Introduction

Infinera Corporation (the “Company”) is a leader in optical transport networking solutions, providing equipment, software and services to telecommunications service providers, internet content providers, cable providers, wholesale and enterprise carriers, research and education institutions, enterprise customers, and government entities across the globe. Optical transport networks are deployed by customers facing significant demand for optical bandwidth prompted by increased use of high-speed internet access, business Ethernet services, mobile broadband, cloud-based services, high-definition video streaming services, virtual and augmented reality, and the Internet of Things (IoT). The Company’s end-to-end packet-optical portfolio is designed to be managed with a single network management system. The Company’s products for the reporting period covered by this Form SD include the (i) DTN-X family of platforms; (ii) XTM series; and (iii) Cloud Xpress platform. The platforms connect to one another using an optical “line system” or the Infinera FlexILS. All the platforms and the line system are collectively referred to herein as the “Covered Products.” The Company has adopted a Conflict Minerals Policy, which is available on its website at <http://www.infinera.com/company/social-responsibility/conflict-minerals/> on the Corporate Social Responsibility webpage. The content of any website referred to in this Form SD is included for general information only and is not incorporated by reference in this Form SD.
