INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

ITEM 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Delaware corporations

Section 102(b)(7) of the Delaware General Corporation Law permits a corporation to provide in its certificate of incorporation that a director of the corporation shall not be personally liable to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability for any of the following:

- any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders,
- acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law,
- payments of unlawful dividends or unlawful stock repurchases or redemptions, or
- any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

Any repeal or modification of such provisions shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director for or with respect to any acts or omissions of such director occurring prior to such amendment or repeal. Our Restated Certificate of Incorporation provides that no director shall be personally liable to us or any of our stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law.

Under Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, a corporation may indemnify any individual made a party or threatened to be made a party to any type of proceeding, other than an action by or in the right of the corporation, because he or she is or was an officer, director, employee or agent of the corporation or was serving at the request of the corporation as an officer, director, employee or agent of another corporation or entity against expenses, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred in connection with such proceeding: (1) if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation; or (2) in the case of a criminal proceeding, he or she had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful. A corporation may indemnify any individual made a party or threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit brought by or in the right of the corporation because he or she was an officer, director, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or other entity, against expenses actually and reasonably incurred in connection with such action or suit if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, provided that such indemnification will be denied if the individual is found liable to the corporation unless, in such a case, the court determines the person is nonetheless entitled to indemnification for such expenses. A corporation must indemnify a present or former director or officer who successfully defends himself or herself in a proceeding to which he or she was a party because he or she was a director or officer of the corporation against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him or her. Expenses incurred by an officer or director, or any employees or agents as deemed appropriate by the board of directors, in defending civil or criminal proceedings may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such proceedings upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director, officer, employee or agent to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation. The Delaware law regarding indemnification and expense advancement is not exclusive of any other rights which may be granted by our certificate of incorporation or bylaws, a vote of stockholders or disinterested directors, agreement or otherwise.

Our Second Amended and Restated Bylaws (Bylaws) contain indemnification rights for our directors and our officers. Specifically, the Bylaws provide that we shall indemnify our officers and directors to the fullest extent permitted or allowed by the laws of the State of Delaware as it presently exists or as it may hereafter be amended. Further, we may maintain insurance to protect us and any of our directors and officers or directors or officers of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expense, liability or loss. We may also enter into indemnity agreements with persons who are members of our Board of Directors, our elected officers and with other persons as the Board of Directors may designate.

We have entered or intend to enter into indemnity agreements (Indemnity Agreements) with each of our present and future directors and officers (individually, the Indemnitee and collectively, the Indemnitees). Each provides for the indemnification of and the advancing of expenses to the Indemnitee to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law. More specifically, each Indemnity Agreement provides (i) that an Indemnitee is automatically entitled to indemnification for expenses to the extent an Indemnitee (including the Indemnitee's estate, heirs, executors, and administrators) is successful in defending any indemnifiable claim whether on the merits or otherwise, (ii) that an Indemnitee is entitled to the advancement of expenses during the pendency of a proceeding, (iii) that we have the burden of proving that an Indemnitee is not entitled to indemnification and negates certain presumptions that may otherwise be drawn against an Indemnitee, (iv) that an indemnitee, in his discretion, may request either the Disinterested Directors (as defined in the Indemnity Agreements) make the determination of entitlement to indemnification or request that Independent Counsel (as defined in the Indemnity Agreements) make such a determination, (v) that an Indemnitee may choose a mechanism through which an Indemnitee may seek court relief in the event it is determined that the Indemnitee would not be entitled to be indemnified and (vi) that an Indemnitee is entitled to indemnification against all expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred in seeking to collect an indemnity claim or advancement of expenses from us.

Indemnitees' rights under the Indemnity Agreements are not exclusive of any other rights they may have under Delaware Law, directors' and officers' liability insurance, our Bylaws or otherwise. However, the Indemnity Agreements do prevent double payment.

If, in the future, because of changes in Delaware law or otherwise, we determine that the Indemnity Agreements do not provide indemnification to the fullest extent of the Delaware law, we intend to amend such agreements, or enter into new agreements with directors and officers, to provide, in our judgment, for full indemnification.

