of Pfizer's senior management and review of documents.

On July 3, 2002, a draft of the merger agreement was circulated to Pharmacia and its legal representatives.

During the period from July 3, 2002 to the morning of July 13, 2002, Pfizer and Pharmacia, working together with their respective legal and financial advisors, negotiated the terms of the definitive agreements for a possible business combination and certain changes to their co-promotion and co-marketing agreements regarding Celebrex(R) and other COX-2 "second generation" drugs.

On July 12, 2002, Pfizer and its outside counsel negotiated with Mr. Hassan and his personal legal counsel the terms of his employment agreement with Pfizer. The terms of this employment agreement were finalized the following morning.

On the morning of July 13, 2002, Pharmacia's board held a special meeting to discuss in detail the proposed business combination with Pfizer. Members of senior management and representatives of the company's advisors reviewed the activities and discussions of the past weeks, and presented a summary of the proposed transaction terms as reflected in the draft definitive agreements, the strategic rationale that supported it, and the economic and operational benefits that it could create. The board reviewed Pharmacia's performance and prospects and strategic alternatives. Senior management presented the forecasts and economic benefits upon which the exchange ratio was predicated, and summarized the process and the results of Pharmacia's senior management's due diligence investigation of Pfizer. Representatives of Sullivan & Cromwell reviewed in more detail the terms of the proposed transaction, including the terms of the merger agreement and the amendment to the COX-2 co-promotion and co-marketing agreements and described the board's fiduciary duties under the circumstances. Goldman Sachs provided the Pharmacia board of directors a detailed analysis of the financial terms of the proposed combination and an oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed by delivery of a written opinion, dated July 13, 2002, that, as of that date and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in the opinion, the exchange ratio pursuant to the merger agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Pharmacia common stock. Without Mr. Hassan present, members of senior management reviewed with the board the terms of Mr. Hassan's proposed employment arrangement with Pfizer following completion of the merger. The board then met without senior management or Mr. Hassan present to discuss any matters that an independent board member wished to raise. During that session, the board concluded that the terms of Mr. Hassan's employment agreement were reasonable and did not create a conflict of interest. At the conclusion of this meeting, after consideration of the factors described under "-- Factors Considered by, and Recommendation of, the Board of Directors of Pharmacia" on page , the Pharmacia board of directors determined by a unanimous vote of the directors present at the meeting that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby are advisable, fair to and in the best interests of Pharmacia and its shareholders, and approved the merger agreement, the amendment to the Pharmacia shareholder rights plan and the amendment to the COX-2 co-promotion and co-marketing agreements and authorized the signing thereof.

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

On the afternoon of July 13, 2002, the board of directors of Pfizer held a special meeting to review the final terms of the proposed merger agreement, the amendment to the COX-2 co-promotion and co-marketing agreements and Mr. Hassan's employment agreement. Also present at the meeting were members of Pfizer's senior management, Pfizer's legal advisors, Cadwalader, and Pfizer's financial advisors, Lazard and Bear Stearns. After an update on the progress of the negotiations by Dr. McKinnell, Pfizer's senior management presented its assessment of the proposed transaction and the results of its legal and financial due diligence review. Representatives of Cadwalader reviewed the proposed merger agreement in detail with the members of the board of directors and discussed the fiduciary duties of the board of directors in considering a possible business combination. Lazard and Bear Stearns then each delivered their respective oral opinions (which were each subsequently confirmed in writing), that, as of that date, the exchange ratio pursuant to the merger agreement was fair to Pfizer from a financial point of view. See "-- Opinions of Financial Advisors -- Opinions of Pfizer's Financial Advisors" on page for further information regarding these opinions. Thereafter, the members of board of directors of Pfizer, after consideration of the factors described under "-- Factors Considered by, and Recommendation of, the Board of Directors of Pfizer" on page , voted unanimously to approve the merger agreement, the amendment to the Pfizer certificate of incorporation, the amendment to the COX-2 co-promotion and co-marketing agreements with Pharmacia and the employment agreement with Mr. Hassan.

Before the opening of trading on July 15, 2002, Pharmacia and Pfizer issued a joint press release announcing the execution of the merger agreement.

OUR REASONS FOR THE MERGER

While each of Pfizer and Pharmacia has growth potential and prospects for its immediate and long-term future as a stand-alone entity, we both believe that a combination of the two companies will create a leading global pharmaceutical company with greater diversity, breadth and financial resources that will have the opportunity to enhance shareholder value in ways that are unlikely to be achieved by Pfizer or Pharmacia alone. Specifically, the combined company would be uniquely positioned to benefit from the following:

- Enhanced revenue potential resulting from, among other things:
 - access to late stage pipeline drugs;
 - enhanced capability to bring new products to market; and
 - increased scale.
- Significant cost savings from among other things, increased purchasing power as a combined company.
- Combination of operational factors, such as growth opportunities and risk reductions with respect to research and development.
- Leadership in major therapeutic categories.

Enhanced Revenue Potential. The merger will combine two large and fast-growing firms in the pharmaceutical industry, which will create the opportunity for solid growth potential, improved financial returns and accelerated earnings growth. The combined company would be a larger enterprise with a broader and more diversified product line than either Pfizer or Pharmacia on a stand-alone basis, with estimated potential combined revenues of $52.8 billion in 2003.

As competition intensifies in the industries in which Pfizer and Pharmacia participate, we believe that the combined company will benefit from an enhanced potential for revenue growth in the following areas and for the following reasons:

- Pharmaceuticals. The combined company expects to have nearly $43.7 billion in prescription pharmaceutical sales in 2003.

Together the two companies had eight products that they own with sales of more than $1 billion in 2001: Lipitor(R), Viagra(R), Norvasc(R), Zolofte(R), Zithromax(R), Diflucan(R), Neurontin(R) and Celebrex(R) (which is co-promoted and co-marketed by Pfizer and Pharmacia). In addition, the combined company will promote 15 products which had sales in excess of $500 million each in 2001, including Zyrtec(R), Xalatan(R), Detrol(R)/Detrol LA(R), Camptosar(R) and Accupril(R), and ten of those products had an aggregate annual growth of 24% or more in 2001.

We believe that the combined company's enhanced market presence and sales penetration in key products, coupled with its increased research and development capabilities may lead to the development of new pharmaceutical products. Its enhanced capabilities to successfully bring such products to market may lead to enhanced potential for revenue growth. Most of the major products of both Pfizer and Pharmacia will continue to have patent protection well into this decade and beyond. We believe that these factors provide the opportunity to support the combined growth of products in both Pfizer's and Pharmacia's pipelines of new products, as well as organic and geographic growth of present products.

- New Products and Broad and Diversified Product Line. The combination of Pfizer's pipeline of new products with Pharmacia's pipeline of new products is expected to provide the combined company with the potential for enhanced revenue growth. In June 2002, the FDA approved the injectable form of Geodon(R), making it the first atypical antipsychotic medicine for schizophrenia approved in the United States for intramuscular use. In May 2002, the FDA approved Vfend(R) for life threatening fungal infections. In April 2002, Bextra(R) was launched in the United States for the relief of pain and inflammation of osteoarthritis, adult rheumatoid arthritis and primary dysmenorrhea. Also, in April 2002, Spiriva(R) (co-promoted with Boehringer-Ingelheim) was approved by regulatory authorities in Europe as a treatment for chronic obstructive pulmonary disease. The product was launched in six countries, including Germany in June 2002. On February 5, 2002, the FDA accepted a new drug application for eplerenone for the treatment of hypertension.

- Increased Scale. Scale has importance in many areas, including:

- financial strength;
- research and development of new products;
- an increased presence in major international markets;
- an increased ability to attract licensing partners;

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

- improved marketing and sales support; and
- distribution capabilities, as well as enhancement of existing competencies.

I-29

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

We believe the increased scale of the combined company, and the benefits in the areas mentioned above, could result in greater efficiency and an enhanced potential for revenue growth.

While we expect that we will be able to realize enhanced revenues, no assurance can be given that we will actually be able to do so.

Significant Cost Savings. The combined company is expected to increase its profitability through cost savings and operating efficiencies resulting from the elimination of duplicative facilities and functions which would exist in the combined company in the United States, through multiple organizations and systems in over thirty foreign countries, and through the benefits of leveraging our combined annual external purchases. Pfizer estimates that savings from reductions in cost of goods sold will be realized by optimization of global manufacturing, involving over 100 manufacturing sites of the two companies around the world. The combined company may also be able to leverage its marketing and sales infrastructure to support existing and new products. Savings from sales, general and administrative expenses are expected to be realized by the combination of two worldwide headquarters and multiple staff support functions in over thirty countries. In addition to the competitive advantage gained by the size of the research and development budget, the combination of the research and development programs will permit the combined company to utilize the best science, research, development capabilities and procedures of each company. Pfizer's human pharmaceutical research and development expenditures have been growing by a compound annual growth rate of 14% over the last 3 years. Based on our review of and assumptions about the operations and infrastructure of the two companies, we expect that the combined company will realize annual cost savings of approximately $2.5 billion by 2005. We expect to achieve such cost savings as follows:

- $1.4 billion by 2003;
- $2.2 billion by 2004; and
- $2.5 billion by 2005.

The estimated cost savings reflect the realization of cost reduction opportunities and efficiencies through the ability to consolidate separate stand-alone operations into a single entity. While we expect that we will be able to realize these cost savings, no assurance can be given that we will actually be able to do so.

The management of both companies believes that the financial performance of the combined company will be enhanced by the potential cost savings expected from the merger.

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

The following table sets forth the anticipated adjusted earnings of Pfizer, Pharmacia's forecast, as adjusted by Pfizer with the concurrence of Pharmacia, and the anticipated adjusted earnings of the combined company. It is being set forth below because, in connection with its review of the merger, Pfizer's management developed the information to evaluate the potential benefits of the merger based on Pharmacia's forecast (as adjusted by Pfizer with the concurrence of Pharmacia). Adjusted earnings is equal to forecasted GAAP net income or loss, excluding discontinued operations, extraordinary items, plus the cumulative effect of a change in accounting principle, plus certain significant items, plus charges related to purchase price allocations on assets (including write-off of in-process research and development, amortization of identifiable intangibles and charges related to write-up of assets to fair market value) plus merger-related costs (including integration expenses and restructuring charges). See "Forward-Looking Statements" on page for discussion of the factors that may impact anticipated results and the statements in Chapter Two under the heading "Unaudited Financial Forecasts" for discussion of the factors that impact the forecasts included in the following table:

Combination of Operational Factors. We expect the merger to provide for significant opportunities in sales and marketing and in research and development, including new opportunities for innovation in supporting existing products and bringing new products to market. With the enhanced marketing and manufacturing platform provided by the merger, we expect the combined company to be poised for solid future growth. The research and development resources of the combined company are expected to provide new opportunities for innovation and discovery. The research and development budget of the combined company is expected to be over $7 billion in 2003. While we expect that the combination of our complementary technology platforms will result in new opportunities for innovation in supporting existing products and bringing new products to market, no assurance can be given that we will be able to do so.

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

Leadership in Major Therapeutic Categories. The combined company will have major products in the following major therapeutic categories:

- Cardiovascular, with such products as Norvasc(R), Accupril(R) and Cardura(R) ;
- Lipid lowering, with the product Lipitor(R);
- Diabetes, with the product Glucotrol XL(R);
- Central Nervous System, with such products as Zoloft(R), Aricept(R), Neurontin(R), Mirapex(R) and Xanax(R);
- Arthritis/Joint Diseases, with such products as Celebrex(R), Bextra(R) and Dynastat(R);

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

- Infectious Diseases, with such products as Zithromax(R), Diflucan(R), Zyvox(R) and Viracept(R);

- Cancer care, with the products Camptosar(R) (2) and Ellence(R);
- Eye care, with the products Xalatan(R) and Xalcom(R);
- Endocrine disorders, with the product Genotropin(R); and
- Allergies, with the product Zyrtec(R).

FACTORS CONSIDERED BY, AND RECOMMENDATION OF, THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF PFIZER

At its meeting on July 13, 2002, Pfizer's board of directors unanimously:

- determined that the merger agreement and the merger are advisable and fair to, and in the best interests of, Pfizer and its shareholders;
- directed that the proposal to issue Pfizer shares in the merger and the proposal to amend the Pfizer certificate of incorporation be submitted for consideration to the Pfizer shareholders;
- recommended that the Pfizer shareholders vote FOR the proposal to issue shares of Pfizer common stock in the merger; and
- recommended that the Pfizer shareholders vote FOR the proposal to amend the Pfizer certificate of incorporation to increase its share capital.

In the course of reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement, Pfizer's board of directors consulted with Pfizer's management, as well as its legal counsel and its financial advisors, and considered the following material factors:

- (1) information concerning the financial performance and condition, results of operations, asset quality, prospects and businesses of each of Pfizer and Pharmacia as separate entities and on a combined basis, including:
 - the revenues of the companies, their complementary businesses and the potential for cost savings and revenue enhancement;

2 Camptosar(R) is a registered trademark of Yakult Honsha Co., Ltd.

I-34

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

- the recent and historical stock price performance of Pfizer common stock and Pharmacia common stock; and
 - the percentage of the combined company Pfizer's shareholders would own following the merger.
- (2) the importance of market position, significant scale and scope and financial resources to a company's ability to compete effectively in the changing environment in the global pharmaceutical market, and the fact that the strategic combination of Pfizer's and Pharmacia's businesses would create the world's largest pharmaceutical company;

- (3) the strategic nature of the transaction, which combines Pfizer's and Pharmacia's complementary businesses, and creates a broader company with enhanced global reach and greater resources, enhanced future operating flexibility and increased opportunity for growth;
- (4) the potential benefits to be derived from a combination of the two companies as described under "-- Our Reasons for the Merger" on page , including potential cost savings and efficiencies that could result from the merger;
- (5) the current industry, economic and market conditions and trends, including the likelihood of continuing consolidation and increasing competition in the pharmaceutical industry;
- (6) the nature and timing of new products of both companies in their respective pipelines, the complementary nature of both companies pipelines and the effect of combining such pipelines on the growth and results of operations of the combined company;
- (7) the nature and effectiveness of existing products to be sold by the combined company and the fact that the customer base to be served will be broader and more diverse;
- (8) the opportunity for the shareholders of Pfizer to participate in a larger company with a broader and more diverse product line and, as shareholders of the combined company, benefit from future growth of the combined company;
- (9) the exchange ratio will enable Pfizer shareholders to own approximately 77% of the outstanding stock of the combined company;
- (10) the opinion of Lazard, which is described below, under "Opinions of Financial Advisors -- Opinions of Pfizer's Financial Advisors" on page , to the effect that, as of the date of its opinion and subject to the matters set out in its written opinion, the exchange ratio in the merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to Pfizer;
- (11) the opinion of Bear Stearns, which is described below, under "Opinions of Financial Advisors -- Opinions of Pfizer's Financial Advisors" on page , to the effect that, as of the date of its opinion and subject to the matters set out in its written opinion, the exchange ratio in the merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to Pfizer;
- (12) the structure of the transaction as a tax-free reorganization for United States federal income tax purposes;
- (13) the ability to consummate the merger, including the conditions to the merger requiring receipt of necessary regulatory approvals in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement;

I-35

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

- (14) the highly successful ongoing relationship between Pfizer and Pharmacia in co-marketing, co-promoting and licensing Celebrex(R) and the successful launch of Bextra(R) and the benefit to Pfizer of control of Celebrex(R) and the COX-2 "second generation" drug franchise, including the challenges inherent in expanding the franchise;
- (15) the potential liabilities arising out of the agricultural and chemical business of the former Monsanto Company as to which Pharmacia is indemnified by Monsanto Company and Solutia and the ability of the existing indemnity provisions to shield the combined company from liability;
- (16) potential liability arising out of other legal proceedings involving Pharmacia;
- (17) the challenges of combining the businesses of two major corporations, including Pfizer's experience successfully integrating the business of Warner-Lambert Company, and the risks of diverting management resources for an extended period of time; and
- (18) the board of directors' continuing belief in the shareholder value opportunity represented by the strategic path the board had previously chosen and the unique implementation opportunity presented by the definitive transaction terms with Pharmacia.

In view of the variety of factors and the amount of information considered, Pfizer's board of directors did not find it practicable to and did not quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors it considered in reaching its decision. The determination was made after consideration of all of the factors both negative and positive, taken as a whole. In addition, individual members of Pfizer's board of directors may have given different weights to different factors.

Pfizer's board of directors considered all these factors in reaching the conclusions and recommendations described above. It should be noted that this explanation of the Pfizer board's reasoning and certain information presented in this section is forward-looking in nature and, therefore, such information should be read in light of the factors discussed under the heading "Forward-Looking Statements" on page .

THE PFIZER BOARD OF DIRECTORS HAS UNANIMOUSLY APPROVED THE MERGER AGREEMENT, THE MERGER AND THE OTHER TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED THEREBY AND BELIEVES THAT THE TERMS OF THE MERGER ARE FAIR TO, AND IN THE BEST INTERESTS OF, PFIZER AND ITS SHAREHOLDERS. THE PFIZER BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE PROPOSAL TO ISSUE SHARES OF PFIZER COMMON STOCK IN THE MERGER AND FOR THE PROPOSAL TO AMEND THE PFIZER CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

FACTORS CONSIDERED BY, AND RECOMMENDATION OF, THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF PHARMACIA

At a special meeting held on July 13, 2002, after due consideration and consultation with financial and other advisors, the Pharmacia board of directors:

- determined by a unanimous vote of the directors present at the meeting that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby are advisable, fair to and in the best interests of Pharmacia and its shareholders;
- approved the merger agreement;

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

- directed that the merger agreement be submitted for consideration by the Pharmacia shareholders; and
- recommended that the Pharmacia shareholders vote FOR adoption of the merger agreement.

In the course of reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement, the Pharmacia board of directors consulted with Pharmacia's management, as well as its outside legal counsel and its financial advisors, and considered the following material factors:

I-36

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

- (1) the relationship of the exchange ratio of 1.4 shares of Pfizer common stock for each share of Pharmacia common stock to recent and historical market prices of Pharmacia common stock, as well as its relationship to the recent and historical ratio of the Pharmacia market price to the Pfizer market price. In this respect, the board noted the exchange ratio of 1.4 represents an implied premium of:
 - 52.4% over the implied exchange ratio of 0.92 based on the closing price of Pharmacia common stock and Pfizer common stock on July 12, 2002;
 - 40.0% over the implied exchange ratio of 1.00 based on the average closing price of Pharmacia common stock and Pfizer common stock for the 3-month period ending on July 12, 2002; and
 - 48.3% over the implied exchange ratio of 0.94 based on the average closing price of Pharmacia common stock and Pfizer common stock for the 6-month period ending on July 12, 2002.

The Pharmacia board also considered the premiums paid in other comparable pharmaceutical industry acquisitions. The "implied" exchange ratio represents ratios or premiums of the actual closing price of Pharmacia common stock and Pfizer common stock on the relevant date or for the relevant period, as applicable, minus the value of Pharmacia's interest in Monsanto Company common stock calculated on a per share of Pharmacia's common stock basis;

- (2) information concerning the recent results of operations, prospects and businesses of Pharmacia and the recent stock price performance of Pharmacia shares, Pfizer shares, and the shares of other pharmaceutical companies;
- (3) trends and competitive developments in the pharmaceutical industry and the range of strategic alternatives available to Pharmacia, including Pharmacia continuing its existing strategy of continuing to develop and market pharmaceutical products as an independent company, or exploring potential "mergers of equals" with similar sized pharmaceutical companies;
- (4) the business, operations, earnings and prospects of Pfizer, the complementary businesses of Pharmacia and Pfizer, the potential prospects and businesses of the combined company following the merger and the opportunity for Pharmacia shareholders to participate in the combined company's long-term growth. The board also considered that there could be no assurance that such growth would occur;

- (5) that Pharmacia shareholders would own approximately 23% of the combined company following the merger;
- (6) the combined company is expected to have combined annual revenues of approximately $48 billion, including $39 billion in prescription sales in 2002;
- (7) the importance of size and scope, which would allow the combined company to compete more effectively in the increasingly competitive pharmaceutical industry and the fact that the combined company would be financially stronger than Pharmacia would be as an independent entity;

I-37

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

- (8) the current environment of the pharmaceutical industry, including the increasing cost to fund the high-risk and long-term research required to develop successful pharmaceutical products;
- (9) the opportunity to maximize the potential of both companies' current products and pipelines, such as the near-term launch of several key Pharmacia products in Japan;
- (10) the highly successful ongoing relationship between Pfizer and Pharmacia in co-marketing, co-promoting and licensing Celebrex(R) and the successful launch of Bextra(R);
- (11) that the dividends payable in respect of 1.4 shares of Pfizer common stock were expected to be approximately 35% higher in 2003 and approximately 40% higher in 2004 than the currently-anticipated dividend on a share of Pharmacia common stock;
- (12) the corporate governance aspects of the merger, including that at the closing of the merger, Mr. Hassan, the current Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Pharmacia, will be named the Vice-Chairman of Pfizer and become a member of Pfizer's board of directors;
- (13) the intended treatment of the merger as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code;
- (14) the likelihood, determined after consultation with its legal counsel, that the regulatory approvals and clearances necessary to complete the merger would be obtained and that Pfizer had agreed in the merger agreement to take such action, including selling or holding separate assets of Pfizer or Pharmacia, as necessary to complete the merger, unless such actions would have a material adverse effect on Pharmacia, including, for this purpose only, Pharmacia's prospects;
- (15) the terms of the merger agreement and the employee related agreements and plans, including:
 - that the merger agreement permits Pharmacia to provide information and enter into negotiations with a third party if Pharmacia receives an unsolicited proposal from a third party and the board concludes that there is a reasonable likelihood that such acquisition proposal could result in a proposal that is more favorable to Pharmacia's shareholder from a financial point of view than the proposed merger;

- that it could change its recommendation to the Pharmacia shareholders in the event that Pfizer suffers a material adverse effect or if the board determines that an unsolicited acquisition proposal is more favorable to Pharmacia's shareholders from a financial point of view; and
- that it could terminate the merger agreement to accept a proposal that is more favorable to Pharmacia's shareholders from a financial point of view if it pays Pfizer a termination fee of $1.6 billion and, if the more favorable transaction is completed within one year of termination, transfers the tie-breaking vote for decisions under the COX-2 co-promotion and co-marketing agreements to Pfizer. This amendment is described in more detail under the heading "Summary of the Merger Agreement" on page .

- (16) the opinion of Goldman Sachs that, based on and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in the opinion, as of the date of such opinion and subject to the opinion,

I-38

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

the exchange ratio pursuant to the merger agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Pharmacia common stock, which opinion is described in detail under the heading "Opinion of Pharmacia's Financial Advisor" on page .

The Pharmacia board of directors weighed these advantages and opportunities against:

- (1) the challenges inherent in the combination of two business enterprises of the size and scope of Pfizer and Pharmacia and the possible resulting diversion of management attention for an extended period of time;
- (2) the risk that the merger would not be completed;
- (3) the risk that anticipated benefits, long-term as well as short-term, of the merger for the Pharmacia shareholders might not be realized;
- (4) the impact of the merger on Pharmacia's employees;
- (5) the risk that various provisions of the merger agreement and the agreement regarding the change to the COX-2 co-promotion and co-marketing agreements may have the effect of discouraging other persons potentially interested in a combination with Pharmacia from pursuing such opportunity;
- (6) the combined company's potential liability associated with actions that have been filed against Pfizer related to Rezulin, a diabetes drug, and to asbestos, in connection with limited sales of minor products containing asbestos which Pfizer acquired in the 1960s; and
- (7) the potential impact of the litigation, and the potential loss of

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

Pfizer's patent protection, related to Neurontin(R).

The Pharmacia board also considered that the merger agreement provides for a fixed exchange ratio and that the value of the consideration to be paid in the merger to Pharmacia shareholders depends on the value of the Pfizer common stock at the time of the merger. The Pharmacia board realized that there can be no assurance about future results, including results expected or considered in the factors listed above, such as assumptions regarding potential revenue enhancements and anticipated cost savings. However, the Pharmacia board concluded that the potential positive factors outweighed the potential risks of completing the merger.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the Pharmacia board of directors is not exhaustive, but includes all material factors considered by the Pharmacia board. In view of the wide variety of factors considered by the Pharmacia board in connection with its evaluation of the merger and the complexity of such matters, the Pharmacia board did not consider it practical to, nor did it attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors that it considered in reaching its decision. The Pharmacia board discussed the factors described above, asked questions of Pharmacia's management and Pharmacia's legal and financial advisors, and reached general consensus that the merger was advisable and in the best interests of Pharmacia and its shareholders. In considering the factors described above, individual members of the Pharmacia board of directors may have given different weight to different factors. It should be noted that this explanation of the Pharmacia board's reasoning and certain information presented in this section is forward-looking in nature and, therefore, such information should be read in light of the factors discussed under the heading "Forward-Looking Statements" on page .

THE PHARMACIA BOARD OF DIRECTORS HAS UNANIMOUSLY APPROVED THE MERGER AGREEMENT, THE MERGER AND THE OTHER TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED THEREBY AND BELIEVES THAT THE TERMS OF THE MERGER ARE FAIR TO AND IN THE BEST INTERESTS OF PHARMACIA AND ITS SHAREHOLDERS. ACCORD-

I-39

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

INGLY, THE PHARMACIA BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT PHARMACIA SHAREHOLDERS VOTE "FOR" THE ADOPTION OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT.

ACCOUNTING TREATMENT

The merger will be accounted for as a purchase by Pfizer under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Under the purchase method of accounting, the assets and liabilities of Pharmacia will be recorded, as of completion of the merger, at their respective fair values and added to those of Pfizer. Reported financial condition and results of operations of Pfizer issued after completion of the merger will reflect Pharmacia's balances and results after completion of the merger, but will not be restated retroactively to reflect the historical financial position or results of operations of Pharmacia. Following the completion of the merger, the earnings of the combined company will reflect purchase accounting adjustments, including in-process research and development write-offs and increased amortization and depreciation expense for acquired assets.

MATERIAL FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

The following general discussion summarizes the material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger to holders of Pfizer common stock and Pharmacia common stock.

United States Federal Income Tax Consequences to Pharmacia Shareholders Who Participate in the Merger.

This discussion addresses only those Pharmacia shareholders that hold their Pharmacia common stock as a capital asset and does not address all aspects of federal income taxation that may be relevant to a holder of Pharmacia common stock in light of that shareholder's particular circumstances or to a shareholder subject to special rules, such as:

- a shareholder that is not a citizen or resident of the United States;
- a financial institution or insurance company;
- a mutual fund;
- a tax-exempt organization;
- a dealer or broker in securities or foreign currencies;
- traders in securities that elect to apply a mark-to-market method of accounting;
- a shareholder that holds its Pharmacia common stock as part of a hedge, appreciated financial position, straddle or conversion transaction; or
- a shareholder that acquired its Pharmacia common stock pursuant to the exercise of options or otherwise as compensation.

The following discussion is not binding on the Internal Revenue Service. It is based on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, applicable Treasury regulations, administrative interpretations and court decisions, each as in effect as of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus and all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. The tax consequences under United States state and local and foreign laws and United States federal laws other than United States federal income tax laws are not addressed.

Holders of Pharmacia common stock are strongly urged to consult their tax advisors as to the specific tax consequences to them of the merger, including the applicability and effect of United States federal, state and local and foreign income and other tax laws in light of their particular circumstances.

Pfizer and Pharmacia have structured the merger so that it is anticipated that the merger will qualify as a reorganization for United

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

States federal income tax purposes. On the date this registration statement becomes effective, Pfizer will receive a written opinion from Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft, and Pharmacia will receive a written opinion from Sullivan & Cromwell, both to the effect that for United States federal income tax purposes, the merger will constitute a reorganization within the meaning of section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. It is a condition to the completion of the merger that Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft and Sullivan & Cromwell confirm their respective opinions as of the closing date of the merger. Neither Pfizer nor Pharmacia intends to waive this condition. These opinions will each rely, on assumptions, including assumptions regarding the absence of changes in existing facts and law and the completion of the merger in the manner contemplated by the merger agreement, and representations and covenants made by Pfizer, Pharmacia and others, including those contained in certificates of officers of Pfizer and Pharmacia. If any of those representations, covenants or assumptions is inaccurate, counsel may not be able to render the required opinions and the tax consequences of the merger could differ from those discussed here. Opinions of counsel neither bind the IRS nor preclude the IRS from adopting a contrary position. No ruling has been or will be sought from the IRS on the tax consequences of the merger.

For United States federal income tax purposes:

- A holder of Pharmacia common stock will not recognize any gain or loss upon the exchange of that shareholder's shares of Pharmacia common stock for shares of Pfizer common stock in the merger, except that gain or loss will be recognized on the receipt of cash in lieu of a fractional share of Pfizer common stock;
- To the extent that a holder of Pharmacia common stock receives cash in lieu of a fractional share of Pfizer common stock, the holder will be required to recognize gain or loss, measured by the difference between the amount of cash received and the portion of the tax basis of that holder's shares of Pharmacia common stock allocable to that fractional share of Pfizer common stock. This gain or loss will be capital gain or loss and will be long-term capital gain or loss if the holding period for the share of Pharmacia common stock exchanged for the fractional share of Pfizer common stock is more than one year at the completion of the merger;
- A holder of Pharmacia common stock will have a tax basis in the Pfizer common stock received in the merger equal to (1) the tax basis of the Pharmacia common stock surrendered by that holder in the merger, less (2) any tax basis of the Pharmacia common stock surrendered that is allocable to a fractional share of Pfizer common stock for which cash is received; and
- The holding period for shares of Pfizer common stock received in exchange for shares of Pharmacia common stock in the merger will include the holding period for the shares of Pharmacia common stock surrendered in the merger.

United States Federal Income Tax Consequences to Pfizer Shareholders. There will be no United States federal income tax consequences to a holder of Pfizer common stock as a result of the merger.

This discussion is intended to provide only a general summary of the material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger, and is not a complete analysis or description of all potential United States federal income tax consequences of the merger. This discussion does not address tax consequences that may vary with, or are contingent on, individual circumstances. In addition, it does not address any non-income tax or any foreign, state or local tax consequences of the merger. ACCORDINGLY, PFIZER AND PHARMACIA STRONGLY URGE EACH HOLDER OF PHARMACIA COMMON STOCK TO CONSULT HIS OR HER TAX ADVISOR TO DETERMINE THE PARTICULAR UNITED STATES FEDERAL, STATE OR

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

LOCAL OR FOREIGN INCOME OR OTHER TAX CONSEQUENCES TO THAT SHAREHOLDER OF THE MERGER.

REGULATORY MATTERS RELATING TO THE MERGER

United States Antitrust. Under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, and its associated rules, the merger may not be completed until notifications have been given and certain information and materials have been furnished to and reviewed by the Antitrust Division of the United States Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission and the required waiting period has expired or terminated. Pfizer and Pharmacia intend to file the required notification and report forms under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, with the Federal Trade Commission and the Department of Justice shortly. There can be no assurance that a challenge to the merger on antitrust grounds will not be made or, if a challenge is made, that it would not be successful. In addition, state antitrust authorities and private parties in certain circumstances may bring legal action under the antitrust laws seeking to enjoin the merger or seeking conditions to the completion of the merger.

European Union. Both Pfizer and Pharmacia conduct business in member states of the European Union. Council Regulation No. 4064/89 and accompanying regulations require notification to and approval by the European Commission of specific mergers or acquisitions involving parties with worldwide sales and individual European Union sales exceeding specified thresholds before these mergers and acquisitions can be implemented. Pfizer and Pharmacia intend to seek approval of the European Commission for the merger shortly.

Expiration or termination of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, and gaining approval under Council Regulation No. 4064/89 are conditions to completing the merger.

Other Jurisdictions. Pfizer and Pharmacia each conduct operations in a number of jurisdictions where other regulatory approvals are required or advisable in connection with the completion of the merger. We recognize that some of these approvals, which are not required to be obtained under the merger agreement, may not be obtained prior to the completion of the merger and may impact the combined company's ability to conduct business in those jurisdictions. However, neither party is required to complete the merger if the companies have failed to obtain any governmental approval and such failure would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the combined company following the merger.

In addition, the companies have agreed that, if necessary to secure regulatory approval of the merger, Pfizer will hold assets separate or conduct any portion of its business in a specified manner for up to 6 months and Pfizer and Pharmacia will divest or hold separate assets so long as such divestitures do not have a material adverse effect on Pharmacia (including, for this purpose, on its prospects).

APPRAISAL RIGHTS

Holders of Pfizer common stock and Pharmacia common stock do not have appraisal rights under Delaware law in connection with the merger.

The holder of Pharmacia Series B convertible perpetual preferred stock will have appraisal rights under Delaware law in connection with the merger. If such holder has not voted its shares of Pharmacia Series B convertible perpetual preferred stock in favor of adoption of the merger agreement, it has the right to demand appraisal of, and to be paid the fair market value for such shares of Pharmacia Series B convertible perpetual preferred stock. The value of the Pharmacia Series B convertible perpetual preferred stock for this purpose will exclude any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger. In order for the holder of Pharmacia Series B convertible perpetual preferred stock to exercise its right to an appraisal, if any, such holder must deliver to Pharmacia a written demand for an appraisal of the shares of Pharmacia Series B convertible perpetual preferred stock prior to the time the vote is taken on the adoption of merger agreement at the Pharmacia meeting as provided by Delaware law. Annex F to this document sets forth the pertinent provisions of Delaware law addressing appraisal rights. Simply voting against adoption of the merger agreement will not be considered a demand for appraisal rights. If the holder of Pharmacia Series B convertible perpetual preferred stock fails to deliver such a written demand to the corporate secretary of Pharmacia Corporation at 100 Route 206 North, Peapack, New Jersey 07977, prior to the time the vote is taken on the adoption of the merger agreement at the Pharmacia special meeting, it will lose the right to an appraisal. In addition, if such holder votes its shares of Pharmacia Series B convertible perpetual preferred stock for adoption of the merger agreement, it will lose the right to an appraisal with respect to such shares. Failure to vote against adoption of the merger agreement will not constitute a waiver of such holder's appraisal rights. The preceding discussion is not a complete statement of the law pertaining to appraisal rights under the Delaware General Corporation Law and is qualified in its entirety by the provisions of Delaware law attached as Annex F to this document.

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

I-42

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

FEDERAL SECURITIES LAWS CONSEQUENCES; STOCK TRANSFER RESTRICTION AGREEMENTS

This registration statement of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus is a part does not cover any resales of the Pfizer common stock to be received by the shareholders of Pharmacia upon completion of the merger, and no person is authorized to make any use of this joint proxy statement/prospectus in connection with any such resale.

All shares of Pfizer common stock received by Pharmacia shareholders in the merger will be freely transferable, except that shares of Pfizer common stock received by persons who are deemed to be "affiliates" of Pharmacia under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, at the time of the Pharmacia special meeting may be resold by them only in transactions permitted by Rule 145 under the 1933 Act or as otherwise permitted under the 1933 Act. Persons who may be deemed to be affiliates of Pharmacia for such purposes generally include individuals or entities that control, are controlled by or are under common control with, Pharmacia, as the case may be, and include directors and certain executive officers of Pharmacia. The merger agreement requires that Pharmacia use reasonable best efforts to cause each affiliate to execute a written agreement to the effect that such persons will not offer, sell or otherwise dispose of any of the shares of Pfizer common stock issued to them in the merger in violation of the 1933 Act or the related SEC rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

REPURCHASE OF COMMON STOCK

Pfizer has previously announced a common stock repurchase program under which it and its affiliates are authorized to acquire, from time to time as price and conditions warrant, up to $16 billion of its common stock in the open market or in privately negotiated transactions.

Regulation M under the federal securities laws prohibits Pfizer from bidding for or repurchasing its common stock during the period commencing with the mailing of this joint proxy statement/prospectus through the date of Pharmacia's special meeting.

Subject to applicable law, Pfizer may, from time to time as price and conditions warrant, repurchase shares of Pfizer common stock and Pharmacia may, from time to time as price and conditions warrant, repurchase shares of Pharmacia common stock.

STOCK EXCHANGE LISTING; DELISTING AND DEREGISTRATION OF PHARMACIA COMMON STOCK

It is a condition to the merger that the shares of Pfizer common stock issuable in the merger be approved for listing on the New York Stock Exchange, subject to official notice of issuance. If the merger is completed, Pharmacia common stock will cease to be listed on the New York Stock Exchange and the Swedish stock exchange and its shares will be deregistered under the Exchange Act.

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

On July 15, 2002, a suit was filed in the Chancery Court in Delaware on behalf of a purported class of Pharmacia's shareholders against Pharmacia, Pharmacia's directors and Pfizer, alleging that the price to be paid for Pharmacia's shares is inadequate as a result of Pharmacia's directors' breach of their fiduciary duties to the shareholders of Pharmacia and that Pfizer is alleged to have aided and abetted the alleged breach. The complaint, which Pfizer and Pharmacia believe to be without merit, seeks damages and to enjoin the merger.

On the same date, a second suit was filed in the Chancery Court in Delaware against Pharmacia and Pharmacia's directors, alleging that the price to be paid for Pharmacia's shares is inadequate as a result of Pharmacia's directors' breach of their fiduciary duties to the shareholders of Pharmacia. The complaint, which Pharmacia believes to be without merit, seeks damages and to enjoin the merger.

