FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

The statements contained herein that are not historical facts are forward-looking statements based on management's current expectations and beliefs concerning future developments and their potential effects on the Company. There can be no assurance that future developments affecting the Company will be the same as those anticipated by management. Actual results may differ from those projected in the forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties. These include, but are not limited to, the following risks: (1) Changes in the performance of the financial markets, (2) Changes in the demand for and market acceptance of the Company's products and services, (3) Changes in general economic conditions including interest rates, presence of competitors with greater financial resources, and the impact of competitive projects and pricing, (4) the effect of the Company's policies, (5) the continued availability of adequate funding sources, (6) actual prepayment rates and credit losses as compared to prepayment rates and credit losses assumed by the Company for purposes of its valuation of mortgage derivative securities (the Participation Contract), (7) the effect of changes in market interest rates on the spread between the coupon rate and the pass through rate and on the discount rate assumed by the Company in its valuation of its Participation Contract, and (8) various legal, regulatory and litigation risks.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This Amendment No. 1 to the Form 10-K of Pacific Premier Bancorp (the Company) for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002, is being filed to (i) amend Part I, Item 3, Legal Proceedings, and (ii) to revise the exhibit index in Item 15 and to file additional exhibits previously omitted from the Company's Form 10-K.

PART I

ITEM 3. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

In December 1999, certain shareholders of the Company filed a Federal securities lawsuit against the Company, various officers and directors of the Company, and certain other third parties, titled Funke v. Life Financial, et. al. The class action lawsuit was filed in the United States District Court for the southern District of New York to assert claims against the defendants under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the Securities Act of 1933, in connection with the sale of the Company's common stock in its 1997 public offering. Plaintiffs seek unspecified damages in their complaint. A substantially similar action was filed in the United States District Court for the Central District of California in January 2000 and subsequently dismissed without prejudice. In April 2000, the Company and its officer and director defendants filed motions to dismiss the lawsuit or transfer it to California. In December 2002, the Court denied the motion to transfer, dismissed one of the claims, and allowed one of the claims to remain open. Plaintiff's sole remaining cause of action is based on an alleged violation of Section 11 of the Securities Act. The Court has not certified the class or set a trial date. The parties have completed very limited discovery. The parties are currently in settlement negotiations with respect to the action, but, if it cannot be settled on terms acceptable to the Company, the Company intends to vigorously defend against the claim asserted in the litigation. Although the Company's insurance carrier has accepted this claim with a customary reservation of rights, the Company believes that under its policy its potential liability may be as high as 20% of any settlement and litigation expenses. The maximum aggregate coverage for this claim under the insurance policy is $10,000,000.

In addition, from time to time, the Company is a party to claims and legal proceedings arising in the ordinary course of its business. After taking into consideration information furnished by our counsel as to the current status of these claims or proceedings to which we are a party, Management is of the opinion that the ultimate aggregate liability represented thereby, if any, will not have a material adverse affect on the Company's financial condition.

PART IV
