The following documents filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission are incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement:

1. The Registrant's Annual Report on Form 10-KSB for the fiscal year ended February 28, 2001; supersedes such statement. All information appearing in this Registration Statement is qualified in its entirety by the information and financial statements (including notes thereto) appearing in documents incorporated herein by reference, except to the extent set forth in the immediately preceding statement.

Item 4. Description of Securities.

The class of securities to be offered hereby is subject to the reporting requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The Company's authorized capitalization is 30,000,000 shares of common stock, $.002 par value, of which approximately 15,600,000 shares of common stock are issued and outstanding.

Holders of the Company's Common Stock are entitled to one vote per share on each matter submitted to vote at any meeting of shareholders. Shares of Common Stock do not carry cumulative voting rights and therefore, holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock will be able to elect the entire board of directors and, if they do so, minority shareholders would not be able to elect any members to the board of directors. The Company's board of directors has authority, without action by the Company's shareholders, to issue all or any portion of the authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock, which would reduce the percentage ownership of the Company of its shareholders and which would dilute the book value of the Common Stock.

Shareholders of the Company have no preemptive rights to acquire additional shares of Common Stock. The Common Stock is not subject to redemption and carries no subscription or conversion rights. In the event of liquidation of the Company, the shares of Common Stock are entitled to share equally in corporate assets after the satisfaction of all liabilities. Holders of Common Stock are entitled to receive such dividends, as the board of directors may from time to time declare out of funds legally available for the payment of dividends. During the last two fiscal years the Company has not paid cash dividends on its Common Stock and does not anticipate that it will pay cash dividends in the foreseeable future.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Not applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Officers and Directors.

The Registrant is a Delaware corporation. The General Corporation Law of Delaware provides authority for broad indemnification of directors, officers, employees and agents. The Registrant's Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws incorporate the indemnification provisions of the General Corporation Law of Delaware to the fullest extent provided.

The Registrant has entered into indemnification agreements with its Directors indemnifying them against liability and reasonable costs and expenses incurred in litigation arising by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer, stockholder, employee, or agent of the Registrant, provided that the director acted in good faith and in a manner reasonably intended to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Registrant, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

Item 7. Exemption from Registration Claimed.

Not Applicable.

Item 9. Undertakings.

A. The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities offered at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

B. The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

C. Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer, or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by final adjudication of such issue.