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

OPINIONS OF FINANCIAL ADVISORS

OPINIONS OF PFIZER'S FINANCIAL ADVISORS

Lazard Freres & Co. LLC and Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc., Pfizer's financial advisors, have rendered separate opinions to the Pfizer board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Pfizer of the exchange ratio in the merger. The full text of the written opinion of Lazard, dated July 13, 2002, is attached to this document as Annex B, and the full text of the written opinion of Bear Stearns, dated July 13, 2002, is attached to this document as Annex C. We encourage you to read each of the opinions carefully and in their entirety to understand the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken by each of Lazard and Bear Stearns in providing their respective opinions. THE OPINIONS OF LAZARD AND BEAR STEARNS ARE DIRECTED TO THE PFIZER BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND DO NOT CONSTITUTE RECOMMENDATIONS TO ANY SHAREHOLDER AS TO HOW THAT SHAREHOLDER SHOULD VOTE ON, OR TAKE ANY OTHER ACTION WITH RESPECT TO, THE MERGER.

OPINION OF LAZARD

At a meeting of Pfizer's board of directors held on July 13, 2002, at which the Pfizer board of directors considered the merger and approved the merger agreement and the merger, Lazard rendered its oral opinion (which was subsequently confirmed in a written opinion, dated July 13, 2002) that, as of such date and based upon and subject to the matters reviewed with Pfizer's board of directors, the exchange ratio in the merger was fair to Pfizer from a financial point of view.

The full text of the Lazard opinion is attached hereto as Annex B. The description of the Lazard opinion set forth herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Lazard opinion set forth in Annex B. Pfizer's shareholders are urged to read the Lazard opinion in its entirety for a description of the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Lazard in connection therewith. The Lazard opinion is necessarily based upon the economic, monetary, market and other conditions as they were in effect on, and the information made available to Lazard as of, the date of the Lazard opinion. Lazard assumes no responsibility for updating or revising its opinion based on circumstances or events occurring after the date of the Lazard opinion. The Lazard opinion is for the benefit and use of Pfizer's board of directors and addresses only the fairness from a financial point of view of the exchange ratio in the merger to Pfizer. It does not address the merits of the underlying decision by Pfizer to engage in the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of Pfizer as to how such shareholder should vote on, or take any other action with respect to, the merger.

In the course of performing its review and analyses for rendering its opinion, Lazard:

- reviewed the financial terms and conditions of the merger agreement and the certificate of designations for Series A convertible perpetual preferred stock of Pfizer Inc.;
- analyzed certain historical publicly available business and financial information relating to Pfizer and Pharmacia;
- reviewed various financial forecasts and other data provided to Lazard by Pfizer and Pharmacia relating to their respective businesses;
- reviewed the synergistic savings and benefits and the timing of their occurrence as projected by Pfizer to be realized by the combined entity in connection with the merger;
- held discussions with members of the senior managements of Pfizer and of Pharmacia with respect to the business and prospects of Pfizer and Pharmacia, respectively, the strategic objectives of each and the possible benefits that might be realized following the merger as projected by Pfizer;

I-47

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

- reviewed public information with respect to certain other companies in lines of businesses believed by Lazard to be generally comparable to those of Pfizer and Pharmacia;
- reviewed the financial terms of certain significant business combinations involving companies in lines of businesses believed by Lazard to be generally comparable to those of Pfizer and Pharmacia;
- reviewed the historical trading prices and trading volumes of Pfizer's, Pharmacia's and Monsanto Company's common stock;

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

- reviewed the pro forma financial results, financial condition and capitalization of Pfizer giving effect to the merger provided to Lazard by the management of Pfizer; and
- conducted such other financial studies, analyses and investigations as Lazard deemed appropriate.

Lazard relied upon the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information that it reviewed and used in its analysis, including the financial and other information provided by Pfizer and Pharmacia and reviewed by Lazard for purposes of the Lazard opinion. Lazard did not assume any responsibility for any independent verification of such information or any independent valuation or appraisal of any of the assets and liabilities of Pfizer or Pharmacia, or concerning the solvency of or issues relating to solvency concerning either of Pfizer or Pharmacia. With respect to financial forecasts, including the synergistic savings and benefits projected by Pfizer to be realized following the merger, and the timing thereof, Lazard assumed that they were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the managements of Pfizer and of Pharmacia as to the future financial performance of Pfizer and Pharmacia, respectively, and of Pfizer with respect to the combined entity. Lazard assumed no responsibility for and expressed no view as to such forecasts or the assumptions on which they were based.

In rendering its opinion, Lazard assumed that the merger will be consummated on the terms and subject to the conditions described in the merger agreement without any waiver or modification of any material terms or conditions by Pfizer, that obtaining the necessary regulatory approvals for the merger will not have an adverse effect on Pfizer or Pharmacia and that the synergistic savings and benefits of the merger projected by the management of Pfizer will be substantially realized both in scope and timing. In addition, Lazard assumed that:

(i) the merger will be accounted for as a tax-free "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code;

(ii) number of outstanding shares of common stock of Pharmacia on a fully diluted basis will not be materially different than as represented in the merger agreement; and

(iii) other representations and warranties of Pharmacia and Pfizer contained in the merger agreement are true and complete.

Further, in rendering its opinion, Lazard did not express any opinion as to the price at which the common stock of Pfizer or Pharmacia may trade subsequent to the announcement of the merger or as to the price at which the common stock of Pfizer may trade subsequent to the completion of the merger. Lazard also did not express any opinion as to any aspect of Pharmacia's proposed disposition of its interest in Monsanto Company.

Lazard has in the past provided investment banking services to Pfizer for which Lazard has received customary fees. In the ordinary course of Lazard's business, Lazard and its affiliates may actively trade shares of Pfizer's, Pharmacia's and Monsanto Company's common stock and other securities of Pfizer, Pharmacia and Monsanto Company for their own accounts and for the accounts of their customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in these securities.

OPINION OF BEAR STEARNS

At a meeting of Pfizer's board of directors held on July 13, 2002, at which the Pfizer board of directors considered the merger and approved the merger agreement and the merger, Bear Stearns rendered its oral opinion (which was subsequently confirmed in a written opinion, dated July 13, 2002) that, as of such date and based upon and subject to the matters reviewed with Pfizer's board of directors, the exchange ratio in the merger was fair to Pfizer from a financial point of view.

The full text of the Bear Stearns opinion is attached hereto as Annex C. The description of the Bear Stearns opinion set forth herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Bear Stearns opinion set forth in Annex C. Pfizer's shareholders are urged to read the Bear Stearns opinion in its entirety for a description of the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Bear Stearns in connection therewith. The Bear Stearns opinion is subject to the assumptions and conditions contained therein and is necessarily based on economic, market and other conditions and the information made available to Bear Stearns, as of the date of the Bear Stearns opinion. Bear Stearns assumes no responsibility for updating or revising its opinion based on circumstances or events occurring after the date of the Bear Stearns opinion. The Bear Stearns opinion is intended for the benefit and use of the board of directors of Pfizer and does not constitute a recommendation to the board of directors of Pfizer or any holders of Pfizer common stock as to how to vote in connection with the merger. The Bear Stearns opinion does not address Pfizer's underlying decision to pursue the merger, the relative merits of the merger as compared to any alternative business strategies that might have existed for Pfizer or the effects of any other transaction in which Pfizer might have engaged.

In the course of performing its review and analyses for rendering its opinion, Bear Stearns:

- reviewed the merger agreement and the Certificate of Designations for Series A Convertible Perpetual Preferred Stock of Pfizer Inc.;
- reviewed each of Pfizer's and Pharmacia's Annual Reports to Shareholders and Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the years ended December 31, 1999 through 2001, their respective Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the period ended March 31, 2002 and their Current Reports on Form 8-K for the three years ended the date of the Bear Stearns opinion;
- reviewed certain operating and financial information provided to Bear Stearns by the senior managements of Pfizer and of Pharmacia relating to Pfizer's and Pharmacia's respective businesses and prospects, including financial projections for Pfizer for the years ending December 31, 2002 through 2004 prepared by the management of Pfizer and for Pharmacia for the years ending December 31, 2002 through 2004 prepared by the management of Pharmacia (assuming the completion of Pharmacia's disposition of its interest in Monsanto Company) and certain other forward-looking information;
- reviewed certain estimates of cost savings and other combination benefits expected to result from the merger prepared and provided to Bear Stearns by the management of Pfizer;
- met with certain members of the senior managements of Pfizer and of Pharmacia and Pharmacia's advisors to discuss (1) the current business

landscape and competitive dynamics related to the markets in which Pfizer and Pharmacia operate; (2) each company's business, operations, historical and projected financial results, future prospects and financial condition; (3) each company's views of the strategic, business, operational and financial rationale for, and expected strategic benefits and other implications of, the merger; (4) the financial projections for Pfizer and for Pharmacia and the estimates of cost savings and other combination benefits expected to result from the merger described above; and (5) certain other assumptions and judgments underlying certain estimates which Bear Stearns deemed relevant to its analysis;

- reviewed the historical prices, valuation parameters and trading volumes of the common stock of Pfizer, the common stock of Pharmacia and the common stock of Monsanto Company;
- reviewed publicly available financial data, stock market performance data and valuation parameters of companies which Bear Stearns deemed generally comparable to Pfizer and Pharmacia or otherwise relevant to Bear Stearns' analysis;
- reviewed the terms, to the extent publicly available, of recent mergers and acquisitions of companies which Bear Stearns deemed generally comparable to the merger or otherwise relevant to Bear Stearns' analysis;
- performed discounted cash flow analyses based on the financial projections for Pfizer and for Pharmacia and the estimates of cost savings and other combination benefits expected to result from the merger described above;
- reviewed the pro forma financial results, financial condition and capitalization of Pfizer giving effect to the merger provided to Bear Stearns by the management of Pfizer; and
- conducted such other studies, analyses, inquiries and investigations as Bear Stearns deemed appropriate.

Bear Stearns relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information, including, without limitation, the financial projections for Pfizer and for Pharmacia and the estimates of cost savings and other combination benefits expected to result from the merger described above, provided to Bear Stearns by Pfizer or Pharmacia, as the case may be. With respect to these financial projections and estimates of cost savings and other combination benefits expected to result from the merger, Bear Stearns relied on representations that these projections and estimates have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the senior managements of Pfizer and of Pharmacia as to the expected future performance of Pfizer and Pharmacia, respectively. Bear Stearns did not assume any responsibility for the independent verification of any information, projections or estimates of cost savings and other combination benefits expected to result from the merger provided to it, and Bear Stearns further relied upon the assurances of the senior managements of Pfizer and of Pharmacia that they were unaware of any facts that would make the information, projections or estimates of cost savings and other combination benefits expected to result from the merger provided to it incomplete or misleading.

In arriving at its opinion, Bear Stearns did not perform or obtain any independent appraisal of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Pfizer or Pharmacia, nor was Bear Stearns furnished with any such appraisals. Bear Stearns assumed that the merger will qualify as a tax-free "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code and further assumed that the merger will be consummated in a timely manner and in accordance with the terms and conditions of the merger agreement without any limitations, restrictions, conditions, waivers, amendments or modifications, regulatory or otherwise, that collectively would have a material effect on Pfizer or Pharmacia.

Bear Stearns did not express any opinion as to the price or range of prices at which the common stock of Pfizer or the common stock of Pharmacia may trade subsequent to the announcement of the merger or as to the price or range of prices at which the common stock of Pfizer may trade subsequent to the completion of the merger. Bear Stearns also did not express any opinion as to any aspect of Pharmacia's proposed disposition of its interest in Monsanto Company.

Bear Stearns has been previously engaged by Pharmacia to provide certain investment banking and financial advisory services in connection with actual and prospective merger, acquisition and divestiture transactions as well as certain capital raising transactions, for which Bear Stearns received customary compensation. In the ordinary course of business, Bear Stearns and its affiliates may actively trade the equity and debt securities and/or bank debt of Pfizer, Pharmacia and/or Monsanto Company for their own accounts and for the accounts of their customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in these securities or this bank debt.

SUMMARY OF LAZARD AND BEAR STEARNS FINANCIAL ANALYSES

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses performed by Lazard and Bear Stearns in connection with the rendering of their respective fairness opinions to the Pfizer board of directors. Although Lazard and Bear Stearns each performed their own independent analyses in connection with rendering their respective fairness opinions, Lazard and Bear Stearns jointly presented their analyses to the Pfizer board of directors.

In each of the analyses described below, Lazard and Bear Stearns each valued Pharmacia by assuming that the proposed disposition by Pharmacia of its approximately 84% interest in Monsanto Company will occur prior to the completion of the merger. Specifically, in deriving the implied equity values per share of Pharmacia common stock set forth below, Lazard and Bear Stearns excluded the implied value of Monsanto Company attributable to each share of Pharmacia common stock. The implied per share value of Pharmacia's interest in Monsanto Company was calculated by dividing the market value of Pharmacia's approximately 84% interest in Monsanto Company (calculated with reference to the closing share price of Monsanto Company common stock on July 12, 2002, unless otherwise indicated below) by the number of shares of Pharmacia common stock outstanding on May 9, 2002 on a fully diluted basis. In addition, in each of the analyses described below, Lazard and Bear Stearns based their analyses on the fully diluted shares outstanding as of May 9, 2002 for Pharmacia, as reported in Pharmacia's Form 10-Q dated March 31, 2002, and on the fully diluted shares outstanding for Pfizer, as provided by Pfizer's management.

SOME OF THE FINANCIAL ANALYSES SUMMARIZED BELOW INCLUDE INFORMATION PRESENTED IN TABULAR FORMAT. IN ORDER TO UNDERSTAND FULLY LAZARD'S AND BEAR STEARNS' FINANCIAL ANALYSES, THE TABLES MUST BE READ TOGETHER WITH THE TEXT OF THE SUMMARY. THE TABLES ALONE ARE NOT A COMPLETE DESCRIPTION OF THE FINANCIAL ANALYSES. CONSIDERING THE TABLES ALONE COULD CREATE A MISLEADING OR INCOMPLETE VIEW OF LAZARD'S AND BEAR STEARNS' FINANCIAL ANALYSES.

Comparable Public Companies Analysis. Lazard and Bear Stearns each performed a comparable public companies analysis to assist the Pfizer board of directors in valuing Pharmacia based on various financial multiples of selected comparable public companies in the pharmaceutical industry. In performing these analyses, Lazard and Bear Stearns each reviewed certain financial information relating to Pharmacia and compared such information to the corresponding financial information of other pharmaceutical companies which each of Lazard and Bear Stearns deemed to be comparable to Pharmacia.

Lazard compared the projected financial performance and the resulting multiples as of July 12, 2002 of Pharmacia to seven major publicly-traded pharmaceutical and/or life science companies which Lazard deemed generally comparable to Pharmacia. The companies included in the Lazard analysis were:

- AstraZeneca plc
- Aventis S.A.
- Eli Lilly and Company
- Johnson & Johnson
- Pfizer Inc.
- Sanofi Synthelabo SA
- Wyeth

Using publicly available information and market data as of July 12, 2002, and, in the case of Pfizer, information based on Pfizer management estimates and using Wall Street research projections for revenue, EBITDA and EBIT and consensus earnings estimates for EPS for the above comparable companies, Lazard calculated the following median multiples for the above comparable companies:

	2001A	2002E	2003E	2004E
	-----	-----	-----	-----
Enterprise Value as a multiple of:
Revenues.....	4.54x	4.22x	3.78x	3.44x
EBITDA.....	13.5x	11.8x	11.6x	10.1x
EBIT.....	17.2x	14.1x	13.3x	11.7x
Share Price as a multiple of:
EPS.....	24.6x	22.0x	19.2x	16.2x

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

"EBITDA" is a company's earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization. "EBIT" is a company's earnings before interest and taxes. "EPS" is a company's earnings per share. Using the median multiples calculated above and estimates for the corresponding data for Pharmacia provided by the managements of Pfizer and of Pharmacia, Lazard derived a range of implied equity values per share of Pharmacia common stock (adjusted for Pharmacia's proposed disposition of its interest in Monsanto Company) of approximately $23.58 to $58.75 and a corresponding range of implied exchange ratios of approximately 0.73x to 1.82x based on the closing share price of Pfizer common stock as of July 12, 2002. This compares to the exchange ratio in the merger of 1.4x.

Bear Stearns compared the projected financial performance and the price to earnings multiples as of July 12, 2002 of Pfizer and of Pharmacia to 13 major publicly-traded pharmaceutical and/or life science companies which Bear Stearns deemed generally comparable to Pfizer and Pharmacia. The companies included in the Bear Stearns analysis were:

- Abbott Laboratories
- AstraZeneca plc
- Aventis S.A.
- Bristol-Myers Squibb Company
- Eli Lilly and Company
- GlaxoSmithKline plc
- Johnson & Johnson
- Merck & Co., Inc.
- Novartis AG
- Roche Holdings AG
- Sanofi-Synthelabo SA
- Schering-Plough Corporation
- Wyeth

In its analysis, Bear Stearns compared the financial performance of the combined entity (including estimated cost savings expected to result from the merger based on estimates from Pfizer's management) and the combined entity's pro forma price to earnings multiples (based on the income weighted average of the estimated stand-alone price to earnings multiples of Pfizer and of Pharmacia (adjusted for Pharmacia's proposed disposition of its interest in Monsanto Company)) to those of the above comparable companies.

I-52

Based on revenue and earnings forecasts for the above comparable companies from Wall Street research projections and consensus earnings estimates, Bear Stearns calculated the following growth rates and multiples for the above comparable companies:

	LOW	HIGH	MEAN	HARMONIC MEAN	PFIZER	PHARMACIA	PFIZER/ PHARMACIA COMBINED
	----	----	----	-----	-----	-----	-----
Revenue Growth (2002-2004) ..	2.6%	12.5%	8.6%		10.6%	9.1%	9.8%
EPS Five Year Growth.....	9.8%	18.5%	12.1%		17.2%	14.4%	20.0%

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

P/E for the years:

2002.....	13.5x	24.3x	18.3x	20.4x	19.1x	21.8x
2003.....	12.9x	23.3x	16.5x	17.5x	16.6x	17.3x
2004.....	10.1x	20.2x	13.9x	15.2x	14.3x	14.8x

"P/E" is equal to a company's stock price divided by its projected net income per share for the year indicated. "Harmonic Mean" is calculated using the reciprocals of the multiples and gives equal weight to equal dollar investments in the securities whose ratios are being averaged. Bear Stearns utilized the harmonic mean in averaging ratios in which price was the numerator. Based on its analysis, Bear Stearns observed that the projected revenue and earnings growth rates for Pfizer and for Pharmacia were above the average of the projected growth rates of the above comparable companies, and both Pfizer's and Pharmacia's market price to earnings multiples were above the average of the price to earnings multiples of the above comparable companies.

Bear Stearns also observed that the combined entity would have a projected revenue growth rate that was above the average of the revenue growth rates of the above comparable companies and an earnings growth rate that was higher than those of any of the above comparable companies. In addition, Bear Stearns noted that the combined entity's price to earnings multiples (based on stock prices as of July 12, 2002, with Pharmacia's stock price adjusted for its proposed disposition of its interest in Monsanto Company) were above the harmonic mean of the price to earnings multiples of the above comparable companies.

Exchange Ratio Analysis. Lazard and Bear Stearns each examined the historical daily trading exchange ratios of Pfizer common stock to Pharmacia common stock (adjusted for Pharmacia's proposed disposition of its interest in Monsanto Company) to assist the Pfizer board of directors in valuing Pharmacia based on the relative historical value of Pfizer's closing share price to Pharmacia's closing share price (adjusted for Pharmacia's proposed disposition of its interest in Monsanto Company) for the period beginning October 18, 2000 (the date of Monsanto Company's initial public offering) and ending July 12, 2002 and for the one year, six month, three month and one month periods ended July 12, 2002. Based on this analysis and using the closing price of Pfizer common stock and of Pharmacia common stock (adjusted for Pharmacia's proposed disposition of its interest in Monsanto Company) on July 12, 2002, Lazard and Bear Stearns each derived a range of implied equity values per share for Pharmacia common stock of approximately $24.84 to $41.74 and a corresponding range of implied exchange ratios of approximately 0.771x to 1.296x with a mean of 1.001x and a median of 0.9862x. This compares to the exchange ratio in the merger of 1.4x.

Selected Precedent Pharmaceutical Transactions Analysis. Lazard and Bear Stearns each performed selected precedent transactions analyses to assist the Pfizer board of directors in valuing Pharmacia based on transaction values expressed as multiples of various financial measures in selected pharmaceutical transactions.

I-53

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

Using publicly available information, Lazard reviewed and analyzed certain financial and operating data relating to selected transactions in the pharmaceutical industry excluding transactions that Lazard determined to be "merger of equals" transactions. These selected transactions were:

- Pfizer Inc./Warner-Lambert Company
- Glaxo Wellcome plc/SmithKline Beecham plc
- Monsanto Company/Pharmacia & Upjohn, Inc.
- Rhone-Poulenc S.A./Hoechst AG
- Zeneca Group, plc/Astra AB
- Sanofi SA/Synthelabo

Lazard calculated the following multiples for the selected precedent pharmaceutical transactions used in its analysis:

	LOW ----	MEAN ----	MEDIAN -----	HIGH ----
Enterprise Value as a multiple of:
LTM Revenue.....	3.09x	4.94x	5.00x	7.07x
LTM EBIT.....	18.6x	25.9x	24.5x	35.1x
Share Price as a multiple of:
2002E EPS.....	25.8x	39.3x	37.3x	52.0x

"LTM Revenue" is a company's revenue for the last twelve months. "LTM EBIT" is a company's earnings before interest and taxes for the last twelve months. Lazard also reviewed the LTM Revenue, LTM EBIT and LTM EPS multiples in the Pfizer/Warner-Lambert Company transaction, which were 7.07x, 30.8x and 50.0x, respectively, and noted that the corresponding multiples in the current transaction were 4.28x, 23.6x and 29.1x. Using the multiples calculated above and estimates for the corresponding data for Pharmacia provided by the managements of Pfizer and of Pharmacia for the twelve month period ending December 2002 (the anticipated closing of the current transaction), Lazard derived a range of implied equity values per share for Pharmacia common stock of approximately $36.04 to $74.69 and a corresponding range of implied exchange ratios of approximately 1.12x to 2.32x based on the closing share price of Pfizer common stock as of July 12, 2002. This compares to the exchange ratio in the merger of 1.4x.

Using Wall Street research projections and consensus earnings estimates, Bear Stearns reviewed and analyzed certain financial and operating data relating to selected transactions in the pharmaceutical industry. Bear Stearns separated the selected precedent pharmaceutical transactions it used in its analysis into two categories: "Selected Acquisitions" transactions and "Selected Merger of Equals" transactions. For the purposes of Bear Stearns' analysis, "Selected Acquisitions" transactions included transactions in which the target company and the acquiring company were clearly identifiable, consideration consisted of stock, cash or a combination of both and a change of control occurred. "Selected Merger of Equals" transactions included transactions in which the target company and the acquiring company were not clearly identifiable, consideration consisted only of stock and pro forma ownership was relatively evenly split between both the target company's and the acquiring company's shareholders.

The "Selected Acquisitions" transactions included in the Bear Stearns analysis were:

- Bristol-Myers Squibb Company/DuPont Pharmaceuticals Company
- Johnson & Johnson/ALZA Corporation
- Abbott Laboratories/Knoll AG (BASF AG)

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

- Pfizer Inc./Warner-Lambert Company
- Rhone Poulenc S.A./Rorer Group Inc.
- Hoechst AG/Roussel-Uclaf SA
- Rhone-Poulenc Rorer Inc./Fisons plc
- Glaxo plc/Wellcome plc
- Hoechst AG/Marion Merrell Dow Inc.
- American Home Products Corporation/ American Cyanamid Company
- Roche Holdings AG/Syntex Corporation

The "Selected Merger of Equals" transactions included in the Bear Stearns analysis were:

- Glaxo Wellcome plc/SmithKline Beecham plc
- Monsanto Company/Pharmacia & Upjohn, Inc.
- Rhone-Poulenc S.A./Hoechst AG
- Sanofi SA/Synthelabo
- Zeneca Group, plc/Astra AB
- Sandoz Ltd./Ciba-Geigy Ltd.
- Pharmacia AB/Upjohn Co.

Bear Stearns calculated the following multiples for the selected precedent pharmaceutical transactions used in its analysis:

	LOW ----	MEAN ----	HARMONIC MEAN -----	HIGH -----
All Transactions (Selected Acquisitions and Selected Merger of Equals transactions)
Transaction Value as a multiple of:
LTM Revenue.....	1.48x	4.03x	2.98x	13.01x
LTM EBIT.....	9.5x	21.6x	18.1x	48.7x
Purchase Price as a multiple of Projected Net Income.....	14.2x	28.4x	25.4x	50.9x
Selected Acquisitions
Transaction Value as a multiple of:
LTM Revenue.....	1.48x	4.32x	3.04x	13.01x
LTM EBIT.....	12.1x	23.2x	19.3x	48.7x
Purchase Price as a multiple of Projected Net Income.....	18.3x	30.1x	27.1x	50.9x

"Transaction Value" is equal to the sum of the purchase price of common equity on a fully diluted basis and the value of the net debt, any minority interests and preferred stock. "Projected Net Income" is a target company's projected net income for the year ending in which the transaction was announced. Bear Stearns noted that for the Pfizer/Pharmacia merger, the transaction value as a multiple of LTM revenue was 4.45x, the transaction value as a multiple of LTM EBIT was 23.0x and the purchase price as a multiple of projected net income was 29.4x.

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

Based on the multiples calculated above and estimates for the corresponding data for Pharmacia provided by the managements of Pfizer and of Pharmacia, Bear Stearns observed that all of the transaction multiples analyzed for the Pfizer/Pharmacia merger (adjusted for Pharmacia's proposed disposition of its interest in Monsanto Company) fell within the range of the corresponding multiples for the "Selected Acquisitions" transactions together with the "Selected Merger of Equals" transactions and for the "Selected Acquisitions" transactions alone.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Based on cash flow and cost savings estimates of the managements of Pfizer and of Pharmacia, Lazard and Bear Stearns each performed discounted cash flow analyses to assist the Pfizer board of directors in valuing Pharmacia.

I-55

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

Lazard's discounted cash flow analysis valued Pharmacia based on the present value of expected future cash flows of Pharmacia. Lazard's discounted cash flow analysis was based upon a range of terminal year exit multiples of EBITDA of 14.0x to 17.0x and a range of discount rates of 10% to 12%. In its discounted cash flow analysis, Lazard analyzed two forecast cases for Pharmacia, one without cost savings and one with Pfizer's management's projected cost savings expected to result from the merger (net of the projected cash cost to realize the cost savings).

Using this analysis, Lazard derived a range of implied equity values per share for Pharmacia common stock (adjusted for Pharmacia's proposed disposition of its interest in Monsanto Company) as follows:

	IMPLIED EQUITY VALUE PER SHARE -----
Pharmacia common stock:
Forecasts without cost savings.....	$32.41-$42.88
Forecasts with cost savings.....	$49.02-$64.60

Based on this analysis, Lazard derived a corresponding range of implied exchange ratios of approximately 1.01x to 1.33x without cost savings and 1.52x to 2.01x with cost savings based on the closing share price of Pfizer common stock as of July 12, 2002. This compares to the exchange ratio in the merger of 1.4x.

In performing its analysis, Bear Stearns calculated discounted cash flow valuations for Pfizer on a stand-alone basis, for the combined entity (including estimated cost savings expected to result from the merger based on estimates from Pfizer's management) and for Pharmacia (including the same estimated cost savings expected to result from the merger adjusted by the exchange ratio in the merger of 1.4x). Bear Stearns' discounted cash flow analysis was based upon a range of perpetual growth rates of unlevered net income of 3% to 6% and a range of illustrative discount rates of 9% to 11%.

Based on this analysis, Bear Stearns derived a range of implied equity values per share for Pfizer common stock and for Pharmacia common stock (adjusted for Pharmacia's proposed disposition of its interest in Monsanto Company) as follows:

	IMPLIED EQUITY VALUE PER SHARE -----
Pfizer common stock:
Stand-alone.....	$27.62-$64.71
Combined entity (with estimated cost savings).....	$27.75-$66.11
Pharmacia common stock (with estimated cost savings).....	$38.86-$92.55

The implied equity value per share of Pharmacia common stock was derived by applying the exchange ratio in the merger of 1.4x to the range of implied equity values per share of "Pfizer common stock combined entity

I-56

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

(with estimated cost savings)" calculated above.

Precedent Transaction Premiums Paid Analysis. Lazard and Bear Stearns each performed a precedent transaction premiums paid analysis to assist the Pfizer board of directors in valuing Pharmacia based upon the premiums paid in selected transactions. In conducting their analyses, Lazard and Bear Stearns analyzed the premiums paid in the following subsets of precedent transactions:

- selected precedent pharmaceutical transactions (which were not "merger of equals" transactions);
- selected precedent transactions over $20 billion (which were not "merger of equals" transactions and transactions in the financial services industry); and
- selected precedent transactions over $1 billion in the pharmaceutical and biotech industries (which were not "merger of equals" transactions).

The range of implied values that Lazard and Bear Stearns derived were based on the one day, one week and one month implied premiums for the transactions indicated. The implied premiums in this analysis were calculated by comparing the per share transaction price at the announcement of the transaction to the target company's stock price one day, one week and one month prior to the announcement of the transaction.

Selected Precedent Pharmaceutical Transactions Premiums Paid Analysis. Lazard and Bear Stearns each calculated a range of premiums paid in the following selected transactions in the pharmaceutical industry:

- Amgen Inc./Immunex Corporation
- Johnson & Johnson/ALZA Corporation
- Pfizer Inc./Warner-Lambert Company
- Sanofi SA/Synthelabo
- Rhone-Poulenc Rorer Inc./Fisons plc
- Glaxo plc/Wellcome plc
- American Home Products Corporation/ American Cyanamid Company
- Roche Holdings AG/Syntex Corporation
- Roche Holdings AG/Genentech, Inc.
- Rhone-Poulenc S.A./Rorer Group Inc.

The range of median and mean premiums paid over the target's closing stock price one day, one week and one month prior to the announcement of the transaction was 30.6% to 47.6%. Using the closing prices for Pharmacia common stock as of July 12, 2002, July 5, 2002 and June 14, 2002 (adjusted for Pharmacia's proposed disposition of its interest in Monsanto Company), Lazard and Bear Stearns derived a range of implied equity values per share for Pharmacia common stock of approximately $35.56 to $57.62 and a corresponding range of implied exchange ratios of approximately 1.10x to 1.79x based on the closing share price of Pfizer common stock as of July 12, 2002. This compares to the exchange ratio in the merger of 1.4x.

Precedent Transactions Over $20 Billion Premiums Paid Analysis. Lazard and Bear Stearns each calculated a range of premiums paid in the following precedent transactions with transaction values over $20 billion:

- BP Amoco plc/Atlantic Richfield Company (ARCO)
- Ing C Olivetti & Co SpA/Telecom Italia SpA
- Vodafone Group PLC/AirTouch Communications, Inc.

- AT&T Corp./Tele-Communications, Inc. - Class A
- AT&T Corp./Tele-Communications, Inc. - Class B
- SBC Communications Inc./Ameritech Corporation
- Daimler-Benz AG/Chrysler Corporation

The ranges of median and mean premiums paid over the target's closing stock price one day, one week and one month prior to the announcement of the transaction was 20.2% to 39.7%. Using the closing prices for Pharmacia common stock as of July 12, 2002, July 5, 2002 and June 14, 2002 (adjusted for Pharmacia's proposed disposition of its interest in Monsanto Company), Lazard and Bear Stearns derived a range of implied equity values per share for Pharmacia common stock of approximately $30.14 to $68.29 and a corresponding range of implied exchange ratios of approximately 0.94x to 2.12x based on the closing share price of Pfizer common stock as of July 12, 2002. This compares to the exchange ratio in the merger of 1.4x.

PHARMACEUTICAL AND BIOTECH TRANSACTIONS OVER $1 BILLION PREMIUMS PAID ANALYSIS. Lazard and Bear Stearns calculated a range of premiums paid in the following transactions in the pharmaceutical and biotechnology industries with transaction values over $1 billion:

- Amgen Inc./Immunex Corporation
- Millennium Pharmaceuticals, Inc./COR Therapeutics, Inc.
- MedImmune, Inc./Aviron
- Bristol-Myers Squibb Company/ImClone Systems Incorporated (this transaction represents an equity investment)
- Mayne Nickless Limited/FH Faulding & Co. Limited
- Johnson & Johnson/ALZA Corporation
- Shire Pharmaceuticals Group plc/BioChem Pharma Inc.
- Genzyme Corporation/Geltex Pharmaceuticals, Inc.
- Elan Corporation, plc/Dura Pharmaceuticals, Inc.
- King Pharmaceuticals, Inc./Jones Pharma Incorporated
- Celltech Chiroscience PLC/Medeva PLC
- Pfizer Inc./Warner-Lambert Company
- Shire Pharmaceuticals Group plc/Roberts Pharmaceutical Corporation
- Johnson & Johnson/Centocor, Inc.
- Warner-Lambert Company/Agouron Pharmaceuticals, Inc.

The ranges of median and mean premiums paid over the target's closing stock price one day, one week and one month prior to the announcement of the transaction or proposed transaction was 19.9% to 44.8%. Using the closing prices for Pharmacia common stock as of July 12, 2002, July 5, 2002 and June 14, 2002 (adjusted for Pharmacia's proposed disposition of its interest in Monsanto Company), Lazard and Bear Stearns derived a range of implied equity values per share for Pharmacia common stock of approximately $33.99 to $56.41 and a corresponding range of implied exchange ratios of approximately 1.06x to 1.75x based on the closing share price of Pfizer common stock as of July 12, 2002. This compares to the exchange ratio in the merger of 1.4x.

Illustrative Valuation of Cost Savings versus Value of Premium Analysis. Lazard and Bear Stearns each performed an illustrative valuation of the projected cost savings expected to result from the merger. This analysis was based on the hypothetical capitalized value of estimated incremental net income assuming a range of price to earnings multiples of 12.5x to 20.0x, pre-tax estimated cost savings of $2.0 billion to $2.5 billion based on estimates from Pfizer's management (excluding one-time costs to achieve such cost savings) and tax effected at a 32% tax rate.

The following table shows the calculated hypothetical capitalized values of the projected cost savings resulting from this analysis (all dollar values are in billions):

PROJECTED COST SAVINGS:	12.5X	15.0X	17.5X	20.0X
$2.0.....	$17.0	$20.4	$23.8	$27.2
2.5.....	21.3	25.5	29.8	34.0

Both Lazard and Bear Stearns compared the illustrative valuation of the projected cost savings expected to result from the merger to the value of the premium implied by the exchange ratio in the merger, assuming stock prices for Pfizer common stock and for Pharmacia common stock (adjusted for Pharmacia's proposed disposition of its interest in Monsanto Company) as of July 12, 2002 and the average prices of Pfizer common stock and of Pharmacia common stock (adjusted for Pharmacia's proposed disposition of its interest in Monsanto Company) for the prior 30 days. Both Lazard and Bear Stearns observed that the calculated hypothetical capitalized values of the projected cost savings expected to result from the merger were generally higher than the value of the implied premiums in the merger of $20.1 billion and $19.3 billion based on the stock prices of Pfizer common stock and of Pharmacia common stock (adjusted for Pharmacia's proposed disposition of its interest in Monsanto Company) as of July 12, 2002 and the average prices for the 30 days prior to July 12, 2002, respectively.

Contribution Analysis. Lazard and Bear Stearns each performed a contribution analysis to assist the Pfizer board of directors in valuing Pharmacia based on the relative contribution of each company to the combined pro forma entity, based on the projections of the managements of Pfizer and of Pharmacia and public information. Lazard and Bear Stearns calculated the relative contribution by both Pfizer and Pharmacia to the combined entity with respect to equity value at market (based on the closing share price of the Pfizer common stock and of the Pharmacia common stock (adjusted for Pharmacia's proposed disposition of its interest in Monsanto Company) as of July 12, 2002) and at the 1.4x exchange ratio in the merger, and projected financial data including revenues, EBIT and net income with and without projected cost savings. In this analysis, Lazard and Bear Stearns each adjusted the Pfizer and Pharmacia projections to exclude alliance revenue paid to Pfizer by Pharmacia and based cost savings on estimates provided by Pfizer's management.

For the calculation of Pharmacia's percentage contribution based on "2004E Net Income (with cost savings)" and "2004E Net Income (peak)," both Lazard and Bear Stearns included the impact of $2.2 billion ($1.5 billion after tax) and $2.5 billion ($1.7 billion after tax) in cost savings, respectively, as estimated by Pfizer's management.

