CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

Dear Shareholders,

It gives me great pleasure to present my first report to you. Appreciating the trust and the great responsibilities you and my fellow Directors have vested in me, since my appointment as the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Company last year, I have undertaken extensive investigation and examination of the subsidiaries of the Company, communicated and exchanged opinions with the management, employees, customers, business partners of the Company and relevant regulatory authorities. I have gained a better understanding of the operations, corporate management, business strategy, corporate culture and other aspects of the Company. I have full confidence in the Company's fundamentals and its future development.

Annual Report 2004

CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

China Telecom is a long-standing and leading operator in the wireline telecommunications service sector. With a substantial and solid subscriber base, a well recognised brand name, a high quality telecommunications network, a strong management foundation, an outstanding management team and a group of high-calibre employees, the Company has been operating efficiently and performing well.

Our financial performance in 2004 was favourable. We recorded continuous growth in revenue and were successful in managing our operating costs and capital expenditure. The Company's operating revenue reached RMB161,212 million, an increase of 6.4% from last year, of which RMB8,458 million was generated from the amortisation of upfront connection fees. Excluding the upfront connection fees, our operating revenue was RMB152,754 million, an increase of 7.7% from last year. Our EBITDA* was RMB78,542 million, an increase of 12.7% from last year. Our EBITDA margin* was at a relatively high level of 51.4%. Our net profit* (after deduction of deficit on revaluation of property, plant and equipment of RMB1,262 million) was RMB19,565 million. Our earnings per share* reached RMB0.25.

The Company's strong operating cash flow provides funding for the necessary investment in relation to our long-term development, and it also ensures our shareholders receive a favourable cash return. Taking into consideration of the Company's operational and financial conditions and capital expenditure required for our future business expansion, in particular, the investment necessary for our future strategic transformation, the Board of Directors will propose to declare a dividend in the amount equivalent to HK$0.065 per share in the upcoming Annual General Meeting, so that we can retain sufficient financial flexibility, with a view to achieving the best return to our shareholders.

Our businesses grew steadily in 2004. Our local telephone subscriber base increased by 25.66 million, to 187 million, of which 42.17 million was made up of local wireless access subscribers, with an increase of 16.60 million. Such growth made an important contribution to the increase in the usage volume and our operating revenue. Long distance services developed better than previous years, recording a revenue growth of 2.1%. Revenue generated from Internet services sustained rapid growth and accounted for 9.2% of our operating revenue (excluding the revenue from amortisation of upfront connection fees), an increase of 2.2 percentage points over 2003. This increase in revenue generated from Internet Services contributed to the increase in operating revenue (excluding the revenue from amortisation of upfront connection fees) of 2.9 percentage points. Broadband subscribers increased by 6.61 million to 13.84 million. Value-added services continued to grow steadily and showed a strong potential for further growth. At the same time, the contribution of non-voice services to revenue growth was increasing.

* After incorporating the revenue from the amortisation of upfront connection fees, EBITDA was RMB87,000 million, EBITDA margin was 54.0%, net profit was RMB28,023 million, earnings per share was RMB0.36.

CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

Our Company has always attached great importance to corporate governance and business integrity to ensure its sustainable development. We shall continue to improve our corporate governance and increase the transparency of the Company in accordance with the requirements of relevant regulatory authorities (in particular the requirements promulgated under the United States Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002) and generally accepted international best practice. We shall continue our efforts in promoting and improving our operational and information disclosure internal control systems. The Board of Directors has already approved the optimisation of the Company's internal controls in accordance with COSO framework, and the establishment of an integrated multi-level internal and external assessment system with a view to further improving operational efficiency and information quality and to better managing financial risks to preserve shareholders' interests.

While the Company performed well in general, it faced a number of challenges: the growth in the wireline telephone subscriber base has slowed down; the wireline telecommunications services has witnessed substantial substitution by the mobile services; revenue growth rate has been declining. As a result of the intense competition, marketing costs increased continuously, putting pressure on growth of profits. Due to the lack of new prominent growth-driving products, the disadvantages of providing only wireline telecommunications services became increasingly apparent. The Company's network resources have yet to be fully exploited.

We see valuable growth opportunities in the future. China's GDP per capita has exceeded a momentous US$1,000. Benefiting from the positive effect of macro economic measures of China and improving living standards of the Chinese people, demand in the telecommunications market is continuously expanding. With the growing popularity of information technology, customers' demands for one-stop overall solutions for integrated services and information provision are increasing.

In general, China Telecom Corporation Limited faces both opportunities and challenges, with opportunities outweighing challenges. As the wireline telecommunications business enters into a maturing phase worldwide, we have realised the risks inherent in operating only wireline telecommunications business. Following a comprehensive review of the history, current situation and prospects of the telecommunications industry as well as the development direction of the Company, we have decided that, from 2005, our strategy will be to transform China Telecom from a traditional network operator into a modern integrated information services provider.

We shall continue to pursue the operation of mobile business proactively so as to realise potential synergies by operating both mobile and wireline businesses. Simultaneously, we shall actively promote the establishment of orderly competition through co-opetition. Based on a win-win business model, we shall actively explore the development of IP-based multimedia services by leveraging our telecommunications network resources. We shall strengthen co-operation with content providers with a view to extending the value chain. We shall seek to work with IT service providers to provide differentiated total solutions for our enterprise customers. In addition, the Company will fully exploit the development potential of rural telephony, value-added services, leased line and other services with a view to creating new revenue growth drivers. The Company will also strive to transform our networks into intelligent, broadband and IP based networks, and to enhance the development and convergence of multi-terminals and multi-businesses. In addition, we shall leverage tariff packaging to deliver integrated information services and to ensure the Company's sustainable development.

