Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On May 17, 2010, Kennametal Inc. (the Company) announced a key management change designed to further align the organization and enhance future profitable growth. Effective immediately, Gary W. Weismann will become Vice President and President, Business Groups, assuming responsibility for the Company's two business units world wide. In this role, Mr. Weismann will lead the resources of both the Advanced Solutions Services Group and the Metalworking Solutions and Services Group to maximize the Company's profitable growth through delivering innovative products to customers. Paul Demand, who served as Vice President and President of MSSG since July 2008, has left the company to pursue other opportunities.

Mr. Weismann, 54, has more than 21 years of total service with Kennametal. He originally joined the Company in 1979. During his tenure, he has assumed assignments of increasing responsibility, including international marketing, corporate planning and development, and mergers and acquisitions. In 1994, Mr. Weismann left Kennametal to join TRINOVA Corporation, where he became leader of the Corporate Technology Organization before joining what is now Actuant Corporation. At Actuant, he became Senior Vice President and General Manager, Engineered Products Division, leaving in 1999 for Marketing Solutions, a private management and development group, where he served as a Managing Partner. Mr. Weismann then rejoined Kennametal in 2004 as Vice President and General Manager of the global Electronics Products Group. Since then, he has served as Vice President of Energy, Mining and Construction Solutions Group, and most recently, as Vice President and President, AMSG since August 2007.
