PROXY STATEMENT

For the Annual Meeting of Stockholders
To be held on Tuesday, October 28, 2003

This proxy statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of Oriental Financial Group of proxies to be voted at the annual meeting of stockholders to be held on Tuesday, October 28, 2003 at 10:00 a.m., at conference room 9-A of the McConnell Valdés law offices located at 270 Muñoz Rivera Avenue, San Juan, Puerto Rico, and at any adjournment or postponement thereof, for the purposes set forth herein. This proxy statement is expected to be mailed to stockholders on or about October 3, 2003.

Each proxy solicited hereby, if properly signed and returned to Oriental Financial Group and not revoked prior to its use, will be voted in accordance with the instructions contained therein. If no contrary instructions are given by you, each proxy received will be voted for the matters described below. Any stockholder giving a proxy has the power to revoke it at any time before it is exercised by: (i) filing with the Secretary of the Board of Directors of Oriental Financial Group written notice thereof (addressed to: Carlos O. Souffront, Esq., Secretary of the Board of Directors, Oriental Financial Group Inc., P.O. Box 195115, San Juan, Puerto Rico 00919-5115); (ii) submitting a duly executed proxy bearing a later date; or (iii) by appearing personally at the annual meeting and giving the Secretary notice of his/her intention to vote in person. Proxies solicited hereby may be exercised only at the annual meeting, including any adjournment or postponement thereof, and will not be used for any other purpose.

Each proxy solicited hereby also confers discretionary authority on the Board of Directors of Oriental Financial Group to vote the proxy with respect to: (i) the approval of the minutes of the last annual meeting of stockholders; (ii) the election of any person as director if any nominee is unable to serve or, for good cause, will not serve; (iii) matters incident to the conduct of the annual meeting; and (iv) such other matters as may properly come before the annual meeting. Except with respect to procedural matters incident to the conduct of the annual meeting, management is not aware of any business that may properly come before the meeting other than those matters described in this proxy statement. However, if any other matters should properly come before the annual meeting, it is intended that proxies solicited hereby will be voted with respect to those other matters in accordance with the judgment of the persons voting the proxies.

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

The cost of solicitation of proxies will be borne by Oriental Financial Group, which has retained the services of American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, New York, New York, who acts as its transfer agent and registrar, to assist Oriental Financial Group in the solicitation of proxies for the annual meeting. The fee to be paid to such firm for these services is not expected to exceed $1,500, plus reimbursement of all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses. Oriental Financial Group will also reimburse brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by them in sending proxy materials to the beneficial owners of Oriental Financial Group's shares of common stock, $1.00 par value per share. In addition to solicitations by mail, directors, officers and employees of Oriental Financial Group or any of its subsidiaries may solicit proxies personally, by telephone or otherwise without additional compensation.

VOTING STOCK OUTSTANDING AND VOTE REQUIRED FOR APPROVAL

Only holders of shares of common stock of record at the close of business on September 26, 2003 (i.e., the voting record date) will be entitled to vote at the annual meeting. The total number of shares of common stock outstanding on the voting record date and eligible to cast votes at the annual meeting is 17,842,902. On the voting record date, there were outstanding 1,340,000 shares of 7.125% Noncumulative Monthly Income Preferred Stock, Series A, $1.00 par value per share (the Series A Preferred Stock). The shares of Series A Preferred Stock are not entitled to vote at the annual meeting.

The presence, either in person or by proxy, of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock is necessary to constitute a quorum at the annual meeting. For purposes of determining quorum, abstentions and broker non-votes will be treated as shares that are present and entitled to vote. A broker non-vote results when a broker or nominee has expressly indicated that it does not have discretionary authority to vote on a particular matter. Action with respect to the election of directors shall be taken by a majority of the votes cast. Therefore, abstentions and broker non-votes will not have an effect on the election of directors. With respect to this proposal, each holder of shares of common stock has the right to cumulate his/her votes as described below under the caption CUMULATIVE VOTING IN THE ELECTION OF DIRECTORS.

