RANGER GOVERNANCE ISSUES STATEMENT REGARDING ISS RECOMMENDATION FOR COMPUTER ASSOCIATES BOARD

Dallas, TX, August 10, 2001 - Ranger Governance, Ltd. today issued the following statement regarding Institutional Shareholder Services' (ISS) recommendation on the election of directors at Computer Associates' (NYSE: CA) annual meeting of shareholders on August 29, 2001:

"We are disappointed that ISS has endorsed the incumbent board of a company we believe is not growing in any meaningful way. We believe that the board and management of Computer Associates need to change in order to improve the company's performance, culture and growth. We believe our message of corporate governance, accountable and flexible management and enhancement of shareholder value is being heard by shareholders."

Ranger noted that ISS indicated that:

"Mr. Wyly and his colleagues have mounted a credible case for change at CA, and now offer shareholders a business model that has clearly worked in the past. The dissidents have also put together an `all-star' board whose credentials are nearly unimpeachable to oversee the implementation of Ranger's plan for CA."*

"[Wyly] has come up with a fairly detailed alternative to management's plan. Furthermore, his strategy appears well-tailored to remedy some of the fundamental weaknesses of CA's business in the past, customer-centric as it is (the plan also would allow customers to buy only those CA products they truly want and need, addressing previous complaints that many CA customers were forced to buy products that they never used, or `shelf-ware')."*
