Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(e) Compensatory arrangement with named executive officers

On June 15, 2016, the Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors of VMware, Inc. approved an executive retention plan (the “Retention Plan”) covering VMware executives designated by the Committee. The Plan provides severance benefits for participants who are involuntarily terminated without “cause”, or who terminate employment for “good reason” during the term of the Retention Plan, which runs through December 31, 2017.

Upon a qualifying termination under the Retention Plan each participant is eligible to receive a lump sum payment equal to the sum of (x) the participant’s annual base salary, (y) the participant’s target annual bonus and (z) an annual health insurance premium amount. Participants are also eligible to vest in the portion of the participant’s then-outstanding and unvested restricted stock unit and stock option awards scheduled to vest in the twelve months following the participant’s termination date.

The annual health insurance premium amount equals the annual cost required to obtain continuation coverage for the participant and his or her covered dependents. Participants are required to execute a release in favor of VMware in exchange for receiving Retention Plan benefits. The Retention Plan enables participants to receive severance benefits relating to involuntary terminations under circumstances for which the Company’s Change in Control Retention Plan adopted on February 25, 2015 (the “CIC Plan”) does not apply. In situations where the CIC Plan provides severance, no severance will be payable under the Retention Plan.

Each of the Company’s executive officers are designated as participants in the Retention Plan.

The foregoing description of the Retention Plan does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the Plan, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated by reference herein.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.
