ITEM 4. PURPOSE OF TRANSACTION.

The Reporting Persons contend that the Fund's Board of Directors has failed, over an extended period, to take meaningful action to address the Fund's persistently wide discount to NAV. We undertake this filing to communicate our concerns to fellow shareholders.

In a letter dated December 18, 2008, we expressed our belief that the share buyback program instituted by the Fund had not effectively narrowed the Fund's discount to NAV. The foregoing description of the letter is not intended to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by the complete text of the letter, which is filed as Exhibit B hereto as incorporated herein by reference.

In a prior letter dated August 23, 2007, the Reporting Persons expressed concerns regarding the Fund's very large undistributed capital gains. The foregoing description of the letter is not intended to be complete and it is qualified in its entirety by the complete text of the letter, which is filed as Exhibit A hereto as incorporated herein by reference.

ITEM 5. INTERESTS IN SECURITIES OF THE ISSUER.

and (b). As of the date hereof, CLIG, through its control of CLIM, and CLIM, in its capacity as investment adviser to the City of London Funds and the Segregated Accounts, have voting and dispositive power with respect to all 3,833,372 Shares owned directly by the City of London Funds and the Segregated Accounts, representing approximately 24.17% of the 15.861 million Shares outstanding as of December 30, 2008, as reported by the Fund. As of the date hereof, EWF, GEM, IEM, GFM, FREE, PLUS, and the Segregated Accounts owned directly 451,069, 481,017, 480,144, 67,057, 480,874, 14,160 and 1,859,051 Shares, respectively, representing approximately 2.84%, 3.03%, 3.03%, 0.42%, 3.03%, 0.09% and 11.72%, respectively, of the 15.861 million Shares outstanding as of December 30, 2008, as reported by the Fund. The resulting ownership in excess of 3% of the outstanding voting shares of the Fund by GEM, IEM, and FREE, respectively, resulted from a share buy-back program instituted by the Fund which had the effect of reducing the total amount of the Fund's voting shares outstanding, and not as a result of a direct purchase or acquisition of Fund shares by GEM, IEM, and FREE. Such ownership in excess of 3% of the Fund's shares by GEM, IEM and FREE is therefore specifically exempted from Section 12(d)(1)(A) of the Investment Company Act of 1940.

(c). Information with respect to all transactions in the Shares beneficially owned by the Reporting Persons that were effected during the past 60 days is set forth below:

EXHIBIT A

23rd August 2007

Mr. Christian Strenger
Chairman
Central Europe & Russia Fund
345 Park Avenue
New York, NY 10154

Dear Mr. Strenger,

Edgar Filing: CENTRAL EUROPE & RUSSIA FUND, INC. - Form SC 13D

City of London Investment Management Company Limited ("City of London") are shareholders of Central Europe and Russia Fund (CEE) on behalf of our Clients' portfolios. In reviewing the recently filed semi-annual report we noted with interest the level of the unrealised capital gain component of the CEE portfolio.

The Board will be aware of the issues faced by Korea Fund Inc. and Brazil Fund Inc. in recent years and the risks of the cascade effect, caused by having a large unrealised capital gain component. The cascade effect can prove to be terminal to a fund's life as in the unfortunate case of the latter.

In addition, City of London would question whether carrying such a large unrealised gain has an adverse effect on the ability of the manager to perform. By carrying such a large unrealised capital gain it also would seem to be creating an inherent risk to taxable investors by potentially one day passing on a significant tax liability which might not be possible to offset.

Please confirm whether the decision to allow the unrealised capital gain component of the fund to increase is a decision of the Board or whether it is a policy of the manager. We would be interested to know if and how the board monitors the level of the unrealised capital gains and whether the impact of a potential cascade effect has been an issue discussed.

Yours sincerely,

Michael Sugrue
Fund Manager

EXHIBIT B

Mr. Christian Strenger
Chairman
Central Europe & Russia Fund
345 Park Avenue
New York, NY 10154

18 December 2008

Dear Mr. Strenger,

City of London Investment Management Company Limited ("CoL") represents in excess of 24% of shares outstanding of the Central Europe and Russia Fund (the "Fund" or "CEE") for its clients and is concerned with the wide discount at which the shares of the Fund trade.

The Fund's discount has averaged close to 11% during the past 12 months. We would suggest that this is unacceptable. During November 2008 however, the Fund's discount averaged over 16%. On 15 December, the Fund's shares traded at a discount wider than 26%. In our opinion, wide discounts do not positively contribute to shareholder value. We would like to know what plans the Board has to reduce the discount.

On 23 August 2007 we outlined a number of issues of concern including the significant retained capital gains position. In its response the Board indicated its commitment to maximizing long-term shareholder value in a letter to CoL dated 11 September 2007. That long-term value is at present being substantially undermined due to the significant discount at which the Fund's shares trade. We believe this value would be enhanced by taking steps to address the wide discount, including but not limited to a share buyback or distribution of assets at or around NAV.

We look forward in hearing your response on this issue within seven days, at which point we would otherwise consider approaching shareholders directly.

Yours sincerely,

Ghahre Pascale
Corporate Governance
