Common Stock (the "Private Placement"). The price to be paid in the Private Placement will be $3.10 per unit, each unit consisting of one share of Common Stock and a warrant to purchase 0.2 shares of Common Stock. The Private Placement is subject to customary closing conditions.

The net cash proceeds of approximately $9.9 million will be used by the Company principally to meet its mandatory redemption obligation related to its Series B Preferred Stock, par value $.01 per share ("Series B Preferred Stock"), which matures on December 9, 2004, and for business commitments and initiatives.

The warrants to be issued in the Private Placement will have an exercise price of $3.41 per share of Common Stock and will expire in May 2009. The warrants are callable by the Company commencing one year after issuance if the trading price of the Common Stock is at least two times the warrant exercise price for 30 consecutive trading days and certain other conditions are met.

The Private Placement is being made only to accredited investors in a transaction exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"). The shares of Common Stock and the warrants being issued, and the shares of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of the warrants, have not been registered under the Securities Act, or any state securities laws, and unless so registered, may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws. The Company has agreed to file a registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission covering resales of shares of Common Stock issued in the Private Placement or issuable upon exercise of the warrants.

In its press release, the Company also announced that it has entered into definitive agreements (the "Preferred Stock Agreements"), subject to certain conditions, with certain holders ("Preferred Stockholders") of its outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock, under which such Preferred Stockholders will convert a total of 2,500 shares of Preferred Stock, including accrued but unpaid dividends, and receive upon such conversion approximately 1,209,000 shares of Common Stock plus warrants to purchase approximately 1,209,000 shares of Common Stock exercisable until June 9, 2005 at an exercise price of $3.0571 per share, which is the same price as the conversion price of the Preferred Stock into each share of Common Stock. The Company has agreed to include the shares of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of such warrants in the registration statement to be filed in connection with the Private Placement.

The full text of the Company's press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by this reference.