PROPOSAL: ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The by-laws of Oriental Financial Group provide that the Board of Directors shall consist of such number of directors as shall be fixed from time to time by resolution of the Board. The number of directors, as established by resolution, is presently nine. Oriental Financial Group's articles of incorporation and by-laws also provide that the Board of Directors shall be divided into three classes of directors as nearly equal in number as possible. The members of each class are to be elected for a term of three years and until their successors are duly elected and qualified. Only one class of directors is to be elected annually.

Other than Mr. José Enrique Fernández's employment agreement with Oriental Bank and Trust (Oriental Bank), a Puerto Rico commercial bank and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Oriental Financial Group, which requires the Board of Directors of Oriental Bank to nominate him for election as a director of Oriental Bank and, if elected, as Chairman of Oriental Bank's Board of Directors, there are no arrangements or understandings between Oriental Financial Group or Oriental Bank and any person pursuant to which such person has been elected a director. Except for Mr. Fernández, who is the father of José Fernández Richards, an executive officer of Oriental Financial Group, no other director is related to any other director or executive officer of Oriental Financial Group, including its subsidiaries, by blood, marriage or adoption (excluding those that are more remote than first cousin).

Messrs. José Enrique Fernández, Efraín Archilla and Julian S. Inclán have been nominated as directors for three-year terms expiring in 2006. Set forth below is certain information with respect to such nominees.

José Enrique Fernández (Age 60) - Chairman of the Board of Directors, President and Chief Executive Officer of Oriental Financial Group since June 1996. Chairman of the Board of Directors of Oriental Bank since December 1, 1988, and President and Chief Executive Officer of Oriental Bank since September 1, 1988. Chairman of the Board of Directors of Oriental Financial Services Corp. (Oriental Financial Services), San Juan, Puerto Rico (a registered securities broker-dealer organized under Puerto Rico law) since December 1991. Mr. Fernández was President and Chief Executive Officer of Drexel Burnham Lambert Puerto Rico Incorporated, San Juan, Puerto Rico, from October 1984 to April 1988. He was President and Chief Executive Officer of A.G. Becker Puerto Rico from 1978 to September 1984, and Vice President-Associate Manager of Prudential Bache Securities from 1965 to 1978. Mr. Fernández also serves as a member of the Board of Trustees of the University of Notre Dame, South Bend, Indiana, and as a member of the Board of Trustees of the YMCA Retirement Fund, New York, New York. He served from 1997 to 1998 as a member of the Board of Trustees of the Sacred Heart University, San Juan, Puerto Rico. Mr. Fernández is qualified and registered with the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (the NASD) as General Securities Representative (Series 7).

Efraín Archilla (Age 49) - Director of Oriental Financial Group since 1991 (including terms as director of Oriental Bank). He is President and General Manager of WYQE-FM, Radio Yunque 93 FM in Naguabo and Fajardo, Puerto Rico, since 1994. Mr. Archilla has been an operations consultant to WALO-AM Radio Station and Ochoa Broadcasting Corp. since 1993. He was General Manager of WALO Radio Station from 1973 to 1994, and Vice President and Treasurer of Ochoa Broadcasting Corp. from 1975 to 1994. He served as President of the Puerto Rico Broadcasters Association from 1988 to 1992, and currently is the President of that organization. He also served as President of the Puerto Rico Numismatic Society from 1983 to 1984, President of the Eastern Region

Arts and Culture Foundation and of the Humacao Chapter of the Puerto Rico Chamber of Commerce in 1992, and President of the Humacao Rotary Club in 1995.

Julian S. Inclán (Age 54) - Director of Oriental Financial Group since 1995 (including terms as director of Oriental Bank). President of American Paper Corporation (a distributor of fine papers, office supplies and graphic art supplies), San Juan, Puerto Rico, since September 1994. Mr. Inclán has served as Managing General Partner of Calibre, S.E. (a real estate investment company) since 1991, and as President of Inclán Realty (a real estate development company), San Juan, Puerto Rico, since 1991. He is also the President of Inmac Corporation (a leasing and investment company that is currently inactive), San Juan, Puerto Rico, since 1989. From 1978 to 1982 he served as Vice President and General Manager of St. Regis Paper and Bag, a division of Puerto Rican Cement Co., Inc., San Juan, Puerto Rico.