To ensure our successful business transformation, we shall implement precision management at all levels of the Company, so that quantitative standards will be adopted with reduced data deviations in all aspects of management on an integrated basis covering marketing activities, network operations, allocation of financial resources and human resources.

As a telecommunications operator conscious of its social responsibilities, the Company has launched the "Green Internet" project to clean up Internet content to protect the well being of youngsters. The Company has also made great efforts to promote the establishment of the "Green Dynamic" Internet cafe chain for the purpose of creating a good and healthy Internet access environment for the public. In addition, the Company has taken active measures to provide humanitarian aid to tsunami victims in the Indian Ocean region and other regions, to subsidise children who are unable to attend school owing to financial difficulties, and to help underprivileged people in society.

We are confident in our future. By leveraging our strategic transformation and competitive edge, and seizing the opportunities brought by China's economic growth and new technology, we shall endeavour to provide our customers with modern integrated information services of high quality, and provide an even better return to our shareholders.

Finally, on behalf of the Board of Directors of the Company, I would express our gratitude to Mr. Zhou Deqiang and Mr. Chang Xiaobin for their significant contribution to China Telecom Corporation Limited during their time with us, and at the same time welcome Mr. Leng Rongquan, Mr. Yang Jie, Mr. Sun Kangmin and Mr. Li Jinming to join the Board of Directors of the Company. I also would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere appreciation to all of our shareholders, directors, members of the Supervisory Committee, employees and customers.

On 30 June 2004, the Company acquired from China Telecommunications Corporation the entire equity interests in Hubei Telecom Company Limited, Hunan Telecom Company Limited, Hainan Telecom Company Limited, Guizhou Telecom Company Limited, Yunnan Telecom Company Limited, Shaanxi Telecom Company Limited, Gansu Telecom Company Limited, Qinghai Telecom Company Limited, Ningxia Telecom Company Limited and Xinjiang Telecom Company Limited. As a result of the acquisition, the Company's service coverage expanded from 10 to 20 municipalities, provinces and autonomous regions. For comparison purposes, the operational and financial data for 2002, 2003 and 2004 is presented in this section on such basis as if the Group has been operating in the enlarged service areas (20 municipalities, provinces and autonomous regions) since 1 January 2002.

Our core businesses yielded good results in 2004 with total operating revenue of RMB161,212 million, an increase of 6.4% from 2003. If amortised upfront connection fees were excluded, operating revenue in 2004 was RMB152,754 million, with an annual growth rate of 7.7%. Revenue growth in our local telephone services, Internet services and value-added services are the prominent drivers. Our business development featured the following in 2004: local telephone subscribers experienced relatively high growth; local voice usage grew faster than previous years; broadband subscribers maintained its strong growth and became a growing revenue growth driver with increasing importance in our revenue structure; domestic long distance services recorded both usage and revenue growth; value-added services portfolio was further expanded.

Benefited from the continuous rapid growth of China's economy and accelerated social informationalisation, our core businesses maintained rapid growth over the past three years. However, with increasingly intensified competition in the Chinese telecommunications market, the further expansion and price fluctuation of mobile services, mobile substitution became more apparent in 2004. It adversely affected the growth potential of our wireline telephone service. Although wireline usage sustained a favourable growth trend, revenue growth was significantly lower than the usage growth. Therefore, our operating revenue growth rate is expected to slow down.

After years of effort, we have already built up our foundation for sustained growth and continuing innovation. This foundation consists of our extensive, advanced and multi-dimensional basic telecommunications networks, our huge customer base, our well functioning distribution channel system, our well-known corporate brand and professional network maintenance team.

BUSINESS ANALYSIS

Local telephone services

Revenue from our local telephone services, our fundamental resource-type business, reached RMB80,338 million in 2004 with an increase of 5.8% from 2003 and represented 52.6% of our operating revenue (excluding amortisation of upfront connection fees) in 2004.

We have aggressively expanded our local telephone subscribers and the total number of our subscribers reached 186.65 million at the end of 2004, an increase of 25.66 million, or 15.9% from 2003. Wireless local access service and public telephone service subscribers grew relatively faster. As of the end of 2004, wireless local access service subscribers and public telephone service subscribers reached 42.17 million and 12.39 million, increasing 16.60 million and 2.78 million, or 64.9% and 29.0%, respectively, from 2003. In the local telephone services market, urban residential subscribers growth has slowed down and the subscribers and usage diversion exacerbated, while wireless local access service demand was comparatively stable and the rural telecommunications market exhibited a strong growth potential.

Local usage fees reached RMB47,646 million, an increase of 4.0% from 2003. Local voice usage grew 11.6% to 429,150 million pulses, a higher growth rate than that in previous years. Wireless local access service made a substantial contribution to the usage growth. Due to the increasing mobile substitution, our local voice service usage was under ever-greater pressure of usage diversion. We have optimised our distribution channel management and accentuated targeted marketing activities to enhance customer loyalty. Based on customer segmentation, we implemented various promotion measures, in particular packaging our services and providing a variety of tariff plans, to effectively mitigate our local voice service usage diversion.

In 2005, we will continue to explore the growth potential of our wireline services subscribers and promote the upgrade of wireline telephone terminals to adapt to mobile, broadband and tailored services. We will utilise our current wireless local access service network coverage to effectively develop the subscriber base. Also, we will continue to optimise our network and further improve our network quality to enhance customer satisfaction and reduce churn rate. We will also expend great effort in the development of value-added services such as SMS over PHS and Color Ring Tone . On the premise of ensured investment returns, we will further develop the rural telecommunications market and actively explore potential opportunities for our wireline services.