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

Pro Forma Merger Analysis. Lazard and Bear Stearns each performed a pro forma merger analysis to assist the Pfizer board of directors in analyzing the financial impact of the merger on Pfizer. Lazard and Bear Stearns each reviewed and analyzed certain pro forma financial impacts of the merger on holders of Pfizer common stock based on the following:

- the exchange ratio in the merger of 1.4x;
- the financial projections provided to each of Lazard and Bear Stearns by the managements of Pfizer and of Pharmacia, respectively;
- an assumption for analytical purposes, based on estimates from Pfizer's management, that the combination of Pfizer and Pharmacia would realize projected pre-tax cost savings of $1.4 billion and $2.2 billion in 2003 and 2004, respectively (tax-effected at a 32% tax rate);
- an assumption for analytical purposes that the earnings impact would be presented on the basis of adjusted earnings (as described below); and
- an assumption for analytical purposes, based on public statements made by Pfizer's management, that Pfizer would expand its previously announced share repurchase program from $10 billion to $16 billion via open market purchases as well as accelerate the buyback period with the anticipation of completing the program in 2003.

The following table shows the projected per share accretion/(dilution) to Pfizer's pro forma adjusted earnings, including the projected cost savings for the calendar years presented. For the purpose of this analysis, adjusted earnings is equal to GAAP net income, plus the cumulative effect of a change in accounting principle, plus certain significant items, plus charges related to purchase price allocations on assets (including write-off of in-process research and development, amortization of identifiable intangibles and charges related to write-up of assets to fair market value) and plus merger-related costs (including integration expenses and restructuring charges).

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

MISCELLANEOUS

In connection with rendering the Lazard opinion and the Bear Stearns opinion, Lazard and Bear Stearns each respectively performed a variety of financial analyses. The preparation of a fairness opinion involves various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of these methods to the particular circumstances and, therefore, such an opinion is not readily susceptible to a partial analysis or summary description. Accordingly, notwithstanding the separate analyses summarized above, each of Lazard and Bear Stearns believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the analyses and factors considered by them, without considering all such analyses and factors, or attempting to ascribe relative weights to some or all such analyses and factors, could create an incomplete view of the evaluation process underlying the Lazard opinion and the Bear Stearns opinion.

In performing their respective analyses, each of Lazard and Bear Stearns made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Pfizer. The analyses performed by Lazard and Bear Stearns are not necessarily indicative of actual values or actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Neither Lazard nor Bear Stearns assigned any specific weight to any of the analyses described above and did not draw any specific conclusions from or with regard to any one method of analysis. With respect to the analysis of comparable companies and the analysis of selected precedent transactions summarized above, no public company utilized as a comparison is identical to Pfizer or Pharmacia, and no transaction is identical to the merger. Accordingly, an analysis of publicly traded comparable companies and comparable business combinations is not mathematical; rather, it involves complex considerations and judgments concerning the differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies and other factors that could affect the public trading values or announced merger transaction values, as the case may be, of Pfizer or Pharmacia and the companies to which they were compared. The analyses do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which any securities may trade at the present time or at any time in the future. In addition, the Lazard opinion and the Bear Stearns opinion were just two of many factors taken into consideration by Pfizer's board of directors. Consequently, Lazard's and Bear Stearns' analysis should not be viewed as determinative of the decision of Pfizer's board of directors or Pfizer's management with respect to the fairness of the exchange ratio as set forth in the merger agreement.

Lazard and Bear Stearns are internationally recognized investment banking firms and are each continually engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements, leveraged buyouts and valuations for estate, corporate and other purposes.

Lazard was selected to act as investment banker to the Pfizer board of directors because of its expertise and its reputation in investment banking and mergers and acquisitions and its familiarity with the pharmaceutical industry and Pfizer. Pfizer and Lazard have entered into a letter agreement, dated as of July 8, 2002, relating to the services to be provided by Lazard in connection with the merger and the transactions related to it, under which Pfizer has agreed to pay Lazard customary compensation, a substantial portion of which is payable only upon completion of the merger. Pfizer also agreed to reimburse Lazard for certain out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the engagement. In addition, Pfizer agreed to indemnify Lazard against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the federal securities law, relating to or arising out of its engagement.

Bear Stearns was selected to act as financial advisor to the Pfizer board of directors because of its expertise and its reputation in investment banking and mergers and acquisitions and its familiarity with the pharmaceutical industry and Pfizer. Pfizer and Bear Stearns have entered into a letter agreement, dated as of July 13, 2002, relating to the services to be provided by Bear Stearns in connection with the merger and the transactions related to it, under which Pfizer has agreed to pay Bear Stearns customary compensation, a substantial portion of which is payable only upon completion of the merger. Pfizer agreed to reimburse Bear Stearns for certain out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the engagement. In addition, Pfizer agreed to indemnify Bear Stearns against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the federal securities law, relating to or arising out of its engagement.

OPINION OF PHARMACIA'S FINANCIAL ADVISOR

Goldman Sachs delivered its opinion to the Pharmacia board of directors that, as of July 13, 2002 and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth therein, the exchange ratio pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to the holders of Pharmacia common stock.

The full text of the written opinion of Goldman Sachs, dated July 13, 2002, which sets forth the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, is attached as Annex D. Holders of Pharmacia common stock should read the opinion in its entirety. Goldman Sachs provided its opinion for the information and assistance of the Pharmacia board of directors in connection with its consideration of the transaction contemplated by the merger agreement. The Goldman Sachs opinion is not a recommendation as to how any holder of Pharmacia common stock should vote with respect to such transaction.

In connection with rendering the opinion described above and performing its related financial analyses, Goldman Sachs reviewed, among other things:

- the merger agreement;
- Annual Reports to Shareholders and Annual Reports on Form 10-K of Pharmacia and Pfizer for each of the five years ended December 31, 2001;

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

- certain interim reports to shareholders and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q of Pharmacia and Pfizer;
- certain other communications from Pharmacia and Pfizer to their respective shareholders; and
- certain internal financial analyses and forecasts for Pharmacia and Pfizer prepared by their respective managements, including certain cost savings and operating synergies expected to result from the transaction contemplated by the merger agreement (the "Synergies").

Goldman Sachs also held discussions with members of the senior management of Pharmacia and Pfizer regarding their assessments of the strategic rationale for, and the potential benefits of, the transaction contemplated by the merger agreement and the past and current business operations, financial condition and future prospects of their respective companies. In addition, Goldman Sachs reviewed the reported price and trading activity for Pharmacia common stock and Pfizer common stock, compared certain financial and stock market information for Pharmacia and Pfizer with similar information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded, reviewed the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the pharmaceutical industry specifically and in other industries generally and performed such other studies and analyses as it considered appropriate.

Goldman Sachs relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial, accounting and other information discussed with or reviewed by it and assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering the opinion described above. In that regard, Goldman Sachs assumed, with the consent of the Pharmacia board of directors, that the internal financial forecasts prepared by the respective managements of Pharmacia and Pfizer, including the Synergies, were reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of Pharmacia and Pfizer. In addition, Goldman Sachs did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets and liabilities of Pharmacia or Pfizer or any of their respective subsidiaries. No evaluation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities of Pharmacia or Pfizer or any of their respective subsidiaries was furnished to Goldman Sachs. Goldman Sachs also assumed that all material governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the completion of the transaction contemplated by the merger agreement will be obtained without any adverse effect on Pharmacia or Pfizer or on the expected benefits of the transaction contemplated by the merger agreement. In addition, Goldman Sachs assumed that the proposed spin-off of Pharmacia's 84% interest in Monsanto Company to holders of Pharmacia common stock will be completed prior to the completion of the merger contemplated by the merger agreement.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses used by Goldman Sachs in connection with rendering the opinion described above. The following summary, however, does not purport to be a complete description of the financial analyses performed by Goldman Sachs. The order of analyses described does not represent relative importance or weight given to those analyses by Goldman Sachs. Some of the summaries of the financial analyses include information presented in tabular format. The tables must be read together with the full text of each summary and are alone not a complete description of Goldman Sachs' financial analyses. Except as otherwise noted, the following quantitative information, to the extent that it is based on market data, is based on market data as it existed on or before July 13, 2002 and is not necessarily indicative of current market conditions. In addition, the quantitative information presented below with respect to Pharmacia or Pharmacia common stock have been adjusted to exclude Pharmacia's 84% interest in Monsanto Company, which will be distributed to holders of Pharmacia common stock prior to the completion of the transaction contemplated by the merger agreement.

Historical Exchange Ratio Analysis. Goldman Sachs calculated the implied exchange ratios of Pharmacia common stock to Pfizer common stock based on the average closing share prices of Pharmacia common stock and Pfizer common stock for the three-month, six-month and twelve-month periods ended July 12, 2002 and on the closing share prices of Pfizer common stock and Pharmacia common stock on July 12, 2002, the last trading day prior to the announcement of the execution of the merger agreement. This analysis indicated that the implied exchange ratio for each of these periods was 1.00, 0.94 and 0.92, respectively, and on July 12, 2002 was 0.92, while the exchange ratio in the merger agreement was 1.4.

Implied Premium Analysis. Goldman Sachs compared the merger consideration to be received by holders of Pharmacia common stock based on the exchange ratio of 1.40 and the closing share price of Pfizer common stock of $32.20 on July 12, 2002, to the closing share price of Pharmacia common stock of $32.59 on July 12, 2002 and to the average closing share prices for Pharmacia common stock and Pfizer common stock for the three-month and six-month periods ended July 12, 2002. This analysis indicated that the consideration per share of Pharmacia common stock to be received by Pharmacia common shareholders pursuant to the merger agreement represented a premium of 52.4%, 40.0% and 48.3%, respectively.

Contribution Analysis. Goldman Sachs analyzed the relative income statement contribution of Pharmacia and Pfizer to the combined company following completion of the transaction contemplated by the merger agreement, before taking into account any of the possible benefits that may be realized following the transaction but adjusting Pharmacia's sales for the Celebrex(R) payment it makes to Pfizer, for the year 2002, based on financial data and on the assumptions provided to Goldman Sachs by Pharmacia and Pfizer managements.

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

The following table presents the results of this analysis:

	PHARMACIA CONTRIBUTION TO THE COMBINED COMPANY
	SALES	EBIT	NET INCOME
2002E.....	26.6%	18.2%	17.1%

The contribution of Pharmacia to the combined company, based on the market capitalizations of Pharmacia and Pfizer using the market prices of Pharmacia and Pfizer common stock on July 12, 2002, was 15.9%.

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

Goldman Sachs compared all of the above results with the expected percentage ownership of Pharmacia common shareholders in the combined company of 22.4% based on fully diluted shares of each company outstanding as of March 30, 2002.

Selected Companies Analysis. Goldman Sachs reviewed and compared certain financial information, ratios and public market multiples for Pharmacia and Pfizer to corresponding financial information, ratios and public market multiples for the following publicly traded U.S. corporations in the pharmaceutical industry:

- Johnson & Johnson
- Merck & Co., Inc.
- Eli Lilly and Company
- Abbott Laboratories
- Wyeth
- Bristol-Myers Squibb Company
- Schering-Plough Corporation

Although none of the selected companies is directly comparable to Pharmacia or Pfizer, the companies included were chosen because they are publicly traded U.S. companies with operations that for purposes of analysis may be considered similar to certain operations of Pharmacia and Pfizer.

Goldman Sachs also calculated and compared various financial multiples and ratios based on information it obtained from the latest available SEC filings and Institutional Broker Estimate Service, or IBES, and First Call estimates. The multiples and ratios for each of the selected companies and Pharmacia and Pfizer were calculated using the closing share prices on July 12, 2002. Goldman Sachs calculated and compared the following multiples:

- enterprise value, which is the market value of common equity plus the book value of debt less cash, as a multiple of sales for the latest twelve months, or LTM; and
- enterprise value as a multiple of latest twelve months earnings before interest and taxes, or EBIT.

The results of these analyses are summarized as follows:

ENTERPRISE VALUE AS A MULTIPLE OF:	SELECTED COMPANIES (INCLUDING PHARMACIA AND PFIZER)			PHARMACIA	PFIZER
	RANGE	MEDIAN	MEAN
LTM Sales.....	2.3x-6.1x	3.4x	3.8x	2.9x	6.1x
LTM EBIT.....	8.5x-17.9x	14.6x	13.7x	15.4x	17.8x

Goldman Sachs also calculated and compared the selected companies' estimated price/earnings ratios for calendar years 2002 and 2003 to the estimated price/earnings ratios for Pharmacia and Pfizer for the same periods.

 Using earnings estimates based on First Call.

Goldman Sachs also considered five-year earnings per share growth rates provided by IBES or, in the case of Pharmacia, First Call. The following table presents the results of this analysis:

	SELECTED COMPANIES (INCLUDING PHARMACIA AND PFIZER) -----			PHARMACIA -----	PFIZER -----
	RANGE -----	MEDIAN -----	MEAN -----
5-Year EPS Growth Rate.....	9.0%-20.0%	13.0%	13.4%	20.0%	19.0%

Selected Transactions Analysis. Goldman Sachs analyzed certain information relating to the following selected transactions in the pharmaceutical industry since 1989:

- acquisition of Warner-Lambert Company by Pfizer in 2000
- acquisition of Wellcome PLC by Glaxo PLC in 1995
- acquisition of Squibb Corporation by Bristol-Myers Company in 1989

For each of the selected transactions, Goldman Sachs calculated and compared the aggregate consideration as a multiple of latest twelve months EBIT and equity consideration as a multiple of latest twelve months net income.

The following table presents the results of this analysis:

SELECTED TRANSACTIONS

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

LTM EBIT.....	12.2x-31.8x	22.7x

For each of the selected transactions, Goldman Sachs also calculated and compared the premiums represented by the per share consideration in relation to the closing share prices of the acquired company's common stock one day prior to announcement (with the exception of Warner-Lambert Company and Pfizer which was one day prior to the offer made for Warner-Lambert Company by American Home Products Corporation), four weeks prior to announcement, and to the 52-week high closing share price of the acquired company's common stock prior to announcement.

Pro Forma Merger Analysis. Goldman Sachs prepared pro forma analyses of the financial impact of the merger using earnings estimates for Pharmacia and Pfizer prepared by their respective managements. For each of the years 2003 and 2004, Goldman Sachs compared the estimated earnings per share of Pharmacia common stock on a standalone basis and the estimated earnings per share of Pfizer common stock on a standalone basis, to the estimated earnings per share of the common stock of the pro forma combined company on a cash earnings per share basis, which excludes the amortization of intangible assets. Goldman Sachs performed this analysis based on the exchange ratio of 1.40 and the operating synergies projected by the management of Pfizer to result from the merger. Based on such analyses, the proposed transaction would be (1) accretive to Pharmacia common shareholders on a cash earnings per share basis in the years 2003 and 2004, (2) neither accretive nor dilutive to Pfizer common shareholders on a cash earnings per share basis in the year 2003 and (3) accretive to Pfizer's common shareholders on a cash earnings per share basis in the year 2004.

In addition, based on the current 2002 dividend pay-out ratios for Pharmacia common stock and Pfizer common stock of 35%, or $0.54 per share, and 33%, or $0.52 per share, respectively, Pharmacia common shareholders would receive an additional $0.22 in dividends on a pro forma per share basis based on estimated earnings per share in the year 2003 and an additional $0.30 per share based on estimated earnings per share in the year 2004.

Illustrative Future Value. Using the same earnings estimates described above for the years 2003 and 2004 and the median of certain Wall Street analyst estimates for the years 2005 and 2006, Goldman Sachs also calculated illustrative future values of the merger consideration payable to holders of Pharmacia common stock (including anticipated synergies and other pro forma adjustments) for 2003, 2004 and 2005, using one-year forward price/earnings multiples ranging from 16.0x to 22.0x. Goldman Sachs also used these earnings estimates to calculate illustrative future values of Pharmacia common stock on a stand-alone basis for 2003, 2004 and 2005, using the same price/earnings multiples, and then compared the illustrative future values calculated with respect to the merger consideration to be paid with the illustrative future values calculated with respect to the Pharmacia common stock on a stand-alone basis. In each case, the illustrative future values calculated with respect to the merger consideration payable to Pharmacia common shareholders were greater than the corresponding illustrative future values calculated with respect to the Pharmacia common stock on a stand-alone basis.

The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. Selecting portions of the analyses or of the summary set forth above, without considering the analyses as a whole, could create an incomplete view of the processes underlying Goldman Sachs' opinion. In arriving at its fairness determination, Goldman Sachs considered the results of all of its analyses and did not attribute any particular weight to any factor or analysis considered by it. Rather, Goldman Sachs made its determination as to fairness on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all of its analyses. No company or transaction used in the above analyses as a comparison is directly comparable to Pharmacia or Pfizer or the contemplated transaction.

Goldman Sachs prepared these analyses solely for purposes of Goldman Sachs' providing its opinion to the Pharmacia board of directors as to the fairness from a financial point of view of the transaction contemplated by the merger agreement. These analyses do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which businesses or securities actually may be sold. Analyses based upon forecasts of future results are not necessarily indicative of actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by these analyses. Because these analyses are inherently subject to uncertainty, being based upon numerous factors or events beyond the control of the parties or their respective advisors, none of Pharmacia, Pfizer, Goldman Sachs or any other person assumes responsibility if future results are materially different from those forecast.

As described above, Goldman Sachs' opinion to the Pharmacia board of directors was one of many factors taken into consideration by the Pharmacia board of directors in making its determination to approve the merger agreement. The foregoing summary does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by Goldman Sachs in connection with the fairness opinion and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the written opinion of Goldman Sachs attached as Annex D.

Goldman Sachs, as part of its investment banking business, is continually engaged in performing financial analyses with respect to businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive biddings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities and private placements as well as for estate, corporate and other purposes. Goldman Sachs is familiar with Pharmacia, having provided certain investment banking services to Pharmacia from time to time, including:

- having acted as its financial advisor in connection with the sale of its 45% stake in Amersham Biosciences to Amersham plc in March 2002 for $1 billion;
- having acted as lead manager of the initial public offering of 35,000,000 shares of common stock of its then wholly owned subsidiary, Monsanto Company, in October 2000; and
- having acted as its financial advisor in connection with, and having participated in certain of the negotiations leading to, the merger agreement with Pfizer.

In addition, Goldman Sachs advised Pharmacia on the spin-off of its 84% interest in Monsanto Company to holders of Pharmacia common stock. Goldman Sachs may provide investment banking services to Pfizer and its subsidiaries in the future.

The Pharmacia board of directors selected Goldman Sachs as its financial advisor because it is an internationally recognized investment banking firm that has substantial experience in transactions similar to the transaction contemplated by the merger agreement.

Goldman Sachs provides a full range of financial, advisory and securities services and, in the course of its normal trading activities, may from time to time effect transactions and hold positions in the debt or equity securities, including derivative securities, of Pharmacia or Pfizer for its own account and for the account of customers.

Pursuant to letter agreements dated May 13, 2002 and July 2, 2002, Pharmacia engaged Goldman Sachs to act as its financial advisor in connection with the transaction contemplated by the merger agreement. Pursuant to the terms of these engagement letters, Pharmacia has agreed to pay Goldman Sachs a customary transaction fee, which is payable upon completion of the transaction. In addition, Pharmacia has agreed to reimburse Goldman Sachs for its reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees and disbursements, and to indemnify Goldman Sachs and related persons against various liabilities, including certain liabilities under the federal securities laws.

I-67

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

INTERESTS OF CERTAIN PERSONS IN THE MERGER

INTERESTS OF CERTAIN PERSONS IN THE MERGER

Pharmacia's directors and executive officers have interests in the merger as individuals in addition to, and that may be different from, their interests as shareholders. Each of the Pfizer board of directors and the Pharmacia board of directors was aware of these interests of Pharmacia directors and executive officers and considered them in its decision to approve the merger agreement.

NEW EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT WITH FRED HASSAN

Pfizer has entered into an employment agreement, dated July 13, 2002, with Mr. Fred Hassan, the current chief executive officer of Pharmacia, that, upon completion of the merger, will replace and supersede certain provisions of his existing employment agreement, dated November 15, 1999 with Pharmacia. Pfizer has acknowledged that Mr. Hassan may resign for "good reason" (as that term is defined in the existing employment agreement) at completion of the merger and receive compensation and benefits under the terms of the existing employment agreement. Accordingly, Pfizer will pay the compensation and benefits due to Mr. Hassan under the existing employment agreement as follows:

- three years of base salary and annual target incentive compensation calculated using the highest annual base salary and the highest annual target incentive compensation received during the 3 years prior to termination (estimated to equal approximately $9,922,500), which amount will be payable at the end of the active employment term under the new employment agreement as described below;
- additional years service credit (assuming employment continued through November 30, 2004) towards retirement benefits, which shall be calculated assuming Mr. Hassan had received such additional years of salary and incentive compensation equal to the highest annual base salary and highest annual target incentive compensation received within three years prior to the date of termination;
- exercisability of options (all of which will become vested) for their maximum term under the applicable plan;
- lapse of restrictions on any restricted shares granted to Mr. Hassan under the existing employment agreement;
- pro-rated annual incentive compensation based on portion of year worked prior to termination;
- three years continued welfare benefits for Mr. Hassan and his dependents, to the extent they are not offset by benefits from another source; and
- payment for outplacement services up to $100,000.

The term of Mr. Hassan's new employment agreement begins on the completion of the merger and the term of his active employment with Pfizer terminates on the earlier of (1) the first anniversary of the completion of the merger or (2) a termination of employment for any reason or Mr. Hassan's resignation, unless the term of agreement is extended by Pfizer at its discretion until the second anniversary of the completion of the merger. Pursuant to Mr. Hassan's employment agreement, Mr. Hassan will serve as Vice Chairman of Pfizer and as a member of Pfizer's board of directors. After the expiration of the active employment term, Mr. Hassan will serve as a consultant until the earlier of (1) five years after the commencement of his employment as a consultant, or (2) any termination contemplated by the agreement or Mr. Hassan's resignation.

Pursuant to the terms of the agreement, during the term of his active employment, Mr. Hassan will receive (1) an annual base salary of $1,500,000, and (2) an annual incentive bonus target in an amount of 125% of his base salary. In addition, Mr. Hassan will be entitled to receive an equity award in the first year of 900,000 options to purchase shares of Pfizer common stock, which options vest according to Pfizer's stock option plan but which will become fully vested upon the end of the active employment term and remain exercisable for the duration of their 10-year term. During his employment as a consultant, Mr. Hassan will receive an annual consulting fee of $850,000 ($1,500,000 for the first year if Pfizer does not continue the active employment term beyond the first anniversary of the completion of the merger).

I-68

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

During the term of his active employment, Mr. Hassan will also be entitled to participate in benefit plans and other benefits arrangements of Pharmacia, as assumed by Pfizer, including, but not limited to, medical (including retiree medical), dental, accidental death and disability benefit plans. He will be credited with all his years of service with Pharmacia and with Pharmacia & Upjohn for purposes of determining his level of benefits. During the active employment term and the consulting term, Mr. Hassan will be eligible to participate in executive perquisite programs on the same basis as comparable executives.

In the event that during the term of his active employment Mr. Hassan's employment is terminated by Pfizer without cause (as defined in the agreement) or by Mr. Hassan for good reason (as such term is defined below), Mr. Hassan will be entitled to receive a lump-sum payment of (1) his base salary for the remainder of the originally scheduled active employment term and (2) five years of his consulting fee (one year of which shall be at $1,500,000 if the active employment term does not continue beyond the first anniversary of the completion of the merger).

In the event that Mr. Hassan's employment is terminated without cause or for good reason during the term of his employment as a consultant, he will be entitled to a lump-sum payment of the balance of the consulting fees for the remainder of the originally scheduled consulting term.

Under the agreement, the term "good reason" means:

- reduction of the annual base salary or of the target amount of the annual incentive bonus;
- reduction of the annual consulting fee;
- change in reporting so that Mr. Hassan no longer reports to Pfizer's chief executive officer;
- assignment of duties which are materially inconsistent with Mr. Hassan's duties or materially impair Mr. Hassan's ability to function as a Vice Chairman (applicable only during the active employment term);
- failure to nominate Mr. Hassan for election (or reelection) to the board of directors (applicable only during the active employment term);
- relocation of Mr. Hassan's regular place of business outside of New Jersey; or
- failure of any successor to assume the agreement.

If any amounts payable to Mr. Hassan under the employment agreement would be determined to constitute a parachute payment (as defined under Section 280G(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code), Pfizer will provide for a full gross-up.

OTHER EXECUTIVE EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS

Pharmacia maintains employment agreements with the following executive officers: Goran Ando, Hakan Astrom, Richard T. Collier, Timothy Cost,

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

Christopher J. Coughlin, Carrie Cox, Stephen MacMillan, Philip Needleman, and Timothy Rothwell (together with Mr. Hassan, the "executive officers").

Under the agreements, these executive officers (excluding Mr. Hassan) are entitled to receive severance benefits upon termination of employment if the termination is without "cause", as defined in the agreements, or is by the executive for "good reason". For purposes of the agreements, the term "good reason" means:

I-69

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

- a reduction in base salary or target amount of any cash incentive bonus or any other benefit under any long-term incentive award;
- the failure to retain the executive in his or her position and title;
- during the two-year period after a change in control (as defined in the agreements), assignment by Pharmacia of any duties materially inconsistent with, or any other unremedied action taken by Pharmacia which results in a diminution to, the executive's title, position, status, reporting relationships, authority, duties or responsibilities as they existed immediately prior to such two-year period;
- failures by any successor (or subsidiary or affiliate thereof) to assume Pharmacia's obligations under the agreement;
- a termination which is not in accordance with the terms of the employment agreement;
- during the two-year period following a change in control, a failure by Pharmacia to keep in effect any employee benefit plan applicable to the executive prior to a change in control, unless comparable benefits are provided; or
- during the two-year period following a change in control, relocation of the executive out of state or more than 50 miles within the state where the executive's office was located prior to the change in control or an increase in required business travel (as compared to pre-change in control standards).

For purposes of the agreements, completion of the merger will constitute a change in control.

Upon termination without cause or for good reason, severance benefits include, in addition to accrued amounts:

(A) a lump sum severance payment equal to three years of base salary and annual target incentive compensation (calculated using the executive's highest annual base salary and highest annual target incentive compensation within three years prior to the executive's date of termination) is payable within 10 days after termination during the two-year period following a change in control;

(B) three additional years of service credit towards retirement benefits which shall be calculated as if the executive had received three additional years of salary and incentive compensation equal to the highest annual base salary and highest annual incentive compensation received within the three years

prior to such executive's date of termination;

(C) exercisability of all stock options granted prior to the executive's termination for their maximum period under the terms of the grant;

(D) pro-rated target annual incentive compensation based on the portion of the year worked prior to termination (payable within 10 days after termination during the two-year period following a change in control);

(E) three years of continued welfare benefits for the executive and dependents, to the extent they are not offset by benefits from another source;

(F) payment for outplacement services up to $25,000; and

(G) three years of financial planning assistance.

All of the above clauses are applicable to Goran Ando, Hakan Astrom, Richard T. Collier, Timothy Cost, Christopher J. Coughlin, Carrie Cox, Stephen MacMillan, and Timothy Rothwell. In the case of Philip Needleman, clauses B through G are applicable, but clause (A) does not apply to Mr. Needleman who instead receives a fixed lump-sum payment of $4,764,006.

In addition, if the executive officer (excluding Mr. Hassan) is terminated (for any reason other than for death or disability) within two years following a change in control, the non-compete clause in the employment agreement ceases to apply.

I-70

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

The aggregate cash severance payable to the executive officers (excluding Mr. Hassan) under the employment agreements for a termination without cause or for good reason would be approximately $[].

Currently, each executive officer participates in the Key Executive Pension Plan. Upon shareholder adoption of the merger agreement, Timothy Cost will become eligible to participate in the Key Executive Pension Plan as if he had become eligible beginning with such executive's employment with the company. Under the terms of the Key Executive Pension Plan, participants fully vest in their supplemental benefits upon shareholder adoption of the merger agreement. If (1) the participant's employment is terminated for good reason (as defined in the individual employment agreement), (2) the termination qualifies as a termination due to a change in control (as defined in the Separation Benefit Plan or the Change in Control Severance Benefit Plan) or (3) the participant is involuntarily terminated other than for cause, in each case, prior to early retirement at age 60 and within 36 months after shareholder adoption of the merger agreement, the participant's benefit, which will be paid out in accordance with the terms of the plan, will be calculated as if he retired at age 60 assuming that compensation would have increased by 5% per year for each year between shareholder adoption and the participant's actual attainment of age 60, and in accordance with any applicable employment agreement. The benefit payable is discounted based on the 30-year Treasury Bond rate in effect at the time of payment and is offset by certain other Pharmacia and other prior employer plans.

The aggregate value of the additional supplemental retirement benefit under the Key Executive Pension Plan pursuant to a termination of the executive officers under clauses (1), (2) or (3) above would be approximately $[].

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

EXECUTIVE BENEFIT PLANS

Pharmacia maintains various executive benefit plans which provide for the acceleration or increase of benefits upon either shareholder adoption of the merger agreement or upon completion of the merger, depending on the terms of the plan.

OPERATIONS COMMITTEE INCENTIVE PLAN

The executive officers participate in the Operations Committee Incentive Plan and will vest in their pro-rated awards (being the greater of the target annual incentive award or the incentive award reflecting year-end projected performance based on the year-to-date performance) upon completion of the merger. If an executive officer is terminated other than for cause after completion of the merger and prior to December 15, 2002, the executive receives his vested pro-rated annual award within 10 days of such termination.

The aggregate amount of vested awards under the Operations Committee Incentive Plan payable to the executive officers upon termination following a change in control would be approximately $[].

CASH LONG-TERM INCENTIVE PLAN AND LONG-TERM PERFORMANCE SHARE UNIT INCENTIVE PLAN

Pursuant to the terms of the Cash Long-Term Incentive Plan and the Long-Term Performance Share Unit Incentive Plan, pro-rated awards (being the greater of the participant's target award or the award payable based on the period-to-date performance calculated as of the date of the change in control) vest upon the completion of the merger. The award increases to 200% of the participant's target award (1) if the participant is still employed with the company two years after a change in control; (2) if such participant is involuntarily terminated without cause (as defined in the plans) or voluntarily terminated for good reason (as such term is defined in the executive employment agreements described above) within two years of the completion of the merger or (3) if the termination qualifies as a termination due to a change in control (as defined in the Separation Benefit Plan or the Change in Control Severance Benefit Plan) only if such amount is greater than the award previously calculated pursuant to the parenthetical in the previous sentence.

I-71

The amount of vested awards under the Cash Long-Term Incentive Plan payable to the executive officers upon termination following a change in control would be approximately $[] and the number of performance shares then vested under the Long-Term Performance Share Unit Incentive Plan and payable to the executive officers would be approximately [].

EXCESS PARACHUTE TAX INDEMNITY PLAN

Under the Excess Parachute Tax Indemnity Plan, a change in control is described as any event that is a "change" as defined in Section 280G(b)(2)(A)(i) of the Internal Revenue Code. The completion of the merger will constitute a "change" as defined under that section. Upon such a change in control, the plan provides for an excise tax gross-up to all current and former employees other than current and former employees and directors of Monsanto Company who do not also serve on Pharmacia's board of directors.

FOUNDERS PERFORMANCE CONTINGENT SHARES PROGRAM

Upon the completion of the merger during the performance period (as defined in the program), target awards provided under the Founders Performance Contingent Shares Program vest at the greater of the target award or the percentage of the target award payable based on the period-to-date performance calculated as of the date of the change in control. The award increases to 125% of the participant's target award if the participant is employed by the company or an affiliate two years after the change in control, or is involuntarily terminated other than for cause within two years after change in control and, if such amount is greater than the calculation above. The concept of "involuntary termination" includes a termination for good reason (as defined in the executive employment agreements described above). The estimated number of share units payable to Fred Hassan, Goran Ando, Christopher J. Coughlin, Carrie Cox, Philip Needleman, and Timothy Rothwell under the Founders Performance Contingent Shares Program upon termination for good reason following a change in control would be approximately [].

TREATMENT OF PHARMACIA STOCK OPTIONS AND RESTRICTED STOCK

In the merger, each outstanding Pharmacia stock option for Pharmacia common stock will be converted into an option to purchase Pfizer common stock. Each outstanding Pharmacia stock option will become vested and fully exercisable either upon adoption of the merger agreement by Pharmacia shareholders or upon completion of the merger, depending on the terms of the applicable stock option plan, grant, employment agreement or other arrangement under which such option was issued. The number of shares of Pfizer common stock underlying the new Pfizer option will equal the number of shares of Pharmacia common stock to which the corresponding Pharmacia option was subject, multiplied by 1.4. The per share exercise price of each new Pfizer option will be equal to the exercise price of the corresponding Pharmacia option divided by 1.4. All other terms of the Pharmacia stock option will remain unchanged after the conversion. The dollar amount of in-the-money options held by Pharmacia's executive officers and directors that will become vested upon such adoption or completion, as the case may be, is approximately $[], based on a closing sale price of Pharmacia common stock on the NYSE on [].

All shares of restricted Pharmacia common stock will vest either upon adoption of the merger agreement by Pharmacia shareholders or upon completion of the merger, depending on the terms of the applicable plan, grant, employment agreement or other arrangement under which such restricted stock was granted, and will be treated in the merger like other shares of Pharmacia common stock. Approximately 383,000 shares of restricted Pharmacia common stock held by executive officers and directors will have their restrictions lapse upon shareholder adoption of the merger agreement and completion of the merger.

INDEMNIFICATION; DIRECTORS' AND OFFICERS' INSURANCE

Pfizer is obligated, for six years after the merger, to maintain in effect Pharmacia's current directors' and officers' liability insurance and fiduciary liability insurance covering acts or omissions occurring prior to the completion of the merger, including for acts and omissions occurring in connection with the approval of the merger and the merger agreement.

Pfizer is obligated, to the fullest extent permitted by law, to indemnify and hold harmless, and provide advancement of expenses to, each person who is or has been an officer, director or employee of Pharmacia or any of its subsidiaries with respect to acts or omissions by them in their capacities as officers, directors or employees of Pharmacia or any of its subsidiaries, including for acts and omissions occurring in connection with the approval of the merger and the merger agreement. Pfizer will also cause the surviving corporation in the merger to maintain in its certificate of incorporation or by-laws the current provisions regarding elimination of liability of directors, indemnification of officers, directors and employees and advancement of expenses for a period of six years.

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following is a summary of the material terms of the merger agreement. This summary does not purport to describe all the terms of the merger agreement and is qualified by reference to the complete merger agreement which is attached as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and incorporated by reference. All shareholders of Pfizer and Pharmacia are urged to read the merger agreement carefully and in its entirety.

GENERAL

Under the merger agreement, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Pfizer will merge with and into Pharmacia, with Pharmacia continuing as the surviving corporation. As a result of the merger, Pharmacia will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Pfizer.

CLOSING MATTERS

Closing. Unless the parties agree otherwise, the closing of the merger will take place on the first business day after all closing conditions have been satisfied or waived, unless the merger agreement has been terminated or another time or date is agreed to in writing by the parties. See "-- Conditions" below for a more complete description of the conditions that must be satisfied or waived prior to closing.

Completion of the Merger. As soon as practicable after the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions to the merger, Pfizer and Pharmacia will file a certificate of merger with the Delaware Secretary of State in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Delaware General Corporation Law and make all other required filings or recordings. The merger will become effective when the certificate of merger is filed or at such later time as Pfizer and Pharmacia agree and specify in the certificate of merger.

CONSIDERATION TO BE RECEIVED IN THE MERGER; TREATMENT OF STOCK OPTIONS

The merger agreement provides that, at the completion of the merger:

- each share of Pharmacia common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the completion of the merger, together with the associated rights issued under the Pharmacia shareholder rights plan, but excluding shares of Pharmacia common stock owned by Pfizer, Pharmacia or any of their respective subsidiaries, will be converted into 1.4 shares of Pfizer common stock and associated rights issued under the Pfizer shareholders rights plan;
- each outstanding share of Pharmacia Series C convertible perpetual preferred stock (which will be received by the holder in exchange for its Pharmacia Series B convertible perpetual preferred stock prior to completion of the merger), other than shares as to which appraisal rights have been exercised, will, at the completion of the merger, be converted into one share of Pfizer Series A convertible perpetual preferred stock having, to the extent possible, terms identical to those of the Pharmacia Series C convertible perpetual preferred stock; and
- each outstanding and unexercised option or right to purchase shares of Pharmacia common stock granted under the Pharmacia stock plans will be assumed by Pfizer and converted into an option or a right to purchase, as applicable, shares of Pfizer common stock. The number of shares of Pfizer common stock underlying the new Pfizer option will equal the number of shares of Pharmacia common stock for which the corresponding Pharmacia option was exercisable, multiplied by 1.4 (rounded to the nearest whole share). The per share exercise price of each new Pfizer option will equal the exercise price of the corresponding Pharmacia option divided by 1.4.

I-74

As soon as practicable after the completion of the merger, but no later than five business days, Pfizer will deliver notices to the holders of Pharmacia stock options. Those notices will set forth each holder's rights under the Pharmacia stock plans, including that, in connection with the merger and pursuant to the terms of the Pharmacia stock plans, the agreements evidencing the grants of the Pharmacia stock options will continue in effect on the same terms and conditions, taking into account provisions providing for full vesting of those options and the adjustments to the number of shares underlying, and the exercise price of, the options. To the extent permitted by law, Pfizer will comply with the terms of the Pharmacia stock plans and will take reasonable steps to ensure that the stock options which qualified as incentive stock options prior to the completion of the merger continue to qualify as incentive stock options of the combined company after the merger.