We believe that the Bylaws and the Indemnity Agreements are largely confirmatory of Delaware law. However, the provisions of the Bylaws and the Indemnity Agreements apply to proceedings arising from acts or omissions occurring before or after their respective adoption or execution. In addition, the contract right explicitly created in the Indemnity Agreements gives the Indemnitee protection against a subsequent, adverse change in the indemnification provisions of our Bylaws, such as might occur in the event of a Change of Control (as defined in the Indemnity Agreements). Furthermore, under the Delaware Law, the advance of litigation expenses is discretionary; under the Indemnity Agreements, such advance is mandatory absent a special determination to the contrary. Litigation expenses incurred by an Indemnitee in a proceeding to seek recovery of amounts due under the Indemnity Agreement are recoverable under the Indemnity Agreement if the Indemnitee is successful in whole or in part. In the absence of the Indemnity Agreement, such expenses might not have been recoverable.

The following registrants are also corporations incorporated under the laws of the state of Delaware: Ready Mix Concrete Company of Knoxville, San Diego Precast Concrete, Inc., Smith Pre-Cast, Inc., Titan Concrete Industries, Inc., B.W.B., Inc. of Michigan, Central Concrete Corp., Concrete XXXI Acquisition, Inc., Concrete XXXII Acquisition, Inc., Concrete XXXIII Acquisition, Inc., Concrete XXXIV Acquisition, Inc., Concrete XXXV Acquisition, Inc., Concrete XXXVI Acquisition, Inc., USC Atlantic, Inc., USC Michigan, Inc., USC GP, Inc., U.S. Concrete On-Site, Inc., USC Payroll Inc. and Wyoming Concrete Industries, Inc. The certificates of incorporation and the bylaws of each of these corporations authorize the corporation to indemnify any person entitled to indemnification under the Delaware General Corporation Law, to the fullest extent authorized by such law. The bylaws allow the applicable corporation to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any director, officer, agent or employee regardless of whether the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against the insured liability.

Delaware limited liability company

Builder's Redi-Mix, LLC is a limited liability company organized under the laws of the State of Delaware. The Delaware Limited Liability Company Act provides that a limited liability company has the power to indemnify and hold harmless any member or manager or other person from and against any and all claims and demands whatsoever. The limited liability company Operating Agreement of Builder's Redi-Mix provides that: (a) any member, any director and any officer, employee or agent of the company, in the performance of his, her or its duties, shall be fully protected in relying in good faith on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements, books of account and other financial data, if prepared or presented by: (i) one or more members, directors, officers or employees of the company; or (ii) legal counsel, public accountants, or other persons which he, she or it reasonably believes have professional or expert competence; and (b) no member (or officer, director, employee or shareholder of a member), director or officer shall be liable for damages to the company or any member with respect to claims relating to his, her or its conduct for or on behalf of the company, except that any of the foregoing persons shall be liable to the company for damages to the extent that it is proved by clear and convincing evidence (i) that his, her or its conduct (A) was not taken in good faith or in a manner reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, or (B) constituted gross negligence or intentional misconduct; or (ii) with respect to any criminal action, proceeding or investigation, he, she or it had reasonable cause to believe his, her or its conduct was unlawful.

Texas corporations

Beall Industries, Inc., Beall Management, Inc., Alliance Haulers, Inc., Alberta Investments, Inc., Ingram Enterprises Management, Inc. and Redi-Mix Management, Inc. are corporations organized under the laws of the State of Texas. Article 2.02-1 of the Texas Business Corporation Act (TBCA) permits a Texas corporation to indemnify any present or former director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation against judgments, penalties, fines, settlements and reasonable expenses incurred in connection with a proceeding in which any such person was, is or is threatened to be, made a party by reason of holding such office or position. However, such reimbursement of reasonable expenses is limited to those actually incurred where (a) a person is found liable on the basis that a personal benefit was improperly received or (b) the person is found liable in a derivative suit brought on behalf of the corporation and the person was not liable for willful or intentional misconduct. Under the TBCA, a director or officer must be indemnified in cases in which he is wholly successful on the merits or in the defense of the proceedings. The TBCA authorizes corporations to maintain insurance to cover indemnification expenses on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, agent or employee of the corporation or was serving at the request of the corporation, regardless of whether the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against liability under Article 2.02-1 of the TBCA.

The articles of incorporation and the bylaws of Beall Management, Inc. allow the corporation to indemnify directors and officers to the fullest extent provided by the TBCA. The articles of incorporation and bylaws of Beall Industries, Inc. contain similar provisions but prohibit any indemnification in proceedings in which the person is found liable of improperly receiving a personal benefit. The bylaws of Beall Industries, Inc. authorize the corporation to purchase insurance for indemnification purposes, regardless of whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify the person under the provisions contained in the bylaws.