If any person named as a nominee is unable or unwilling to stand for election at the time of the annual meeting, the proxies will nominate and vote for a replacement nominee or nominees recommended by the Board of Directors. At this time, the Board of Directors knows of no reason why any of the nominees listed above may not be able to serve as a director if elected.

The Board of Directors Recommends that Stockholders Vote For this Proposal.

CUMULATIVE VOTING IN THE ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Pursuant to the by-laws of Oriental Financial Group, holders of shares of common stock have the right to cumulate their votes at annual meetings in which more than one director is being elected. Cumulative voting entitles each holder of common stock to a number of votes equal to the number of shares of common stock held by him/her multiplied by the number of directors to be elected. As a holder of shares of common stock, you may cast all or any number of such votes for one nominee or distribute such votes among any two or more nominees as you desire. Thus, for example, for the election of the three nominees being considered at this annual meeting, a stockholder owning 1,000 shares of common stock is entitled to 3,000 votes, and may distribute such votes equally among the nominees for election, cast them for the election of only one of such nominees, or otherwise distribute such votes as he/she desires.

In the absence of any express indication that the shares to be voted should be cumulated in a particular fashion, the votes represented by executed proxies will be distributed equally among the three nominees designated by the Board of Directors or in such other fashion as will most likely ensure the election of all the nominees.

SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT

The following table sets forth information as to the shares of common stock beneficially owned, as of August 31, 2003, by the only person known to Oriental Financial Group to be the beneficial owner of more than 5% of the total number of shares of common stock outstanding. While Mr. Fernández may be deemed to beneficially own the 47,286 shares subject to options that may be exercised within 60 days for purposes of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as a result of his having elected to receive qualified stock options pursuant to the Oriental Financial Group's stock option plans, under Puerto Rico law the aggregate fair market value of shares (determined as of the time of grant) for which Mr. Fernández may exercise stock options for the first time in any calendar year cannot exceed $100,000. BOARD MEETINGS AND COMMITTEES

The Board of Directors held twelve meetings during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2003. The Board has two standing committees: Audit and Compensation (each as described below). The Board members also serve on the Board of Directors of Oriental Bank, the principal subsidiary of Oriental Financial Group. During fiscal year 2002, directors received a fee of $900 for each Board meeting attended and $300 for each committee meeting attended. Only directors who are not officers of Oriental Financial Group, including its subsidiaries, receive fees for attendance at such meetings. No director attended fewer than 75% of the meetings held in fiscal year 2003, including meetings of committees on which he served during the year.

The Audit Committee assists the Board of Directors in its oversight of Oriental Financial Group's financial reporting process. Its primary duties include serving as an independent and objective party to monitor Oriental Financial Group's financial reporting process and internal control systems; reviewing and appraising the audit efforts of Oriental Financial Group's independent auditors and internal auditing department; and providing an open way of communication among Oriental Financial Group's independent accountants, financial and senior management, internal auditing department and the Board of Directors. The members of this committee are Messrs. Diego Perdomo, C.P.A., Alberto Richa-Angelini and Efraín Archilla. The committee met twelve times in fiscal year 2003. The Audit Committee operates pursuant to a written charter that has been approved and adopted by the Board of Directors. The Compensation Committee reviews and evaluates on a yearly basis the salary increases and bonuses of all of Oriental Financial Group's executive officers and makes recommendations to the Board of Directors. The Compensation Committee also administers the various stock option plans of Oriental Financial Group and is given absolute discretion to, among other things, construe and interpret the plans; to prescribe, amend and rescind rules and regulations relating to the plans; to select the persons to whom options will be granted to determine the number of shares subject to each option; and to determine the terms and conditions to which each grant and/or exercise of options is subject. The members of this committee are Messrs. Alberto Richa-Angelini, Emilio Rodríguez Jr. and Julian S. Inclán. The committee met eight times in fiscal year 2003.