For a further discussion of the treatment of Pharmacia stock options and other employee benefit plans under the merger agreement, see "-- Covenants -- Employee Matters" on page and "Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger" beginning on page .

EXCHANGE OF CERTIFICATES IN THE MERGER

Before the closing of the merger, Pfizer will appoint an exchange agent (which must be reasonably acceptable to Pharmacia) to handle the exchange of Pharmacia stock certificates for certificates representing shares of Pfizer common stock and the payment of cash for fractional shares. Promptly after the closing of the merger, the exchange agent will send a letter of transmittal, which is to be used to exchange Pharmacia stock certificates for certificates representing shares of Pfizer common stock, to each former Pharmacia shareholder who holds one or more stock certificates. The letter of transmittal will contain instructions explaining the procedure for surrendering Pharmacia stock certificates. YOU SHOULD NOT RETURN CERTIFICATES WITH THE ENCLOSED PROXY CARD.

Pharmacia shareholders who surrender their stock certificates, together with a properly completed letter of transmittal, will receive shares of Pfizer common stock into which the shares of Pharmacia common stock were converted in the merger or shares of Pfizer Series A convertible perpetual preferred stock into which the shares of Pharmacia Series C convertible perpetual preferred stock were converted in the merger.

After the merger, each certificate that previously represented shares of Pharmacia common stock and Pharmacia Series C convertible perpetual preferred stock will only represent the right to receive the shares of Pfizer common stock or Pfizer Series A convertible perpetual preferred stock into which those shares of Pharmacia common stock or Pharmacia Series C convertible perpetual preferred stock have been converted, respectively.

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

Pfizer will not pay dividends with a record date that is 180 days or more after the completion of the merger to any holder of any Pharmacia stock certificates until the holder surrenders the Pharmacia stock certificates. However, once those certificates are surrendered, Pfizer will pay to the holder, without interest, any dividends that have been declared after the effective date of the merger on the shares into which those Pharmacia shares have been converted.

However, for a period of one year following the completion of the merger, holders of unsurrendered Pharmacia stock certificates will be entitled to vote at any meeting of Pfizer shareholders the number of whole shares of Pfizer common stock and Pfizer Series A convertible perpetual preferred stock represented by such Pharmacia stock certificates.

After the completion of the merger, Pharmacia will not register any transfers of the shares of Pharmacia common stock.

Pfizer shareholders will not exchange their stock certificates.

I-75

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

FRACTIONAL SHARES

No fractional shares of Pfizer common stock will be issued in the merger. Instead, the exchange agent will pay each of those shareholders who would have otherwise been entitled to a fractional share of Pfizer common stock an amount in cash determined by multiplying the fractional share interest by the closing price for a share of Pfizer common stock on the NYSE Composite Transaction Tape on the date of the completion of the merger or, if such date is not a business day, on the business day immediately following the date on which the merger occurs.

LISTING OF PFIZER STOCK

Pfizer has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the shares of Pfizer common stock to be issued in the merger and the shares of Pfizer common stock to be reserved for issuance upon exercise of the Pharmacia stock options to be approved for listing on the NYSE, subject to official notice of issuance, prior to the completion of the merger. Pfizer's symbol "PFE" will be used for such shares, assuming the listing application is approved. Approval for listing on the NYSE of the shares of Pfizer common stock issuable to the Pharmacia shareholders in the merger, subject only to official notice of issuance, is a condition to the obligations of Pfizer and Pharmacia to complete the merger.

COVENANTS

We have each undertaken certain covenants in the merger agreement concerning the conduct of our respective businesses between the date the merger agreement was signed and the completion of the merger. The following summarizes the more significant of these covenants:

No Solicitation. Pharmacia has agreed that Pharmacia, and any of its subsidiaries, officers or directors, will not, and will use reasonable best efforts to ensure that their respective employees, agents or representatives do not:

- initiate, solicit, encourage or knowingly facilitate, including by way of furnishing information, any inquiries or the making of any proposal or offer with respect to a third party "acquisition proposal" of the type described below;

- have any discussion with or provide any confidential information or data to any person relating to an acquisition proposal;
- engage in negotiations concerning an acquisition proposal;
- knowingly facilitate any effort or attempt to make or implement an acquisition proposal; or
- subject to Pharmacia's right to terminate the merger agreement under certain circumstances described in "-- Termination of Merger Agreement" if Pharmacia receives a superior proposal of the type described below, accept an acquisition proposal.

However, Pharmacia is permitted to take and disclose to its shareholders its position with respect to any acquisition proposal as may be required under the federal securities laws.

In addition, Pharmacia is permitted to engage in discussions and negotiations with, and provide information to, any person in response to an unsolicited acquisition proposal, if:

- its meeting of shareholders to vote on the adoption of the merger agreement has not occurred;
- its board of directors concludes in good faith that there is a reasonable likelihood that the acquisition proposal could result in a "superior proposal" of the type described below;
- prior to providing any information or data to any person in connection with an acquisition proposal, the proposing party first signs a confidentiality agreement with terms, at least as stringent as the confidentiality provisions contained in the merger agreement; and

I-76

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

- Pharmacia notifies and keeps Pfizer informed of the status and terms of the acquisition proposal and any discussions or negotiations relating to the acquisition proposal.

An "acquisition proposal" for Pharmacia is any proposal or offer with respect to:

- a merger, reorganization, share exchange, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving Pharmacia;
- any purchase or sale of the consolidated assets of Pharmacia and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, having an aggregate value equal to 15% or more of the market capitalization of Pharmacia; or
- any purchase or sale of, or tender offer or exchange offer for, 15% or more of the equity securities of Pharmacia.

A "superior proposal" for Pharmacia, is a bona fide written proposal made by a third party which is for:

- a sale, lease, exchange, transfer or other disposition of at least 40% of the assets of Pharmacia and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, in a single transaction or a series of related transactions; or
- the acquisition, directly or indirectly, by such third party of beneficial ownership of 30% or more of the common stock of Pharmacia whether by merger, consolidation, share exchange, business combination, tender or exchange offer or otherwise;

which in either case is on terms which the board of directors of Pharmacia in good faith concludes after consultation with its financial advisors and outside counsel, taking into account all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of the proposal and the third party making the proposal:

- would, if consummated, result in a transaction that is more favorable to its shareholders (in their capacities as shareholders), from a financial point of view, than the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; and
- is reasonably capable of being completed.

Board of Directors' Covenant to Recommend. Pharmacia has agreed that its board of directors will recommend adoption of the merger agreement to the Pharmacia shareholders. Similarly, Pfizer has agreed that its board of directors will recommend the issuance of shares of Pfizer common stock in the merger and the amendment to the Pfizer certificate of incorporation to its shareholders.

However, Pharmacia's board is permitted to withdraw or to modify or to qualify in a manner adverse to Pfizer this recommendation, before the Pharmacia special meeting if either:

- it determines in good faith that a material adverse effect has occurred with respect to Pfizer; or
- it has received an unsolicited bona fide acquisition proposal from a third party that its board concludes in good faith is a superior proposal of the type described above.

Similarly, Pfizer's board is permitted to withdraw or to modify or to qualify in a manner adverse to Pharmacia its recommendation, before its meeting if it determines in good faith that a material adverse effect has occurred with respect to Pharmacia.

Even if the board of either company withdraws, modifies or qualifies its recommendation of the merger, that company is still required to present the merger and related proposals at the special meeting of its shareholders for consideration, unless the merger agreement is otherwise terminated. See "Termination of Merger Agreement" on page for a discussion of each party's ability to terminate the merger agreement.

Operations of Pfizer and Pharmacia Pending Closing. We have each undertaken a separate covenant that places restrictions on ourselves and our respective subsidiaries until either the completion of the merger or the termination of the merger agreement. In general, we and our respective subsidiaries are each required to conduct our respective businesses in the usual, regular and ordinary course in all material respects substantially in the same manner as conducted prior to the date of the merger agreement and to use our reasonable efforts to preserve intact our present lines of business and relationships with third parties. Each of us has agreed to restrictions that, except as required by law or expressly contemplated by the merger agreement, prohibit us and our respective subsidiaries from:

- declaring or paying dividends in excess of specified limits (except for, in the case of Pharmacia (1) any stock dividend or distribution with respect to the spin-off of Monsanto Company; (2) dividends or distributions from Monsanto Company to Pharmacia; or (3) dividends or distribution by wholly owned subsidiaries of Pharmacia);
- amending our respective certificates of incorporation, by-laws or other governing documents;
- making acquisitions of, or investments in, other entities beyond specified amounts; or
- changing our respective accounting methods or fiscal year.

In addition, Pharmacia has agreed to additional restrictions that prohibit it from:

- entering into any new lines of business or incurring or committing to any capital expenditures or obligations or liabilities in connection with such capital expenditures beyond specified amounts;
- entering into any pharmaceutical licensing agreements unless under specified limits;
- with certain exceptions, entering into certain agreements involving Pharmacia's pharmaceutical and consumer healthcare businesses, for the sale of products or inventories or for the furnishing of services by Pharmacia which exceed specified amounts or would involve commitments of more than one year, unless the agreements can be terminated by giving less than 60 days' notice and without incurring an obligation to pay any material premium or penalty or suffering any other material detriment;
- making changes in its share capital, including, among other things, stock splits, combinations, or reclassifications, except for any transaction by a wholly-owned subsidiary of Pharmacia which remains a wholly-owned subsidiary after the completion of the transaction;
- repurchasing or redeeming its capital stock, except in the ordinary course of business in connection with Pharmacia's benefit plans, for the redemption or exchange of rights in accordance with the Pharmacia rights agreement, and the exchange of the Pharmacia Series B convertible perpetual preferred stock for the Pharmacia Series C convertible perpetual preferred stock;
- issuing, delivering or selling any shares of its capital stock or other equity interests, other than, among other exceptions, in connection with Pharmacia's benefit plans or in connection with the exercise of options or other stock awards or stock option agreements and other than issuances by a wholly-owned subsidiary of Pharmacia of capital stock to the subsidiary's parent or another wholly owned subsidiary of Pharmacia;

- disposing of assets beyond specified amounts, other than, among other exceptions, inventory in the ordinary course of business and except for the sale or disposition of assets or stock of Monsanto Company or the spin-off of Monsanto Company from Pharmacia, as described in Pharmacia's filings with the SEC;

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

- incurring debt, other than, among other exceptions, in the ordinary course consistent with past practice or pursuant to the credit facilities, indentures and other arrangements in existence on July 13, 2002, but not beyond specified amounts;
- making loans, advances, capital contributions or investments in any other entity except for certain specified amounts in the ordinary course and consistent with past practice, pursuant to a legal obligation not existing on July 13, 2002, or loans, advances, capital contributions or investments by Pharmacia to subsidiaries of Pharmacia or from subsidiaries of Pharmacia to Pharmacia;
- increasing the compensation of directors, executive officers or employees or increasing employee benefits other than in the ordinary course and consistent with past practice or as required by an existing agreement;
- making any material tax election, settling or compromising any material tax liability or changing its fiscal year;
- entering into any agreement or arrangement that would limit or restrict Pharmacia from competing in any line of business or geographic area if that resulting restriction would have a material adverse effect on the combined company and its subsidiaries after the merger;
- amending, modifying, altering or terminating any of the separation agreements between Pharmacia and Monsanto Company and the protocol agreement, dated as of July 1, 2002, among Pharmacia, Monsanto Company and Solutia other than for technical or ministerial amendments necessary or appropriate to effect the Monsanto Company spin-off; and
- settling or compromising any material suit, action or claim.

Collection of Indebtedness from Monsanto Company. Pharmacia has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to collect all outstanding indebtedness from Monsanto Company and its subsidiaries and the release of all guarantees of obligations of Monsanto Company to other parties (other than existing agreements between the parties), although uncollected indebtedness may be extended to a date no later than one year after the distribution of its interest in Monsanto Company to the holders of Pharmacia common stock.

Reasonable Best Efforts Covenant. We have agreed to cooperate with each other and to use our reasonable best efforts to take all actions and do all things advisable or necessary under the merger agreement and applicable laws to complete the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

Reasonable best efforts include (but are not limited to) taking actions necessary to obtain regulatory approval, contesting and resisting an action or proceeding that would otherwise restrict the merger or having vacated, lifted, reversed or overturned any decree, judgment, injunction or other order that would otherwise restrict the merger, including:

(1) Pfizer holding separate any portion of its assets or conducting its business in a specified manner in one or more countries for a period of up to six months after the completion of the merger;

(2) Pfizer selling, holding separate or disposing of assets, in response to the requirements imposed by antitrust authorities; and

(3) Pharmacia, at the direction of Pfizer, taking actions, including selling, holding separate or disposing of assets, in response to the requirements imposed by antitrust authorities.

I-79

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

However, neither party will be required for any reason to sell, hold separate or otherwise dispose of assets in accordance with (2) or (3) above, if such actions, in the aggregate, (assuming in the case of actions taken by Pfizer pursuant to clause (2) that such actions were or have been taken by Pharmacia or its subsidiaries with respect to assets of Pharmacia of similar value or prospective value) would result in a material adverse effect on Pharmacia taking into account both quantitative and qualitative factors, including the prospects of Pharmacia and its subsidiaries taken as a whole.

Employee Matters. In the merger agreement, we have agreed that, following the merger, Pfizer will:

- for two years following the completion of the merger, provide compensation and employee benefits to continuing and former Pharmacia employees at a level that is substantially comparable in the aggregate to the compensation and benefits provided to such individuals by Pharmacia prior to the effective time and after such period provide compensation and employee benefits at a level comparable to similarly situated employees of Pfizer;
- comply with the terms and conditions of any collective bargaining agreements covering any Pharmacia employees;
- for two years following the completion of the merger continue the severance and post retirement medical and dental benefits provided by Pharmacia immediately prior to the completion of the merger as provided in the Pharmacia Separation Benefit Plans, as amended through July 9, 2002;
- for two years following the completion of the merger, continue, for all continuing Pharmacia employees, post retirement medical, dental and life insurance benefits for eligible former employees at Pharmacia as in effect prior to the completion of the merger;
- after two years after the completion of the merger, Pfizer will provide to continuing Pharmacia employees severance benefits that are no less favorable than those provided to similarly situated employees of Pfizer and, if Pfizer alters or modifies any retiree welfare benefits provided to any continuing employee or former Pharmacia employee, such alteration or modification will result in the employee receiving retiree welfare benefits that are substantially comparable in the aggregate to those provided to similarly situated employees and former employees of Pfizer;

- with certain exceptions, waive any pre-existing condition exclusions and waiting periods with respect to participation and coverage requirements applicable to continuing and former Pharmacia employees under any Pfizer or Pharmacia benefit plan;
- provide continuing and former Pharmacia employees with credit for any co-payments and deductibles paid prior to the completion of the merger (to the same extent such credit was given under the analogous Pharmacia benefit plan prior to completion of the merger) in satisfying any applicable deductible or out-of-pocket requirements under any Pfizer benefit plan;
- with certain exceptions, grant to continuing and former Pharmacia employees after the merger full credit for service, eligibility, vesting, benefit accrual and determination of their level of benefits for their Pharmacia service under the Pfizer benefit plans in which they participate after the merger, to the extent Pfizer would recognize such service under the applicable benefit plan for its similarly situated employees and former employees; and
- honor, fulfill and discharge all Pharmacia benefit plans and related funding arrangements in accordance with their terms, including each employment,

I-80

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

change in control, severance and termination arrangement.

Payment of Dividends Pending the Merger. We have agreed to coordinate declaring dividends and the related record dates and payment dates so that Pfizer and Pharmacia shareholders do not receive two dividends, or fail to receive one dividend, for any single calendar quarter.

OTHER COVENANTS AND AGREEMENTS

Expenses. We have each agreed to pay our own costs and expenses incurred in connection with the merger and the merger agreement. Pfizer and Pharmacia, however, will each pay 50% of any expenses incurred in connection with the filing with the SEC of the registration statement of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus forms a part and the costs associated with the printing and mailing of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Tax Certificates. Pharmacia has agreed to deliver to Pfizer if and when the Monsanto Company spin-off occurs, a tax representation letter as to certain tax matters relating to the Monsanto Company spin-off.

Election to Pfizer Board of Directors. Prior to the completion of the merger, Pfizer shall cause Mr. Hassan, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Pharmacia, to be appointed to the board of directors of Pfizer, and elected Vice-Chairman of the combined company, in each case, effective as of the completion of the merger.

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

Exchange of Preferred Stock. Pharmacia has agreed that prior to the completion of the merger, Pharmacia will exchange all outstanding shares of Pharmacia Series B convertible perpetual preferred stock, on a one-for-one basis, for Pharmacia Series C convertible perpetual preferred stock, having substantially identical terms.

Other Covenants. The merger agreement contains certain other covenants, including covenants relating to cooperation between Pfizer and Pharmacia in the preparation of this joint proxy statement/prospectus and other governmental filings, public announcements, and certain tax matters.

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

The merger agreement contains substantially reciprocal representations and warranties, certain of which are qualified by material adverse effect, made by each of us to the other. The representations and warranties relate to:

- corporate existence, qualification to conduct business and corporate standing and power;
- ownership of subsidiaries;
- capital structure;
- corporate authority to enter into, and carry out the obligations under, the merger agreement and enforceability of the merger agreement;
- absence of a breach of the certificate of incorporation, by-laws, law or material agreements as a result of the merger;
- filings with the SEC;
- financial statements;

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

- compliance with the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and international trade sanctions; and
- inapplicability of anti-takeover statutes.

Representations and warranties made solely by Pharmacia relate to labor matters, certain material contracts and non-compete agreements, inapplicability of Pharmacia's shareholder rights agreement to the merger, compliance with co-promotion agreements and disclosure of all material arrangements that Pharmacia has entered into with Monsanto Company.

The merger agreement also contains certain representations and warranties of Pfizer with respect to its wholly-owned merger subsidiary, including organization, corporate authorization, absence of a breach of the certificate of incorporation and the by-laws, no prior business activities and capitalization of the merger subsidiary.

As used in the merger agreement, the term "material adverse effect" means: with respect to either Pfizer or Pharmacia, as applicable, any event, change, circumstance or effect that is or is reasonably likely to be materially adverse to:

- the business, financial condition or results of operations of such company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, other than any event, change or circumstances or effect relating
 - (1) to the economy or financial markets in general;
 - (2) in general to the industries in which such company operates and not specifically relating to (or having the effect of specifically relating to or having a materially disproportionate effect (relative to most other industry participants) on) such company;
 - (3) to changes in applicable law or regulations or in GAAP; or
 - (4) to the announcement of the merger agreement or the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; or
- the ability of such company to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

CONDITIONS

Our respective obligations to complete the merger are subject to the satisfaction or, to the extent legally permissible, the waiver of the following conditions:

- the adoption of the merger agreement by the Pharmacia shareholders, and the approval of the issuance of shares of Pfizer common stock in the merger and amendment to the Pfizer certificate of incorporation by the Pfizer shareholders;
- the absence of any law, order or injunction prohibiting completion of the merger in the United States or European Union;
- the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting periods under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended;

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

- the approval of the merger by the European Commission;
- the approval for listing by the NYSE of the Pfizer stock to be issued in the merger, subject to official notice of issuance;
- the receipt of all other governmental and regulatory consents, approvals and authorizations necessary for the merger unless failure to obtain those consents or approvals would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the combined company, taken as a whole;
- the SEC having declared effective the Pfizer registration statement, of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus forms a part; and

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

- the receipt of all securities and blue sky permits and approvals necessary to consummate the transaction.

In addition, individually, our respective obligations to effect the merger are subject to the satisfaction or, to the extent legally permissible, the waiver of the following additional conditions:

- the representations and warranties of the other company contained in the merger agreement which are qualified as to material adverse effect, being true and correct as of the date of the agreement and as of the closing date of the merger, except to the extent that such representation or warranty speaks as of another date;
- the representations and warranties of the other company which are not qualified as to material adverse effect being true and correct except where the failure to be true and correct, individually or in the aggregate, would not have a material adverse effect on the other party, as of the date of the agreement and as of the closing date of the merger as if they were made on that date, except to the extent that such representation or warranty speaks as of another date;
- the other party having performed or complied with all agreements or covenants required to be performed by it under the agreement which are qualified as to material adverse effect and the other party having performed or complied in all material respects with all other material agreements or covenants required to be performed by it under the agreement, in each case, at or prior to the closing date;
- the receipt of an opinion of each company's counsel to the effect that the merger will qualify as a "reorganization" under the Internal Revenue Code;
- Pfizer's having received a tax certificate if and when the Monsanto Company spin-off occurs, as set forth in the merger agreement;
- no event having occurred which would trigger a distribution under the other company's shareholder rights plan;
- the other party and its respective subsidiaries not having suffered from any change that would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on such party; and

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

- the Monsanto Company spin-off having occurred (provided, however, Pharmacia shall not be entitled to assert this condition to closing if it shall not have distributed its interest in Monsanto Company to its common shareholders).

TERMINATION OF MERGER AGREEMENT

Right to Terminate. The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the completion of the merger in any of the following ways:

- by our mutual written consent;
- by either one of us:
 - if the merger has not been completed by April 15, 2003 or, if the conditions to closing relating to antitrust or other governmental approvals of the merger, have not been satisfied, but all other conditions to closing are satisfied or are capable of being satisfied, this date is automatically extended to July 15, 2003; except that a party may not terminate the merger agreement if the cause of the merger not being completed is that party's failure to fulfill its obligations under the merger agreement;
 - if a governmental authority or a court in the United States or European Union permanently orders or prohibits the completion of the merger or a governmental authority in the United States or European

I-83

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

Union fails to grant any necessary approval of the merger, except that a party may not terminate the merger agreement if the cause of the prohibition or failure to obtain approval is a result of that party's failure to fulfill its obligations under the provision of the merger agreement which, among other requirements, requires each party to use its reasonable best efforts to obtain government approvals for the completions of the merger and requires each party to divest certain assets in response to requirements imposed by antitrust authorities, which divestiture obligations are discussed in "Regulatory Matters Relating to the Merger" on page ; or

- if either Pfizer's shareholders fail to approve the issuance of shares of Pfizer common stock in the merger or amendment to the Pfizer certificate of incorporation, or Pharmacia's shareholders fail to adopt the merger agreement.
- by Pfizer:
 - if Pharmacia's board of directors either changes its recommendation in a manner adverse to Pfizer, or fails to call the Pharmacia special meeting to vote on the merger by January 13, 2003 (which deadline will be extended if this registration statement has not become effective by November 14, 2002); or
 - if Pharmacia has breached in any material respect any of its representations or warranties, or has failed to perform in any material respect any of its covenants or obligations under the merger agreement and such breach:

- would result in the failure of certain closing conditions to the merger being satisfied; and
 - is incapable of being cured by or remains uncured at April 15, 2003 (or July 15, 2003, if the termination date is extended).
- by Pharmacia:
- if Pfizer's board of directors either changes its recommendation in a manner adverse to Pharmacia, or fails to call the Pfizer special meeting to vote on the proposal to issue shares of Pfizer common stock in the merger or the amendment to the Pfizer certificate of incorporation by January 13, 2003 (which deadline will be extended if this registration statement has not become effective by November 14, 2002;
 - if Pfizer has breached in any material respect any of its representations or warranties, or has failed to perform in any material respect any of its covenants or obligations under the merger agreement and such breach:
 - would result in the failure of certain closing conditions to the merger being satisfied; and
 - is incapable of being cured by or remains uncured at April 15, 2003 or July 15, 2003, if applicable; or
 - if Pharmacia's board of directors authorizes Pharmacia to enter into a written agreement concerning a transaction that Pharmacia's board of directors has determined in accordance with the merger agreement is a superior proposal, except that Pharmacia cannot terminate the merger agreement for this reason (1) unless Pharmacia provides Pfizer with notice of the existence and terms of the superior proposal, including the identity of the person making the superior proposal and a statement as to whether Pharmacia intends to enter into a definitive agreement for a business combination, (2) Pfizer, within five business days of receiving such notice from Pharmacia, does not make an offer that the board of directors of Pharmacia determines is at least as favorable to the Pharmacia shareholders as the superior proposal Pharmacia received from the third party and (3) Pharmacia pays Pfizer the fee described in "Termination Fees Payable by Pharmacia" below at or prior to such termination.

Termination Fees Payable by Pharmacia. Pharmacia has agreed to pay Pfizer a termination fee of $1.6 billion (within one business day after the earlier of the date Pharmacia enters into a definitive agreement with respect to, or consummates, a business combination), if the merger agreement is terminated under one of the following circumstances:

- the merger agreement is (1) terminated by Pfizer because the board of directors of Pharmacia withdraws or changes its recommendation in a manner adverse to Pfizer or for any reason Pharmacia fails to call or hold its shareholders' meeting by January 13, 2003 or until this registration statement becomes effective if such date is extended (but only if, on or before the date the agreement is terminated, there was an offer or proposal for, or announcement with respect to, a "business combination" involving Pharmacia) and (2) within twelve months of the termination, Pharmacia enters into a definitive agreement or completes a transaction with respect to a business combination with a third party;

- the merger agreement is (1) terminated by Pfizer or Pharmacia because Pharmacia's shareholders failed to adopt the merger agreement (but only if, prior to the date of the Pharmacia special meeting, there was made public to a significant number of Pharmacia's shareholders an offer or proposal for, or any public announcement with respect to, a business combination involving Pharmacia) and (2) within twelve months of the termination, Pharmacia enters into a definitive agreement or completes a transaction with respect to a business combination with a third party; or
- the merger agreement is (1) terminated by Pfizer or Pharmacia because the necessary regulatory approvals have not been obtained and the merger has not been completed by April 15, 2003 (or July 15, 2003 if the termination date is extended), and at the time of termination Pharmacia has not yet obtained its shareholder approval and prior to April 15, 2003 (or July 15, 2003 if the termination date is extended), there has been an offer or proposal for, or announcement with respect to, a business combination involving Pharmacia and (2) within twelve months of the termination, Pharmacia enters into a definitive agreement or completes a transaction with respect to a business combination with a third party.

Pharmacia also has agreed to pay Pfizer a termination fee of $1.6 billion (at or prior to such termination), if Pharmacia terminates the merger agreement because Pharmacia's board of directors has authorized Pharmacia to enter into a written agreement for a superior proposal and Pfizer has not, within five business days of notice from Pharmacia, made an offer that the board of directors of Pharmacia determines is at least as favorable as the superior proposal Pharmacia has received from a third party.

A "business combination" for Pharmacia is:

- (1) a merger, reorganization, consolidation, share exchange, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction

I-85

CHAPTER ONE -- THE MERGER

involving Pharmacia as a result of which:

- Pharmacia's shareholders prior to the transaction in the aggregate cease to own at least 50% of the voting securities of the ultimate parent entity of the entity surviving or resulting from the transaction;
- Any person beneficially owns at least 40% of the voting securities of the ultimate parent entity of the entity surviving or resulting from the transaction; or
- The individuals comprising the board of directors of Pharmacia prior to the transaction do not constitute a majority of the board of directors of the ultimate parent entity of the entity surviving or resulting from the transaction;

- (2) a sale, lease, exchange, transfer or other disposition of at least 40% of the assets of Pharmacia and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, in a single transaction or series of transactions; or
- (3) the acquisition by a person of beneficial ownership of 40% or more of the common stock of Pharmacia (other than as an acquisition in which Pharmacia shareholders prior to the acquisition would beneficially own greater than 50% of the voting securities of such acquiring person after the completion of the transaction).

Obligations in Event of Termination. In the event of termination as provided for above, the merger agreement will become void and of no further force and effect (except with respect to certain designated sections in the merger agreement) and there will be no liability on behalf of Pfizer or Pharmacia, except for liabilities arising from a willful breach of the merger agreement.

If, however, the merger agreement is terminated for any reason other than a termination by (1) Pfizer either because Pharmacia's board of directors changes its recommendation in a manner adverse to Pfizer or (2) Pharmacia because Pharmacia's board of directors has authorized Pharmacia to enter into a written agreement for a superior proposal and Pfizer has not, within five business days of notice from Pharmacia, made an offer that the board of directors of Pharmacia determines is at least as favorable as the superior proposal Pharmacia has received from a third party, then Pfizer agrees that it will not purchase or offer to purchase Pharmacia's common stock for a period of two years starting on the date of termination of the merger agreement and ending on the date on which Pharmacia starts discussions or negotiations with, provides information to or enters into an agreement with, a third party relating to the sale of all or substantially all of its and its subsidiaries' consolidated assets.

AMENDMENTS, EXTENSIONS AND WAIVERS

The merger agreement may be amended by the parties at any time before or after the shareholder meetings, except that any amendment after a shareholders' meeting, which requires approval by shareholders, may not be made without such approval.

AMENDMENT TO CO-PROMOTION AND CO-MARKETING AGREEMENTS

In connection with the signing of the merger agreement, Pharmacia and Pfizer entered into an amendment to certain co-promotion and co-marketing agreements regarding Pharmacia's pain and inflammation drug, Celebrex(R) and other COX-2 "second generation" drugs, which amendment shall only become effective if Pharmacia becomes obligated to pay a termination fee to Pfizer under the terms of the merger agreement (as described above), and Pharmacia, in addition, consummates the business combination transaction that caused such termination fee to become due and payable.

If such amendment becomes effective, Pfizer will be able to appoint three members to the executive management committee and

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

Pharmacia will be able to appoint two members to the committee, which meets to resolve issues under the co-promotion agreements as they arise. Pharmacia currently can appoint three of the five members to the executive management committee and Pfizer can appoint two members to the committee.

If such amendment becomes effective, Pfizer will also be able to designate the chairperson of any or all of the six subcommittees which meet to resolve issues under the co-promotion and co-marketing agreements.

PFIZER AND PHARMACIA UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Statements of Income combine the historical consolidated statements of income of Pfizer and Pharmacia, giving effect to the merger as if it had occurred on January 1 of each period presented. We have adjusted the historical consolidated financial information to give effect to pro forma events that are (1) directly attributable to the merger, (2) factually supportable, and (3) with respect to the statements of income, expected to have a continuing impact on the combined results. You should read this information in conjunction with the:

We present the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information for informational purposes only. The pro forma information is not necessarily indicative of what our financial position or results of operations actually would have been had we completed the merger at the dates indicated. In addition, the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information does not purport to project the future financial position or operating results of the combined company.

We prepared the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information using the purchase method of accounting with Pfizer treated as the acquiror. Accordingly, Pfizer's cost to acquire Pharmacia will be allocated to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed based upon their estimated fair values as of the date of acquisition. The allocation is dependent upon certain valuations and other studies that have not progressed to a stage where there is sufficient information to make a definitive allocation. Accordingly, the purchase price allocation pro forma adjustments are preliminary and have been made solely for the purpose of providing unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information.

CHAPTER TWO -- PRO FORMA FINANCIAL DATA

NOTES TO UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. DESCRIPTION OF TRANSACTION AND BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The merger agreement provides that each outstanding share of Pharmacia common stock will be exchanged for 1.4 shares of Pfizer common stock in a tax-free transaction. Pfizer will not issue fractional shares in the merger. As a result, the total number of shares of Pfizer common stock that each Pharmacia shareholder will receive in the merger will be rounded down to the nearest whole number, and each Pharmacia shareholder will receive a cash payment for the remaining fraction of a share of Pfizer common stock that he or she would otherwise receive, if any, based on the market value of Pfizer common stock at the close of business at the date the merger became effective. Each share of Pharmacia Series C convertible perpetual preferred stock will be exchanged for a newly created class of Pfizer Series A convertible perpetual preferred stock with rights substantially similar to the rights of the Pharmacia Series C convertible perpetual preferred stock. The merger is expected to be completed by the end of 2002. The merger will be accounted for as a purchase by Pfizer under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Under the purchase method of accounting, the assets and liabilities of Pharmacia will be recorded as of the acquisition date, at their respective fair values, and added to those of Pfizer. The reported financial condition and results of operations of Pfizer after completion of the merger will reflect these values, but will not be restated retroactively to reflect the historical financial position or results of operations of Pharmacia. The merger is subject to customary closing conditions, including regulatory approvals, as well as approval by Pfizer and Pharmacia shareholders of certain merger-related proposals.

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

One of the conditions of the merger agreement is that Pharmacia complete the distribution of its holding of Monsanto Company common stock to holders of Pharmacia common stock. The pro forma balance sheet as of June 30, 2002 assumes that the remaining outstanding shares of Monsanto Company held by Pharmacia were distributed to the Pharmacia shareholders in a tax-free spin-off transaction prior to June 30, 2002 (the assumed acquisition date for the pro forma balance sheet).

In accordance with the requirements of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets" ("SFAS No. 142"), the goodwill and the acquired indefinite-lived intangibles associated with the merger will not be amortized.

As required by Financial Accounting Standards Board Interpretation No. 4, "Applicability of FASB Statement No. 2 to Business Combinations Accounted for by the Purchase Method," ("FIN 4") the purchase price allocated to in-process research and development will be immediately expensed.

3. ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND FINANCIAL STATEMENT CLASSIFICATIONS

Upon completion of the merger, Pfizer and Pharmacia will review their accounting policies and financial statement classifications. As a result of that review, it may become necessary to make certain reclassifications to the combined company's financial statements to conform to those accounting policies and classifications that are determined to be more appropriate.

4. INTERCOMPANY TRANSACTIONS

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

Transactions between Pfizer and Pharmacia are primarily limited to the Celebrex(R) and Bextra(R) marketing agreements. Upon completion of the merger, transactions that occurred in connection with these arrangements would be considered intercompany transactions. All significant balances and transactions related to these arrangements have been eliminated from the Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Statements.

5. PRO FORMA ADJUSTMENTS

Adjustments included in the column under the heading "Pro Forma Adjustments" primarily relate to the following:

(a) To eliminate balances and transactions between Pfizer and Pharmacia which, upon completion of the merger, would be considered intercompany balances and transactions. The majority of these transactions occurred under the Celebrex(R) and Bextra(R) marketing agreements. The entries include:

- the elimination of certain sales, alliance revenue and certain co-promotion expenses;
- the elimination of the impact of milestone payments;
- the elimination of receivable and payable balances; and
- the elimination of profit in inventory.

(b) To eliminate amortization expense recorded by Pharmacia related to goodwill recorded on previous acquisitions and other intangible assets of approximately $160 million in 2001 and $30 million in the first six months of 2002.

CHAPTER TWO -- PRO FORMA FINANCIAL DATA

(c) To record:

- amortization expense related to the estimated value of acquired identifiable intangible assets, which are being amortized over their estimated useful lives of 12 years, of approximately $2,250 million in 2001 and $1,125 million in the first six months of 2002;
- additional depreciation expense related to the estimated fair value step up of the acquired property, plant and equipment, which is being depreciated over its estimated useful life of 10 years, of approximately $20 million in 2001 and $10 million in the first six months of 2002; and
- the allocation of the estimated purchase price to reflect the difference between the book value and the fair value of net assets acquired. See also Note 2 of the Notes to Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Statements.

(d) To adjust income taxes for pro forma adjustments.

(e) To reflect Pharmacia's distribution of its holding in Monsanto Company to the holders of Pharmacia common stock. See also Note 1 of the Notes to Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Statements.

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

(f) To adjust common stock, additional paid-in-capital, ESOP related accounts, accumulated other comprehensive expense and treasury stock to reflect the issuance of Pfizer shares to effect the acquisition of Pharmacia under the purchase accounting method. (The preferred stock of Pharmacia will be exchanged for a newly created class of Pfizer preferred stock with substantially identical rights). Retained earnings has also been adjusted to reflect the write-off of in-process research and development, as required by FIN 4, of approximately $13 billion at June 30, 2002. See also Note 2 of the Notes to Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Statements.

The pro forma condensed combined financial statements do not present a combined dividend per share amount. Pfizer's current quarterly dividend is $.13 ($.52 per share annualized) and is subject to future lawful approval and declaration by Pfizer's board of directors. Pharmacia's current quarterly dividend is $.135 ($.54 per share annualized) and is subject to future lawful approval and declaration by Pharmacia's board of directors. The dividend policy of the combined company will be determined by its board of directors following the merger.

Certain restructuring and integration charges may be recorded subsequent to the merger that, under purchase accounting, will not be treated as part of the Pharmacia purchase price. These costs, estimated to range between $2.5 and $3.0 billion, have not been reflected in these unaudited pro forma condensed income statements because they are not expected to have a continuing impact on the combined results.

The pro forma combined basic and diluted earnings per share for the respective periods presented are based on the combined basic and diluted weighted average shares of Pfizer and Pharmacia. The historical basic and diluted weighted average shares of Pharmacia were converted at the exchange ratio of 1.4 shares of Pfizer common stock for each Pharmacia common stock equivalent.

The pro forma condensed combined financial statements do not reflect the expected realization of annual cost savings of $2.5 billion by 2005. These savings are expected to result from, among other things, the reduction of overhead expenses, changes in corporate infrastructure, the elimination of duplicative facilities and the leveraging of the combined annual external purchases. Although management expects that cost savings will result from the merger, there can be no assurance that these cost savings will be achieved.

