Edgar Filing: WACHOVIA CORP NEW - Form 8-K

The News Release contains a description of Wachovia's earnings per share excluding merger-related and restructuring charges related to the September 2001 merger between First Union Corporation and the former Wachovia Corporation. Management believes that such financial measure provides useful information to investors because it provides information about Wachovia's financial performance from its ongoing business operations. The merger-related and restructuring charges are non-recurring expenses, principally related to systems conversion, occupancy and equipment, advertising and employee termination costs, net of non-recurring gains, principally related to gains from the sale of divested branches.