China Telecom Corporation Limited 12

Annual Report 2004

BUSINESS REVIEW

Internet services

Internet services are our strategically expanding business. Revenue from Internet services was RMB14,109 million in 2004, up 41.0% from 2003 and represented 9.2% of our operating revenue (excluding amortisation of upfront connection fees), an increase of 2.2 percentage points from 2003. It reflected our improved overall revenue structure. Broadband business became a key strategic driver for our sustainable development. In 2004, our broadband subscribers grew by 6.61 million or 91.4% from the end of 2003 to 13.84 million in 2004, with a market share of 92.6%¹ in our service regions, further consolidated our leading position in the broadband access service market.

The development of our broadband business is significant to our strategic transformation. In 2005, we will keep our emphasis on, and strengthen our efforts on, broadband services. We will push forward the integration of broadband access with home appliances and actively explore opportunities for broadband and video services packaging to expand the applications of our broadband services. We will introduce customised broadband solutions to small and medium-sized enterprises based on their demands and in line with the situation of the industry. We will continue to improve and expand our cooperation with content providers to further enrich the contents of the ChinaVnet platform and to develop it into a one-stop broadband information and entertainment service center. At the same time, we will actively promote upgrades to broadband for our customers to adapt to streaming media and other broadband video application content, so as to satisfy the diverse demands of our customers.

Long distance services

Revenue from our domestic long distance services reached RMB26,231 million, an increase of 3.0% from 2003. Total domestic long distance usage was 81,960 million minutes, representing an annual growth rate of 21.8%. Our domestic long distance services had a market share of 45.8%², which was down 3.6 percentage points from 2003. Facing ever-intensified competition in the long distance services market and in order to maximise our revenue, we adopted a more effective pricing strategy and accelerated the development of public telephone supermarkets. Meanwhile, we further streamlined phone cards distribution channels to diversify long distance usage volume from mobile services. Our efforts were rewarded with increases in both domestic long distance usage and revenue. We will endeavor to maintain stable revenue from our domestic long distance services through measures such as further promotion of services packaging.

Revenue from our international, Hong Kong, Macau and Taiwan long distance services, amounted to RMB3,788 million in 2004, down 3.9% from 2003. Usage in the year was 1,654 million minutes, approximately the same level as 2003. Our market share in this sector was 56.3%², 4.9 percentage points down from 2003. Nevertheless, we maintained our leading position in this market.

Managed data and leased line services

Revenue from our managed data services was RMB3,015 million, a decrease of 6.1% from 2003. Our leased bandwidth of our DDN, FR, and ATM services were 493.3 thousand, 156.3 thousand and 23.8 thousand at the end of 2004, increasing 4.7%, 77.0% and 24.9% from the end of 2003, respectively.

Revenue from our leased line services was RMB4,154 million in 2004, a decrease of 18.6% from 2003. As of the end of 2004, we leased out a total of 169.5 thousand digital circuits (in 2Mbps equivalent), an increase of 3.9% from 2003. Due to increasingly intensified competition, unit prices in the leased line market were substantially lowered. As a result, revenue from leased line services decreased despite increasing digital circuits leased out.

BUSINESS REVIEW

We will further explore the potential demand of other domestic telecommunications operators based on our comparative advantages on our extensive network coverage and technical maintenance. We will take greater initiatives to promote our leased line services and effectively capitalise on our redundant network resources to increase our network value. By doing so, we will be able to provide other domestic telecommunications operators economical, reliable leased line services with premium quality. With respect to other corporate customers, we will further investigate their demand for information technology services and move towards the higher-end of the value chain. We will provide our customers with one-stop comprehensive solutions through services such as system integration and outsourcing network maintenance. Our efforts to create value for customers will at the same time help us explore future development potential.

Interconnection service

Revenue from our interconnection service reached RMB10,719 million in 2004, indicating an increase of 28.1% from 2003. Net interconnection revenue amounted to RMB6,624 million, an increase of 25.9% from 2003. As a result of our continuously expanding customer base and the growing Chinese telecommunications industry, the volume of inbound local calls through our networks reached 94,747 million minutes in 2004, an increase of 24.3% from 2003. The volume of inbound long distance calls also recorded an increase.

Value-added services

Value-added services, our crucial sources of organic growth, are important for us to exploit the potential market and transform our growth model. We accelerated the development of our wireline value-added services in 2004. As a result, their contribution to our total operating revenue increased significantly. Subscribers of our caller ID services reached 109 million, with a penetration rate of 58.4%, by the end of 2004, an increase by 7 percentage points from 2003. The traffic volume of the telephone information services amounted to 2,419 million minutes, an increase of 38.8% from 2003. Usage of SMS over PHS grew rapidly after achieving interconnection with other wireline and mobile services operators, presenting a greater market potential for further growth.

To accelerate the development of value-added services is a critical step in our strategic transformation. We will upgrade our existing networks into intelligent networks, and will integrate and optimise our network platform for value-added services. We will adhere to our win-win business development model to forge a healthy industry value chain, cooperate with application and content providers in the development and promotion of value-added services, and thereby develop our value-added services into an important driving force for our revenue growth.

Management innovation

In 2004, adhering to our market-oriented, customer-centered and return-driven business model, we consolidated our advantages in network scale, distribution channels, human resources and corporate culture, and further strengthened management innovation. As a result, our marketing capability, corporate management and network support were all improved significantly.

We established our China Telecom brand strategy and commenced our China Telecom brand promotion scheme in 2004. While integrating and optimising our existing distribution channels, we managed to develop customer-segmentation focused distribution channels. As of 31 December 2004, we had 9,298 managers for major customers, 10,405 managers for corporate customers and 38,304 managers for community customers nationwide. Moreover, in order to meet customers increasingly diversified demands for telecommunications services, we further optimised our products and services development and marketing mechanisms, and established a total solution service system for major customers. These measures facilitated our business transformation from a provider of telecommunications network services to an integrated telecommunications solutions provider.