CHAPTER TWO -- PRO FORMA FINANCIAL DATA

These forecasts for Pfizer were prepared by the management of Pfizer in July 2002, and for Pharmacia, by the management of Pharmacia in June 2002. These forecasts were not prepared with a view to public disclosure or compliance with published guidelines established by the SEC or the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants regarding forecasts. None of Pfizer, Pharmacia or their respective affiliates or Pfizer's or Pharmacia's independent auditors assume any responsibility for the accuracy of this information. The forecasts were not prepared with the approval of the Pfizer or Pharmacia boards of directors. The forecasts are subjective in many respects and thus susceptible to interpretation and periodic revision based on actual experience and recent developments. While presented with numeric specificity, the forecasts reflect numerous assumptions made by the managements of Pfizer and Pharmacia with respect to industry performance and competition, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, all of which are difficult to predict, many of which are beyond the control of Pfizer and Pharmacia. For these reasons, the inclusion of the forecasts in this document should not be regarded as an indication that Pfizer, Pharmacia, any recipient of the forecasts or their respective affiliates or representatives, considered or consider the forecasts to be a reliable prediction of future events, and the forecasts should not be relied upon as such. Actual results may be higher or lower than those estimated. Pfizer and Pharmacia do not generally publish their respective business plans and strategies or make external disclosures of their respective anticipated financial position or results of operations. Accordingly, Pfizer and Pharmacia do not intend to, and specifically decline any obligation to, update or otherwise revise the prospective financial information to reflect circumstances existing since their preparation or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events, even if any or all the underlying assumptions are shown to be in error. Also, Pfizer and Pharmacia do not intend to, and specifically decline any obligation to, update or revise the prospective financial information to reflect changes in general economic or industry conditions.

Neither Pfizer's auditors nor Pharmacia's auditors, nor any other independent accountants, have compiled, examined or performed any procedures with respect to these forecasts, nor have they expressed any opinion or any other form of assurance on this information or its achievability, and assume no responsibility for, and disclaim any association with, this prospective financial information. The independent public accountants' reports incorporated by reference in this document relate to the respective historical financial statements of Pfizer and Pharmacia. These reports do not extend to these unaudited financial forecasts and should not be read to do so.

HOUSEHOLDING INFORMATION

Pfizer has adopted the procedure approved by the SEC called "householding." Under this procedure, shareholders of record who have the same address and last name and do not participate in electronic delivery of proxy materials will receive only one copy of this joint prospectus/proxy statement unless one or more of these shareholders notifies Pfizer that they wish to continue receiving individual copies. This procedure will reduce the printing costs and postage fees of Pfizer and Pharmacia in connection with this joint prospectus/proxy statement and of Pfizer and the combined company for future Annual Reports and Proxy Statements.

Shareholders who participate in householding will continue to receive separate proxy cards. Also, householding will not in any way affect dividend check mailings.

If you and other Pfizer shareholders of record with whom you share an address currently receive multiple copies of Annual Reports and/or Proxy Statements, or if you hold stock in more than one account and in either case, you wish to receive only a single copy of future Annual Reports or Proxy Statements for your household, please contact Pfizer's transfer agent (in writing: EquiServe Trust Company, N.A., P.O. Box 43069, Providence, Rhode Island 07303-2500; by telephone: 1-800-733-9393) with the names in which all accounts are registered.

If you participate in householding and wish to receive a separate copy of this joint prospectus/proxy statement, or if you wish to receive separate copies of future Pfizer Annual Reports and/or Proxy Statements, please contact EquiServe at the above address or phone number. Pfizer will deliver the requested documents to you promptly upon your request.

Beneficial shareholders can request information about householding from their bank, broker, custodian or recordholder of Pfizer common stock.

PROXIES FOR PHARMACIA PLAN PARTICIPANTS

If you are a participant in the Pharmacia Common Stock Fund, Pharmacia ESOP Preferred Stock Fund, or Pharmacia ESOP Common Stock Fund, you will receive only one proxy card for all the shares of Pharmacia common stock or Pharmacia Series B convertible perpetual preferred stock:

- You hold in your own name; or
- The trustees or custodian of the relevant plan holds on your behalf.

Neither Pharmacia nor the trustee or custodian can exercise discretion as to the voting of shares in the plans listed above. However, if you own shares in any of the plans and do not provide instructions, or if your instructions as to the voting of your shares are not received in a timely manner, the trustee or custodian of the relevant plan will vote your shares in such plan in the same proportion to the shares for which it has received timely instructions from the other participants in such plan.

Because the trustee or custodian for the relevant plan must process voting instructions from participants before the date of the special meeting, you are urged to deliver your instructions well in advance of the special meeting so that the instructions are received no later than [].

If you submit a completed proxy card with instructions on how to vote your plan shares and then wish to revoke your instructions, you should submit a notice of revocation to Pharmacia as soon as possible, as described under "-- Revoking Your Proxy" below.

authority on the part of the individuals appointed to vote your shares or act on those matters according to their best judgment, including to adjourn the meeting.

Adjournments may be made for the purpose of, among other things, soliciting additional proxies. Any adjournment may be made from time to time by approval of the holders of shares representing a majority of the votes present in person or by proxy at the meeting, whether or not a quorum exists, without further notice other than by an announcement made at the meeting. Neither of us currently intends to seek an adjournment of our meeting.

The Pharmacia rights agreement further provides that if Pharmacia is acquired in a merger or other business combination transaction, or 50% or more of its consolidated assets or earning power are sold after a person or group has become an Acquiring Person, then each holder of a right, other than rights beneficially owned by the Acquiring Person (which will then be void), will then have the right to receive, for the exercise price and upon exercise of the right, a number of shares of common stock of the Acquiring Person equal to the exercise price of the right divided by one-half of the market price of a share of the common stock of the Acquiring Person.

In connection with the entering into of the merger agreement, Pharmacia and Mellon Investor Services LLC, as rights agent, entered into an amendment to the rights agreement, dated as of July 12, 2002, pursuant to which neither Pfizer nor Pilsner Acquisition Sub Corp., a Delaware corporation which is a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of Pfizer formed for

- 90 days in advance of such meeting if it is being held on or after the anniversary date of this year's meeting.

For any other annual or special meeting, the nomination or item of business must be received by the tenth day following the date of public disclosure of the date of the meeting.

Pfizer's annual meeting of shareholders is generally held on the fourth Thursday of April. Assuming that Pfizer's 2003 annual meeting is held on schedule, Pfizer must receive notice of your intention to introduce a nomination or other item of business at that meeting by February 23, 2003. If Pfizer does not receive notice by that date, or if we meet other requirements of the SEC rules, the persons named as proxies in the proxy materials relating to that meeting will use their discretion in voting the proxies when these matters are raised at the meeting.

The nomination must contain the following information about the nominee:

- name;
- age;
- business and residence addresses;
- principal occupation or employment;
- the number of shares of common stock held by the nominee;
- the information that would be required under the rules of the SEC in a proxy statement soliciting proxies for the election of such nominee as a director; and
- a signed consent of the nominee to serve as a director of Pfizer, if elected.

Notice of a proposed item of business must include:

- a brief description of the substance of, and the reasons for, conducting such business at the annual meeting;
- the shareholder's name and address;
- the number of shares of common stock held by the shareholder (with supporting documentation where appropriate); and
- any material interest of the shareholder in such business.

The chairman of the meeting may refuse to allow the transaction of any business not presented beforehand, or to acknowledge the nomination of any person not made in compliance with the foregoing procedures.

PHARMACIA

Pharmacia does not currently expect to hold a 2003 annual meeting of shareholders because Pharmacia will not be a separate public company if the merger has been completed at that time. If the merger is not consummated and such a meeting is held, shareholders may propose matters to be presented at the 2003 annual meeting of shareholders and may also nominate persons to be directors.

Shareholder nominations of candidates for election to the board of directors at Pharmacia's 2003 annual meeting must be received by the Pharmacia's Secretary at 100 Route 206 North, Peapack, NJ 07977 not earlier than January 30, 2003 and not later than March 1, 2003; provided, however, that in the event that the date of the meeting is advanced by more than 30 days or delayed by more than 60 days from the anniversary date of the preceding year's annual meeting, notice by the shareholder must be received not earlier than 90 days prior to such annual meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of 60 days prior to such annual meeting or on the tenth day following the day on which the public announcement of the date of the meeting is first made, together with the information that would be required under the rules of the SEC in a proxy statement soliciting proxies for the election of such recommended person as a director, a statement of the recommended person's willingness to stand for election and to serve if elected. Nominations satisfying these requirements will be considered by the board of director's nominating and corporate governance committee.

Shareholder proposals that are intended to be presented at Pharmacia's 2003 annual meeting and be included in Pharmacia's proxy materials must be received by Pharmacia's Secretary, 100 Route 206 North, Peapack, NJ 07977 not later than November 25, 2002; provided, however, if the date of the 2003 annual meeting of shareholders is changed by more than 30 days from the date of the previous year's meeting (April 30, 2002), then the deadline is a reasonable time before the company begins to print and mail its proxy materials. Upon timely receipt of any such proposal, Pharmacia will determine whether to include such proposal in the proxy materials in accordance with applicable SEC regulations.

Shareholder proposals that are intended to be presented at the Pharmacia's 2003 annual meeting but not be included in the Pharmacia's proxy materials must be received by Pharmacia's Secretary, 100 Route 206 North, Peapack, NJ 07977 not earlier than December 31, 2002 and not later than January 30, 2003; provided, however, that in the event that the date of the meeting is advanced by more than 30 days or delayed by more than 60 days from the anniversary date of the preceding year's annual meeting date, notice by the shareholder must be received not earlier than 120 days prior to such annual meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of 90 days prior to such annual meeting or on the tenth day following the day on which the public announcement of the date of the meeting is first made. Upon timely receipt of any such proposal, Pharmacia will determine whether to present such proposal at the meeting, in accordance with the rules of the meeting. These time limits also apply for determining whether notice is timely under the SEC rules relating to the exercise of discretionary voting authority.

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER, dated as of July 13, 2002 (this "Agreement"), among PFIZER INC., a Delaware corporation ("Parent"), PILSNER ACQUISITION SUB CORP., a Delaware corporation and a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent ("Merger Sub"), and PHARMACIA CORPORATION, a Delaware corporation (the "Company" and collectively with Parent and Merger Sub, the "parties").

W I T N E S S E T H:

WHEREAS, the respective Boards of Directors of the Company and Parent deem it advisable and in the best interests of each corporation and its respective stockholders that the Company and Parent engage in a business combination in order to advance the long-term strategic business interests of the Company and Parent;

WHEREAS, the combination of the Company and Parent shall be effected by the terms of this Agreement through a merger as outlined below (the "Merger");

WHEREAS, in furtherance thereof, the respective Boards of Directors of the Company and Parent have approved the Merger, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, pursuant to which each share of common stock, par value $2.00 per share, of the Company ("Company Common Stock") issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (as defined in Section 1.3), other than shares owned or held directly or indirectly by Parent or directly or indirectly by the Company, together with the associated Company Rights (as defined in Section 3.2(b)) will be converted into the right to receive shares of common stock, par value $0.05 per share, of Parent ("Parent Common Stock") as set forth in Section 1.8 and each share of preferred stock that has been issued (as contemplated and permitted by Sections 4.2(c) and 4.7) in exchange for the then outstanding shares of Series B Convertible Perpetual Preferred Stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company (the currently existing preferred stock being the "Series B Preferred Stock" and the newly issued shares of preferred stock being the "Company Convertible Preferred Stock") issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will be converted into the right to receive one share of a new series of convertible preferred stock to be issued by Parent at the Effective Time and to be designated as Series A Convertible Perpetual Preferred Stock ("Parent Convertible Preferred Stock") as set forth in Section 1.8;

WHEREAS, for Federal income tax purposes, it is intended that the Merger shall qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), and the regulations promulgated thereunder; and

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and the respective representations, warranties, covenants and agreements set forth in this Agreement, and intending to be legally bound hereby, the parties agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

THE MERGER; CERTAIN RELATED MATTERS

SECTION 1.1 THE MERGER. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, and in accordance with the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL"), Merger Sub shall be merged with and into the Company at the Effective Time. Following the Merger, the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub shall cease and the Company shall continue as the surviving corporation (the "Surviving Corporation").

SECTION 1.2 CLOSING. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in Article VI, and the termination rights set forth in Article VII, the closing of the Merger (the "Closing") will take place on the first Business Day after the satisfaction or waiver (subject to applicable law) of the conditions (excluding conditions that, by their nature, cannot be satisfied until the Closing Date, but subject to the fulfillment or waiver of those conditions) set forth in Article VI, unless this Agreement has been previously terminated pursuant to its terms or unless another time or date is agreed to in writing by the parties (the actual time and date of the Closing being referred to herein as the "Closing Date"). The Closing shall be held at the offices of Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft, 100 Maiden Lane, New York, New York, 10038, unless another place is agreed to in writing by the parties.

SECTION 1.3 EFFECTIVE TIME. As soon as practicable following the satisfaction or waiver (subject to applicable law) of the conditions set forth in Article VI, at the Closing the parties shall (i) file a certificate of merger (the "Certificate of Merger") in such form as is required by, and executed in accordance with, the relevant provisions of the DGCL and (ii) make all other filings or recordings required under the DGCL. The Merger shall become effective at such time as the Certificate of Merger is duly filed with the Delaware Secretary of State or at such subsequent time as Parent and the Company shall agree and as shall be specified in the Certificate of Merger (the date and time the Merger becomes effective being the "Effective Time").

SECTION 1.4 EFFECTS OF THE MERGER. At and after the Effective Time, the Merger will have the effects set forth in the DGCL. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, and subject thereto, at the Effective Time all the property, rights, privileges, powers and franchises of the Company and Merger Sub shall be vested in the Surviving Corporation, and all debts, liabilities and duties of the Company and Merger Sub shall become the debts, liabilities and duties of the Surviving Corporation.

SECTION 1.5 CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION. The certificate of incorporation of the Company, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be the certificate of incorporation of the Surviving Corporation, until thereafter changed or amended as provided therein or by applicable law.

SECTION 1.6 BYLAWS. The bylaws of Merger Sub, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be the bylaws of the Surviving Corporation until thereafter changed or amended as provided therein or by applicable law.

SECTION 1.7 OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS. From and after the Effective Time, until successors are duly elected or appointed and qualified in accordance with applicable law, (i) the directors of Merger Sub at the Effective Time shall be the directors of the Surviving Corporation and (ii) the officers of the Company at the Effective Time shall be the officers of the Surviving Corporation.

SECTION 1.8 EFFECT ON CAPITAL STOCK.

(a) At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, each share of Company Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than shares of Company Common Stock owned by Parent or Merger Sub or held by the Company, all of which shall be canceled as provided in Section 1.8(d)), together with the associated Company Rights (as defined in Section 3.2(b)), shall be converted into 1.4 validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable shares of Parent Common Stock (the "Exchange Ratio") and the associated Parent Rights (as defined in Section 3.1(b)) (together with any cash in lieu of fractional shares of Parent Common Stock to be paid pursuant to Section 2.5, the "Common Stock Merger Consideration").

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

(b) At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, each share of Company Convertible Preferred Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall, except as provided in Section 1.12 with respect to the shares of Company Convertible Preferred Stock as to which appraisal rights have been exercised, be converted into the right to receive one share of Parent Convertible Preferred Stock (the "Preferred Merger Consideration" and together with the Common Stock Merger Consideration, the "Merger Consideration") having terms substantially as set forth in the form of the Series A Convertible Perpetual Preferred Stock Certificate of Designations attached as Exhibit 1.8(b) hereto. Prior to the Closing, Parent shall take all corporate action necessary to reserve for issuance a sufficient number of shares of Parent Common Stock for delivery upon conversion of the Parent Convertible Preferred Stock.

(c) As a result of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holders thereof, at the Effective Time, all shares of Company Common Stock (together with the associated Company Rights) and Company Convertible Preferred Stock shall cease to be outstanding and shall be canceled and retired and shall cease to exist, and each holder of a certificate or certificates which immediately prior to the Effective Time represented any such shares of Company Common Stock ("Common Certificates") or of Company Convertible Preferred Stock ("Preferred Certificates" and together with the Common Certificates, the "Certificates") shall thereafter cease to have any rights with respect to such shares of Company Common Stock (together with the associated Company Rights) or Company Convertible Preferred Stock, respectively, except as provided herein or by law.

(d) Each share of Company Common Stock and Company Convertible Preferred Stock owned by Parent, Merger Sub or any other wholly-owned Subsidiary of Parent or held by the Company at the Effective Time shall, by virtue of the Merger, cease to be outstanding and shall be canceled and retired and no stock of Parent or other consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor.

(e) At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, each share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Merger Sub issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be converted into one validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable share of common stock, par value $2.00 per share, of the Surviving Corporation.

SECTION 1.9 COMPANY STOCK OPTIONS AND OTHER EQUITY-BASED AWARDS.

(a) Each Company Stock Option (as defined in Section 3.2(b)) that was granted pursuant to the Company Stock Option Plans (as defined in Section 3.2(b)) prior to the Effective Time and which remains outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall cease to represent a right to acquire shares of Company Common Stock and shall be converted, at the Effective Time, into an option to acquire, on the same terms and conditions as were applicable under the

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

Company Stock Option (but taking into account any changes thereto provided for in the Company Stock Option Plans or in such option by reason of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby), that number of shares of Parent Common Stock determined by multiplying the number of shares of Company Common Stock subject to such Company Stock Option by the Exchange Ratio, rounded, if necessary, to the nearest whole share of Parent Common Stock, at a price per share (rounded to the nearest one-hundredth of a cent) equal to the per share exercise price specified in such Company Stock Option divided by the Exchange Ratio; provided, however, that in the case of any Company Stock Option to which Section 421 of the Code applies by reason of its qualification under Section 422 of the Code, the option price, the number of shares subject to such option and the terms and conditions of exercise of such option shall be determined in a manner consistent with the requirements of Section 424(a) of the Code. On or prior to the Effective Time, the Company will take all actions necessary such that all Company Stock Options outstanding prior to the Effective Time under the Company Stock Option Plans are treated in accordance with the immediately preceding sentences, including, but not limited to, precluding the holder of each Company Stock Option from receiving any cash payments in respect of such Option in connection with the Merger.

(b) Effective at the Effective Time, Parent shall assume each Company Stock Option in accordance with the terms of the Company Stock Option Plan under which it was issued and the stock option agreement by which it is evidenced. As soon as practicable after the Effective Time, but no later than five (5) Business Days after the Effective Time, Parent shall deliver to the holders of Company Stock Options appropriate notices setting forth such holders' rights pursuant to the Company Stock Option Plans (including that, in connection with the Merger and pursuant to the terms of the Company Stock Option Plans, the Company Stock Options of such holders have become fully vested and exercisable) and the agreements evidencing the grants of such Company Stock Options shall continue in effect on the same terms and conditions. To the extent permitted by law, Parent shall comply with the terms of the Company Stock Option Plans and shall take such reasonable steps as are necessary or required by, and subject to the provisions of, such Company Stock Option Plans, to have the Company Stock Options which qualified as incentive stock options prior to the Effective Time continue to qualify as incentive stock options of Parent after the Effective Time.

(c) Prior to the Closing, Parent shall take all corporate action necessary to reserve for issuance a sufficient number of shares of Parent Common Stock for delivery upon exercise of Company Stock Options or in connection with restricted shares or in connection with the settlement of stock accounts in accordance with this Section 1.9 or in connection with any other Company Benefit Plan for which shares of Parent Common Stock are required to be reserved for issuance. Promptly after the Effective Time, but no later than five (5) Business Days after the Effective Time, Parent shall file a registration statement on Form S-3 or Form S-8, as the case may be (or any successor or other appropriate forms), with respect to the shares of Parent Common Stock subject to such options or restricted shares or stock accounts or Company Benefit Plans for which registration of shares of Parent Common Stock is required and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to maintain the effectiveness of such registration statement or registration statements (and maintain the current status of the prospectus or prospectuses contained therein) for so long as such options, restricted shares or stock accounts remain outstanding or for so long as such registration statement is required with respect to any other Company Benefit Plan. With respect to those individuals who subsequent to the Merger will be subject to the reporting requirements under Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), where applicable, Parent shall administer the Company Stock Option Plans in a manner consistent with the exemptions provided by Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act.

(d) Each restricted share of Company Common Stock, and other Company stock awards granted pursuant to the Company Stock Option Plans or Company Benefit Plans which are outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted, as of the Effective Time, into a number of shares of Parent Common Stock equal to the product of (1) the number of shares subject to the award and (2) the Exchange Ratio; and the number of shares of Parent Common Stock as so determined shall be delivered to the holder of each such award as soon as practicable following the Effective Time. Such converted awards shall otherwise be subject to the same terms, conditions and restrictions, if any, as were applicable to such awards under the relevant Company Stock Option Plan or Company Benefit Plan. Similarly, all Company Stock Option Plans and Company Benefit Plans (and awards thereunder, including stock appreciation rights) providing for cash payments measured by the value of Company Common Stock shall be deemed to refer to the number of shares of Parent Common Stock equal to the result of multiplying such number of shares of Company Common Stock by the Exchange Ratio, and such cash payments shall otherwise be made on the same terms, conditions and restrictions, if any, as were applicable under the relevant Company Stock Option Plan or Company Benefit Plan.

SECTION 1.10 CERTAIN ADJUSTMENTS. If, between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time, the outstanding Parent Common Stock or Company Common Stock shall have been changed into a different number of shares or different class by reason of any reclassification, recapitalization, stock split, split-up, combination or exchange of shares or a stock dividend or dividend payable in any other securities shall be declared with a record date within such period, or any similar event shall have occurred, the Exchange Ratio shall be appropriately adjusted to provide to the holders of Company Common Stock the same economic effect as contemplated by this Agreement prior to such event; provided, however, that there shall be no adjustment as a result of any dividend or distribution to the Company's stockholders of the stock of Monsanto Company ("Monsanto") pursuant to the spin-off of Monsanto as described in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2001 (the "Monsanto Spin-Off").

SECTION 1.11 ASSOCIATED RIGHTS. Any cash and certificates of Parent Common Stock and Parent Convertible Preferred Stock deposited with the Exchange Agent shall hereinafter be referred to as the "Exchange Fund."

SECTION 2.2 EXCHANGE PROCEDURES. Promptly after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall cause the Exchange Agent to mail to each holder of record of a Certificate (i) a letter of transmittal which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon proper delivery of the Certificates to the Exchange Agent, and which letter shall be in customary form and have such other provisions as Parent may reasonably specify (such letter to be reasonably acceptable to the Company prior to the Effective Time) and (ii) instructions for effecting the surrender of such Certificates in exchange for the applicable Merger Consideration. Upon surrender of a Certificate to the Exchange Agent together with such letter of transmittal, duly executed and completed in accordance with the instructions thereto, and such other documents as may reasonably be required by the Exchange Agent, the holder of such Certificate shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor (i) in the case of holders of Common Certificates (A) one or more shares of Parent Common Stock (which shall be in uncertificated book-entry form unless a physical certificate is requested) representing, in the aggregate, the whole number of shares that such holder has the right to receive pursuant to Section 1.8 (after taking into account all shares of Company Common Stock then held by such holder) and (B) a check in the amount equal to the cash that such holder has the right to receive pursuant to the provisions of this Article II, consisting of cash in lieu of any fractional shares of Parent Common Stock pursuant to Section 2.5 and dividends and other distributions pursuant to Section 2.3 and (ii) in the case of holders of Preferred Certificates (A) one or more shares of Parent Convertible Preferred Stock (which shall be in uncertificated book-entry form unless a physical certificate is requested) representing, in the aggregate, the number of shares that such holder has the right to receive pursuant to Section 1.8 and (B) a check in the amount equal to the cash that such holder has the right to receive pursuant to the provisions of

In the event of a transfer of ownership of Company Common Stock or Company Convertible Preferred Stock which is not registered in the transfer records of the Company, one or more shares of Parent Common Stock or Parent Convertible Preferred Stock evidencing, in the aggregate, the proper number of shares of Parent Common Stock or Parent Convertible Preferred Stock, a check in the proper amount of cash in lieu of any fractional shares of Parent Common Stock pursuant to Section 2.5 and any dividends or other distributions to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 2.3, may be issued with respect to such Company Common Stock or Company Convertible Preferred Stock to such a transferee if the Certificate representing such shares of Company Common Stock is presented to the Exchange Agent, accompanied by all documents required to evidence and effect such transfer and to evidence that any applicable stock transfer taxes have been paid.

SECTION 2.3 DISTRIBUTIONS WITH RESPECT TO UNEXCHANGED SHARES; VOTING.

Subject to the effect of applicable laws, following surrender of any such Certificate, there shall be paid to such holder of shares of Parent Common Stock or Parent Convertible Preferred Stock issuable in exchange therefor, without interest, (a) promptly after the time of such surrender, the amount of any cash payable in lieu of fractional shares of Parent Common Stock to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 2.5 and the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time theretofore paid with respect to such whole shares of Parent Common Stock, and (b) at the appropriate payment date, the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time but prior to such surrender and a payment date subsequent to such surrender payable with respect to such shares of Parent Common Stock.

(b) For a period of one year following the Closing, holders of unsurrendered Certificates shall be entitled to vote at any meeting of Parent stockholders the number of whole shares of Parent Common Stock and Parent Convertible Preferred Stock represented by such Certificates, regardless of whether such holders have exchanged their Certificates.

SECTION 2.5 NO FRACTIONAL SHARES OF PARENT COMMON STOCK.

(a) No certificates or scrip or shares of Parent Common Stock representing fractional shares of Parent Common Stock or book-entry credit of the same shall be issued upon the surrender for exchange of Certificates and such fractional share interests will not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to have any rights of a stockholder of Parent or a holder of shares of Parent Common Stock.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, each holder of shares of Company Common Stock exchanged pursuant to the Merger who would otherwise have been entitled to receive a fraction of a share of Parent Common Stock (after taking into account all Certificates delivered by such holder) shall receive, in lieu thereof, cash (without interest) in an amount equal to the product of (i) such fractional part of a share of Parent Common Stock multiplied by (ii) the closing price for a share of Parent Common Stock on the New York Stock Exchange, Inc. ("NYSE") Composite Transactions Tape on the date of the Effective Time or, if such date is not a Business Day, the Business Day immediately following the date on which the Effective Time occurs. Such payment of cash consideration in lieu of fractional shares of Parent Common Stock is not expected to exceed, in the aggregate, 1% of the total Merger Consideration.

(c) As promptly as practicable after the determination of the amount of cash, if any, to be paid to holders of fractional interests, the Exchange Agent shall so notify Parent, and Parent shall deposit or cause the Surviving Corporation to deposit such amount with the Exchange Agent and shall cause the Exchange Agent to forward payments to such holders of fractional interests subject to and in accordance with the terms hereof.

SECTION 2.6 TERMINATION OF EXCHANGE FUND. Any portion of the Exchange Fund which remains undistributed to the holders of Certificates for six months after the Effective Time shall be delivered to Parent or otherwise on the instruction of Parent, and any holders of the Certificates who have not theretofore complied with this Article II shall thereafter look only to Parent for the Merger Consideration with respect to the shares of Company Common Stock or Company Convertible Preferred Stock, as the case may be, formerly represented thereby to which such holders are entitled

Any such portion of the Exchange Fund remaining unclaimed by holders of shares of Company Common Stock or Company Convertible Preferred Stock five years after the Effective Time (or such earlier date immediately prior to such time as such amounts would otherwise escheat to or become property of any Governmental Entity (as defined in Section 3.1(c)(iii)) shall, to the extent permitted by law, become the property of the Surviving Corporation free and clear of any claims or interest of any Person previously entitled thereto.

SECTION 2.7 NO LIABILITY. None of Parent, Merger Sub, the Company, the Surviving Corporation or the Exchange Agent shall be liable to any Person in respect of any Merger Consideration from the Exchange Fund delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar law.

SECTION 2.8 INVESTMENT OF THE EXCHANGE FUND. The Exchange Agent shall invest any cash included in the Exchange Fund as directed by Parent on a daily basis; provided, that no such gain or loss thereon shall affect the amounts payable to the Company stockholders pursuant to Article I and the other provisions of this Article II. Any interest and other income resulting from such investments shall promptly be paid to Parent.

SECTION 2.9 LOST CERTIFICATES. If any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by the Surviving Corporation, the posting by such Person of a bond in such reasonable amount as the Surviving Corporation may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent will deliver in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the applicable Merger Consideration with respect to the shares of Company Common Stock or Company Convertible Preferred Stock, as the case may be, formerly represented thereby, any cash in lieu of fractional shares of Parent Common Stock to which such holders are entitled pursuant to Section 2.5, and unpaid dividends and distributions on shares of Parent Common Stock or Parent Convertible Preferred Stock to which such holders are entitled pursuant to Section 2.3, as the case may be, deliverable in respect thereof, pursuant to this Agreement.

SECTION 2.10 WITHHOLDING RIGHTS. Each of the Surviving Corporation and Parent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of shares of Company Common Stock, Company Convertible Preferred Stock, Company Stock Options or any other equity rights in the Company such amounts as it is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, or any provision of state, local or foreign tax law. To the extent that amounts are so withheld by the Surviving Corporation or Parent, as the case may be, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of the shares of Company Common Stock or Company Convertible Preferred Stock, as the case may be, in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made by the Surviving Corporation or Parent, as the case may be.

SECTION 2.11 FURTHER ASSURANCES. After the Effective Time, the officers and directors of the Surviving Corporation will be authorized to execute and deliver, in the name and on behalf of the Company or Merger Sub, any deeds, bills of sale, assignments or assurances and to take and do, in the name and on behalf of the Company or Merger Sub, any other actions and things to vest, perfect or confirm of record or otherwise in the Surviving Corporation any and all right, title and interest in,

SECTION 2.12 STOCK TRANSFER BOOKS. The stock transfer books of the Company shall be closed immediately upon the Effective Time and there shall be no further registration of transfers of shares of Company Common Stock or Company Convertible Preferred Stock thereafter on the records of the Company. On or after the Effective Time, any Certificates presented to the Exchange Agent or Parent for any reason shall be converted into the Merger Consideration with respect to the shares of Company Common Stock or Company Convertible Preferred Stock, as the case may be, formerly represented thereby (including any cash in lieu of fractional shares of Parent Common Stock to which the holders thereof are entitled pursuant to Section 2.5) and any dividends or other distributions to which the holders thereof are entitled pursuant to Section 2.3.

Except as set forth in the Parent disclosure schedule delivered by Parent to the Company prior to the execution of this Agreement (the "Parent Disclosure Schedule") (each section of which qualifies the correspondingly numbered representation and warranty or covenant and any other representation or warranty, if the disclosure set forth in the Parent Disclosure Schedule is readily applicable to such other representation or warranty), Parent represents and warrants to the Company as follows:

The copies of the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of Parent which were previously furnished or made available to the Company are true, complete and correct copies of such documents as in effect on the date of this Agreement.

(ii) Exhibit 21 to Parent's Annual Report on Form 10K for the year ended December 31, 2001 ("Parent Exhibit 21") includes all the Subsidiaries of Parent which as of the date of this Agreement are Significant Subsidiaries (as defined in Rule 1-02 of

(the "Parent Rights Agreement"). Since March 31, 2002 to the date of this Agreement, there have been no issuances of shares of the capital stock of Parent or any other securities of Parent other than issuances of shares of Parent Common Stock pursuant to options or rights outstanding as of March 31, 2002 under the Benefit Plans (as defined in Section 8.11) of Parent. All issued and outstanding shares of the capital stock of Parent are, and when shares of Parent Common Stock and Parent Convertible Preferred Stock are issued in the Merger or upon exercise of stock options converted in the Merger pursuant to Section 1.9, such shares will be, duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable and free of any preemptive rights. As of the date of this Agreement, there are no outstanding obligations of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries to repurchase, redeem or otherwise acquire any shares of capital stock of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries. There are not outstanding any stock-appreciation rights, security-based performance units, "phantom" stock or other security rights or other agreements, arrangements or commitments of any character (contingent or otherwise) pursuant to which any Person is or may be entitled to receive any payment or other value based on the revenues, earnings or financial performance, stock price performance or other attribute of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries or assets or calculated in accordance therewith (other than ordinary course payments or commissions to sales representatives of Parent based upon revenues generated by them without augmentation as a result of the transactions contemplated hereby) or to cause Parent or any of its Subsidiaries to file a registration statement under the Securities Act or which otherwise relate to the registration of any securities of Parents or its Subsidiaries.

(c) Authority; No Conflicts.

(i) Parent has all requisite corporate power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, subject to obtaining the requisite stockholder approval of the issuance of the shares of Parent Common Stock to be issued in the Merger (the "Share Issuance") and the amendment to the Parent Restated Certificate of Incorporation to increase the authorized share capital (the "Certificate Amendment"), in each case, by the votes set forth in Section 3.1(g) hereof (such votes as set forth in such Section 3.1(g) collectively being the "Parent Stockholder Approval"). The execution and delivery of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of Parent, subject to obtaining the Parent Stockholder Approval. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by Parent and constitutes a valid and binding agreement of Parent, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, except as such enforceability may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium and similar laws relating to or affecting creditors generally or by general equity principles (regardless of whether such enforceability is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law).

(ii) The execution and delivery of this Agreement by Parent does not or will not, as the case may be, and the consummation by Parent of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby will not, conflict with, or result in any violation of, or constitute a default (with or without notice or lapse of time, or both) under, or give rise to a right of, or result by its terms in the, termination, amendment, cancellation or acceleration of any obligation or the loss of a material benefit under, or the creation of a lien, pledge, security interest, charge or other encumbrance on, or the loss of, any assets, including Intellectual Property (as defined in Section 3.1(p)) (any such conflict, violation, default, right of termination, amendment, cancellation or acceleration, loss or creation, a "Violation") pursuant to: (A) any provision of the certificate of incorporation or bylaws of Parent or any Significant Subsidiary (as defined in Rule 1-02 of Regulation S-X of the SEC) of Parent, or (B) except as, in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on Parent, or subject to obtaining or making the consents, approvals, orders, authorizations, registrations, declarations and filings referred to in paragraph (iii) below, any loan or credit agreement, note, mortgage, bond, indenture, lease, benefit plan or other agreement, obligation, instrument, permit, concession, franchise, license, judgment, order, decree, statute, law, ordinance, rule or regulation applicable to Parent or any Subsidiary of Parent or their respective properties or assets.

(iii) No consent, approval, order or authorization of, clearance by, or registration, declaration or filing with, any supranational, national, state, municipal, local or foreign government, any instrumentality, subdivision, court, administrative agency or commission or other authority thereof, or any quasi-governmental or private body exercising any regulatory, taxing, importing or other governmental or quasi-governmental authority (a "Governmental Entity"), is required by or with respect to Parent or any Subsidiary of Parent in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Parent or Merger Sub or the consummation of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby, except for those required under or in relation to (A) the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the "HSR Act"), (B) state securities or "blue sky" laws (the "Blue Sky Laws"), (C) the Securities Act, (D) the Exchange Act, (E) the DGCL with respect to the filing of the Certificate of Merger, (F) rules and regulations of the NYSE, (G) antitrust or other competition laws, of the European Union or other jurisdictions, and (H) such other consents, approvals, orders, authorizations, registrations, declarations and filings the failures of which to make or obtain, in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on Parent. Consents, approvals, orders, authorizations, registrations, declarations and filings required under or in relation to any of the foregoing clauses (A) through (G) are hereinafter referred to as "Necessary Consents."

(d) Reports and Financial Statements.

(i) Parent has filed all required registration statements, prospectuses, reports, schedules, forms, statements and other documents required to be filed by it with the SEC since January 1, 2000 (collectively, including all exhibits thereto, the "Parent SEC Reports"). No Subsidiary of Parent is required to file any form, report, registration statement, prospectus or other document with the SEC. None of the Parent SEC Reports, as of their respective dates (and, if amended or superseded by a filing prior to the date of this Agreement or the Closing Date, then on the date of such filing), contained or will contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omitted or will omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. Each of the financial statements (including the related notes and schedules) included or incorporated by reference in the Parent SEC Reports presents fairly, or will present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position and consolidated results of operations, retained earnings and cash flows of Parent and its consolidated Subsidiaries as of the respective dates or for the respective periods set forth therein, all in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") consistently applied during the periods involved except as otherwise noted therein, and subject, in the case of the unaudited interim financial statements, to form in all material respects with the applicable requirements of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

(ii) Except as disclosed in the Parent SEC Reports filed prior to the date hereof, Parent and its Subsidiaries have not incurred any liabilities that are of a nature that would be required to be disclosed on a balance sheet of Parent and its Subsidiaries or the footnotes thereto prepared in conformity with GAAP, other than (A) liabilities incurred in the ordinary course of business or (B) liabilities that, in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on Parent.

(e) Information Supplied.

(i) None of the information supplied or to be supplied by Parent for inclusion or incorporation by reference in (A) the Form S-4 (as defined in Section 5.1) will, at the time the Form S-4 is filed with the SEC, at any time it is amended or supplemented or at the time it becomes effective under the Securities Act, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading and (B) the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus (as defined in Section 5.1) will, on the date it is first mailed to the Company stockholders or Parent stockholders or at the time of the Company Stockholders Meeting or the Parent Stockholders Meeting (each as defined in Section 5.1), contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. The Form S-4 and the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus will comply as to form in all material respects with the requirements of the Exchange Act and the Securities Act and the rules and regulations of the SEC thereunder.