Article I, section 13 of Oriental Financial Group's by-laws provides that stockholders entitled to vote for the election of directors may name nominees for election to the Board of Directors. Employment Agreements

José Enrique Fernández

On April 4, 2002, Oriental Bank and José Enrique Fernández entered into an employment agreement for a term of three years, which supercedes and replaces a previous employment agreement dated December 22, 1998, between Oriental Bank and Mr. Fernández. The agreement provides for an increase in salary to $400,000 in fiscal year 2003, and further increases to $450,000 in fiscal year 2004 and to $500,000 in fiscal year 2005, and an annual automobile and expense allowance of $38,400. The agreement also provides that Oriental Bank will pay for Mr. Fernández's membership in such social and business clubs that in his judgment are reasonably necessary for the performance of his Bank-related duties. Also, under the agreement, Oriental Bank will pay for a 10-year term life insurance policy in the amount of $1,500,000, covering the life of Mr. Fernández, for the benefit of Mr. Fernández's estate. The agreement also provides that, during its term, the Board of Directors will nominate and recommend to the stockholders the election of Mr. Fernández as a director at any election of directors in which his term as a director will expire, and, if elected, the Board of Directors will name Mr. Fernández to the position of Chairman. Pursuant to the agreement, Oriental Bank caused to be granted to Mr. Fernández options to purchase 60,000 shares of common stock. The stock options may be exercised by Mr. Fernández during a period commencing on the first anniversary and ending on the tenth anniversary of the agreement. Notwithstanding the above limitations, these stock options will become immediately exercisable if Mr. Fernández dies or is disabled, retires from employment with Oriental Bank, or if there occurs a change in control of Oriental Bank. The options shall survive one year after termination of the agreement, unless termination is the result of Mr. Fernández's illegal conduct or gross misconduct materially injurious to Oriental Bank, a regulatory order, or as a result of appointment by court or other public authority of a legal custodian for Oriental Bank for the purpose of liquidation.

The agreement may be terminated by Oriental Bank for just cause (as such term is defined in the agreement) at any time. In the event employment is terminated for just cause, Mr. Fernández will have no right to compensation or other benefits for any period after such termination. The agreement also provides for payments and other benefits for Mr. Fernández if there occurs a change in control of Oriental Bank or in the event of involuntary termination of employment in connection with any change in control of Oriental Bank, as defined therein. The term change in control is defined to include any of the following: (i) a change in control as defined in 12 U.S.C. § 1817(j) and 12 C.F.R. § 303.4, or (ii) a change in control that would be required to be reported in response to Item 6(e) of Schedule 14A of Regulation 14A promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, or (iii) when during any period of two consecutive years during the term of the agreement, individuals who at the beginning of such period constitute the Board of Directors cease for any reason to constitute at least a majority thereof, unless the election of each director who was not a director at the beginning of such period has been approved in advance by directors representing at least two-thirds of the directors then in office, who were directors at the beginning of the period.

The agreement also provides that Mr. Fernández may terminate his employment for good reason, which includes: (i) failure by Oriental Bank to comply with any material provision of the agreement, which failure has not been cured within ten (10) days after notice thereof has been given by Mr. Fernández to Oriental Bank; and (ii) any purported termination of Mr. Fernández's employment which is not effected pursuant to a notice of termination satisfying certain requirements set forth in the agreement.

In the event that there occurs a change in control, or if Mr. Fernández is terminated other than for just cause and in connection with a change in control, Oriental Bank will pay Mr. Fernández an amount equal to the aggregate annual compensation paid or payable to him (including salary, bonus, car allowance and the value of any other benefits provided to Mr. Fernández) during the year in which the termination occurs multiplied by 3.00. The payment is to be made in a lump sum on or before the fifth day following the date of termination. If Mr. Fernández terminates his employment for good reason, the severance payments from the Oriental Bank will be equal to the aggregate annual compensation paid or payable to Mr. Fernández (including salary, bonus, car allowance and the value of any other benefits provided to Mr. Fernández) during the year in which the termination occurs multiplied by 2.00. The severance payment is to be made in a lump sum on or before the fifth day following the date of termination. If Mr. Fernández had been terminated for other than just cause as of June 30, 2002, he would have been entitled to a severance payment of approximately $1,315,200. If Mr. Fernández had terminated his employment for good reason, as of June 30, 2002, he would have been entitled to a severance payment of approximately $876,800.