The articles of incorporation and the bylaws of each of Alberta Investments, Inc., Alliance Haulers, Inc., Ingram Enterprises Management, Inc., and Redi-Mix Management, Inc. allow the corporations to indemnify directors, officers, or employees to the fullest extent provided by the TBCA. The articles of incorporation of each of these entities prohibit any indemnification in proceedings in which the person is found liable of improperly receiving a personal benefit.

Texas limited partnerships

the Texas Revised Limited Partnership Act. That act (TRLPA), a general partner must be indemnified by the limited partnership in cases in which the general partner is wholly successful on the merits or in the defense of the proceedings. Section 11.02 of the TRLPA provides that a limited partnership may indemnify a person who was, is, or is threatened to be named a defendant in a proceeding only if that person (1) acted in good faith; (2) reasonably believed: (A) in the case of conduct in the person's official capacity as a general partner of the limited partnership, that the person's conduct was in the limited partnership's best interests; and (B) in all other cases, that the person's conduct was at least not opposed to the limited partnership's best interests; and (3) in the case of a criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was unlawful. That TRLPA allows a Texas limited partnership to indemnify anyone who was, is or is threatened to be made a defendant or respondent in a proceeding and allows a limited partnership to purchase and maintain liability insurance, whether or not the partnership would have the power to indemnify such person against such liability.

The partnership agreement of each of the above partnerships provide that they shall indemnify and hold harmless each general partner and each other indemnitee designated by the general partner to the maximum extent provided in the TRLPA. The partnership agreements of Beall Concrete Enterprises, Ltd. and USC Management Co., L.P. provide that they may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any one or more indemnitees and other persons as the general partner shall determine against any liability that may be asserted against or expense that may be incurred by such person in connection with the activities of the partnership, whether or not the partnership would have the power to indemnify such person against such liability.

The partnership agreement of each of Ingram Enterprises and L.P., Redi-Mix, L.P. provides that no partner shall be obligated to contribute any amount to the partnership in order to satisfy the partnership's indemnification obligations and such obligations are limited to the assets of the partnership. The partnership agreement of Redi-Mix Concrete, L.P. provides that the partnership shall hold harmless each general partner and each other indemnitee designated by the general partner for any loss, damage, expense or liability caused by or attributable to ordinary or simple negligence of that person.

Texas limited liability companies

Redi-Mix G.P., LLC is a limited liability company organized under the laws of the State of Texas. Redi-Mix G.P., LLC is a limited liability company organized under the laws of the State of Texas. Article 2.20 of the Texas Limited Liability Company Act (TLLCA) provides that a limited liability company has the power to indemnify members and managers, officers and other persons and to purchase and maintain liability insurance for such persons. Further, the TLLCA also provides that a limited liability company may expand or restrict duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities of members, managers, officers or other persons at law or in equity.

The limited liability company Operating Agreement of Redi-Mix G.P., LLC provides that members, managers, officers and employees of the Company who are parties to an action, suit or proceeding, or threatened to be parties to an action suit or proceedings, shall be indemnified by the Company to the fullest extent permitted by the TLLCA, against judgments, penalties, fines, settlements and reasonable expenses (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees) actually incurred by such person in connection with such proceeding. Such indemnification provided in the Operating Agreement includes indemnification for negligence or under theories of strict liability. Under the Operating Agreement, the company may purchase and maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any person protected under its indemnity provisions against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the indemnification provisions.