In order to reduce operating risks, we continued to promote and improve our centralised financial management system. By making use of the establishment of our internal control system, we standardised our operating activities and enhanced our comprehensive corporate management capabilities. We have made achievements in the establishment of internal control system by preliminarily completed the preparation of an internal control handbook in accordance with COSO* framework and rolled out the internal control handbook on trial basis. With respect to financial management, an accountability budget

* COSO, or The Committee of Sponsoring Organisations of the Treadway Commission, is an organisation in the United States of America dedicated to improving the quality of financial reporting through business ethics, effective internal controls and corporate governance. The COSO framework is currently one of the widely-recognised internal control frameworks for international businesses community.

system combining responsibility and authority was basically formulated. The performance assessment system played an even more prominent role in motivating employees. A cash flow controlling mechanism with the integration of budgeting, monitoring and assessment was also put in place. As a result, our external investment was put under effective control, our asset management process was optimised, and our long-term investment management was improved. We made a breakthrough in our application of information technology in financial management, with MSS (ERP) systems available on line for use by some of our provincial subsidiaries. Our accounting system was further improved, revenue and cost management became more comprehensive, supervision and review of financial affairs was strengthened and the quality of our accounting personnel further improved.

In 2004, we further strengthened our management on network maintenance, which steadily improved our network operating quality and supporting capabilities. The implementation of a network optimisation project which covered our entire service regions promoted our integrated and centralised local network maintenance mode to the top level in China. Our optimisation of wireless local access services, broadband and other networks also achieved remarkable results. As of the end of 2004, over 96% of failures of broadband access service were timely responded and resolved within the committed time frame. Successful connection rates of long distance telephone networks were over 96%. Wireless local access service call drop rate decreased to 1.4%, showing a much better performance than the beginning of the year. Finally, we improved our response system for major customers. We achieved 98.4% of timely provision of end-to-end services to our major customers nationwide and 98.9% of failures were timely responded, with only 0.8% of failure response complaints. At the same time, the average time for provision of services was substantially lowered.

17 China Telecom Corporation Limited

Annual Report 2004

In 2005, we will steadily implement our strategic transformation from a traditional basic network operator to a modern integrated services and information provider. While maintaining the steady development of our traditional wireline voice business, we will take active measures to launch mobile businesses. Meanwhile, in line with the trend of integration of telecommunications and information technology and based on our traditional transmission network services and customers' diversified demands on one-stop services, we will actively extend our services towards both ends of the industry value chain to achieve win-win effect through cooperation. In doing so, we will be able to enrich the contents of our services, create more opportunities for further development, and consistently increase the revenue from our non-voice businesses, such as broadband and value-added services, and percentage of such revenue in our total revenue, so as to realise healthy and sustainable growth of our business as a whole.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF
FINANCIAL CONDITIONS AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Overview

On 30 June 2004, the Company completed its acquisition from China Telecommunications Corporation of the entire equity interests in Hubei Telecom Company Limited, Hunan Telecom Company Limited, Hainan Telecom Company Limited, Guizhou Telecom Company Limited, Yunnan Telecom Company Limited, Shaanxi Telecom Company Limited, Gansu Telecom Company Limited, Qinghai Telecom Company Limited, Ningxia Telecom Company Limited, Xinjiang Telecom Company Limited (hereinafter referred to collectively as the Acquired Companies). Since the Company and the Acquired Companies were under the common control of China Telecommunications Corporation, our acquisition of the Acquired Companies has been treated as a combination of entities under common control, and was accounted for in a manner similar to a pooling-of-interests (as-if-pooling-of-interests accounting). Accordingly, the assets and liabilities of the Acquired Companies have been accounted for based on their historical amounts and our financial statements for the period prior to the acquisition have been restated to include the financial position and results of operations of the Acquired Companies on a combined basis. Unless otherwise indicated in this section, our financial data for the period prior to the acquisition are presented based on those restated amounts.

In 2004, our operating revenue increased steadily while our operating expenses were kept under effective control. Our profit increased and our cash flow was strong. Through our acquisition of the Acquired Companies, we successfully achieved our external expansion and created more growth opportunities.

Our total operating revenue in 2004 grew 6.4% from 2003 to RMB161,212 million. Our operating expenses increased from 2003 by 2.3% to RMB121,382 million in 2004. Our net profit¹ was RMB28,023 million and our earnings per share were RMB0.36 for 2004. Our EBITDA² was RMB87,000 million in 2004, with an EBITDA margin of 54.0%.

² Our EBITDA represents profit before net finance costs, investment income, share of profit from associates, taxation, depreciation and amortisation, deficit on revaluation of property, plant and equipment and minority interests. As the telecommunications business is a capital intensive industry, capital expenditure, the level of gearing and finance costs may have a significant impact on the net profit of companies with similar results. Therefore, we believe EBITDA may be helpful in analysing the operating results of a telecommunications service provider like us. Although EBITDA is widely used in the global telecommunications industry as a benchmark to reflect the operating performance, financial capability and liquidity, it is not regarded as a measure of operating performance and liquidity under generally accepted accounting principles. It also does not represent cash flows from operating activities. In addition, our EBITDA may not be comparable to similar indicators provided by other companies.

FINANCIAL CONDITIONS AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Excluding the amortisation of upfront connection fees of RMB8,458 million, our operating revenue in 2004 was RMB152,754 million, an increase of 7.7% from 2003; our net profit was RMB19,565 million, our earnings per share were RMB0.25; our EBITDA was RMB78,542 million and EBITDA margin was 51.4%.

