INDENTURE SECURITIES

ITEM 8. ANALYSIS OF INDENTURE PROVISIONS.

The Series A Notes will be issued pursuant to an Indenture (the "New Indenture") to be entered into between the Company, as issuer, and U.S. Bank National Association as trustee ("Trustee"). The following is an analysis of the New Indenture provisions required under Section 305(a)(2) of the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended. Capitalized terms used below and not defined herein have the same meanings as in the New Indenture.

(a) Events of Default; Withholding of Notice of Default (Sections 5.1 and 6.5)

Pursuant to the New Indenture, an "Event of Default" means any one of the following events:

1. the Company defaults in the payment of the principal of or interest on any Series A Note when due and such default continues for five business days;

2. the Company fails to comply with any of its other covenants, agreements or conditions in the Series A Notes or the New Indenture and the Company does not cure the default within 60 days after receipt of written notice from the Trustee or the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Series A Notes then outstanding. The notice must specify the default, demand that it be remedied and state that the notice is a "Notice of Default." The Trustee shall give such notice to the Company only if directed to do so in writing by the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Series A Notes then outstanding. Such notice by the Trustee shall not be deemed to be a certification by the Trustee as to whether an Event of Default has occurred;

3. there shall be a default under the Series B Notes or the Existing Debentures and either (i) such event of default results from the failure to pay the Series B Notes or the Existing Debentures at maturity or (ii) as a result of such event of default, the maturity of the Series B Notes or the Existing Debentures has been accelerated prior to their stated maturity and such acceleration shall not be rescinded or annulled or the accelerated amount paid within ten days after notice to the Company of such acceleration, or the Series B Notes or the Existing Debentures, as applicable, having been discharged;

4. the Company pursuant to or within the meaning of Title 11 of the U.S. Code or any similar Federal or state law for the relief of debtors ("Bankruptcy Law"):

- (A) commences a voluntary case or proceeding,
- (B) consents to the entry of an order for relief against it in an involuntary case or proceeding,
- (C) consents to the appointment of a Custodian of it or for all or substantially all of its property, or
- (D) makes a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors; or

5. a court of competent jurisdiction enters an order or decree under any Bankruptcy Law:

- (A) for relief against the Company in an involuntary case or proceeding,
- (B) appointing a Custodian of the Company or for all or substantially all of its property, or
- (C) ordering the liquidation of the Company, and the order or decree remains unstayed and in effect for 90 days.

If a Default or Event of Default occurs and is continuing and if it is actually known to the Trustee, the Trustee shall mail to each holder of Series A Notes notice of the Default or Event of Default within 90 days after it becomes known to the Trustee. Except in the case of a default in payment of principal of or interest on any Series A Note, the Trustee may withhold the notice if and so long as a committee of its trust officers in good faith determines that withholding the notice is in the interests of Holders of Series A Notes. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary expressed in the New Indenture, the Trustee shall not be deemed to have knowledge of any Event of Default under the New Indenture unless and until a trust officer shall have actual knowledge thereof, or shall have received written notice thereof from the Company at its principal Corporate Trust Office. The Trustee shall not be deemed to have actual knowledge of an Event of Default under the New Indenture, except in the case of an Event of Default arising as a result of the Company's failure to pay principal or interest on the Series A Notes or when due (provided that the Trustee is the Paying Agent), until a trust officer receives written notice thereof from the Company or any Noteholder that such a Default or an Event of Default has occurred.

(b) Execution and Authentication (Section 2.2)