California corporations

Each of American Concrete Products, Inc., Sierra Precast, Inc., Central Concrete Supply Co., Inc. and Central Precast Concrete, Inc. is organized as a corporation under the laws of the State of California. Section 204 of the California Corporations Code provides that a corporation may set forth in its articles of incorporation provisions (a) eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director for monetary damages in an action brought by or in the right of the corporation for breach of a director's duties to the corporation and its shareholders, as set forth in Section 309 of the California Corporations Code, so long as such indemnification is subject to certain limitations and conditions as provided therein and (b) authorizing, whether by bylaw, agreement or otherwise, the indemnification of agents in excess of that expressly permitted by Section 317 for those agents of the corporation for breach of duty to the corporation and its stockholders, so long as such indemnification is subject to the limitations and conditions specified therein. Section 317 of the California Corporations Code provides that a corporation shall have the power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any proceeding (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor) by reason of the fact that the person is or was an agent of the corporation, against expenses, judgments, fines, settlements, and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the proceeding if that person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the corporation and, in the case of a criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct of the person was unlawful. This section also provides that a corporation shall have the power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that the person is or was an agent of the corporation, against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by that person in connection with the defense or settlement of the action if that person acted in good faith, in a manner the person believed to be in the best interests of the corporation and its shareholders. Finally, a California corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any agent of the corporation against any liability asserted against or incurred by the agent in that capacity or arising out of the agent's status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify the agent against that liability under Section 317 of the California Corporations Code.

The bylaws of American Concrete Products, Inc. provide that the corporation may indemnify any director, officer, agent or employee to the fullest extent permitted by Section 317 of the California Corporations Code and also allow the corporation to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any director, officer, agent or employee whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against the insured liability.

The bylaws of Sierra Precast, Inc. provide that the corporation may indemnify any director, officer, agent or employee to the fullest extent permitted by Section 317 of the California Corporations Code and to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any director, officer, agent or employee whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against the insured liability. The articles of incorporation of Sierra Precast, Inc. allow the corporation to indemnify agents for breach of duty to the corporation and stockholders through provisions in the bylaws or agreements with the agents in excess of the indemnification permitted by Section 317 of the California Corporations Code, subject to the limits on excess indemnification set forth in Section 204 of the California Corporations Code.

The bylaws of Central Concrete Supply Co., Inc. provide that the corporation may indemnify any director, officer, agent or employee to the fullest extent permitted by Section 317 of the California Corporations Code. The articles of incorporation of Central Concrete Supply Co., Inc. allow the corporation to indemnify agents for breach of duty to the corporation and stockholders through provisions in the bylaws or agreements with the agents in excess of the indemnification permitted by Section 317 of the California Corporations Code, subject to the limits on excess indemnification set in Section 204 of the California Corporations Code.

The bylaws of Central Precast Concrete, Inc. provide that it may indemnify any director, officer, agent or employee to the fullest extent permitted by Section 317 of the California Corporations Code. The bylaws further provide that Central Precast Concrete, Inc. may advance expenses incurred in defending any proceeding prior to the final disposition of the proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, officer or other agent to repay that amount if it shall be determined ultimately that the such agent is not entitled to be indemnified pursuant to the California Corporations Code.

Oklahoma corporation

Atlas-Tuck Concrete, Inc. is organized under the laws of the state of Oklahoma. Under the Oklahoma General Corporation Act, a corporation must indemnify an officer or director against the expenses which such officer or director has actually and reasonably incurred if he is successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of any action (a) brought by reason of such person being or having been a director or officer of the corporation, or of any other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise at the request of the corporation, other than an action by or in the right of the corporation or (b) by or in the right of the corporation brought by reason of the person seeking indemnification being or having been a director or officer of the corporation, or any other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise at the request of the corporation, provided the actions were in good faith and were reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the corporation. In either case, however, no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which the individual shall have been adjudged liable to the corporation, unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action was decided has determined that the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court deems proper. An Oklahoma corporation may indemnify each of its officers and directors against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by them in connection with any action, suit or proceeding described in (a) above, as long as the individual acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the corporation, and with respect to any criminal action, the person seeking indemnification must have had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful. An Oklahoma corporation is further permitted to indemnify each of its officers and directors against expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of any action described in (b) above.

Michigan corporations

Superior Materials, Inc., Kurtz Gravel Company are both organized under the laws of the State of Michigan. Under the Michigan Business Corporation Act, a corporation is permitted to indemnify any person who was, is or is threatened to be made a party to any proceeding, other than an action, suit or proceeding by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of the fact that he or she was serving as a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or serving, at the request of the corporation, as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another corporation, whether domestic or foreign, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorneys' fees, and judgments, penalties, fines and amounts paid in settlement that are actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the proceeding if the indemnified person acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation or its shareholders, and, with respect to a criminal action or proceeding, if he or she had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. Similar provisions apply to actions brought by or in the right of the corporation, except that no indemnification may be made without judicial approval with respect to a claim, issue, or matter in which the person acting in an indemnified capacity has been found liable to the corporation. Where an officer or director is successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of any action referred to above, the corporation must indemnify that person against the expenses the officer or director has actually and reasonably incurred.