(ii) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 3.1(e), no representation or warranty is made by Parent with respect to statements made or incorporated by reference in the Form S-4 or the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus based on information supplied by the Company for inclusion or incorporation by reference therein.

(f) Board Approval. The Board of Directors of Parent, by resolutions duly adopted by unanimous vote at a meeting duly called and held and not subsequently rescinded or modified in any way (the "Parent Board Approval"), has duly (i) determined that this Agreement and the Merger are advisable and are fair to and in the best interests of Parent and its stockholders, (ii) approved this Agreement, the Merger, the Certificate Amendment and the Share Issuance and (iii) recommended that the stockholders of Parent approve the Share Issuance and Certificate Amendment and directed that the Share Issuance and the Certificate Amendment be submitted for consideration by Parent's stockholders at the Parent Stockholders Meeting.

(g) Vote Required. The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by the holders of Parent Common Stock, provided that the total votes cast represents a majority of the outstanding shares of Parent Common Stock, is the only vote of the holders of any class or series of Parent capital stock necessary to consummate the Share Issuance. The affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of Parent Common Stock is the only vote of the holders of any class or series of Parent capital stock necessary to consummate the Certificate Amendment. Other than the votes set forth in this Section 3.1(g), there are no votes of the holders of any class or series of Parent capital stock necessary to consummate any of the transactions contemplated hereby.

A-13

(h) Litigation; Compliance with Laws.

(i) Except as disclosed in the Parent SEC Reports filed prior to the date of this Agreement, there are no suits, actions or proceedings (collectively "Actions") pending or, to the knowledge of Parent, threatened, against or affecting Parent or any Subsidiary of Parent which, in the aggregate, would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on Parent, nor are there any judgments, decrees, injunctions, rules or orders of any Governmental Entity or arbitrator outstanding against Parent or any Subsidiary of Parent which, in the aggregate, would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on Parent.

(ii) Except as disclosed in the Parent SEC Reports filed prior to the date of this Agreement and except as, in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on Parent, Parent and its Subsidiaries hold all permits, licenses, variances, exemptions, orders and approvals of all Governmental Entities which are necessary for the operation of the businesses of Parent and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole (the "Parent Permits"). Parent and its Subsidiaries are in compliance with the terms of the Parent Permits, except where the failures to so comply, in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on Parent. Except as disclosed in the Parent SEC Reports filed prior to the date of this Agreement, neither Parent nor any of its Subsidiaries is in violation of, and Parent and its Subsidiaries have not received any notices of violations with respect to, any laws, ordinances or regulations of any Governmental Entity, except for violations which, in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on Parent.

(i) Absence of Certain Changes or Events. that with respect to documents filed by a party which are incorporated by reference in the Form S-4 or Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus, this right of approval shall apply only with respect to information relating to the other party or its business, financial condition or results of operations; and provided, further, that Parent, in connection with a Change in the Parent Recommendation (as defined in Section 5.1(c)), and the Company, in connection with a Change in the Company Recommendation (as defined in Section 5.1(b)), may amend or supplement the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus or Form S-4 (including by incorporation by reference) pursuant to a Qualifying Amendment (as defined below) to effect such a Change, and in such event, this right of approval shall apply only with respect to information relating to the other party or its business, financial condition or results of operations, and shall be subject to the right of each party to have its Board of Directors' deliberations and conclusions accurately described. A "Qualifying Amendment" means an amendment or supplement to the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus or Form S-4 (including by incorporation by reference) to the extent it contains (i) a Change in the Parent Recommendation or a Change in the Company Recommendation (as the case may be), (ii) a statement of the reasons of the Board of Directors of Parent or the Company (as the case may be) for making such Change in the Parent Recommendation or Change in the Company Recommendation (as the case may be) and (iii) additional information reasonably related to the foregoing. Parent will use reasonable best efforts to cause the Joint Proxy Statements/Prospectus to be mailed to Parent stockholders, and the Company will use reasonable best efforts to cause the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus to be mailed to the Company's stockholders, in each case, as soon as reasonably practicable after the Form S-4 is declared effective under the Securities Act. Parent shall also take any action (other than qualifying to do business in any jurisdiction in which it is not now so qualified or to file a general consent to service of process) required to be taken under any applicable state securities laws in connection with the Share Issuance and the Company shall furnish all information concerning the Company and the holders of Company Common Stock as may be reasonably requested in connection with any such action. Each party will advise the other party, promptly after it receives notice thereof, of the time when the Form S-4 has become effective, the issuance of any stop order, the suspension of the qualification of the Parent Common Stock issuable in connection with the Merger for offering or sale in any jurisdiction, or any request by the SEC for amendment of the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus or the Form S-4. If at any time prior to the Effective Time any information relating to Parent or the Company, or any of their respective affiliates, officers or directors, should be discovered by Parent or the Company which should be set forth in an amendment or supplement to any of the Form S-4 or the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus so that any of such documents would not include any misstatement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, the party which discovers such information shall promptly notify the other party hereto and, to the extent required by law, rules or regulations, an appropriate amendment or supplement describing such information shall be promptly filed with the SEC and disseminated to the stockholders of Parent and the Company.

(b) The Company shall duly take (subject to compliance with the provisions of Section 3.1(e) and Section 3.2(e) (provided that the Company shall have used reasonable best efforts to ensure that such representations are true and correct)) all lawful action to call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of its stockholders on a date as soon as reasonably practicable (the "Company Stockholders Meeting") for the purpose of obtaining the Company Stockholder Approval with respect to the adoption of this Agreement and shall take all lawful action to solicit the adoption of this Agreement by the Company Stockholder Approval; and the

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

Board of Directors of the Company shall recommend adoption of this Agreement by the stockholders of the Company to the effect as set forth in Section 3.2(f) (the "Company Recommendation"), and shall not withdraw, modify or qualify (or propose to withdraw, modify or qualify) (a "Change") in any manner adverse to Parent such recommendation or take any action or make any statement in connection with the Company Stockholders Meeting inconsistent with such recommendation (collectively, a "Change in the Company Recommendation"); provided the foregoing shall not prohibit accurate disclosure (and such disclosure shall not be deemed to be a Change in the Company Recommendation) of factual information regarding the business, financial condition or results of operations of Parent or the Company or the fact that an Acquisition Proposal has been made, the identity of the party making such proposal or the material terms of such proposal (provided, that the Board of Directors of the Company does not withdraw, modify or qualify (or propose to withdraw, modify or qualify) in any manner adverse to Parent its recommendation) in the Form S-4 or the Joint Proxy Statement/ Prospectus or otherwise, to the extent such information, facts, identity or terms is required to be disclosed under applicable law; and, provided further, that the Board of Directors of the Company may make a Change in the Company Recommendation (x) pursuant to Section 5.4 hereof or (y) prior to the Company Stockholders Meeting if the Board of Directors of the Company determines in good faith that a Material Adverse Effect has occurred with respect to Parent. Notwithstanding any Change in the Company Recommendation, this Agreement shall be submitted to the stockholders of the Company at the Company Stockholders Meeting for the purpose of adopting the Agreement and approving the Merger; provided that this Agreement shall not be required to be submitted to the stockholders of the Company at the Company Stockholders Meeting if this Agreement has been terminated pursuant to Section 7.1 hereof.

(c) Parent shall duly take (subject to compliance with the provisions of Section 3.2(e) and Section 3.1(e) (provided that Parent shall have used reasonable best efforts to ensure that such representations are true and correct)) all lawful action to call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of its stockholders on a date as soon as reasonably practicable (the "Parent Stockholders Meeting") for the purpose of obtaining the Parent Stockholder Approval with respect to the approval of the Share Issuance and Certificate Amendment and shall take all lawful action to solicit the approval of the Share Issuance and Certificate Amendment by the Parent Stockholder Approval and the Board of Directors of Parent shall recommend approval of each of the Share Issuance and Certificate Amendment by the stockholders of Parent to the effect as set forth in Section 3.1(f) (the "Parent Recommendation"), and shall not Change in any manner adverse to the Company such recommendation or take any action or make any statement in connection with the Parent Stockholders Meeting inconsistent with such recommendation (collectively, a "Change in the Parent Recommendation"); provided the foregoing shall not prohibit accurate disclosure (and such disclosure shall not be deemed to be a Change in the Parent Recommendation) of factual information regarding the business, financial condition or operations of Parent or the Company (provided, that the Board of Directors of Parent does not withdraw, modify or qualify (or propose to withdraw, modify or qualify) in any manner adverse to the Company its recommendation) in the Form S-4 or the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus or otherwise, to the extent such information, facts, identity or terms is required to be disclosed under applicable law; and provided further, that the Board of Directors of Parent may make a Change in the Parent Recommendation prior to the Parent Stockholders Meeting if the Board of Directors of Parent determines in good faith that a Material Adverse Effect has occurred with respect to the Company. Notwithstanding any Change in the Parent Recommendation, a proposal to approve the Share Issuance and Certificate Amendment shall be submitted to the stockholders of Parent at the Parent Stockholders Meeting for the purpose of obtaining the Parent Stockholder Approval; provided that this Agreement shall not be required to be submitted to the stockholders of Parent at the Parent Stockholders Meeting if this Agreement has been terminated pursuant to Section 7.1 hereof.

(d) For purposes of this Agreement, a Change in the Company Recommendation shall be deemed to include, without limitation, a recommendation by the Company Board of Directors of a third party Acquisition Proposal with respect to the Company.

SECTION 5.2 ACCESS TO INFORMATION/EMPLOYEES.

(a) Upon reasonable notice, each party shall (and shall cause its Subsidiaries to) afford to the officers, employees, accountants, counsel, financial advisors and other authorized representatives of the other party reasonable access during normal business hours, during the period prior to the Effective Time, to all its properties, books, contracts, commitments, records, officers and employees and, during such period, such party shall (and shall cause its Subsidiaries to) furnish promptly to the other party (a) a copy of each report, schedule, registration statement and other document filed, published, announced or received by it during such period pursuant to the requirements of Federal or state securities laws, as applicable (other than documents which such party is not permitted to disclose under applicable law), and (b) all other information concerning it and its business, properties and personnel as such other party may reasonably request (including consultation on a regular basis with such parties, agents, advisors, attorneys and representatives with respect to litigation matters); provided, however, that either party may restrict the foregoing access to the extent that (i) in the reasonable judgment of such party, any law, treaty, rule or regulation of any Governmental Entity applicable to such party requires such party or its Subsidiaries to restrict or prohibit access to any such properties or information (ii) in the reasonable judgment of such party, the information is subject to confidentiality obligations to a third party (iii) such disclosure would result in disclosure of any trade secrets of third parties or (iv) disclosure of any such information or document could result in the loss of attorney client privilege; provided, however, that with respect to this clause (iv), the parties and/or counsel for the parties shall use their reasonable best efforts to enter into such joint defense agreements or other arrangements, as appropriate, so as to avoid the loss of attorney client privilege. Any such information obtained pursuant to this Section 5.2 ("Confidential Information") will be used solely for the purpose of consideration or performance of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or any other agreement related hereto and will be kept confidential by the party obtaining such information and all persons obtaining such information on such party's behalf or who obtain such information from such party. Confidential Information shall not include information that (A) is or becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of disclosure by a party or its Representatives, or (B) is or becomes available to a party (other than the disclosing party) or its Representatives that is not known by the non-disclosing party to have any obligation not to disclose such information. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Confidential Information may be disclosed by a party (x) to its directors, officers, employees, representatives (including, without limitation, financial advisors, attorneys and accountants) or agents (collectively "Representatives") who need to know such information if the party informs such Representatives of the confidential nature of such information and directs them to treat such information confidentially and to use such information for no purpose other than as specifically permitted by the Agreement and (y) if the party is legally required to make such disclosure as a result of a court order, subpoena or similar legal duress, provided that prior to such disclosure, the disclosing party gives to the other party prompt written notice of its receipt of such order or subpoena or similar document so that the other party has a reasonable opportunity prior to disclosure to obtain a protective order (if disclosure of

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

Confidential Information is so required, the disclosing party shall disclose only that portion of such information that is so required and shall assist the other party in obtaining protective orders or undertakings that confidential treatment will be accorded to any such information furnished). In the event of termination of this Agreement, each party will promptly return to the other party all Confidential

A-35

Information in its possession (including all written materials prepared or supplied by or on its behalf containing or reflecting any Confidential Information) and will not retain any copies, extracts or other reproductions in whole or in part of any Confidential Information. Any work papers, memoranda or other writings prepared by a party or its Representatives derived from or incorporating any Confidential Information shall be destroyed promptly upon termination of this Agreement, with such destruction confirmed to the other party in writing. Any oral Confidential Information will continue to be subject to the terms of this Section 5.2. Each party shall be responsible for the breach of the terms of this Section 5.2 by its Representative. Any investigation by Parent or the Company shall not affect the representation and warranties of the Company and Parent, as the case may be. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Section 5.2 and the terms of the Confidentiality Agreement, the terms of the Confidentiality Agreement shall control.

(b) After the date hereof, Parent and the Company shall establish a mechanism reasonably acceptable to both parties by which Parent will be permitted, prior to the Effective Time and subject to applicable law, to communicate directly with the Company employees regarding employee related matters after the Effective Time.

SECTION 5.3 REASONABLE BEST EFFORTS.

(a) Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, each party will use its reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under this Agreement and applicable laws and regulations to consummate the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement as soon as practicable after the date hereof, including (i) preparing and filing as promptly as practicable all documentation to effect all necessary applications, notices, petitions, filings, tax ruling requests and other documents and to obtain as promptly as practicable all consents, clearances, waivers, licenses, orders, registrations, approvals, permits, tax rulings and authorizations necessary or advisable to be obtained from any third party and/or any Governmental Entity in order to consummate the Merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement and (ii) taking all reasonable steps as may be necessary to obtain all such material consents, clearances, waivers, licenses, registrations, permits, authorizations, tax rulings, orders and approvals. In furtherance and not in limitation of the foregoing, each party hereto agrees to make an appropriate filing of a Notification and Report Form pursuant to the HSR Act and any other Regulatory Law (as defined in Section 5.3(b) below) with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby as promptly as practicable after the date hereof and to supply as promptly as practicable any additional information and documentary material that may be requested pursuant to the HSR Act and any other Regulatory Law and to take all other actions necessary to cause the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting periods under the HSR Act as soon as practicable. If necessary to obtain any regulatory approval pursuant to any Regulatory Law, or if any administrative or judicial action or proceeding, including any proceeding by a private party, is instituted (or threatened to be instituted by a Governmental Entity), challenging the Merger or any other transaction contemplated by this Agreement as violative of any Regulatory Law, each of Parent and the Company shall cooperate with each other and, if necessary to (I) obtain any regulatory approval, (II) contest and resist any such action or proceeding, or (III) have vacated, lifted, reversed or overturned any decree, judgment, injunction, or other order (whether temporary, preliminary or permanent): (x) Parent shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, hold separate any portion of its assets, or otherwise conduct its business or any portion of its business, in a specified manner in one or more countries for a period of up to six months after the Closing; (y) Parent shall take such actions with respect to its assets or the assets of any of its Subsidiaries (including selling, holding separate or otherwise disposing of such assets, or agreeing to, or permitting, any of the foregoing with respect to such assets); and (z) the Company at the direction of the Parent shall take such actions with respect to its assets or the assets of any of its Subsidiaries (including selling, holding separate or otherwise disposing of such assets, or agreeing to, or permitting any of the foregoing with respect to such assets); unless, in the case of actions taken pursuant to clauses (y) and (z), such actions, in the aggregate, would (taking into account both quantitative and qualitative factors, and assuming in the case of actions taken pursuant to clause (y) that such actions were or had been taken by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries with respect to assets of the Company of similar value or prospective value) result in a Material Adverse Effect on the Company. For purposes of the previous sentence only, the parties acknowledge that the value of drug candidates and discoveries may be material before they provide any revenue or profit to the Company and therefore the term "Material Adverse Effect" as it relates to the Company shall include the prospects of the Company and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

(b) To the extent permissible under applicable law or any rule, regulation or restriction of a Governmental Entity, each of Parent and the Company shall, in connection with the efforts referenced in Section 5.3(a) to obtain all requisite material approvals, clearances and authorizations for the transactions contemplated by this Agreement under the HSR Act or any other Regulatory Law, use its reasonable best efforts to (i) cooperate in all respects with each other in connection with any filing or submission and in connection with any investigation or other inquiry, including any proceeding initiated by a private party, (ii) promptly inform the other party of any communication received by such party from, or given by such party to, the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice (the "DOJ"), the Federal Trade Commission (the "FTC") or any other Governmental Entity and of any material communication received or given in connection with any proceeding by a private party, in each case regarding any of the transactions contemplated hereby, (iii) permit the other party, or the other party's legal counsel, to review any communication given by it to, and consult with each other in advance of any meeting or conference with, the DOJ, the FTC or any such other Governmental Entity or, in connection with any proceeding by a private party, with any other Person and (iv) give the other party the opportunity to attend and participate in such meetings and conferences. For purposes of this Agreement, "Regulatory Law" means the Sherman Act, as amended, Council Regulation No. 4064/89 of the European Community, as amended (the "EC Merger Regulation") the Clayton Act, as amended, the HSR Act, the Federal Trade Commission Act, as amended, and all other Federal, state and foreign, if any, statutes, rules, regulations, orders, decrees, administrative and judicial doctrines and other laws that are designed or intended to prohibit, restrict or regulate (i) foreign investment or (ii) actions having the purpose or effect of monopolization or restraint of trade or lessening of competition.

(c) If any objections are asserted with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby under any Regulatory Law or if any suit is instituted by any Governmental Entity or any private party challenging any of the transactions contemplated hereby as violative of any Regulatory Law, each of Parent and the

Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to resolve any such objections or challenge as such Governmental Entity or private party may have to such transactions under such Regulatory Law so as to permit consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

SECTION 5.4 ACQUISITION PROPOSALS. The Company agrees that neither it nor any of its Subsidiaries nor any of the officers and directors of it or its Subsidiaries shall, and that it shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause its and its Subsidiaries' employees, agents and representatives (including any investment banker, attorney or accountant retained by it or any of its Subsidiaries) not to, directly or indirectly, initiate, solicit, encourage or knowingly facilitate (including by way of furnishing information) any inquiries or the making of any proposal or offer with respect to a merger, reorganization, share exchange, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving it, or any purchase or sale of the consolidated assets (including without limitation stock of Subsidiaries) of the Company and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, having an aggregate value equal to 15% or more of the market capitalization of the Company, or any purchase or sale of, or tender or exchange offer for, 15% or more of the equity securities of the Company (any such proposal or offer (other than a proposal or offer made by the other party or an affiliate thereof) being hereinafter referred to as an "Acquisition Proposal"). The Company further agrees that neither it nor any of its Subsidiaries nor any of the officers and directors of it or its Subsidiaries shall, and that it shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause its and its Subsidiaries' employees, agents and representatives (including any investment banker, attorney or accountant retained by it or any of its Subsidiaries) not to, directly or indirectly, have any discussion with or provide any confidential information or data to any Person relating to an Acquisition Proposal, or engage in any negotiations concerning an Acquisition Proposal, or knowingly facilitate any effort or attempt to make or implement an Acquisition Proposal or (subject to Section 7.1(h)) accept an Acquisition Proposal. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Company and the Company's Board of Directors shall be permitted to (A) to the extent applicable, comply with Rule 14d-9 and Rule 14e-2 promulgated under the Exchange Act with regard to an Acquisition Proposal, (B) effect a Change in the Company Recommendation, or (C) engage in any discussions or negotiations with, or provide any information to, any Person in response to an unsolicited bona fide written Acquisition Proposal by any such Person, if and only to the extent that, with respect to the actions contemplated by clauses (B) or (C), (i) the Company's Stockholders Meeting shall not have occurred, (ii) (x) in the case of clause (B) above, (I) such change is permitted by clause (y) of the second proviso of the first sentence of Section 5.1(b) or (II) the Company has received an unsolicited bona fide written Acquisition Proposal from a third party and the Company's Board of Directors concludes in good faith that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal (as defined in Section 8.11) and (y) in the case of clause (C) above, the Company's Board of Directors concludes in good faith that there is a reasonable likelihood that such Acquisition Proposal could result in a Superior Proposal, (iii) in the case of clause (C) above, prior to providing any information or data to any Person in connection with an Acquisition Proposal by any such Person, the Company's Board of Directors receives from such Person an executed confidentiality agreement containing terms at least as stringent as those contained in Section 5.2 and (iv) in the case of clause (C) above, prior to providing any information or data to any Person or entering into discussions or negotiations with any Person, the Company notifies Parent promptly of such inquiries, proposals or offers received by, any such information requested from, or any such discussions or negotiations sought to be initiated or continued with, any of its representatives indicating, in connection with such notice, the name of such Person and the material terms and conditions of any inquiries, proposals or offers. The Company agrees that it will promptly keep Parent informed of the status and terms of any such proposals or offers and the status and terms of any such discussions or negotiations. The Company agrees that it will, and will cause its officers, directors and representatives to, immediately cease and cause to be terminated any activities, discussions or negotiations existing as of the date of this Agreement with any parties conducted heretofore with respect to any Acquisition Proposal. The Company agrees that it will use reasonable best efforts to promptly inform its directors, officers, key employees, agents and representatives of the obligations undertaken in this Section 5.4. Nothing in this Section 5.4 shall (x) permit Parent or the Company to terminate this Agreement (except as specifically provided in Article VII hereof) or (y) affect any other obligation of Parent or the Company under this Agreement.

SECTION 5.5 EMPLOYEE BENEFITS MATTERS.

(a) At the Effective Time, Parent shall provide employment to, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to provide employment to, employees who were employed by the Company or its Subsidiaries as of the Effective Time ("Continuing Employees"). Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to guarantee employment for any period of time or preclude the Parent's ability to terminate any Continuing Employee for any reason subsequent to the Effective Time. Except as may be otherwise required by law, nothing contained herein shall require Parent to continue any particular Company Benefit Plan or compensation plan, program or arrangement, or prevent the amendment, modification or termination thereof; provided that Parent shall not take any action or cause the Surviving Corporation to take any action (by way of amendment, termination or otherwise) which is in violation of the terms of any Company Benefit Plan. From and after the Effective Time until the second anniversary of the Effective Time (the "Benefits Continuation Period"), Parent shall provide, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to provide compensation and employee benefits to the Continuing Employees and former employees of the Company and its Subsidiaries ("Former Employees") which are substantially comparable in the aggregate to those provided to such individuals by the Company and its Subsidiaries immediately prior to the Effective Time; provided, however, that with respect to employees who are subject to collective bargaining, compensation and benefits shall be provided in accordance with the applicable collective bargaining agreements. Following the Benefits Continuation Period, Parent shall provide, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to provide, compensation and benefits that are substantially comparable in the aggregate to those provided to similarly situated employees of Parent.

(b) During the Benefits Continuation Period, Parent shall continue, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to continue, the severance and post-retirement medical and dental benefits provided by the Company and its Subsidiaries immediately prior to the Effective Time as provided in the Pharmacia Separation Benefit Plans, as amended through July 9, 2002. Further, Parent shall continue, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to continue, post-retirement medical, dental and life insurance benefits for eligible Former Employees at the Company as in effect prior to the Effective Time. Following the Benefits Continuation Period, (i) Parent shall provide, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to provide, to the Continuing Employees severance benefits that are no less favorable than those provided to similarly situated employees of Parent, and (ii) to the extent Parent alters or modifies any retiree welfare benefits provided to any Continuing Employee or Former Employee, such alteration or modification shall result in such individual (and such individual's eligible dependents) receiving retiree welfare benefits that are substantially comparable in the aggregate to those provided to similarly situated employees and former employees of Parent. During the Benefits Continuation Period, Parent shall provide, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to provide to Continuing Employees and Former Employees employed outside of the United States compensation and benefits that are substantially comparable in the aggregate to those provided to such persons immediately prior to the Effective Time, subject to: such modifications as are necessary to comply with applicable laws of the foreign countries and their political subdivisions; and applicable labor agreements.

(c) With respect to any Benefit Plans of Parent or the Surviving Corporation in which Continuing Employees or Former Employees first become eligible to participate on or after the Effective Time, Parent shall, and shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, (i) waive any pre-existing condition exclusions and waiting periods with respect to participation and coverage requirements applicable to Continuing Employees and Former Employees under any Benefit Plans of Parent or the Surviving Corporation, except to the extent that such pre-existing condition exclusions or waiting periods apply to changes made by such Continuing Employee or Former Employee under the terms of the Parent or Surviving Corporation Benefit Plan on the same basis as would apply to any employee or former employee of Parent making a similar change; (ii) provide each Continuing Employee or Former Employee with credit for any co-payments and deductible paid prior to the Effective Time (to the same extent such credit was given under the analogous Company Benefit Plan prior to the Effective Time) in satisfying any applicable deductible or out-of-pocket requirements under any Parent Benefit Plan; and (iii) recognize service prior to the Effective Time with the Company, its Subsidiaries and any predecessor entities of the Company, for all purposes (including, without limitation, eligibility to participate, vesting credit, entitlement to benefits and benefit accrual) of Benefit Plans of Parent or the Surviving Corporation in which any Continuing Employee or Former Employee participates to the same extent such service would be recognized by Parent under the applicable Benefit Plan for similarly situated employees and former employees of Parent; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not apply to the extent it would result in any duplication of benefits for the same period of service.

(d) From and after the Effective Time, Parent shall honor, fulfill and discharge and shall cause the Surviving Corporation to honor, fulfill and discharge, in accordance with its terms, each Company Benefit Plan and related funding arrangement, including each employment, change in control, severance and termination agreement between the Company or any of its Subsidiaries and any officer, director or employee of such company, including without limitation (i) all legal and contractual obligations pursuant to outstanding retirement plans, salary and bonus deferral plans, vested and accrued benefits and similar employment and benefit arrangements and agreements in effect as of the Effective Time, including all the "change in control" provisions under the Company Benefit Plans, and (ii) all vacation, personal and sick days accrued by Continuing Employees and Former Employees as of the Effective Time.

SECTION 5.6 FEES AND EXPENSES. Subject to Section 7.2, whether or not the Merger is consummated, all Expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby shall be paid by the party incurring such Expenses, except (a) if the Merger is consummated, the Surviving Corporation or its relevant Subsidiary shall pay, or cause to be paid, any and all property or transfer taxes imposed on the Company or its Subsidiaries and (b) Expenses incurred in connection with the filing, printing and mailing of the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus, which shall be paid 50% by Parent and 50% by the Company. As used in this Agreement, "Expenses" includes all out-of-pocket expenses (including, without limitation, all fees and expenses of counsel, accountants, investment bankers, experts and consultants to a party hereto and its affiliates) incurred by a party or on its behalf in connection with or related to the authorization, preparation, negotiation, execution and performance of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, including the preparation, printing, filing and mailing of the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus and the solicitation of stockholder approvals and all other matters related to the transactions contemplated hereby.

SECTION 5.7 DIRECTORS' AND OFFICERS' INDEMNIFICATION AND INSURANCE.

(a) From and after the Effective Time the Parent agrees that it will (i) indemnify and hold harmless, against any costs or expenses (including attorney's fees), judgments, fines, losses, claims damages or liabilities incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and provide advancement of expenses to, all past and present directors, officers and employees of the Company and its Subsidiaries (in all of their capacities) (a) to the same extent such persons are indemnified or have the right to advancement of expenses as of the date of this Agreement by the Company pursuant to the Company's certificate of incorporation, bylaws and indemnification agreements, if any, in existence on the date hereof with any directors, officers and employees of the Company and its Subsidiaries and (b) without limitation to clause (a), to the fullest extent permitted by law, in each case, for acts or omissions at or prior to the Effective Time (including for acts or omissions occurring in connection with the approval of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby), (ii) include and cause to be maintained in effect in the Surviving Corporation's (or any successor's) certificate of incorporation and bylaws for a period of six years after the Effective Time, the current provisions regarding elimination of liability of directors, indemnification of officers, directors and employees and advancement of expenses contained in the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the Company and (iii) cause to be maintained for a period of six years after the Effective Time the current policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance and fiduciary liability insurance maintained by the Company (provided that Parent (or any successor) may substitute therefor policies of at least the same coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions which are, in the aggregate, no less advantageous to the insured) with respect to claims arising from facts or events that occurred on or before the Effective Time (including for acts or omissions occurring in connection with the approval of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby). The obligations of Parent under this Section 5.7 shall not be terminated or modified in such a manner as to adversely affect any indemnitee to whom this Section 5.7 applies without the consent of such affected indemnitee (it being expressly agreed that the indemnitees to whom this Section 5.7 applies shall be third party beneficiaries of this Section 5.7).

(b) If Parent or any of its successors or assigns (i) shall consolidate with or merge into any other corporation or entity and shall not be the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger or (ii) shall transfer all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any individual, corporation or other entity, then, and in each such case, proper provisions shall be made so that the successors and assigns of Parent shall assume all of the obligations set forth in this Section 5.7.

SECTION 5.8 PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENTS. Parent and the Company shall use reasonable best efforts to develop a joint communications plan and each party shall use reasonable best efforts (i) to ensure that all press releases and other public statements with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby shall be consistent with such joint communications plan, and (ii) unless otherwise required by applicable law or by obligations pursuant to any listing agreement with or rules of any securities exchange, to consult with each other before issuing any press release or, to the extent practical, otherwise making any public statement with respect to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby. In addition to the foregoing, except to the extent disclosed in or consistent with the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus in accordance with the provisions of Section 5.1, neither Parent nor the Company shall issue any press release or otherwise make any public statement or disclosure concerning the other party or the other party's business, financial condition or results of operations without the consent of the other party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed; provided, the foregoing shall be subject to the requirements of law and to each party's obligations pursuant to any listing agreement or the rules of any national securities exchange.

SECTION 5.9 ACCOUNTANT'S LETTERS.

(a) Parent shall use reasonable best efforts to cause to be delivered to the Company two letters from Parent's independent public accountants, one dated approximately the date on which the Form S-4 shall become effective and one dated the Closing Date, each addressed to Parent and the Company, in form reasonably satisfactory to the Company and customary in scope for comfort letters delivered by independent public accountants in connection with registration statements similar to the Form S-4.

(b) The Company shall use reasonable best efforts to cause to be delivered to Parent two letters from the Company's independent public accountants, one dated approximately the date on which the Form S-4 shall become effective and one dated the Closing Date, each addressed to the Company and Parent, in form reasonably satisfactory to Parent and customary in scope for comfort letters delivered by independent public accountants in connection with registration statements similar to the Form S-4.

SECTION 5.10 LISTING OF SHARES OF PARENT COMMON STOCK. Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause the shares of Parent Common Stock to be issued in the Merger and the shares of Parent Common Stock to be reserved for issuance upon exercise of the Company Stock Options to be approved for listing on the NYSE, subject to official notice of issuance, prior to the Closing Date.

SECTION 5.11 DIVIDENDS. After the date of this Agreement, each of Parent and the Company shall coordinate with the other the payment of dividends with respect to the Parent Common Stock and Company Common Stock and the record dates and payment dates relating thereto, it being the intention of the parties that holders of Parent Common Stock and Company Common Stock shall not receive two dividends, or fail to receive one dividend, for any single calendar quarter with respect to their shares of Parent Common Stock and/or Company Common Stock or any shares of Parent Common Stock that any such holder receives in exchange for such shares of Company Common Stock in the Merger. Notwithstanding the foregoing, such coordination shall not in any manner affect the Company's ability to declare a dividend on the shares of Common Stock to effect the Monsanto Spin-Off.

SECTION 5.12 AFFILIATES. Not less than 45 days prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall deliver to Parent a letter identifying all persons who, in the judgment of the Company, may be deemed at the time this Agreement is submitted for adoption by the stockholders of the Company, "affiliates" of the Company for purposes of Rule 145 under the Securities Act and applicable SEC rules and regulations, and such list shall be updated as necessary to reflect changes from the date thereof. The Company shall use reasonable best efforts to cause each person identified on such list to deliver to Parent not less than 30 days prior to the Effective Time, a written agreement substantially in the form attached as Exhibit 5.12 hereto (an "Affiliate Agreement").

SECTION 5.13 SECTION 16 MATTERS. Prior to the Effective Time, each of Parent and the Company shall take all such steps as may be required to cause any dispositions of Company Common Stock (including derivative securities with respect to Company Common Stock) or acquisitions of Parent Common Stock (including derivative securities with respect to Parent Common Stock) resulting from the transactions contemplated by Article I or Article II of this Agreement by each individual who is subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act with respect to the Company, to be exempt under Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act, such steps to be taken in accordance with the No-Action Letter dated January 12, 1999, issued by the SEC to Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP.

SECTION 5.14 TAX TREATMENT. Parent and the Company intend the Merger to qualify as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code. Each of Parent and the Company, and each of their respective affiliates shall, to the extent consistent with their rights and obligations under this Agreement, use their reasonable best efforts to cause the Merger to so qualify and to obtain the opinions of Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft and Sullivan & Cromwell referred to in Section 6.2(c) and 6.3(c) of this Agreement. For purposes of the tax opinions described in Sections 6.2(c) and 6.3(c) of this Agreement, each of Parent and the Company shall use their reasonable best efforts to provide representation letters substantially in the form of Exhibits 6.2(c)(2) and 6.2(c)(3) hereto, each dated on or before the date the Form S-4 shall become effective, and subsequently, on the Closing Date. Except for actions specifically contemplated by this Agreement, each of Parent, Merger Sub and the Company and each of their respective affiliates shall use their reasonable best efforts not to take any action, fail to take any action, cause any action to be taken or not taken, or suffer to exist any condition, which action or failure to take action or condition would prevent, or would be reasonably likely to prevent, (i) the Merger from qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, or (ii) the Monsanto Spin-Off from qualifying as a Tax-free distribution under Section 355 of the Code.

SECTION 5.15 TAX CERTIFICATES. The Company shall deliver to Parent at the time of the Monsanto Spin-Off, unless the Monsanto Sale Transaction (as defined in Section 5.16) shall have occurred, a representation letter in the form of Exhibit 5.15 hereto, dated as of the date of the Monsanto Spin-Off.

A-42

SECTION 5.16 COMPLETION OF SPIN-OFF OR SALE OF MONSANTO. The Company shall cause either (i) the Monsanto Spin-Off, (ii) the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of Monsanto and transfer of all its liabilities to an entity no less creditworthy than Monsanto followed by the liquidation and dissolution of Monsanto, or (iii) the sale of all of the Company's equity interest in Monsanto (any of clauses (ii) or (iii), the "Monsanto Sale Transaction") to occur.

SECTION 5.17 RESTRUCTURE OF TRANSACTION. In the event that either of Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft or Sullivan & Cromwell is unable to render its opinion pursuant to Sections 6.2(c) or 6.3(c), respectively, Parent and the Company shall negotiate in good faith to revise the structure of the business combination between the Company and Parent such that each of Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft and Sullivan & Cromwell will be able to render such opinion, provided that no such revision to the structure of the Merger shall (a) result in any change in the Merger Consideration, (b) be adverse to the interests of Parent, the Company, Merger Sub, the holders of shares of Parent Common Stock or the holders of shares of Company Common Stock or Company Convertible Preferred Stock or other capital stock of the Company, or (c) unreasonably impede or delay consummation of the Merger. If the structure of the Merger is so revised, this Agreement shall be amended by the parties as appropriate to give effect to the revised structure of the Merger with each party executing a written amendment to this Agreement as necessary to reflect the foregoing.

SECTION 5.18 ELECTION TO PARENT'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS. Prior to the Effective Time, Parent shall (i) cause Mr. Frederick Hassan to be appointed to Parent's board of directors at the Effective Time and (ii) take all action necessary so that, at the Effective Time and so long as he is willing and able to serve, Mr. Hassan shall be appointed the Vice-Chairman of Parent.