The agreement contains provisions restricting Mr. Fernández's ability to engage or participate in, become a director of, or render advisory or other services to any firm or entity competitive with Oriental Bank. The agreement does not contain any provision restricting Mr. Fernández's right to compete against Oriental Bank upon termination of employment.

José Rafael Fernández

On February 16, 2001, Oriental Financial Group and José Rafael Fernández entered into an employment agreement for a term of forty-two months commencing on January 1, 2001 and terminating on June 30, 2004. The

Any salary increases for this agreement, or extensions thereof, shall be mutually agreed to by Oriental Financial Group and Mr. Fernández. The agreement also provides that Mr. Fernández will be entitled to participate in, and receive the benefits of, any stock option plan, profit sharing plan or other plans, benefits and privileges given to employees and executives of Oriental Financial Group for which Mr. Fernández may qualify. Such benefits will be provided to Mr. Fernández while he is employed under the terms of the agreement or any extension thereof. Pursuant to the agreement, Oriental Financial Group granted Mr. Fernández options to purchase not less than 20,000 shares of common stock starting in fiscal year 2002. The stock options may be exercised by Mr. Fernández during a period commencing on the first and ending on the tenth anniversary of the agreement. Notwithstanding the above limitations, these stock options will become immediately exercisable if Mr. Fernández dies, is disabled, retires from employment with Oriental Financial Group or if there occurs a change in control of Oriental Financial Group. The options shall survive one year after termination of the agreement, unless termination is the result of Mr. Fernández's illegal conduct or gross misconduct materially injurious to Oriental Financial Group, a regulatory order, or as a result of appointment by court or other public authority of a legal custodian for Oriental Financial Group for the purpose of liquidation.

The agreement may be terminated by Oriental Financial Group for just cause (as such term is defined in the agreement) at any time. In the event that employment is terminated for just cause, Mr. Fernández will have no right to compensation or other benefits for any period after such termination. The agreement also provides for payment and other benefits for Mr. Fernández if there occurs a change in control of Oriental Financial Group or in the event of involuntary termination of employment in connection with any change in control of Oriental Financial Group, as defined therein. The agreement also provides that Mr. Fernández may terminate his employment for good reason, which includes: (i) failure by Oriental Financial Group to comply with any material provision of the agreement, which failure has not been cured within ten (10) days after notice thereof has been given by Mr. Fernández to Oriental Financial Group; and (ii) any purported termination of Mr. Fernández's employment which is not affected pursuant to a notice of termination satisfying certain requirements set forth in the agreement.

In the event that there occurs a change of control, or if Mr. Fernández is terminated other than for just cause and in connection with a change in control, Oriental Financial Group will pay Mr. Fernández an amount equal to the aggregate annual compensation paid or payable to him (including salary, bonus, car allowance and the value of any other benefits provided to Mr. Fernández) during the year the termination occurs multiplied by 3.00. The payment is to be made in a lump sum on or before the fifth day following the date of termination. If Mr. Fernández terminates his employment for good reason, the severance payments from Oriental Financial Group will be equal to the aggregate annual compensation paid or payable to Mr. Fernández (including salary, bonus, car allowance and the value of any other benefits provided to Mr. Fernández) during the year in which the termination occurs multiplied by 2.00. The severance payment is to be made in a lump sum on or before the fifth day following the date of termination. If Mr. Fernández had been terminated for other than just cause, as of June 30, 2002, he would have been entitled to a severance payment of approximately $1,107,000. If Mr. Fernández had terminated his employment for good reason, as of June 30, 2002 he would have been entitled to a severance payment of approximately $780,000.