The provisions concerning indemnification and advancement of expenses are not exclusive of other rights to which a person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under a corporation's articles of incorporation, its bylaws or a contractual arrangement. In addition, the Michigan Business Corporation Act authorizes a corporation to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was serving in an indemnified capacity against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, arising out of his status as such, regardless of whether the corporation would otherwise have the power to indemnify him.

The bylaws of Superior Materials, Inc. provide for indemnification of officers and directors, to the fullest extent permitted by Michigan law. Additionally, Superior Materials, Inc. may, by action of its board of directors, indemnify its employees and agents to the same extent as it indemnifies its directors and officers.

Under its bylaws, Superior Materials, Inc. may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person for the purpose of satisfying the company's indemnification obligations under its bylaws.

The bylaws of Kurtz Gravel Co. provide for indemnification of officers and directors to the fullest extent permitted by Michigan law. Additionally, Kurtz Gravel Co. may, by action of its board of directors, indemnify its employees and agents to the same extent as it indemnifies its directors and officers. Under its bylaws, Kurtz Gravel Co. may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person for the purpose of satisfying the company's indemnification obligations under its bylaws. The bylaws of Kurtz Gravel Co. permit, but do not require, the company to pay expenses incurred in defending a proceeding in advance of its final disposition.

New Jersey corporation

Eastern Concrete Materials, Inc. is organized under the laws of the state of New Jersey. Under Section 14A:3-5 of the New Jersey Business Corporation Act, a corporation is required to indemnify a corporate agent against expenses to the extent that such corporate agent has been successful on the merits or otherwise in any proceeding (a) involving the corporate agent by reason of his being or having been such a corporate agent, other than a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation or (b) by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor which involves the corporate agent by reason of his being or having been such corporate agent, if in either case he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation. The New Jersey Business Corporation Act also provides that a corporation may indemnify a corporate agent against his expenses and liabilities in connection with any proceeding involving the corporate agent described in (a) above if (i) the corporate agent acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and (ii) with respect to any criminal proceeding, the corporate agent had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. A New Jersey corporation also may indemnify a corporate agent against his expenses in connection with any proceeding described in (b) above unless the corporate agent is adjudged to be liable to the corporation. In that case, the corporation may indemnify the agent only to the extent that the Superior Court of New Jersey or the court in which the proceeding was brought determines that despite the adjudication of liability, but in view of all circumstances of the case, the corporate agent is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the New Jersey Superior Court or such other court shall deem proper.

District of Columbia corporation

Superior Concrete Materials, Inc. is organized under the laws of the District of Columbia. The District of Columbia Business Corporation Act provides that a corporation organized under the laws of the District of Columbia has the right to indemnify any and all directors or officers or former directors or officers or any person who may have served at its request as a director or officer of another corporation in which it owns shares of capital stock or of which it is a creditor against expenses actually and necessarily incurred by them in connection with the defense of any action, suit, or proceeding in which they, or any of them, are made parties, or a party, by reason of being or having been directors or officers or a director or officer of the corporation or of such other corporation, except in relation to matters as to which any such director or officer or former director or person shall be adjudged in such action, suit, or proceeding to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of duty.

This discussion is a general summary of indemnification provisions of the laws of jurisdictions of the registrants' respective organization, and, where indicated, indemnification provisions contained in the registrants' formational or organizational documents. These summaries are qualified in all respects by the specific and detailed provisions of the state and other jurisdictional laws and the formational or organizational documents summarized.

ITEM 22. Undertakings

1. The undersigned registrants hereby undertake:

to file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement to:

include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to information in the registration statement; and reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement or its most recent post-effective amendment which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information shown in the registration statement.

Any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the SEC under Rule 424(b) of the Securities Act if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price stated in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement;

that, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

to remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

2. The undersigned registrants hereby undertake that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrants' annual report under section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering.

3. Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrants pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrants have been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrants will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

4. The undersigned registrants hereby undertake to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus under items 4, 10(b), 11, or 13 of this Form, within one business day of receipt of a request, and to send the incorporated documents by first-class mail or other equally prompt means. This undertaking includes information contained in documents filed after the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

5. The undersigned registrants hereby undertake to supply by means of a posteffective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.
