Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

On June 2, 2005, SI International, Inc. (the Company) received a modification extending the period of performance of its National Visa Center, or NVC, contract with the U.S. Department of State. The expiration date of the NVC contract, Contract No. S-LMAQM-99-D0042, was extended from May 31, 2005 to June 30, 2005. The NVC contract supports U.S. Government operations at the National Visa Center and Kentucky Consular Center. The Company is the incumbent on this contract and has submitted its proposal in response to the solicitation for the successor contract to the NVC contract.

The above-referenced statements may contain forward-looking statements that are made pursuant to the safe-harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Expressions of future goals and similar expressions reflecting something other than historical fact are intended to identify forward-looking statements, but are not the exclusive means of identifying such statements. These forward-looking statements involve a number of risks and uncertainties, which are described in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. These risks and uncertainties include: differences between authorized amounts and amounts received by the Company under government contracts; government customers' failure to exercise options under contracts; changes in federal government (or other applicable) procurement laws, regulations, policies and budgets; the Company's ability to attract and retain qualified personnel; and the important factors discussed in the Risk Factors section of the annual report on Form 10-K filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission and available directly from the Commission at www.sec.gov. The actual results may differ materially from any forward-looking statements due to such risks and uncertainties. The Company undertakes no obligations to revise or update any forward-looking statements in order to reflect events or circumstances that may arise after the date of this release.