The agreement contains provisions restricting Mr. Fernández's ability to engage or participate in, become a director of, or render advisory or other services to any firm or entity competitive with Oriental Financial Group for a period of one year subsequent to the termination of the agreement. The agreement further contains provisions protecting the confidential information and trade secrets of Oriental Financial Group while Mr. Fernández is employed by Oriental Financial Group.

Pursuant to the agreement, Oriental Financial Group granted Mr. Díaz options to purchase 15,000 shares of common stock at the signing of the agreement and not less than 15,000 shares of common stock each year thereafter. The stock options may be exercised by Mr. Díaz during a period commencing on the first and ending on the tenth anniversary of the agreement. Notwithstanding the above limitations, such stock options will become immediately exercisable if Mr. Díaz dies, is disabled, retires from employment with Oriental Financial Group or if there occurs a change in control of Oriental Financial Group. The options shall survive one year after termination of the agreement, unless termination is the result of Mr. Díaz' illegal conduct or gross misconduct materially injurious to Oriental Financial Group, a regulatory order, or as a result of appointment by court or other public authority of a legal custodian for Oriental Financial Group for the purpose of liquidation.

The agreement may be terminated by Oriental Financial Group for just cause (as such term is defined in the agreement) at any time. In the event that employment is terminated for just cause, Mr. Díaz will have no right to compensation or other benefits for any period after such termination. The agreement also provides for payment and other benefits for Mr. Díaz if there occurs a change in control of Oriental Financial Group or in the event of involuntary termination of employment in connection with any change in control of Oriental Financial Group, as defined therein. The term change in control is defined to include any of the following: (i) a change in control as defined in 12 U.S.C. § 1817(j) and 12 C.F.R. § 303.4; or (ii) a change in control that would be required to be reported in response to Item 6(e) of Schedule 14A of Regulation 14A promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

The agreement also provides that Mr. Díaz may terminate his employment for good reason, which includes: (i) failure by Oriental Financial Group to comply with any material provision of the agreement, which failure has not been cured within ten (10) days after notice thereof has been given by Mr. Díaz to Oriental Financial Group, and (ii) any purported termination of Mr. Díaz' employment which is not affected pursuant to a notice of termination satisfying certain requirements set forth in the agreement.

In the event that there occurs a change of control, or if Mr. Díaz is terminated other than for just cause and in connection with a change in control, Oriental Financial Group will pay Mr. Díaz an amount equal to the aggregate annual compensation paid or payable to him (including salary, bonus, car allowance and the value of any other benefits provided to Mr. Díaz) during the year the termination occurs multiplied by 3.00. The payment is to be made in a lump sum on or before the fifth day following the date of termination. If Mr. Díaz terminates his employment for good reason, the severance payments from Oriental Financial Group will be equal to the aggregate annual compensation paid or payable to Mr. Díaz (including salary, bonus, car allowance and the value of any other benefits provided to Mr. Díaz) during the year in which the termination occurs multiplied by 2.00. The severance payment is to be made in a lump sum on or before the fifth day following the date of termination. COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Oriental Financial Group operates in a highly competitive industry where the quality, creativity and professionalism of its executive officers is of utmost importance to the success, profitability and growth of Oriental Financial Group. Accordingly, the compensation program of Oriental Financial Group, which is managed by the Compensation Committee, is intended to retain and appropriately reward experienced and well-trained executive officers, align the long-term interests of the executive officers with those of the stockholders and tie total compensation opportunities to the achievement of Oriental Financial Group's institutional goals and the achievement of goals for each of its subsidiaries.

The Compensation Committee evaluates the performance of management, reviews the compensation levels of members of management, and evaluates and reviews all aspects of compensation for Oriental Financial Group's executive officers.

In evaluating the performance and compensation of all of the executive officers, the Compensation Committee reviews available peer group information for comparable financial institutions or bank holding companies in Puerto Rico and in the United States and assesses the performance in accordance with the overall attainment of Oriental Financial Group's goals for such fiscal year, which are set forth in Oriental Financial Group's three-year business plan that is updated and approved by the Board of Directors every fiscal year.