ARTICLE VII

TERMINATION AND AMENDMENT

SECTION 7.1 GENERAL. This Agreement may be terminated and the transactions contemplated hereby may be abandoned at any time prior to the

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

Effective Time notwithstanding approval thereof by the stockholders of the Company:

(a) by mutual written consent duly authorized by the Boards of the Company and Parent;

(b) by the Company or Parent if the Closing shall not have occurred on or before April 15, 2003 (the "Termination Date" which term shall include the date of any extension under this Section 7.1(b)); provided, however, that if on the Termination Date the conditions to Closing set forth in Sections 6.1(c) and 6.1(f) shall not have been fulfilled but all other conditions to Closing shall or shall be capable of being fulfilled then the Termination Date shall be automatically extended to July 15, 2003 (the "Extended Termination Date"); and provided, further, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 7.1(b) shall not be available to any party whose failure to fulfill any material obligation under this Agreement has been the cause of, or resulted in, the failure of the Closing to occur before such date;

(c) by the Company, if Parent shall have breached in any material respect any of its representations or warranties or failed to perform in any material respect any of its covenants or other agreements contained in this Agreement, which breach or failure to perform (1) is incapable of being cured by Parent prior to the Termination Date and (2) renders the condition set forth in Section 6.3(a) or 6.3(b) incapable of being satisfied prior to the Termination Date;

(d) by Parent, if the Company shall have breached in any material respect any of its representations or warranties or failed to perform in any material respect any of its covenants or other agreements contained in this Agreement, which breach or failure to perform (1) is incapable of being cured by the Company prior to the Termination Date and (2) renders the condition set forth in Section 6.2(a) or 6.2(b) incapable of being satisfied prior to the Termination Date;

(e) by the Company or Parent, upon written notice to the other party, if a Governmental Entity of competent jurisdiction in the United States or of the European Union shall have issued an order, judgment, decision, opinion, decree or ruling or taken any other action (which the party seeking to terminate shall have used its reasonable best efforts to resist, resolve, annul, quash, or lift, as applicable, subject to the provisions of Section 5.3) permanently enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and such order, decree, ruling or action shall have become final and non-appealable; provided, however, that the party seeking to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this clause (e) has fulfilled its obligations under Section 5.3;

(f) by the Company if (i) the Board of Directors of Parent shall have withdrawn or changed or modified the Parent Recommendation in a manner adverse to the Company or (ii) for any reason Parent fails to call or hold the Parent Stockholders Meeting within six months of the date hereof (provided that if the Form S-4 shall not have become effective for purposes of the Federal securities laws by the date that is 20 business days prior to the date that is five months from the date hereof, then such six month period shall be extended by the number of days from that elapse from the end of the five-month period until the effective date of the Form S-4);

(g) by Parent if (i) the Board of Directors of the Company shall have withdrawn or changed or modified the Company Recommendation in a manner adverse to Parent or (ii) for any reason the Company fails to call or hold the Company Stockholders Meeting within six months of the date hereof (provided that if the Form S-4 shall not have become effective for purposes of the Federal securities laws by the date that is 20 business days prior to the date that is five months from the date hereof, then such six month period shall be extended by the number of days from that elapse from the end of the five-month period until the effective date of the Form S-4);

(h) by the Company, if the (i) Board of Directors of the Company authorizes the Company, subject to complying with the terms of this Agreement, to enter into a binding written agreement concerning a transaction that constitutes a Superior Proposal to the Company and the Company notifies Parent in writing that it intends to enter into such an agreement, attaching the most current version of such agreement (or a description of all material terms and conditions thereof) to such notice, (ii) Parent does not make, within five business days of receipt of the Company's written notification of its intention to enter into a binding agreement for such Superior Proposal, an offer that the Board of Directors of the Company determines, in good faith after consultation with a financial advisor of nationally recognized reputation, is at least as favorable to the Company's stockholders as such Superior Proposal, it being understood that the Company shall not enter into any such binding agreement during such five-day period, and (iii) the Company, at or prior to any termination pursuant to this Section 7.1(h), pays Parent the Termination Fee (as defined below) set forth in Section 7.2;

(i) by the Company or Parent, if the Parent Stockholder Approval shall not have been received at a duly held meeting of the stockholders of Parent called for such purpose (including any adjournment or postponement thereof); and

(j) by the Company or Parent, if the Company Stockholder Approval shall not have been received at a duly held meeting of the stockholders of the Company called for such purpose (including any adjournment or postponement thereof).

SECTION 7.2 OBLIGATIONS IN EVENT OF TERMINATION.

(a) In the event of any termination of this Agreement as provided in Section 7.1, this Agreement shall forthwith become wholly void and of no further force and effect (except with respect to Section 3.1(j), Section 3.2(l), Section 5.2, Section 5.6, this Section 7.2 and Article VIII, which shall remain in full force and effect) and there shall be no liability on the part of the Company or Parent; provided, however, that termination shall not preclude any party from suing the other party for, or relieve any party hereto from any liability arising from a, willful breach of this Agreement; and, provided, further, however, that if this Agreement is terminated for any reason, other than a termination (1) by Parent pursuant to Section 7.1(g) (but only if the reason for the termination was based on a Change in the Company Recommendation pursuant to the terms of Section 5.4) or (2) by the Company pursuant to Section 7.1(h), then the provisions of the sixth paragraph of the Confidentiality Agreement shall continue to apply following the termination of the Merger Agreement and the date set forth in the definition of "Standstill Period" set forth in the last sentence of the sixth paragraph of the Confidentiality Agreement shall be modified to be the date that is two (2) years from the date of the termination of the Merger Agreement; provided, however, that the provisions of the sixth paragraph of the Confidentiality Agreement shall terminate on the date that an event described in clause (y) of such paragraph shall occur and provided further that the Company agrees to notify Parent not later than 48 hours prior to entering into any agreement with respect to a Business Combination.

(b) If this Agreement is terminated (i) by Parent pursuant to Section 7.1(g) (but only if, on or before the date this Agreement is terminated, there shall have been made an offer or proposal for, or any announcement of any intention with respect to (including the filing of a statement of beneficial ownership on Schedule 13D discussing the possibility of or reserving the right to engage in), a transaction that would constitute a Business Combination involving the Company (whether or not such offer, proposal, announcement or agreement will have been rejected or withdrawn prior to the date this Agreement is terminated)); (ii) by Parent or the Company pursuant to Section 7.1(j) because of the failure to obtain the Company Stockholder Approval (but only if, after the date hereof and prior to the Company Stockholder Meeting, there shall have been made public to a significant number of the Company's stockholders an offer or proposal for, or any public announcement of any intention with respect to (including the filing of a statement of beneficial ownership on Schedule 13D discussing the possibility of or reserving the right to engage in), a transaction that would constitute a Business Combination involving the Company (whether or not such offer, proposal, announcement or agreement will have been rejected or withdrawn prior to the date of the Company Stockholder Meeting)); (iii) by Parent or the Company pursuant to Section 7.1(b) because the Merger shall not have been consummated at or prior to the Termination Date or the Extended Termination Date, as the case may be, and, at the time of the termination, (x) the Company Stockholder Approval shall not have been obtained and (y) after the date hereof and prior to the Termination Date or the Extended Termination Date, as the case may be, there shall have been made an offer or proposal for, or an announcement of any intention with respect to (including the filing of a statement of beneficial ownership on Schedule 13D discussing the possibility of or reserving the right to engage in), a transaction that would constitute a Business Combination involving the Company (whether or not such offer, proposal, announcement or agreement will have been rejected or withdrawn prior to the Termination Date or the Extended Termination Date, as the case may be); or (iv) by the Company pursuant to Section 7.1(h), then (A) in the case of clauses (b)(i), (b)(ii), and (b)(iii) if within twelve months of termination of this Agreement, the Company enters into a definitive agreement with any Person (other than Parent or any of Parent's affiliates) with respect to a Business Combination or any Business Combination with respect to the Company is consummated, then the Company shall pay to Parent, not later than one business day after the earlier of the date such agreement is entered into or such Business Combination is consummated, a termination fee of $1,600,000,000 (the "Termination Fee") and (B) in the case of clauses (b)(iv), the Company shall pay to Parent, at or prior to such termination pursuant to Section 7.1(h), the Termination Fee. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Termination Fee shall be payable by the Company to Parent if the Parent stockholders do not approve the Share Issuance or Certificate Amendment.

(c) For the purposes of this Section 7.2, "Business Combination" means with respect to the Company, (i) a merger, reorganization, consolidation, share exchange, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving such party as a result of which either (A) the Company's stockholders prior to such transaction (by virtue of their ownership of such party's shares) in the aggregate cease to own at least 50% of the voting securities of the entity surviving or resulting from such transaction (or the ultimate parent entity thereof) or, regardless of the percentage of voting securities held by such stockholders, if any Person shall beneficially own, directly or indirectly, at least 40% of the voting securities of such ultimate parent entity or (B) the individuals comprising the board of directors of the Company prior to such transaction do not constitute a majority of the board of directors of such ultimate parent entity, (ii) a sale, lease, exchange, transfer or other disposition of at least 40% of the assets of the Company and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, in a single transaction or a series of related transactions, or (iii) the acquisition, directly or indirectly, by a Person of beneficial ownership of 40% or more of the common stock of the Company whether by merger, consolidation, share exchange, business combination, tender or exchange offer or otherwise (other than a merger, reorganization, consolidation, share exchange, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction upon the consummation of which the Company's stockholders would in the aggregate beneficially own greater than 50% of the voting securities of such Person).

(d) All payments under this Section 7.2 shall be made by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account designated by Parent.

(e) The parties each agree that the agreements contained in Section 7.2(b) are an integral part of the transaction contemplated by this Agreement and constitute liquidated damages and not a penalty. If the Company fails to promptly pay Parent any fee due under such Section 7.2(b), the Company shall pay the costs and expenses of Parent (including legal fees and expenses) in connection with any action, including the filing of any lawsuit or legal action, taken to collect payment.

SECTION 7.3 AMENDMENT. This Agreement may be amended by the parties, by action taken or authorized by their respective Boards of Directors, at any time before or after approval of the matters presented in connection with the Merger by the stockholders of the Company and Parent, but, after any such approval, no amendment shall be made which by law or in accordance with the rules of any relevant stock exchange requires further approval by such stockholders without such further approval. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties.

SECTION 7.4 EXTENSION; WAIVER. At any time prior to the Effective Time, the parties, by action taken or authorized by their respective Boards of Directors, may, to the extent legally allowed, (i) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other parties, (ii) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto and (iii) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained herein. Any agreement on the part of a party hereto to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in a written instrument signed on behalf of such party. The failure of any party to this Agreement to assert any of its rights under this Agreement or otherwise shall not constitute a waiver of those rights.

SECTION 7.5 NO EFFECT ON EXISTING AGREEMENTS. Except as expressly set forth herein, nothing in this Agreement shall affect the rights and obligations of the parties with respect to any other agreements between the parties, including without limitation, the Co-Promotion Agreements.

Whenever the words "include", "includes" or "including" are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words "without limitation."

SECTION 8.4 COUNTERPARTS. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, all of which shall be considered one and the same agreement and shall become effective when one or more counterparts have been signed by each of the parties and delivered to the other party, it being understood that both parties need not sign the same counterpart.

(b) This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure solely to the benefit of each party hereto, and nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other Person any right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement, other than Section 5.7 (which is intended to be for the benefit of the Persons covered thereby and may be enforced by such Persons).

We have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of the foregoing information. We have not assumed any responsibility for any independent verification of such information for any independent valuation or appraisal of any of the assets and liabilities of Pfizer or the Subject Company, or concerning the solvency of or issues relating to solvency concerning either of the foregoing entities. With respect to financial forecasts, including the synergistic savings and benefits projected by Pfizer to be realized following the Merger, and the timing thereof, we have assumed that they have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the managements of Pfizer and of the Subject Company as to the future financial performance of Pfizer and the Subject Company, respectively, and of Pfizer with respect to the combined entity. We assume no responsibility for and express no view as to such forecasts or the assumptions on which they are based.

We are also not expressing any opinion as to any aspect of the Monsanto Disposition.

Lazard Freres & Co. LLC is acting as an investment banker to Pfizer in connection with the Merger and will receive a fee for our services, a substantial portion of which is payable upon the closing of the Merger. We have in the past provided investment banking services to Pfizer for which we have received customary fees. In addition, in the ordinary course of our business, we may actively trade shares of Pfizer's, the Subject Company's and Monsanto's common stock and other securities of Pfizer, the Subject Company and Monsanto for our own account and for the accounts of our customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

Our engagement and the opinion expressed herein are for the benefit and use of Pfizer's board of directors. Our opinion does not address the merits of the underlying decision by Pfizer to engage in the Merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder of Pfizer as to how such stockholder should vote on, or take any other action with respect to, the Merger. It is understood that this letter may not be disclosed or otherwise referred to without our prior consent, except as may otherwise be required by law or by a court of competent jurisdiction.

ANNEX C

[BEAR, STEARS & CO. LETTERHEAD]

July 13, 2002

The Board of Directors
Pfizer Inc
235 East 42nd Street
New York, NY 10017

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

We understand that Pfizer Inc ("Pfizer") and Pharmacia Corporation ("Pharmacia") intend to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of July 13, 2002 (the "Agreement"), among Pfizer, Pilsner Acquisition Sub Corp., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Pfizer ("Merger Sub"), and Pharmacia pursuant to which Merger Sub will be merged with and into Pharmacia (the "Merger"). We further understand that, at the effective time of the Merger, each issued and outstanding share of common stock, par value $2.00 per share, of Pharmacia ("Pharmacia Common Stock") will be converted into the right to receive 1.4 shares (the "Exchange Ratio") of common stock, par value $0.05 per share, of Pfizer ("Pfizer Common Stock"). In addition, each issued and outstanding share of Series B Convertible Perpetual Preferred Stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Pharmacia will be converted into the right to receive one share of Series A Convertible Perpetual Preferred Stock of Pfizer. We also understand that Pharmacia intends to dispose of its interest in Monsanto Company ("Monsanto") and that the consummation of the Merger is conditioned on the completion of such disposition (the "Monsanto Disposition").

You have asked us to render our opinion as to whether the Exchange Ratio is fair, from a financial point of view, to Pfizer.

In the course of performing our review and analyses for rendering this opinion, we have:

- reviewed the Agreement and the Certificate of Designations for Series A Convertible Perpetual Preferred Stock of Pfizer Inc;
- reviewed each of Pfizer's and Pharmacia's Annual Reports to Shareholders and Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the years ended December 31, 1999 through 2001, their respective Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the period ended March 31, 2002 and their Reports on Form 8-K for the three years ended the date hereof;
- reviewed certain operating and financial information provided to us by the senior managements of Pfizer and of Pharmacia relating to Pfizer's and Pharmacia's respective businesses and prospects, including financial projections for Pfizer for the years ending December 31, 2002 through 2004 prepared by the management of Pfizer (the "Pfizer Projections") and for Pharmacia for the years ending December 31, 2002 through 2004 prepared by the management of Pharmacia, assuming the completion of the Monsanto Disposition (the "Pharmacia Projections") (the Pfizer Projections and the Pharmacia Projections collectively referred to herein as the "Projections") and certain other forward-looking information;
- reviewed certain estimates of cost savings and other combination benefits expected to result from the Merger prepared and provided to us by the management of Pfizer (collectively, the "Projected Benefits");

C-1

Pfizer Inc.
Page 2

- met with certain members of the senior managements of Pfizer and of Pharmacia and Pharmacia's advisors to discuss (i) the current business landscape and competitive dynamics related to the markets in which Pfizer and Pharmacia operate; (ii) each company's business, operations, historical and projected financial results, future prospects and financial condition; (iii) each company's views of the strategic, business, operational and financial rationale for, and expected strategic benefits and other implications of, the Merger; (iv) the Projections and

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

Projected Benefits and (v) certain other assumptions and judgments underlying certain estimates which we deemed relevant to our analysis;

- reviewed the historical prices, valuation parameters and trading volumes of Pfizer Common Stock, Pharmacia Common Stock and the common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Monsanto;
- reviewed publicly available financial data, stock market performance data and valuation parameters of companies which we deemed generally comparable to Pfizer and Pharmacia or otherwise relevant to our analysis;
- reviewed the terms, to the extent publicly available, of recent mergers and acquisitions of companies which we deemed generally comparable to the Merger or otherwise relevant to our analysis;
- performed discounted cash flow analyses based on the Projections and the Projected Benefits furnished to us;
- reviewed the pro forma financial results, financial condition and capitalization of Pfizer giving effect to the Merger provided to us by the management of Pfizer; and
- conducted such other studies, analyses, inquiries and investigations as we deemed appropriate.

We have relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information, including, without limitation, the Projections and the Projected Benefits, provided to us by Pfizer and Pharmacia. With respect to the Projections and the Projected Benefits, we have relied on representations that they have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the senior managements of Pfizer and of Pharmacia as to the expected future performance of Pfizer and Pharmacia, respectively. We have not assumed any responsibility for the independent verification of any such information or of the Projections and the Projected Benefits provided to us, and we have further relied upon the assurances of the senior managements of Pfizer and of Pharmacia that they are unaware of any facts that would make the information, the Projections or the Projected Benefits provided to us incomplete or misleading.

In arriving at our opinion, we have not performed or obtained any independent appraisal of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Pfizer or Pharmacia, nor have we been furnished with any such appraisals. We have assumed that the Merger will qualify as a tax-free "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. We have assumed that the Merger will be consummated in a timely manner and in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Agreement without any limitations, restrictions, conditions, waivers, amendments or modifications, regulatory or otherwise, that collectively would have a material effect on Pfizer or Pharmacia.

We do not express any opinion as to the price or range of prices at which Pfizer Common Stock or Pharmacia Common Stock may trade subsequent to the announcement of the Merger or as to the price or range of prices at which Pfizer Common Stock may trade subsequent to the consummation of the Merger. We are also not expressing any opinion as to any aspect of the Monsanto Disposition.

We have acted as a financial advisor to Pfizer in connection with the Merger and will receive a customary fee for such services, a substantial portion of which is contingent on successful consummation of the Merger. Bear Stearns has been previously engaged by Pharmacia to provide certain investment banking and financial advisory services in connection with actual and prospective merger, acquisition and divestiture transactions as well as certain capital raising transactions, for which we received customary compensation. In the ordinary course of business, Bear Stearns and its affiliates may actively trade the equity and debt securities and/or bank debt of Pfizer, Pharmacia and/or Monsanto for our own account and for the account of our customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities or bank debt.

It is understood that this letter is intended for the benefit and use of the Board of Directors of Pfizer and does not constitute a recommendation to the Board of Directors of Pfizer or any holders of Pfizer Common Stock as to how to vote in connection with the Merger. This opinion does not address Pfizer's underlying business decision to pursue the Merger, the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any alternative business strategies that might exist for Pfizer or the effects of any other transaction in which Pfizer might engage. This letter is not to be used for any other purpose, or be reproduced, disseminated, quoted from or referred to at any time, in whole or in part, without our prior written consent; provided, however, that this letter may be included in its entirety in any joint proxy statement/prospectus to be distributed to the holders of Pfizer Common Stock in connection with the Merger. Our opinion is subject to the assumptions and conditions contained herein and is necessarily based on economic, market and other conditions, and the information made available to us, as of the date hereof. We assume no responsibility for updating or revising our opinion based on circumstances or events occurring after the date hereof.

Based on and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Exchange Ratio is fair, from a financial point of view, to Pfizer.

Very truly yours,

BEAR, STEARNS & CO. INC.

Board of Directors
Pharmacia Corporation

Peapack, NJ 07977

Ladies and Gentlemen:

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness from a financial point of view to the holders of the outstanding shares of common stock, par value $2.00 per share ("Company Common Stock"), of Pharmacia Corporation (the "Company") of the exchange ratio of 1.40 shares of common stock, par value $0.05 per share ("Pfizer Common Stock"), of Pfizer Inc. ("Pfizer") to be received for each share of Company Common Stock (the "Exchange Ratio") pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of July 13, 2002 (the "Agreement"), among Pfizer, Pilsner Acquisition Sub Corp. and the Company.

Goldman, Sachs & Co., as part of its investment banking business, is continually engaged in performing financial analyses with respect to businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive biddings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities and private placements and for estate, corporate and other purposes. We are familiar with the Company, having provided certain investment banking services to the Company from time to time, including having acted as its financial advisor in connection with the sale of its 45% stake in Amersham Biosciences to Amersham plc in March 2002 for one billion dollars, having acted as lead manager of the initial public offering of 35,000,000 shares of the common stock of its then wholly-owned subsidiary, Monsanto Company, in October 2000, and having acted as its financial advisor in connection with, and having participated in certain of the negotiations leading to, the Agreement. We also are currently advising the Company on the proposed spin-off of its approximate 85% interest in Monsanto Company to its shareholders (the "Spin-off"). We may also provide investment banking services to Pfizer and its subsidiaries in the future. Goldman, Sachs & Co. provides a full range of financial advisory and securities services and, in the course of normal trading activities, may from time to time effect transactions and hold securities, including derivative securities, of the Company or Pfizer for its own account and for the account of its customers.

In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed, among other things, the Agreement; Annual Reports to Stockholders and Annual Reports on Form 10-K of the Company and Pfizer for each of the five years ended December 31, 2001; certain interim reports to stockholders and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q of the Company and Pfizer; certain other communications from the Company and Pfizer to their respective stockholders; and certain internal financial analyses and forecasts for the Company and Pfizer prepared by their respective managements, including certain cost savings and operating synergies expected to result from the transaction contemplated by the Agreement (the "Synergies"). We also have held discussions with members of the senior management of the Company and Pfizer regarding their assessments of the strategic rationale for, and the potential benefits of, the transaction contemplated by the Agreement and the past and current business operations, financial condition and future prospects of their respective companies. In addition, we have reviewed the reported price and trading activity for the Company Common Stock and the Pfizer Common Stock, compared certain financial and stock market information for the Company and Pfizer with similar information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded, reviewed the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the pharmaceutical industry specifically and in other industries generally and performed such other studies and analyses as we considered appropriate.

We have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial, accounting and other information discussed with or reviewed by us and have assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering this opinion. In that regard, we have assumed with your consent that the internal financial forecasts prepared by the respective managements of the Company and Pfizer, including the Synergies, have been reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the Company and Pfizer. In addition, we have not made an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets and liabilities of the Company or Pfizer or any of their respective subsidiaries and we have not been furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal. We also have assumed that all material governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the transaction contemplated by the Agreement will be obtained without any meaningful adverse effect on the Company or Pfizer or on the expected benefits of the transaction contemplated by the Agreement. In addition, we have assumed that the Spin-off will be completed prior to the closing of the merger contemplated by the Agreement. Our advisory services and the opinion expressed herein are provided for the information and assistance of the Board of Directors of the Company in connection with its consideration of the transaction contemplated by the Agreement and such opinion does not constitute a recommendation as to how any holder of Company Common Stock should vote with respect to such transaction.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing and based upon such other matters as we consider relevant, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Exchange Ratio pursuant to the Agreement is fair from a financial point of view to the holders of Company Common Stock.

CERTIFICATE OF DESIGNATIONS FOR
OF
(PURSUANT TO SECTION 151 OF THE DELAWARE CORPORATION LAW)

Pfizer Inc., a corporation organized and existing under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (hereinafter called the "Corporation"), hereby certifies that the following resolution was adopted by the Board of Directors of the Corporation as required by Section 151 of the General Corporation Law at a meeting duly called and held on July 13, 2002:

This Board hereby RESOLVES that pursuant to the authority granted to and vested in the Board of Directors of this Corporation in accordance with the provisions of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation ("Certification of Incorporation"), the Board of Directors hereby creates a series of preferred stock of the Corporation, and hereby states the designation and number of shares of such series, and fixes the relative, participating, optional or other special rights, preferences, and limitations thereof as follows:

Series A Convertible Perpetual Preferred Stock:

SECTION 1. DESIGNATION AND AMOUNT; SPECIAL PURPOSE RESTRICTED TRANSFER ISSUE. (a) The shares of such series shall be designated as shares of "Series A Convertible Perpetual Preferred Stock, no par value per share" (the "Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares"), and the number of shares constituting such series shall be 7,500. Each Convertible Perpetual Preferred Share shall have a stated value of $40,300.00 per share.

(b) Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares shall be issued only to State Street Bank and Trust Company, its successors and assigns, as trustee (the "Trustee") of the Pharmacia & Upjohn, Inc. Employee Stock Ownership Trust forming a part of the Pharmacia Corp. Employee Stock Ownership Plan, or any successor to such plan (the "Plan" or "ESOP"). All references to the holder of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares shall mean the Trustee or any corporation with which or into which the Trustee may merge or any successor trustee under the trust agreement with respect to the Plan. In the event of any transfer of record ownership of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares to any person other than any successor trustee under the Plan, the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares so transferred, upon such transfer and without any further action by the Corporation or the holder thereof, shall be automatically converted into shares of Common Stock on the terms otherwise provided for the conversion of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares into shares of Common Stock pursuant to Section 5 and no such transferee shall have any of the voting powers, preferences and relative, participating, optional or special rights ascribed to Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares hereunder but, rather, only the powers and rights pertaining to the Common Stock into which such Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares shall be so converted. In the event of such a conversion, the transferee of the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares shall be treated for all purposes as the record holder of the shares of Common Stock into which such Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares have been automatically converted as of the date of such transfer. Certificates representing Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares shall bear a legend to reflect the foregoing provisions. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 1(b), Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares (i) may be converted into shares of Common Stock as provided by Section 5 and the shares of Common Stock issued upon such conversion may be transferred by the holder thereof as permitted by law and (ii) shall be redeemable by the Corporation upon the terms and conditions provided by Sections 6, 7 and 8.

SECTION 2. DIVIDENDS AND DISTRIBUTIONS. Subject to the provisions for adjustment hereinafter set forth, the holders of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares shall be entitled to receive, when, as and if declared by the Board of Directors out of funds legally available therefor, cash dividends ("Convertible Perpetual Preferred Dividends") in an amount per share not to exceed $2,518.75 per share per annum, payable quarterly in arrears, one-quarter on the 1st day of January, one-quarter on the 1st day of April, one-quarter on the 1st day of July and one-quarter on the 1st day of October of each year (each, a "Dividend Payment Date"), to holders of record at the start of business on such Dividend Payment Date. In the event that any Dividend Payment Date shall fall on any day other than a "Business Day" (as hereinafter defined), the dividend payment due on such Dividend Payment Date shall be paid on the Business Day immediately following such Dividend Payment Date. Convertible Perpetual Preferred Dividends shall begin to accrue on outstanding Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares from the date on which dividends were last paid by Pharmacia Corp. on shares of its Series B Convertible Perpetual Preferred Stock, par value $.01 per share of issuance of such Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares. Convertible Perpetual Preferred Dividends shall accrue on a daily basis whether or not the Corporation shall have earnings or surplus at the time, but Convertible Perpetual Preferred Dividends accrued after issuance on the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares for any period less than a full quarterly period between Dividend Payment Dates (or, in the case of the first dividend payment, from the date of issuance through the first Dividend Payment Date) shall be computed on the basis of a 360-day year of twelve 30-day months. Accrued but unpaid Convertible Perpetual Preferred Dividends shall cumulate as of the Dividend Payment Date on which they first become payable, but no interest shall accrue on accumulated but unpaid Convertible Perpetual Preferred Dividends.

(b) So long as any Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares shall be outstanding, no dividend shall be declared or paid or set apart for payment on any other series of stock ranking on a parity with the Convertible Perpetual

Preferred Shares as to dividends, unless there shall also be or have been declared and paid or set apart for payment on the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares dividends for all dividend payment periods of the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares ending on or before the dividend payment date of such parity stock, ratably in proportion to the respective amounts of dividends accumulated and unpaid through such dividend period on the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares and accumulated and unpaid on such parity stock through the dividend payment period on such parity stock next preceding such dividend payment date. In the event that full cumulative dividends on the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares have not been declared and paid or set apart for payment when due, the Corporation shall not declare or pay or set apart for payment any dividends or make any other distributions on, or make any payment on account of the purchase, redemption or other retirement of any other class of stock or series thereof of the Corporation ranking, as to dividends or as to distributions in the event of a liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation, junior to the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares until full cumulative dividends on the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares shall have been paid or declared and set apart for payment; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not apply to (i) any dividend payable solely in any shares of any stock ranking, as to dividends and as to distributions in the event of a liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation, junior to the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares or (ii) the acquisition of shares of any stock ranking, as to dividends or as to distributions in the event of a liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation, junior to the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares in exchange solely for shares of any other stock ranking, as to dividends and as to distributions in the event of a liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation, junior to the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares.

SECTION 3. VOTING RIGHTS. The holders of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares shall have the following voting rights:

(a) The holders of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares shall be entitled to vote on all matters submitted to a vote of the stockholders of the Corporation, voting together with the holders of Common Stock as one class. The holder of each Convertible Perpetual Preferred Share shall be entitled to a number of votes equal to the number of shares of Common Stock into which such Convertible Perpetual Preferred Share could be converted on the record date for determining the stockholders entitled to vote, rounded to the nearest one one-hundredth of a vote; it being understood that whenever the "Conversion Price" (as defined in Section 5(a)) is adjusted as provided in Section 9, the number of votes of the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares shall also be similarly adjusted.

(b) Except as otherwise required by law or set forth herein, holders of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares shall have no special voting rights and their consent shall not be required (except to the extent they are entitled to vote with holders of Common Stock as set forth herein) for the taking of any corporate action; provided, however, that the vote of at least 66 2/3% of the outstanding Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares, voting separately as a series, shall be necessary to adopt any alteration, amendment or repeal of any provision of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation (including any such alteration, amendment or repeal effected by any merger or consolidation in which the Corporation is the surviving or resulting corporation), if such amendment, alteration or repeal would alter or change the powers, preferences, or special rights of the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares so as to affect them adversely.

SECTION 4. LIQUIDATION, DISSOLUTION OR WINDING-UP. Upon any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation, the holders of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares shall be entitled to receive out of assets of the Corporation that remain after satisfaction in full of all valid claims of creditors of the Corporation and that are available for payment to stockholders, and subject to the rights of the holders of any stock of the Corporation ranking senior to or on a parity with the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares in respect of distributions upon liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation, before any amount shall be paid or distributed among the holders of Common Stock or any other shares ranking junior to the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares in respect of distributions upon liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation, liquidating distributions in the amount of $40,300.00 per share, plus an amount equal to all accrued and unpaid dividends thereon to the date fixed for distribution, and no more. If upon any liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation, the amounts payable with respect to the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares and any other stock ranking as to any such distribution on a parity with the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares are not paid in full, the holders of the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares and such other stock shall share ratably in any distribution of assets in proportion to the full respective preferential amounts to which they are entitled. After payment of the full amounts to which they are entitled as provided by the foregoing provisions of this Section 4(a), the holders of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares shall not be entitled to any further right or claim to any of the remaining assets of the Corporation.

(b) Written notice of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation, stating the payment date or dates when, and the place or places where, the amounts distributable to holders of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares in such circumstances shall be payable, shall be given by hand delivery, by courier, by standard form of telecommunication or by first-class mail (postage prepaid), delivered, sent or mailed, as the case may be, not less than 20 days prior to any payment date stated therein, to the holders of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares, at the address shown on the books of the Corporation or any transfer agent for the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares.

SECTION 5. CONVERSION INTO COMMON STOCK. A holder of shares of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares shall be entitled, at any time prior to the close of business on the date fixed for redemption of such shares pursuant to Sections 6, 7 and 8, to cause any or all of such shares to be converted into shares of Common Stock, initially at a conversion price equal to $[] per share of Common Stock, with each Convertible Perpetual Preferred Share being valued at $40,300.00 for such purpose, and which price shall be adjusted as hereinafter provided (and, as so adjusted, is hereinafter sometimes referred to as the "Conversion Price") (that is, a conversion rate initially equivalent to [] shares of Common Stock for each Convertible Perpetual Preferred Share so converted, which is subject to adjustment as the Conversion Price is adjusted as hereinafter provided in Section 9); provided, however, that in no event shall the Conversion Price be less than $1.00.

(b) Any holder of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares desiring to convert such shares into shares of Common Stock shall surrender the certificate or certificates representing the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares being converted, duly assigned or endorsed for transfer to the Corporation (or accompanied by duly executed stock powers relating thereto), at the principal executive office of the Corporation or the offices of the transfer agent for the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares or such office or offices in the continental United States of an agent for conversion as may from time to time be designated by notice to the holders of the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares by the Corporation or the transfer agent for the Convertible Perpetual

Preferred Shares, accompanied by written notice of conversion. Such notice of conversion shall specify (i) the number of shares of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares to be converted and the name or names in which such holder wishes the certificate or certificates for Common Stock and for any Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares not to be so converted to be issued and (ii) the address to which such holder wishes delivery to be made of such new certificates to be issued upon such conversion.

(c) Upon surrender of a certificate representing a Convertible Perpetual Preferred Share or Shares for conversion, the Corporation shall issue and send by hand delivery, by courier or by first-class mail (postage prepaid) to the holder thereof or to such holder's designee, at the address designated by such holder, a certificate or certificates for the number of shares of Common Stock to which such holder shall be entitled upon conversion. In the event that there shall have been surrendered a certificate or certificates representing Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares, only part of which are to be converted, the Corporation shall issue and send to such holder or such holder's designee, in the manner set forth in the preceding sentence, a new certificate or certificates representing the number of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares which shall not have been converted.

(d) The issuance by the Corporation of shares of Common Stock upon a conversion of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares into shares of Common Stock made at the option of the holder thereof shall be effective as of the earlier of (i) the delivery to such holder or such holder's designee of the certificates representing the shares of Common Stock issued upon conversion thereof or (ii) the commencement of business on the second Business Day after the surrender of the certificate or certificates for the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares to be converted, duly assigned or endorsed for transfer to the Corporation (or accompanied by duly executed stock powers relating thereto) and accompanied by all documentation required to effect the conversion, as provided herein. On and after the effective date of conversion, the person or persons entitled to receive the Common Stock issuable upon such conversion shall be treated for all purposes as the record holder or holders of such shares of Common Stock, but no allowance or adjustments shall be made in respect of dividends payable to holders of Common Stock in respect of any period prior to such effective date. The Corporation shall not be obligated to pay any dividends that shall have been declared and shall be payable to holders of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares on a Dividend Payment Date if the record date for such dividend is subsequent to the effective date of conversion of such shares.

(e) The Corporation shall not be obligated to deliver to holders of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares any fractional share of Common Stock issuable upon any conversion of such Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares, but in lieu thereof may make a cash payment in respect thereof in any manner permitted by law.

(f) The Corporation shall at all times reserve and keep available out of its authorized and unissued Common Stock, solely for issuance upon the conversion of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares as herein provided, free from any preemptive rights, such number of shares of Common Stock as shall from time to time be issuable upon the conversion of all the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares then outstanding. Nothing contained herein shall preclude the Corporation from issuing shares of Common Stock held in its treasury upon the conversion of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares into Common Stock pursuant to the terms hereof. The Corporation shall prepare and shall use its best effort to obtain and keep in force such governmental or regulatory permits or other authorizations as may be required by law, and shall comply with all requirements as to registration or qualification of the Common Stock, in order to enable the Corporation lawfully to issue and deliver to each holder of record of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares such number of shares of its Common Stock as from time to time is sufficient to effect the conversion of all Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares then outstanding and convertible into shares of Common Stock.

SECTION 6. REDEMPTION AT THE OPTION OF THE CORPORATION. The Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares shall be redeemable, in whole or in part, at the option of the Corporation at any time at the redemption price of $40,300.00 per share, plus an amount equal to all accrued and unpaid dividends thereon to the date fixed for redemption. Payment of the redemption price shall be made by the Corporation in cash or shares of Common Stock, or a combination thereof, as permitted by Section 6(e). From and after the date fixed for redemption, dividends on Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares called for redemption will cease to accrue, such Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares will no longer be deemed to be outstanding and all rights in respect of such Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares shall cease, except the right to receive the redemption price. If fewer than all of the outstanding Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares are to be redeemed, the Corporation shall redeem a portion of the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares of each holder determined pro rata based on the number of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares held by each holder.

(b) Unless otherwise required by law, notice of redemption will be sent to the holders of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares at the address shown on the books of the Corporation or any transfer agent for the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares by hand delivery, by courier, by standard form of telecommunication or by first-class mail (postage prepaid) delivered, sent or mailed, as the case may be, not less than twenty (20) days nor more than sixty (60) days prior to the redemption date. Each such notice shall state: (i) the redemption date; (ii) the total number of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares to be redeemed and, if fewer than all the shares held by such holder are to be redeemed, the number of such Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares to be redeemed from such holder; (iii) the redemption price; (iv) whether the redemption price shall be paid in cash or in shares of Common Stock, or in a combination of such Common Stock and cash, as permitted by Section 6(e); (v) the place or places where certificates for such Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares are to be surrendered for payment of the redemption price; (vi) that dividends on the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares to be redeemed will cease to accrue on such redemption date; and (vii) the conversion rights of the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares to be redeemed, the period within which conversion rights may be exercised, and the Conversion Price and number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of a Convertible Perpetual Preferred Share at the time. Upon surrender of the certificate for any Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares so called for redemption and not previously converted (properly endorsed or assigned for transfer, if the Board shall so require and the notice shall so state), such shares shall be redeemed by the Corporation at the date fixed for redemption and at the redemption price set forth in this paragraph (6).

(c) Within thirty (30) days after the later of (i) the effective date, (ii) the enactment date or (iii) if the Corporation contests in good faith in a judicial or administrative proceeding the legality of the change referred to in this Section 6(c), the date such matter is finally determined (the time for appeal having expired and no appeal having been filed) against the Corporation, of a change in any statute, rule or regulation of the United States of America which has the effect of limiting or making unavailable to the Corporation all or any of the tax deductions for amounts paid (including dividends) on the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares when such amounts are used as provided under Section 404(k)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") and in effect on July 21, 1989, the Corporation may, in its sole discretion and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 6(a), elect to either (a) redeem any or all of such Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares for cash or, if the Corporation so elects, in shares of Common Stock, or a combination of such shares of Common Stock and cash, any such shares of Common Stock to be valued for such purpose at their Fair Market Value (as defined in Section 9(g)), at a redemption price equal to the higher of (x) $40,300.00 per share or (y) the Fair Market Value of the number of shares of Common Stock into which each Convertible Perpetual Preferred Share is convertible at the time the notice of such redemption is given, plus in either case accrued and unpaid dividends thereon to the date fixed for redemption, or (b) exchange any or all of such Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares for securities of comparable value (as determined by an independent appraiser) that constitute "qualifying employer securities" with respect to a holder of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares within the meaning of Section 409(1) of the Code and Section 407(d)(5) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), or any successor provisions of law.