Two officers that have been designated in the New Indenture to sign the Series A Notes shall sign the Series A Notes for the Company by manual or facsimile signature. If an officer designated in the New Indenture whose signature is on a Series A Note no longer holds that office at the time the Trustee authenticates the Series A Note, the Series A Note shall nevertheless be valid. A Series A Note shall not be valid until the Trustee manually signs the certificate of authentication on the Series A Note. Such signature shall be conclusive evidence that the Series A Note has been authenticated under the New Indenture. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any Series A Note shall have been authenticated and delivered under the New Indenture but never issued and sold by the Company, and the Company shall deliver such Series A Note to the Trustee for cancellation, for all purposes of the New Indenture such Series A Note shall be deemed never to have been authenticated and delivered hereunder and shall never be entitled to the benefits of the New Indenture. The Trustee shall authenticate Series A Notes for original issue in the aggregate principal amount of up to $105,714,000 from time to time after the execution of the New Indenture upon a written order or orders of the Company signed by two officers designated in the New Indenture or by an officer designated in the New Indenture and an Assistant Treasurer of the Company. The aggregate principal amount of the Series A Notes outstanding at any time may not exceed that amount. The Trustee may appoint an authenticating agent to authenticate Series A Notes. An authenticating agent may authenticate Series A Notes whenever the Trustee may do so. Each reference in this Indenture to authentication by the Trustee includes authentication by such agent. An authenticating agent has the same rights as an agent to deal with the Company or an Affiliate.

Because the Series A Notes are being issued in exchange for the Existing Debentures, there will be no cash proceeds from the issuance of the Series A Notes.

(c) Release or Release and Substitution of Property Subject to the Lien of the Indenture

None

(d) Satisfaction and Discharge of Indenture (Sections 7.1 and 7.2)

The provisions of the New Indenture shall no longer be in effect in respect of the Series A Notes, and the Company shall be deemed to have paid and discharged the entire indebtedness on the Series A Notes after the date of the deposit referred to in paragraph (1) below; provided that the following conditions shall have been satisfied:

1. the Company has deposited or caused to be deposited with the Trustee irrevocably as trust funds in trust, specifically pledged as security for, and dedicated solely to, the benefit of the Holders of the Series A Notes, (a) money or (b) U.S. Government Obligations or (c) a combination thereof, sufficient, in the opinion of a nationally recognized firm of independent public accountants expressed in a written certification thereof delivered to the Trustee, to pay and discharge the entire indebtedness on all the Series A Notes for principal and interest to the maturity date of the Series A Notes as such principal or interest becomes due and payable in accordance with the terms of the New Indenture and the Series A Notes;

2. the Company has paid or caused to be paid all other sums payable hereunder by the Company in connection with all of the Series A Notes, including all fees and expenses of the Trustee; and

3. the Company has delivered to the Trustee an opinion of counsel and an officers' certificate, each stating that all conditions precedent herein provided for relating to the satisfaction and discharge of the entire indebtedness on the Series A Notes and the discharge of the New Indenture and the termination of the Company's obligations under the New Indenture have been complied with.

Additionally, the Company may terminate all of its obligations under the New Indenture when:

Edgar Filing: AMERICAN RETIREMENT CORP - Form T-3

8

1. all of the Series A Notes theretofore authenticated and delivered (other than (a) Series A Notes that have been destroyed, lost or stolen and that have been replaced or paid and (b) Series A Notes for whose payment money has theretofore been deposited with the Trustee or the Paying Agent in trust or segregated and held in trust by the Company and thereafter repaid to the Company or discharged from such trust) have been delivered to the Trustee for cancellation; and

2. the Company has paid or caused to be paid all other sums payable hereunder by the Company in connection with the outstanding Series A Notes, including all fees and expenses of the Trustee.

(e) Evidence of Compliance with Conditions and Covenants (Section 3.5)

For so long as the Series A Notes are outstanding, the Company will deliver to the Trustee, within 120 days after the end of each fiscal year of the Company (which as of the date hereof is December 31), a written statement, which complies with Section 314(a)(4) of the Trust Indenture Act, signed by the principal executive officer, principal financial officer or principal accounting officer of the Company, stating, as to each signer thereof:

1. that a review of the activities of the Company during such year and of performance under the New Indenture has been made under his or her supervision; and

2. that to the best of his or her knowledge, based on such review, the Company has kept, observed, performed and fulfilled in all material respects each and every condition and covenant contained in this Indenture throughout such year, or, if there has been a default in the fulfillment of any such condition or covenant, specifying each such default known to him or her and the nature and status thereof.

The Company will give the Trustee written notice of a change in the fiscal year of the Company, within a reasonable time after such change is effected.

ITEM 9. OTHER OBLIGORS.

There is no other obligor on the Series A Notes other than the Company.
