Composite Offer Document Despatched in Hong Kong
Regarding the Second Proposed Offer to Privatize NTEEP

Hong Kong, PRC June 9, 2009 Nam Tai Electronics, Inc. (Nam Tai or the Company) (NYSE Symbol: NTE) announced that on June 9, 2009, the Company and Nam Tai Electronic & Electrical Products Limited (NTEEP), Nam Tai's 74.88%-owned Hong Kong Stock Exchange-listed subsidiary (Stock Code: 2633), jointly issued an announcement regarding the despatch to the independent shareholders of NTEEP of the composite offer document formally commencing under Hong Kong's securities law and the rules of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange Nam Tai's second voluntary conditional cash offer to privatize NTEEP.

In the current, second offer, Nam Tai is offering US$0.20 (HK$1.52) per NTEEP share equal to a total cash consideration of approximately US$43.5 million based on the total number of outstanding shares of NTEEP that the Company does not already own (referred to in the formal Composite Offer Document, as the Offer Shares). Nam Tai plans to finance the proposed transaction with its internal resources. As was the case for the first offer, completion of the new, second offer and the resulting privatization of NTEEP are conditional upon Nam Tai receiving acceptances and/or purchases totalling at least 90% of the Offer Shares. If that condition is satisfied, Nam Tai intends to exercise compulsory acquisition rights to acquire any remaining NTEEP shares that it did not acquire in accordance with the new offer and then withdraw the listing of NTEEP from the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong. It is expected that the results of the Second Offer will be known and released around end of June or early July 2009.

As previously announced, because of broker omission and miscommunication from the Central Clearing and Settlement System established and operated by the Hong Kong Securities Clearing Company, which apparently interfered with the success of Nam Tai's first offer to privatize NTEEP earlier this year, Nam Tai sought and obtained the consent of the Securities and Futures Commission of Hong Kong in order to permit Nam Tai to make the second offer within 12 months of the date Nam Tai's first offer was declared unsuccessful.

The joint announcement by Nam Tai and NTEEP regarding the despatching of the Composite Offer Document to NTEEP's independent shareholders, which is also available on NTEEP's website at <http://www.namtaieep.com/news/3.1.html>, accompanies this press release. The formal Composite Offer Document, as so despatched, is available at the same location on NTEEP's website.

COMPULSORY ACQUISITION AND WITHDRAWAL OF LISTING

If NTEI receives acceptances and/or makes purchases totaling at least 90% of the Offer Shares within four months since the date of posting of this composite offer document,

- (i) NTEI intends to exercise any compulsory acquisition rights to which it is entitled under Rule 2.11 of the Takeovers Code and Section 88 of the Companies Law to acquire the remaining Shares not already owned by NTEI. Upon completion of such compulsory acquisition, NTEEP would become a wholly-owned subsidiary of NTEI and application will be made for the withdrawal of listing of the Shares from the Stock Exchange in accordance with Rule 6.15 of the Listing Rules. An announcement in relation to the withdrawal application shall be made before the last day of dealing of the Shares; and
- (ii) NTEEP will apply for a suspension of dealings in the Shares from the closing of the General Offer up to the withdrawal of listing of the Shares from the Stock Exchange.

CAUTION

If, at the close of the General Offer, less than 25% of the Shares are held by the public or if the Stock Exchange believes that:

In this connection, it should be noted that upon completion of the General Offer, there may be insufficient public float for the Shares and, therefore, trading in the Shares may be suspended until a prescribed level of public float is restored.