Operating Revenue

Our total operating revenue in 2004 was RMB161,212 million, an increase of 6.4% from 2003. Excluding the amortisation of upfront connection fees, the operating revenue in 2004 increased by RMB10,972 million or 7.7% from 2003, reaching RMB152,754 million. As the main sources for the growth in our operating revenue, local telephone services revenue, Internet services revenue and interconnection revenue increased by RMB4,381 million, RMB4,102 million, and RMB2,354 million, respectively, from 2003. Our long distance services revenue increased by 2.1% from 2003, while revenue from our managed data and leased line services decreased.

³ Includes revenue from our registered subscribers, public telephones and prepaid calling cards services.

⁴ Includes revenue from our VoIP long distance services.

⁵ Includes primarily revenue from the provision of value-added telecommunications services, sale and repairs and maintenance of customer-end equipment, and lease of telecommunications network facilities.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF
FINANCIAL CONDITIONS AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Local Telephone Services

Revenue from our local telephone services grew by 5.8% from RMB75,957 million in 2003 to RMB80,338 million in 2004, which contributed 49.8% to our total operating revenue or 52.6% of our operating revenue excluding amortisation of upfront connection fees. This was primarily due to continued growth in our subscriber base and growth in our local usage volume.

Installation Fees. Upfront installation fees will be amortised over the expected customer relationship period of 10 years. Revenue from amortisation of upfront installation fees increased by 8.4% from RMB2,643 million in 2003 to RMB2,865 million in 2004.

Monthly Fees. Revenue from monthly fees increased by RMB2,328 million, or 8.5%, from RMB27,499 million in 2003 to RMB29,827 million in 2004, which was primarily due to the sustained increase in the number of our local telephone subscribers. The number of subscribers for our access lines increased by 25.66 million or 15.9% from 160.99 million in 2003, reaching 186.65 million as of the end of 2004.

Local Usage Fees. Revenue from local usage fees was RMB47,646 million, increased by 4.0%, from RMB45,815 million in 2003, primarily due to an increase in local voice usage. In 2004, despite the intensifying mobile substitution, we successfully increased our local usage volume usage by 11.6% from 2003 to 429,150 million pulses in 2004, through our marketing channels and various marketing tactics like integrated marketing and sales packaging.

Long Distance Telephone Services

Revenue from our long distance telephone services increased by 2.1%, from RMB29,403 million in 2003 to RMB30,019 million in 2004, representing 18.6% of our total operating revenue or 19.7% of our operating revenue excluding amortisation of upfront connection fees.

Domestic Long Distance Services. Domestic long distance revenue increased by 3.0% from RMB25,460 million in 2003 to RMB26,231 million in 2004, primarily due to the rapid increase in domestic long distance usage volume. In 2004, we seized the opportunity brought by strong market demands and took an active and flexible approach towards the competition. As a result, our total domestic long distance usage volume increased by 21.8% from 2003 to 81,960 million minutes in 2004, fully offsetting the negative influence from price decreases, and the declining trend in the revenue from domestic long distance services in recent years was reversed.

International, Hong Kong, Macau and Taiwan Long Distance Services. International, Hong Kong, Macau and Taiwan long distance services revenue decreased by 3.9%, from RMB3,943 million in 2003 to RMB3,788 million in 2004. The transmission volume of our international, Hong Kong, Macau and Taiwan long distance services was

FINANCIAL CONDITIONS AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

1,654 million minutes in 2004, which was similar to that in 2003. The decrease in revenue was attributable to the decrease in prices. We plan to adopt a more flexible marketing strategy to stimulate growth in usage volume.

Internet Services

Revenue from our Internet services increased by 41.0%, from RMB10,007 million in 2003 to RMB14,109 million in 2004, representing 8.8% of our total operating revenue or 9.2% of our operating revenue excluding amortisation of upfront connection fees. Driven by the rapid development of broadband services in recent years, our Internet services revenue recorded a sustained and rapid growth. The number of our broadband subscribers increased by 6.61 million from the end of 2003 to 13.84 million as of the end of 2004. We believe that there is still great potential for development in our broadband services.

Managed Data Services

Revenue from our managed data services decreased by 6.1%, from RMB3,210 million in 2003 to RMB3,015 million in 2004. This decrease was primarily due to the decrease in prices as a result of the intensifying competition.

Leased Line Services

Revenue from leased line services decreased by 18.6%, from RMB5,103 million in 2003 to RMB4,154 million in 2004. The major reason for this decrease was that the unit price dropped as a result of the intensifying market competition.

Interconnection Services

Revenue from interconnection services increased by 28.1%, from RMB8,365 million in 2003 to RMB10,719 million in 2004, representing 6.6% of our total operating revenue or 7.0% of our operating revenue excluding amortisation of upfront connection fees. This growth was primarily attributable to an increase in interconnection volume as a result of the expansion in the domestic telecommunications services subscriber base.

Other Businesses

Revenue from our other businesses increased by 6.8%, from RMB9,737 million in 2003 to RMB10,400 million in 2004, representing 6.5% of our total operating revenue or 6.8% of our operating revenue excluding amortisation of upfront connection fees. This growth was primarily due to the increase in revenue from value-added services, including caller display service and telephone message service.

Upfront Connection Fees

Upfront connection fees represent the amortised amount of the upfront fees received for the initial activation of wireline services, amortised over the expected customer relationship period of 10 years. Effective as of 1 July 2001, we ceased charging new subscribers upfront connection fees. Consequently, the amortised amount decreased by 13.4%, from RMB9,771 million in 2003 to RMB8,458 million in 2004.

