Item 8.01. Other Events

On Nov. 24, 2008, a magistrate judge in the United States District Court in the Southern District of Texas (Houston) issued recommendations that plaintiffs' motions for class certification be denied in two previously disclosed antitrust lawsuits against Service Corporation International (SCI).

As previously reported, SCI is a defendant in two related class action antitrust lawsuits styled Funeral Consumers Alliance, Inc. v. Service Corporation International, et al. and Pioneer Valley Casket, et al. v. Service Corporation International, et al. These lawsuits allege, among other things, that we and several other companies involved in the funeral industry violated federal antitrust laws and state consumer laws by engaging in various anti-competitive conduct associated with the sale of caskets. Hearings on the plaintiffs' respective motions for class certification in those cases were held in December 2006 before the magistrate judge and briefing on the motion took place thereafter. The magistrate judge recommended that the motions for class certification in both cases be denied. The plaintiffs in each case have 10 court days (which may be extended) to file objections to the magistrate judge's recommendations with the United States district judge. If the district judge accepts the magistrate judge's recommendations and denies class certification, plaintiffs may petition the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit for leave of appeal. For further information and background on these cases, please refer to SCI's most recent SEC Form 10-Q.