Bonus

The compensation program for Oriental Financial Group's executive officers provides for a performance bonus, which purpose is to maximize the efficiency and effectiveness of Oriental Financial Group's operations. The bonuses that are paid to the executive officers are linked to the performance of Oriental Financial Group as an institution as well as to the performance of each of Oriental Financial Group's subsidiaries. In addition, in the event the institutional and individual goals are achieved, the bonus amounts that are generally paid to the executive officers are determined so that the total salary and bonus compensation paid to them is competitive with the amounts paid by comparable financial institutions or bank holding companies in Puerto Rico and in the United States.

Long-Term Compensation

The compensation program for the executive officers also contemplates long-term incentive compensation in the form of stock options granted under Oriental Financial Group's stock option plans. Oriental Financial Group's stock option plans provide for ownership of the shares of common stock which, in turn, creates a direct relationship between the performance of Oriental Financial Group, as reflected by the market value of the shares of common stock, and executive compensation, and further creates a direct link between the interests of the executive officers and the interests of the stockholders.

The awards are made by the administrators of Oriental Financial Group's stock option plans, which are the members of the Compensation Committee. The plan administrators are given absolute discretion to select which of the eligible persons will be granted stock options and the amount of stock options to be granted to such persons. In general terms, the plan administrators, in determining such amounts, consider total compensation information obtained from various comparable financial institutions or bank holding companies in Puerto Rico and in the United States that they track, as well as the general trend in total compensation in the financial services industry.

Fiscal Year 2003 Results

Among the results of operations for fiscal year 2003 that the Compensation Committee placed particular emphasis when it approved the bonuses paid and the stock options granted to the executive officers, which amounts are set forth in separate tables in this proxy statement, are the following: (i) Oriental Financial Group reported net income of $51.3 million or $2.65 per common share on a diluted basis, compared to $38.5 million or $2.00 per common share or a diluted basis for fiscal year 2002, representing an increase of 33.5% for fiscal year 2003; (ii) the performance of each of Oriental Financial Group's subsidiaries; and (iii) Oriental Financial Group had total financial assets of $5.7 billion, total bank assets of $3.0 billion and total stockholders' equity of $201.7 million as of June 30, 2003, compared to total financial assets of $5.0 billion, total bank assets of $2.5 billion and total stockholders' equity of $166.4 million as of June 30, 2002.

INDEBTEDNESS OF MANAGEMENT

Certain transactions involving loans and deposits were transacted during fiscal year 2003 between Oriental Bank, some of its directors and executive officers, including those of its affiliates, and persons related to or affiliated with such persons. All such transactions were made in the ordinary course of business on substantially the same terms, including interest rates, collateral and repayment terms, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with other persons, and did not involve more than the normal risk of uncollectability or other unfavorable features. At present, none of the loans to such directors and executive officers, including persons related to or affiliated with such persons, is non-performing.

Based solely on the review of copies of such forms and on other information furnished to Oriental Financial Group by such individuals, Oriental Financial Group believes that during and with respect to fiscal year 2003 its directors and executive officers, and persons who own more than ten percent of Oriental Financial Group's equity securities, timely filed all required reports thereunder.

PERFORMANCE GRAPH

The stock performance graph below compares the cumulative total stockholder return of Oriental Financial Group's shares of common stock from June 30, 1992, to June 30, 2003, with the cumulative total return of the Standard & Poor's 500 Composite Stock Index, the Dow Jones US Total Market Index, and the Standard & Poor's Diversified Financial Services Index. The Standard & Poor's 500 Composite Stock Index is a broad index which includes a wide variety of issuers and industries representatives of a cross section of the market. After careful consideration, Oriental Financial Group has decided to use the same composition of companies that made up the Standard & Poor's Diversified Financial Services Index, although the index retired in 2002. Oriental Financial Group has historically used this index and sees it as an adequate representation of peer group industry guidance for Oriental Financial Group.