China Telecom Corporation Limited 23

Annual Report 2004

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF
FINANCIAL CONDITIONS AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The table below sets forth the amortisation of our upfront connection fees for each year from 2005 to 2011 based on a 10-year estimated amortisation period (with 2011 as the end of the amortisation period):

	For the Year Ending 31 December
	2005	2006	2007	2008	2009	2010	2011
	(RMB in millions)
Amortisation of upfront connection fees	6,782	4,965	3,295	2,022	1,151	497	98

Operating Expenses

In 2004, our operating expenses were RMB121,382 million, representing an increase of 2.3% from 2003. The ratio of our operating expenses to total operating revenue decreased from 78.3% in 2003 to 75.3%, or decreased from 83.7% in 2003 to 79.5% of our operating revenue excluding amortisation of upfront connection fees. Our network operations and support expenses decreased and our depreciation and amortisation expenses increased slightly in 2004. Our selling, general and administrative expenses, personnel expenses, interconnection and other operating expenses also increased.

The following table sets forth a breakdown of our operating expenses for 2003 and 2004, together with their respective rates of change:

	For the Year Ended 31 December
	2003	2004	Rate of Change
	(RMB in millions, except percentage data)
Depreciation and amortisation	46,597	47,170	1.2%
Network operations and support	31,338	27,611	(11.9%)
Selling, general and administrative	16,778	19,229	14.6%
Personnel	20,812	23,233	11.6%
Interconnection and other operating expenses	3,176	4,139	30.3%
Total operating expenses	118,701	121,382	2.3%

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF
FINANCIAL CONDITIONS AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Depreciation and Amortisation. Our depreciation and amortisation expenses were RMB47,170 million in 2004, an increase of 1.2% from 2003, representing 29.3% of our total operating revenue. The depreciation and amortisation expenses as a percentage of our operating revenue excluding amortisation of upfront connection fees decreased from 32.9% in 2003 to 30.9% in 2004.

Network Operations and Support. Our network operations and support expenses (excluding related personnel expenses) decreased by 11.9%, from RMB31,338 million in 2003 to RMB27,611 million in 2004, primarily due to a decrease in repair and maintenance expenses as a result of our centralised management of network maintenance and resources allocation. Our repair and maintenance expenses decreased by 9.4% from 2003 to RMB12,217 million in 2004.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses. Our selling, general and administrative expenses (excluding related personnel expenses) increased by 14.6%, from RMB16,778 million in 2003 to RMB19,229 million in 2004. Our selling expenses in 2004 increased by 42.5% from 2003, due to the reinforcement of our marketing strength to cope with increasingly intensified market competition. However, with our proper control, the growth rate of such expenses in the whole year was remarkably lower than that of the first half of 2004. At the same time, we continued to achieve savings in administrative expenses.

Personnel Expenses. Our personnel expenses increased by 11.6%, from RMB20,812 million in 2003 to RMB23,233 million in 2004. The Company established a performance-linked remuneration scheme, which played an important role in attracting and retaining talented employees and incentivising employees.

Interconnection and Other Operating Expenses. Our interconnection and other operating expenses in 2004 increased by RMB963 million, or 30.3%, from RMB3,176 million in 2003 to RMB4,139 million in 2004. The significant increase in internetwork traffic led to the corresponding increase in interconnection expenses. The net interconnection revenue (interconnection revenue minus interconnection expenses) in 2004 was RMB6,624 million, representing an increase of 25.9% from 2003.

Net Finance Costs

Our net finance costs increased by 48.1%, from RMB3,606 million in 2003 to RMB5,340 million in 2004. The Company acquired the telecommunications businesses in the six regions as of 31 December 2003 and the ten regions as of 30 June 2004 respectively, and the purchase considerations included deferred payments totalling RMB50,150 million. The interest expense incurred therefrom was the main reason for the increase in our finance costs.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF
FINANCIAL CONDITIONS AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Deficit on Revaluation of Property, Plant and Equipment

According to our accounting policy, revaluation of property, plant and equipment should be carried out at least once every three years. In 2004, we carried out a revaluation on our property, plant and equipment and a revaluation deficit of RMB1,262 million was recorded.

Income Tax

Our statutory tax rate is 33%. In 2004, our income tax expense was RMB5,187 million, representing an effective tax rate of 15.6%. The difference between the statutory tax rate and our effective tax rate was primarily due to the exclusion of the upfront connection fees from taxable revenue and the preferential income tax rate of 15% applied to some of our subsidiaries located in special economic zones and the western part of China. Another reason for our effective tax rate being lower than the statutory tax rate was that some of our operating subsidiaries received tax credits of RMB1,210 million in 2004 on the purchases of domestic equipment. As the tax credits on purchases of domestic equipment are subject to various restrictions, we cannot reasonably foresee their impacts on effective tax rates in future years.

Net Profit

In 2004, our operating effectiveness and profit level continued to grow and our net profit reached RMB28,023 million. Excluding amortisation of upfront connection fees, our net profit in 2004 was RMB19,565 million. Our net profit for 2003 was RMB13,882 million and our net profit excluding amortisation of upfront connection fees was RMB4,111 million. During the reorganisation of telecommunications businesses in the ten regions in 2003, we carried out a revaluation of the relevant property, plant and equipment in accordance with the relevant regulations and a revaluation deficit of RMB14,832 million resulted. This was one of the reasons for the substantial increase in our net profit in 2004 from that of 2003.

Capital Expenditure

In 2004, we continued to implement our prudent policy on capital expenditure. Our capital expenditure decreased by 8.6%, from RMB61,587 million in 2003 to RMB56,307 million in 2004. Seizing the opportunity brought along by urbanisation, we maintained our leading position in access network. We also made efforts to transform existing networks into intelligent, broadband and IP based networks, and at the same time made preparations for the construction of the next generation network.

Our planned capital expenditure for 2005 is RMB55,800 million. We expect to fund our capital expenditure needs through a combination of cash flows generated from our operating activities, short-term and long-term bank loans and other debt and equity financing. We believe we will have sufficient resources to meet our capital expenditure requirements for the foreseeable future.

