Item 5.02(d). Election of Directors

On February 7, 2006, Roger Carolin was elected to the board of directors of Amkor Technology, Inc. He has been appointed to serve on the audit committee of the board of directors.

Mr. Carolin is currently a venture partner at SCP Partners, a multi-stage venture capital firm with over $800 million under management that invests in technology oriented companies. At SCP, he works to identify attractive investment opportunities and assists portfolio companies in the areas of strategy development, operating management, and intellectual property.

Mr. Carolin co-founded CFM Technologies, Inc., a global manufacturer of semiconductor process equipment, and was CEO for 10 years until the company was acquired. During his time at CFM, the company developed a substantial patent portfolio. The core patent in the portfolio was successfully litigated against two major competitors.

Mr. Carolin formerly worked for Honeywell, Inc. and General Electric Co., where he developed advanced computer systems for on-board missile applications. Mr. Carolin holds a bachelor's degree in electrical engineering from Duke University and an MBA from Harvard Business School.