(d) In the event that the Plan is terminated or the ESOP is terminated or eliminated from the Plan in accordance with its terms, the Corporation shall, as soon thereafter as practicable, call for redemption all the then outstanding Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares in accordance with Section 6(a).

(e) The Corporation, at its option, may make payment of the redemption price required upon redemption of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares in cash or in shares of Common Stock, or in a combination of such Common Stock and cash, any such shares of Common Stock to be valued for such purposes at their Fair Market Value (as defined in Section 9(g)).

SECTION 7. OTHER REDEMPTION RIGHTS. Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares shall be redeemed by the Corporation for cash or, if the Corporation so elects, in shares of Common Stock, or a combination of such shares of Common Stock and cash, any such shares of Common Stock to be valued for such purpose at their Fair Market Value, at a redemption price of $40,300.00 per share plus accrued and unpaid dividends thereon to the date fixed for redemption, at the option of the holder, at any time and from time to time upon notice to the Corporation given not less than five (5) business days prior to the date fixed by the holder in such notice for such redemption, upon certification by such holder to the Corporation of the following events: (i) when and to the extent necessary for such holder to make any payments of principal, interest or premium due and payable (whether as scheduled, upon acceleration or otherwise) under the note from the Trustee to the Corporation or any indebtedness, expenses or costs incurred by the holder for the benefit of the Plan; or (ii) in the event that the Plan is not initially determined by the Internal Revenue Service to be qualified within the meaning of Sections 401(a) and 4975(e)(7) of the Code. Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares shall be redeemed by the Corporation for cash or, if the Corporation so elects, in shares of Common Stock, or a combination of such shares of Common Stock and cash, any such shares of Common Stock to be valued for such purpose at their Fair Market Value (as defined in Section 9(g)), at a redemption price equal to the higher of (x) $40,300.00 per share or (y) the Fair Market Value of the number of shares of Common Stock into which each Convertible Perpetual Preferred Share is convertible at the time the notice of such redemption is given, plus in either case accrued and unpaid dividends thereon to the date fixed for redemption, at the option of the holder, at any time and from time to time upon notice to the Corporation given not less than five (5) business days prior to the date fixed by the holder in such notice for such redemption, upon certification by such holder to the Corporation that it is necessary for such holder to provide for distributions required to be made to the Participants under, or to satisfy an investment election of the Participants in accordance with, the Plan.

SECTION 8. CONSOLIDATION, MERGER, ETC. In the event that the Corporation shall consummate any consolidation or merger or similar business combination, pursuant to which the outstanding shares of Common Stock are exchanged solely for or changed, reclassified or converted solely into stock that constitutes "qualifying employer securities" with respect to a holder of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares within the meaning of Section 409(1) of the Code and Section 407(d)(5) of ERISA or any successor provisions of law, and, if applicable, for a cash payment in lieu of fractional shares, if any, the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares of such holder shall, in connection with such consolidation, merger or similar business combination, be assumed by and shall become preferred stock of the issuer of such "qualifying employer securities", having in respect of such issuer, insofar as possible, the same powers, preferences and relative, participating, optional or other special rights (including the redemption rights provided by Sections 6, 7 and 8), and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereon, that the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Share had immediately prior to such transaction, except that after such transaction each Convertible Perpetual Preferred Share shall be convertible, otherwise on the terms and conditions provided by Section 5, into the number and kind of qualifying employer securities so receivable by a holder of the number of shares of Common Stock into which such Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares could have been converted immediately prior to such transaction; provided, however, that if by virtue of the structure of such transaction, a holder of Common Stock is required to make an election with respect to the nature and kind of consideration to be received in such transaction, which election cannot practicably be made by the holders of the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares, then the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares shall, by virtue of such transaction and on the same terms as apply to the holders of Common Stock, be converted into or exchanged for the aggregate amount of stock, securities, cash or other property (payable in kind) receivable by a holder of the number of shares of Common Stock into which such Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares could have been converted immediately prior to such transaction if such holder of Common Stock failed to exercise any rights of election to receive any kind or amount of stock, securities, cash or other property (other than such qualifying employer securities and a cash payment, if applicable, in lieu of fractional shares) receivable upon such transaction (provided that, if the kind or amount of qualifying employer securities receivable upon such transaction is not the same for each non-electing share, then the kind and amount so receivable upon such transaction for each non-electing share shall be the kind and amount so receivable per share by the plurality of the non-electing shares). The rights of the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares as preferred stock of the issuer of such "qualifying employer securities" shall successively be subject to adjustments pursuant to Section 9 after any such transaction as nearly equivalent as practicable to the adjustment provided for by such section prior to such transaction. The Corporation shall not consummate any such merger, consolidation or similar transaction unless all then outstanding Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares shall be assumed and authorized by the issuer of such "qualifying employer securities" as aforesaid.

(b) In the event that the Corporation shall consummate any consolidation or merger or similar business combination, pursuant to which the outstanding shares of Common Stock are by operation of law exchanged for or changed, reclassified or converted into other stock or securities or cash or any other property, or any combination thereof, other than any such consideration which is constituted solely of qualifying employer securities (as referred to in

Edgar Filing: PFIZER INC - Form S-4

Section 8(a)) and cash payments, if applicable, in lieu of fractional shares, outstanding Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares shall, without any action on the part of the Corporation or any holder thereof (but subject to Section 8(c)), be automatically converted by virtue of such merger, consolidation or similar transaction immediately prior to such consummation into the number of shares of Common Stock into which such Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares could have been converted at such time so that each Convertible Perpetual Preferred Share shall, by virtue of such transaction and on the same terms as apply to the holders of Common Stock, be converted into or exchanged for the aggregate amount of stock, securities, cash or other property (payable in like kind) receivable by a holder of the number of shares of Common Stock into which such Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares could have been converted immediately prior to such transaction; provided, however, that if by virtue of the structure of such transaction, a holder of Common Stock is required to make an election with respect to the nature and kind of consideration to be received in such transaction, which election cannot practicably be made by the holder of the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares, then the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares shall, by virtue of such transaction and on the same terms as apply to the holders of Common Stock, be converted into or exchanged for the aggregate amount of stock, securities, cash or other property (payable in kind) receivable by a holder of the number of shares of Common Stock into which such Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares could have been converted immediately prior to such transaction if such holder of Common Stock failed to exercise any rights of election as to the kind or amount of stock, securities, cash or other property receivable upon such transaction (provided that, if the kind or amount of stock, securities, cash or other property receivable upon such transaction is not the same for each non-electing share, then the kind and amount of stock, securities, cash or other property receivable upon such transaction for each non-electing share shall be the kind and amount so receivable per share by a plurality of the non-electing shares)

(c) In the event the Corporation shall enter into any agreement providing for any consolidation or merger or similar business combination described in Section 8(b), then the Corporation shall as soon as practicable thereafter (and in any event at least ten (10) business days before consummation of such transaction) give notice of such agreement and the material terms thereof to each holder of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares and each such holder shall have the right to elect, by written notice to the Corporation, to receive, upon consummation of such transaction (if and when such transaction is consummated), from the Corporation or the successor of the Corporation in redemption and retirement of such Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares, a cash payment equal to the amount payable in respect of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares upon liquidation of the Corporation pursuant to Section 4. No such notice of redemption shall be effective unless given to the Corporation prior to the close of business on the second business day prior to consummation of such transaction, unless the Corporation or the successor of the Corporation shall waive such prior notice, but any notice of redemption so given prior to such time may be withdrawn by notice of withdrawal given to the Corporation prior to the close of business on the fifth business day prior to consummation of such transaction.

SECTION 9. ANTI-DILUTION ADJUSTMENTS. (a) In the event the Corporation shall, at any time or from time to time while any of the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares are outstanding, (i) pay a dividend or make a distribution in respect of the Common Stock in shares of Common Stock, (ii) subdivide the outstanding shares of Common Stock, or (iii) combine the outstanding shares of Common Stock into a smaller number of shares, in each case whether by reclassification of shares, recapitalization of the Corporation (including a recapitalization effected by a merger or consolidation to which Section 8 does not apply) or otherwise, the Conversion Price in effect immediately prior to such action shall be adjusted by multiplying such Conversion Price by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of shares of Common Stock

denominator of which is the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding immediately after such event. An adjustment made pursuant to this Section 9(a) shall be given effect, upon payment of such a dividend or distribution, as of the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to receive such dividend or distribution (on a retroactive basis) and in the case of a subdivision or combination shall become effective immediately as of the effective date thereof.

(b) In the event that the Corporation shall, at any time or from time to time while any of the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares are outstanding, issue to holders of shares of Common Stock as a dividend or distribution, including by way of a reclassification of shares or a recapitalization of the Corporation, any right or warrant to purchase shares of Common Stock (but not including as such a right or warrant any security convertible into or exchangeable for shares of Common Stock) at a purchase price per share less than the Fair Market Value (as hereinafter defined) of a share of Common Stock on the date of issuance of such right or warrant, then, subject to the provisions of Sections 9(e) and (f), the Conversion Price shall be adjusted by multiplying such Conversion Price by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding immediately before such issuance of rights or warrants plus the number of shares of Common Stock which could be purchased at the Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock at the time of such issuance for the maximum aggregate consideration payable upon exercise in full of all such rights or warrants, and the denominator of which shall be the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding immediately before such issuance of rights or warrants plus the number of shares of Common Stock that could be acquired upon exercise in full of all such rights and warrants.

(c) In the event the Corporation shall, at any time or from time to time while any of the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares are outstanding, issue, sell or exchange shares of Common Stock (other than pursuant to any right or warrant to purchase or acquire shares of Common Stock (including as such a right or warrant any security convertible into or exchangeable for shares of Common Stock) and other than pursuant to any employee or director incentive or benefit plan or arrangement, including any employment, severance or consulting agreement, of the Corporation or any subsidiary of the Corporation heretofore or hereafter adopted) for a consideration having a Fair Market Value, on the date of such issuance, sale or exchange, less than the Fair Market Value of such shares on the date of issuance, sale or exchange, then, subject to the provisions of Sections 9(e) and (f), the Conversion Price shall be adjusted by multiplying such Conversion Price by a fraction the numerator of which shall be the sum of (i) the Fair Market Value of all the shares of Common Stock outstanding on the day immediately preceding the first public announcement of such issuance, sale or exchange plus (ii) the Fair Market Value of the consideration received by the Corporation in respect of such issuance, sale or exchange of shares of Common Stock, and the denominator of which shall be the product of (a) the Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock on the day immediately preceding the first public announcement of such issuance, sale or exchange multiplied by (b) the sum of the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding on such day plus the number of shares of Common Stock so issued, sold or exchanged by the Corporation. In the event the Corporation shall, at any time or from time to time while any Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares are outstanding, issue, sell or exchange any right or warrant to purchase or acquire shares of Common Stock (including as such a right or warrant any security convertible into or exchangeable for shares of Common Stock), other than any such issuance to holders of shares of Common Stock as a dividend or distribution (including by way of a reclassification of shares or a recapitalization of the Corporation) and other than pursuant to any employee or director incentive or benefit plan or arrangement (including any employment, severance or consulting agreement) of the Corporation or any subsidiary of the Corporation heretofore or hereafter adopted, for a consideration having a Fair Market Value, on the date of such issuance, sale or exchange, less than the Non-Dilutive Amount (as hereinafter defined), then, subject to the provisions of Sections 9(e) and (f), the Conversion Price shall be adjusted by multiplying such Conversion Price by a fraction the numerator of which shall be the sum of (I) the Fair Market Value of all the shares of Common Stock outstanding on the day immediately preceding the first public announcement of such issuance, sale or exchange plus (II) the Fair Market Value of the consideration received by the Corporation in respect of such issuance, sale or exchange of such right or warrant plus (III) the Fair Market Value at the time of such issuance of the consideration which the Corporation would receive upon exercise in full of all such rights or warrants, and the denominator of which shall be the product of (i) the Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock on the day immediately preceding the first public announcement of such issuance, sale or exchange multiplied by (ii) the sum of the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding on such day plus the maximum number of shares of Common Stock which could be acquired pursuant to such right or warrant at the time of the issuance, sale or exchange of such right or warrant (assuming shares of Common Stock could be acquired pursuant to such right or warrant at such time).

(d) In the event the Corporation shall, at any time or from time to time while any of the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares are outstanding, make an Extraordinary Distribution (as hereinafter defined) in respect of the Common Stock, whether by dividend, distribution, reclassification of shares or recapitalization of the Corporation (including a recapitalization or reclassification effected by a merger or consolidation to which Section 8 does not apply) or effect a Pro Rata Repurchase (as hereinafter defined) of Common Stock, the Conversion Price in effect immediately prior to such Extraordinary Distribution or Pro Rata Repurchase shall, subject to Sections 9(e) and (f), be adjusted by multiplying such Conversion Price by the fraction, the numerator of which is the difference between (i) the product of (x) the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding immediately before such Extraordinary Distribution or Pro Rata Repurchase multiplied by (y) the Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock on the day before the ex-dividend date with respect to an Extraordinary Distribution which is paid in cash and on the distribution date with respect to an Extraordinary Distribution which is paid other than in cash, or on the applicable expiration date (including all extensions thereof) of any tender offer which is a Pro Rata Repurchase, or on the date of purchase with respect to any Pro Rata Repurchase which is not a tender offer, as the case may be, and (ii) the Fair Market Value of the Extraordinary Distribution minus the aggregate amount of regularly scheduled quarterly dividends declared by the Board and paid by the Corporation in the twelve months immediately preceding such Extraordinary Distribution or the aggregate purchase price of the Pro Rata Repurchase, as the case may be, and the denominator of which shall be the product of (a) the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding immediately before such Extraordinary Dividend or Pro Rata Repurchase minus, in the case of a Pro Rata Repurchase, the number of shares of Common Stock repurchased by the Corporation multiplied by (b) the Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock on the day before the ex-dividend date with respect to an Extraordinary Distribution which is paid in cash and on the distribution date with respect to an Extraordinary Distribution which is paid other than in cash, or on the applicable expiration date (including all extensions thereof) of any tender offer which is a Pro Rate Repurchase or on the date of purchase with respect to any Pro Rata Repurchase which is not a tender offer, as the case may be. The Corporation shall send each holder of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares (i) notice of its intent to make any dividend or distribution and (ii) notice of any offer by the Corporation to make a Pro Rata Repurchase, in each case at the same time as, or as soon as practicable after, such offer is first communicated (including by announcement of a record date in accordance with the rules of any stock exchange on which the Common Stock is listed or admitted to trading) to holders of Common Stock. Such notice shall indicate the intended record date and the amount and nature of such dividend or distribution, or the number of shares subject to such offer for a Pro Rata Repurchase and the purchase price payable by the Corporation pursuant to such offer, as well as the Conversion Price and the number of shares of Common Stock into which a Convertible Perpetual Preferred Share may be converted at such time.

E-10

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 9, the Corporation shall not be required to make any adjustment to the Conversion Price unless such adjustment would require an increase or decrease of at least one percent (1%) in the Conversion Price. Any lesser adjustment shall be carried forward and shall be made no later than the time of, and together with, the next subsequent adjustment which, together with any adjustment or adjustments so carried forward, shall amount to an increase or decrease of at least one percent (1%) in the Conversion Price.

(f) If the Corporation shall make any dividend or distribution on the Common Stock or issue any Common Stock, other capital stock or other security of the Corporation or any rights or warrants to purchase or acquire any such security, which transaction does not result in an adjustment to the Conversion Price pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this Section 9, the Board shall consider whether such action is of such a nature that an adjustment to the Conversion Price should equitably be made in respect of such transaction. If in such case the Board determines that an adjustment to the Conversion Price should be made, an adjustment shall be made effective as of such date, as determined by the Board. The determination of the Board as to whether an adjustment to the Conversion Price should be made pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this Section 9(f), and, if so, as to what adjustment should be made and when, shall be final and binding on the Corporation and all shareholders of the Corporation. The Corporation shall be entitled to make such additional adjustments in the Conversion Price, in addition to those required by the foregoing provisions of this Section 9, as shall be necessary in order that any dividend or distribution in shares of capital stock of the Corporation, subdivision, reclassification or combination of shares of stock of the Corporation or any recapitalization of the Corporation shall not be taxable to the holders of the Common Stock.

(g) The following definitions shall apply herein:

"Business Day" shall mean each day that is not a Saturday, Sunday or a day on which state or federally chartered banking institutions in New York are not required to be open.

"Current Market Price" of publicly traded shares of Common Stock or any other class of capital stock or other security of the Corporation or any other issuer for any day shall mean the last reported sales price, regular way, or, in the event that no sale takes place on such day, the average of the reported closing bid and asked prices, regular way, in either case as reported on the New York Stock Exchange Composite Tape or, if such security is not listed or admitted to trading on the New York Stock Exchange, on the principal national securities exchange on which such security is listed or admitted to trading or, if not listed or admitted to trading on any national securities exchange, on the NASDAQ National Market System or, if such security is not quoted on such National Market System, the average of the closing bid and asked prices on each such day in the

over-the-counter market as reported by NASDAQ or, if bid and asked prices for such security on each such day shall not have been reported through NASDAQ, the average of the bid and asked prices for such day as furnished by any New York Stock Exchange member firm regularly making a market in such security selected for such purpose by the Board of Directors of the Corporation or a committee thereof.

"Extraordinary Distribution" shall mean any dividend or other distribution to holders of Common Stock (effected while any of the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares are outstanding) (i) of cash, where the aggregate amount of such cash dividend or distribution together with the amount of all cash dividends and distributions made during the preceding period of 12 months, when combined with the aggregate amount of all Pro Rata Repurchases (for this purpose, including only that portion of the aggregate purchase price of such Pro Rata Repurchase which is in excess of the Fair Market Value of the Common Stock repurchased as determined on the Business Day immediately following the applicable expiration date (including all extensions thereof) of any tender offer or exchange offer which is a Pro Rata Repurchase, or the date of purchase with respect to any other Pro Rata Repurchase which is not a tender offer or exchange offer made during such period), exceeds ten percent (10%) of the aggregate Fair Market Value of all shares of Common Stock outstanding on the day before the ex-dividend date with respect to such Extraordinary Distribution which is paid in cash and on the distribution date with respect to an Extraordinary Distribution which is paid other than in cash, and/or (ii) of any shares of capital stock of the Corporation (other than shares of Common Stock), other securities of the Corporation (other than securities of the type referred to in Section 9(b) or (c)), evidences of indebtedness of the Corporation or any other person or any other property (including shares of any subsidiary of the Corporation) or any combination thereof. The Fair Market Value of an Extraordinary Distribution for purposes of Section 9(d) shall be equal to the sum of the Fair Market Value of such Extraordinary Distribution plus the amount of any cash dividends which are not Extraordinary Distributions made during such 12-month period and not previously included in the calculation of an adjustment pursuant to Section 9(d).

"Fair Market Value" shall mean, as to shares of Common Stock or any other class of capital stock or securities of the Corporation or any other issuer which are publicly traded, (i) for purposes of Sections 6 and 7, the Current Market Price on the date as of which the Fair Market Value is to be determined, and (ii) for all other purposes hereof, the average of the Current Market Prices of such shares or securities for each day of the Adjustment Period.

"Adjustment Period" shall mean the period of five (5) consecutive trading days preceding, and including, the date as of which the Fair Market Value of a security is to be determined. The Fair Market Value of any security which is not publicly traded (other than the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares) or of any other property shall mean the fair value thereof as determined by an independent investment banking or appraisal firm experienced in the valuation of such securities or property selected in good faith by the Board or a committee thereof, or, if no such investment banking or appraisal firm is in the good faith judgment of the Board or such committee available to make such determination, as determined in good faith by the Board or such committee.

"Non-Dilutive Amount" in respect of an issuance, sale or exchange by the Corporation of any right or warrant to purchase or acquire shares of Common Stock (including any security convertible into or exchangeable for shares of Common Stock) shall mean the difference between (i) the product of the Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock on the day preceding the first public announcement of such issuance, sale or exchange multiplied by the maximum number of shares of Common Stock which could be acquired on such date upon the exercise in full of such rights and warrants (including upon the conversion or exchange of all such convertible or exchangeable securities), whether or not exercisable (or convertible or exchangeable) at such date, and (ii) the aggregate amount payable pursuant to such right or warrant to purchase or acquire such maximum number of shares of Common Stock; provided, however, that in no event shall the Non-Dilutive Amount be less than zero. For purposes of the foregoing sentence, in the case of a security convertible into or exchangeable for shares of Common Stock, the amount payable pursuant to a right or warrant to purchase or acquire shares of Common Stock shall be the Fair Market Value of such security on the date of the issuance, sale or exchange of such security by the Corporation.

"Pro Rata Repurchase" shall mean any purchase of shares of Common Stock by the Corporation or any subsidiary thereof, whether for cash, shares of capital stock of the Corporation, other securities of the Corporation, evidences of indebtedness of the Corporation or any other person or any other property (including shares of a subsidiary of the Corporation), or any combination thereof, effected while any of the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares are outstanding, pursuant to any tender offer or exchange offer subject to Section 13(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), or any successor provision of law, or pursuant to any other offer available to substantially all holders of Common Stock; provided, however, that no purchase of shares by the Corporation or any subsidiary thereof made in open market transactions shall be deemed a Pro Rata Repurchase. For purposes of this Section 9(g), shares shall be deemed to have been purchased by the Corporation or any subsidiary thereof "in open market transactions" if they have been purchased substantially in accordance with the requirements of Rule 10b-18 as in effect under the Exchange Act on July 21, 1989, or on such other terms and conditions as the Board or a committee thereof shall have determined are reasonably designed to prevent such purchases from having a material effect on the trading market for the Common Stock.

(h) Whenever an adjustment to the Conversion Price and the related voting rights of the convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares is required hereunder, the Corporation shall forthwith place on file with the transfer agent for the Common Stock and the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares, and with the Secretary of the Corporation, a statement signed by two officers of the Corporation stating the adjusted Conversion Price determined as provided herein and the resulting conversion ratio, and the voting rights (as appropriately adjusted), of the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares. Such statement shall set forth in reasonable detail such facts as shall be necessary to show the reason and the manner of computing such adjustment, including any determination of Fair Market Value involved in such computation. Promptly after each adjustment to the Conversion Price and the related voting rights of the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares, the Corporation shall mail a notice thereof and of the then prevailing conversion ratio to each holder of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares.

SECTION 10. RANKING; ATTRIBUTABLE CAPITAL AND ADEQUACY OF SURPLUS;
RETIREMENT OF SHARES. (a) The Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares shall rank

senior to the Common Stock as to the payment of dividends and the distribution of assets on liquidation, dissolution and winding-up of the Corporation, and, unless otherwise provided in the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation, as the same may be amended, or a Certificate of Designations relating to a subsequent series of Preferred Stock, par value $.01 per share, of the Corporation, the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares shall rank junior to all series of the Corporation's Preferred Stock, par value $.01 per share, as to the payment of dividends and the distribution of assets on liquidation, dissolution or winding-up.

(b) In addition to any vote of stockholders required by law or by Section 3(b), the vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares shall be required to increase the par value of the Common Stock or otherwise increase the capital of the Corporation allocable to the Common Stock for the purpose of the General Corporation Law if, as a result thereof, the surplus of the Corporation for purposes of the General Corporation Law would be less than the amount of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Dividends that would accrue on the then outstanding Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares during the following three years.

(c) Any Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares acquired by the Corporation by reason of the conversion or redemption of such shares as provided by Section 2, or otherwise so acquired, shall be retired as Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares and restored to the status of authorized but unissued shares of Preferred Stock, par value $.01 per share, of the Corporation, undesignated as to series, and may thereafter be reissued as part of a new series of such Preferred Stock as permitted by law.

SECTION 11. MISCELLANEOUS. All notices referred to in Section 2 shall be in writing, and all notices hereunder shall be deemed to have been given upon the earlier of delivery thereof if by hand delivery, by courier or by standard form of telecommunication or three (3) Business Days after the mailing thereof if sent by registered mail (unless first-class mail shall be specifically permitted for such notice under the terms of Section 2) with postage prepaid, addressed: (i) if to the Corporation, to its office at 235 East 42nd Street, New York, N.Y. 10017 (Attention: Secretary), or to the transfer agent for the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares, or other agent of the Corporation designated as permitted by Section 2 or (ii) if to any holder of the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares or Common Stock, as the case may be, to such holder at the address of such holder as listed in the stock record books of the Corporation (which may include the records of any transfer agent for the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares or Common Stock, as the case may be) or (iii) to such other address as the Corporation or any such holder, as the case may be, shall have designated by notice similarly given.

(b) The term "Common Stock" as used in Section 2 means the Corporation's Common Stock, par value $0.05 per share, as the same exists at the date of filing of a Certificate of Designations relating to Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares or any other class of stock resulting from successive changes or reclassifications of such Common Stock consisting solely of changes in par value, or from par value to no par value, or from no par value to par value. In the event that, at any time as a result of an adjustment made pursuant to Section 9, the holder of any Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares upon thereafter surrendering such shares for conversion, shall become entitled to receive any shares or other securities of the Corporation other than shares of Common Stock, the Conversion Price in respect of such other shares or securities so receivable upon conversion of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares shall thereafter be adjusted, and shall be subject to further adjustment from time to time, in a manner and on terms as nearly equivalent as practicable to the provisions with respect to Common Stock contained in Section 9, and the provisions of Sections 1 through 8, 10 and 11 with respect to the Common Stock shall apply on like or similar terms to any such other shares or securities.

(c) The Corporation shall pay any and all stock transfer and documentary stamp taxes that may be payable in respect of any issuance or delivery of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares or shares of Common Stock or other securities issued on account of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares pursuant hereto or certificates representing such shares or securities. The Corporation shall not, however, be required to pay any such tax which may be payable in respect of any transfer involved in the issuance or delivery of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares or Common Stock or other securities in a name other than that in which the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares with respect to which such shares or other securities are issued or delivered were registered, or in respect of any payment to any person with respect to any such shares or securities other than a payment, to the registered holder thereof, and shall not be required to make any such issuance, delivery or payment unless and until the person otherwise entitled to such issuance, delivery or payment has paid to the Corporation the amount of any such tax or has established, to the satisfaction of the Corporation, that such tax has been paid or is not payable.

(d) In the event that a holder of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares shall not by written notice designate the name in which shares of Common Stock to be issued upon conversion of such shares should be registered or to whom payment upon redemption of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares should be made or the addresses to which the certificate or certificates representing such shares, or such payment, should be sent, the Corporation shall be entitled to register such shares and make such payment, in the name of the holder of such Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares as shown on the records of the Corporation and to send the certificate or certificates representing such shares, or such payment, to the address of such holder shown on the records of the Corporation.

(e) Unless otherwise provided in the Restated Certificate of Incorporation, as the same may be amended, of the Corporation, all payments in the form of dividends, distributions on voluntary or involuntary dissolution, liquidation or winding-up or otherwise made upon the Convertible Perpetual

Preferred Shares and any other stock ranking on a parity with the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares with respect to such dividend or distribution shall be pro rata, so that amounts paid per Convertible Perpetual Preferred Share and such other stock shall in all cases bear to each other the same ratio that the required dividends, distributions or payments, as the case may be, then payable per share on the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Share and such other stock bear to each other.

(f) Any determination required or permitted to be made by the Board hereunder may be made by a committee appointed by the Board which need not include members of the Board.

(g) The Corporation may appoint, and from time to time discharge and change, a transfer agent for the Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares. Upon any such appointment or discharge of a transfer agent, the Corporation shall send notice thereof by hand delivery, by courier, by standard form of telecommunication or by first-class mail (postage prepaid), to each holder of record of Convertible Perpetual Preferred Shares.

ANNEX F

SECTION 262 OF THE GENERAL CORPORATION
LAW OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE

(a) Any stockholder of a corporation of this State who holds shares of stock on the date of the making of a demand pursuant to subsection (d) of this section with respect to such shares, who continuously holds such shares through the effective date of the merger or consolidation, who has otherwise complied with subsection (d) of this section and who has neither voted in favor of the merger or consolidation nor consented thereto in writing pursuant to sec.228 of this title shall be entitled to an appraisal by the Court of Chancery of the fair value of the stockholder's shares of stock under the circumstances described in subsections (b) and (c) of this section. As used in this section, the word "stockholder" means a holder of record of stock in a stock corporation and also a member of record of a nonstock corporation; the words "stock" and "share" mean and include what is ordinarily meant by those words and also membership or membership interest of a member of a nonstock corporation; and the words "depository receipt" mean a receipt or other instrument issued by a depository representing an interest in one or more shares, or fractions thereof, solely of stock of a corporation, which stock is deposited with the depository.

(b) Appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation in a merger or consolidation to be effected pursuant to sec.251 (other than a merger effected pursuant to sec.251(g) of this title), sec.252, sec.254, sec.257, sec.258, sec.263 or sec.264 of this title:

(1) Provided, however, that no appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock, which stock, or depository receipts in respect thereof, at the record date fixed to determine the stockholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the meeting of stockholders to act upon the agreement of merger or consolidation, were either (i) listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or (ii) held of record by more than 2,000 holders; and further provided that no appraisal rights shall be available for any shares of stock of the constituent corporation surviving a merger if the merger did not require for its approval the vote of the stockholders of the surviving corporation as provided in subsection (f) of sec.251 of this title.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) of this subsection, appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation if the holders thereof are required by the terms of an agreement of merger or consolidation pursuant to sec.sec.251, 252, 254, 257, 258, 263 and 264 of this title to accept for such stock anything except:

a. Shares of stock of the corporation surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation, or depository receipts in respect thereof;

b. Shares of stock of any other corporation, or depository receipts in respect thereof, which shares of stock (or depository receipts in respect thereof) or depository receipts at the effective date of the merger or consolidation will be either listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or held of record by more than 2,000 holders;

c. Cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a. and b. of this paragraph; or

d. Any combination of the shares of stock, depository receipts and cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a., b. and c. of this paragraph.

(3) In the event all of the stock of a subsidiary Delaware corporation party to a merger effected under sec.253 of this title is not owned by the parent corporation immediately prior to the merger, appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of the subsidiary Delaware corporation.

(c) Any corporation may provide in its certificate of incorporation that appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of its stock as a result of an amendment to its certificate of incorporation, any merger or consolidation in which the corporation is a constituent corporation or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation. If the certificate of incorporation contains such a provision, the procedures of this section, including those set forth in subsections (d) and (e) of this section, shall apply as nearly as is practicable.

(d) Appraisal rights shall be perfected as follows:

(1) If a proposed merger or consolidation for which appraisal rights are provided under this section is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders, the corporation, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, shall notify each of its stockholders who was such on the record date for such meeting with respect to shares for which appraisal rights are available pursuant to subsection (b) or (c) hereof that appraisal rights are available for any or all of the shares of the constituent corporations, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Each stockholder electing to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares shall deliver to the corporation, before the taking of the vote on the merger or consolidation, a written demand for appraisal of such stockholder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares. A proxy or vote against the merger or consolidation shall not constitute such a demand. A stockholder electing to take such action must do so by a separate written demand as herein provided. Within 10 days after the effective date of such merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation shall notify each stockholder of each constituent corporation who has complied with this subsection and has not voted in favor of or consented to the merger or consolidation of the date that the merger or consolidation has become effective; or

(2) If the merger or consolidation was approved pursuant to sec.228 or sec.253 of this title, then, either a constituent corporation before the effective date of the merger or consolidation, or the surviving or resulting corporation within ten days thereafter, shall notify each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation who are entitled to appraisal rights of the approval of the merger or consolidation and that appraisal rights are available for any or all shares of such class or series of stock of such constituent corporation, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Such notice may, and, if given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, shall, also notify such stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation. Any stockholder entitled to appraisal rights may, within 20 days after the date of mailing of such notice, demand in writing from the surviving or resulting corporation the appraisal of such holder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such holder's shares. If such notice did not notify stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation, either (i) each such constituent corporation shall send a second notice before the effective date of the merger or consolidation notifying each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation that are entitled to appraisal rights of the effective date of the merger or consolidation or (ii) the surviving or resulting corporation shall send such a second notice to all such holders on or within 10 days after such effective date; provided, however, that if such second notice is sent more than 20 days following the sending of the first notice, such second notice need only be sent to each stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights and who has demanded appraisal of such holder's shares in accordance with this subsection. An affidavit of the secretary or assistant secretary or of the transfer agent of the corporation that is required to give either notice that such notice has been given shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein. For purposes of determining the stockholders entitled to receive either notice, each constituent corporation may fix, in advance, a record date that shall be not more than 10 days prior to the date the notice is given, provided, that if the notice is given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the record date shall be such effective date. If no record date is fixed and the notice is given prior to the effective date, the record date shall be the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the notice is given.

(e) Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation or any stockholder who has complied with subsections (a) and (d) hereof and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights, may file a petition in the Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the value of the stock of all such stockholders. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder shall have the right to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation. Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of subsections (a) and (d) hereof, upon written request, shall be entitled to receive from the corporation surviving the merger or resulting from the consolidation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger or consolidation and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. Such written statement shall be mailed to the stockholder within 10 days after such stockholder's written request for such a statement is received by the surviving or resulting corporation or within 10 days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal under subsection (d) hereof, whichever is later.

(f) Upon the filing of any such petition by a stockholder, service of a copy thereof shall be made upon the surviving or resulting corporation, which shall within 20 days after such service file in the office of the Register in Chancery in which the petition was filed a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by the surviving or resulting corporation. If the petition shall be filed by the surviving or resulting corporation, the petition shall be accompanied by such a duly verified list. The Register in Chancery, if so ordered by the Court, shall give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of such petition by registered or certified mail to the surviving or resulting corporation and to the stockholders shown on the list at the addresses therein stated. Such notice shall also be given by 1 or more publications at least 1 week before the day of the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Wilmington, Delaware or such publication as the Court deems advisable. The forms of the notices by mail and by publication shall be approved by the Court, and the costs thereof shall be borne by the surviving or resulting corporation.

(g) At the hearing on such petition, the Court shall determine the stockholders who have complied with this section and who have become entitled to appraisal rights. The Court may require the stockholders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with such direction, the Court may dismiss the proceedings as to such stockholder.

(h) After determining the stockholders entitled to an appraisal, the Court shall appraise the shares, determining their fair value exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger or consolidation, together with a fair rate of interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. In determining such fair value, the Court shall take into account all relevant factors. In determining the fair rate of interest, the Court may consider all relevant factors, including the rate of interest which the surviving or resulting corporation would have had to pay to borrow money during the pendency of the proceeding. Upon application by the surviving or resulting corporation or by any stockholder entitled to participate in the appraisal proceeding, the Court may, in its discretion, permit discovery or other pretrial proceedings and may proceed to trial upon the appraisal prior to the final determination of the stockholder entitled to an appraisal. Any stockholder whose name appears on the list filed by the surviving or resulting corporation pursuant to subsection (f) of this section and who has submitted such stockholder's certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery, if such is required, may participate fully in all proceedings until it is finally determined that such stockholder is not entitled to appraisal rights under this section.

(i) The Court shall direct the payment of the fair value of the shares, together with interest, if any, by the surviving or resulting corporation to the stockholders entitled thereto. Interest may be simple or compound, as the Court may direct. Payment shall be so made to each such stockholder, in the case of holders of uncertificated stock forthwith, and the case of holders of shares represented by certificates upon the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing such stock. The Court's decree may be enforced as other decrees in the Court of Chancery may be enforced, whether such surviving or resulting corporation be a corporation of this State or of any state.

(j) The costs of the proceeding may be determined by the Court and taxed upon the parties as the Court deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon application of a stockholder, the Court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all the shares entitled to an appraisal.

(k) From and after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, no stockholder who has demanded appraisal rights as provided in subsection (d) of this section shall be entitled to vote such stock for any purpose or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on the stock (except dividends or other distributions payable to stockholders of record at a date which is prior to the effective date of the merger or consolidation); provided, however, that if no petition for an appraisal shall be filed within the time provided in subsection (e) of this section, or if such stockholder shall deliver to the surviving or resulting corporation a written withdrawal of such stockholder's demand for an appraisal and an acceptance of the merger or consolidation, either within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation as provided in subsection (e) of this section or thereafter with the written approval of the corporation, then the right of such stockholder to an appraisal shall cease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no appraisal proceeding in the Court of Chancery shall be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the Court, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Court deems just.

(l) The shares of the surviving or resulting corporation to which the shares of such objecting stockholders would have been converted had they assented to the merger or consolidation shall have the status of authorized and unissued shares of the surviving or resulting corporation.

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) That prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

(5) That every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (4) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933 and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(7) To respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the joint proxy statement/prospectus pursuant to Item 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(8) To supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.

(b) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