26 China Telecom Corporation Limited

Annual Report 2004

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF
FINANCIAL CONDITIONS AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Cash Flows and Capital Resources

Cash Flows

Our net cash inflow was RMB744 million in 2004, as compared with a net cash outflow of RMB10,022 million in 2003. The main reason for the increase in our net cash flow was the substantial growth in cash flow generated from our operating activities and our successful issue of additional H shares.

The following table presents our cash flows for 2003 and 2004:

	For the Year Ended 31 December
	2003	2004
	(RMB in millions)
Net cash flows from operating activities	58,392	66,078
Net cash used in investing activities	(57,094)	(56,353)
Net cash used in financing activities	(11,320)	(8,981)
Net (decrease)/increase in cash and cash equivalents	(10,022)	744

Our net cash flows from operating activities were RMB66,078 million in 2004, an increase of RMB7,686 million from RMB58,392 million in 2003. This increase reflected the steady development of the Group's business and improvement in operational efficiency.

We achieved saving in capital expenditure for 2004. Net cash used in investing activities was RMB56,353 million, decreased by RMB741 million from that of 2003.

Our net cash used in financing activities was RMB8,981 million in 2004, as compared with a net cash outflow of RMB11,320 million in 2003. In May 2004, the Company raised net proceeds of RMB12,702 million from the global offering of its H shares, which were used to settle part of the purchase consideration on the acquisition of the Acquired Companies. On the other hand, we continued to repay certain amounts of our loans in 2004. Our net cash outflow used for the repayment of loans (the difference between the proceeds from loans and the cash repayment for such loans) increased from RMB2,675 million in 2003 to RMB3,950 million in 2004. In addition, the amount of dividends paid by the Company in 2004 increased by RMB4,551 million.

Working Capital

Our working capital (total current assets minus total current liabilities) deficit was RMB118,412 million as of 31 December 2004, representing an increase of RMB2,370 million, compared with the deficit of RMB116,042 million in 2003. The increase in our working capital deficit was primarily due to the fact that in accordance with its credit level and in order to control risk, the Company had increased its short-term loans with lower interest rates.

As of the end of 2004, our cash and cash equivalents reached RMB13,465 million, of which 99.2% was denominated in RMB.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF
FINANCIAL CONDITIONS AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Indebtedness

Our indebtedness as of the end of 2003 and 2004 was as follows:

	As of 31 December
	2003	2004
	(RMB in millions)
Short-term debt	56,243	65,976
Long-term debt maturing within a year	13,957	11,842
Long-term debt (excluding current portion)	68,632	72,366
Total debt	138,832	150,184

Our total debt was RMB150,184 million as of the end of 2004, increased by RMB11,352 million from that of 2003, primarily due to the deferred consideration of RMB15,150 million for our acquisition of the Acquired Companies from China Telecommunications Corporation in 2004. The debt-to-asset ratio (total debt divided by total assets) was therefore increased to 36.4% as of the end of 2004 from 34.4% as of the end of 2003. Excluding the deferred considerations of RMB50,150 million payable to China Telecommunications Corporation for the two acquisitions, our loans would be decreased from RMB103,832 million as of 31 December 2003 to RMB100,034 million as of 31 December 2004. We believe we maintained a solid capital structure.

Substantial business revenue and expenses of the Company were denominated in Renminbi, where Renminbi cannot be completely exchanged into foreign currencies freely. Of our total debt as of 31 December 2004, 95.2%, 2.1%, 1.9% and 0.8% were denominated in Renminbi, Japanese yen, U.S. dollars and Euros, respectively. 59.8% of the Group's total debt was with fixed interest rate terms.

Contractual Obligations

The following table sets forth our contractual obligations as of 31 December 2004:

Centralised Services Agreement

The Centralised Services Agreement was renewed on 30 December 2004 and may be renewed for further periods of one year upon expiration. The aggregate costs incurred by the Company and China Telecommunications Corporation for the provision of management services relating to the operation of the business support centre and the network management centre, the costs of headquarters and certain network support premises and related facilities (including labor costs, depreciation of equipment and premises, daily expenses, costs relating to maintenance and research) and certain large corporate customers of the headquarters of China Telecommunications Corporation, will be apportioned on a pro rata basis between the Company and China Telecommunications Corporation according to the revenues generated by each party. In relation to the use of the international telecommunications facilities, the Company and China Telecommunications Corporation have agreed to apportion the costs associated with operating such assets on a pro rata basis according to the aggregate volume of the inbound international calls terminated by, and outbound international calls originated from, the Company and China Telecom Group, respectively.

Interconnection Agreement

Pursuant to the Interconnection Agreement, the telephone operator terminating a telephone call made to its local access network shall be entitled to receive from the operator from which the telephone call originated a fee prescribed by the MII from time to time, which is currently RMB0.06 per minute.

Comprehensive Services Framework Agreement

The Comprehensive Services Framework Agreement was renewed on 30 December 2004, and can be renewed for further periods of one year upon expiration. This agreement governs the terms and conditions of transactions between them on two levels: (i) between the Group and certain associates held by China Telecommunications Corporation as long-term investments; and (ii) between the Group and certain subsidiaries of China Telecommunications Corporation operating in other provinces (the Provincial Subsisting Companies). Such transactions include procurement of telecommunications equipment such as optic fibre, network designs, software upgrade, system integration, manufacture of calling cards and so on. Prices under such agreement should be determined in accordance with the government-prescribed prices. In the absence of the government-prescribed prices, the government-guided prices (if any) shall apply. In the absence of both government-prescribed prices and government-guided prices, the market prices shall apply, i.e. the prices at which the same type of services are provided by independent third party in the ordinary course of business. If none of such prices is applicable, the prices shall be determined through agreements between the parties based on reasonable costs plus reasonable profits. For this purpose, reasonable costs shall mean the costs determined by the parties after negotiations.

As at 13 April 2004, the following agreements or supplemental agreements thereto were entered into by each of Shanghai Telecom Company Limited, Guangdong Telecom Company Limited, Jiangsu Telecom Company Limited, Zhejiang Telecom Company Limited, Anhui Telecom Company Limited, Fujian Telecom Company Limited, Jiangxi Telecom Company Limited, Guangxi Telecom Company Limited, Chongqing Telecom Company Limited, Sichuan Telecom Company Limited, Hubei Telecom Company Limited, Hunan Telecom Company Limited, Hainan Telecom Company Limited, Guizhou Telecom Company Limited, Yunnan Telecom Company Limited, Shaanxi Telecom Company Limited, Gansu Telecom Company Limited, Qinghai Telecom Company Limited, Ningxia Telecom Company Limited, Xinjiang Telecom Company Limited under the Company (the Twenty Provincial Telecom Companies) and the Provincial Subsisting Companies in their respective service area.

Engineering Framework Agreements

The Engineering Framework Agreements will expire on 31 December 2006, and may be renewed for further periods of three years upon expiration. These agreements set out provisions in respect of the supervision and management of services relating to construction, design, and equipment installation and tests provided to the Twenty Provincial Telecom Companies by the Provincial Subsisting Companies through bidding, and/or services as the general contractors for the construction and supervision of engineering projects of the Twenty Provincial Telecom Companies. The charges payable for such engineering services shall be determined by reference to market rates as reflected by prices obtained through tender process.

Property Leasing Framework Agreements

The Property Leasing Framework Agreements were renewed on 30 December 2004 and may be renewed for further periods of one year upon expiration. Pursuant to such agreements, the Twenty Provincial Telecom Companies under the Company lease properties from the Provincial Subsisting Companies for use as business premises, offices, equipment storage facilities and sites for network equipment. On the other hand, the Twenty Provincial Telecom Companies also lease certain properties to the Provincial Subsisting Companies. The rent shall be determined based on the market price with reference to the standard set forth by local pricing authorities.

Property Sub-Leasing Framework Agreements

The Property Sub-Leasing Framework Agreements were renewed on 30 December 2004 and may be renewed for further periods of one year upon expiration. Pursuant to such agreements, the Provincial Subsisting Companies sublease certain properties owned and leased by independent third parties to the Twenty

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS

Provincial Telecom Companies under the Group for use as offices, retail outlets, spare parts storage facilities and sites for network equipment. The rent for sub-leasing of third party property shall be determined based on the market price as agreed between the relevant Provincial Subsisting Company and relevant third party through arm's length negotiation.

IT Services Framework Agreements

The IT Services Framework Agreements were renewed on 30 December 2004 and may be renewed for further periods of one year upon expiration. Pursuant to such agreements, the Provincial Subsisting Companies may participate in the bidding for the right to provide the Twenty Provincial Telecom Companies with certain information technology services, such as office automation and software upgrade. The charges payable for such IT services shall be determined by reference to market rates or as determined by prices obtained through the tender process.

Equipment Procurement Services Framework Agreements

The Equipment Procurement Services Framework Agreements were renewed on 30 December 2004 and may be renewed for further periods of one year upon expiration. Pursuant to such agreements, the Provincial Subsisting Companies have agreed to provide comprehensive procurement services, including management of tenders, verification of technical specifications and installation services. The maximum commission for such procurement services shall be calculated based on the following: (1) not more than 1% of the contract value for procurement of imported telecommunications equipment; or (2) not more than 3% of the contract value for the procurement of domestic telecommunications equipment and other domestic non-telecommunications materials.

Community Services Framework Agreements

The Community Services Framework Agreements will expire on 31 December 2006, and may be renewed for further periods of three years upon expiration. Pursuant to such agreements, the Provincial Subsisting Companies will provide the Twenty Provincial Telecom Companies with services relating to culture, education, property management, vehicle service, medical care, hotel and conference service, community and sanitary service. The pricing terms for such services are the same as those for comprehensive services.

Ancillary Telecommunications Services Framework Agreements

The Ancillary Telecommunications Services Framework Agreements will expire on 31 December 2006, and may be renewed for further periods of three years upon expiration. Pursuant to such agreements, the Provincial Subsisting Companies agree to provide the Twenty Provincial Telecom Companies with certain repair and maintenance services, including maintenance of telecommunications equipment, fire equipment and telephone booths, as well as other customer services. The pricing terms for such services are the same as those for comprehensive services.

The independent non-executive directors have confirmed that all continuing connected transactions for the year ended 31 December 2004 to which the Group was a party:

1. had been entered into, and the agreements governing those transactions were entered into, by the Group in the ordinary and usual course of business;

Annual Report 2004

The Company has always attached great importance to corporate governance so as to ensure its sustainable development. Since its initial public offering, in accordance with the requirements of regulatory authorities on corporate governance and international best practice, the Company has always been dedicated to establishing a multi-tier internal control mechanism and strengthening its corporate governance system in order to bring it in line with the international practice of a modern company, improving its corporate governance and increasing transparency of the Company. By doing so, the Company is able to expand its operations, enhance its efficiency and effectiveness, and maximise its shareholders interests as a whole.

Board of Directors

As a company listed in Hong Kong and US, we place special emphasis on compliance with all the regulatory requirements in places where it is listed. The current Articles of Association of the Company, which take into full consideration the laws and regulations of mainland China and the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the Listing Rules) as well as regulatory requirements for US listed companies, provide guidance to the Company on the improvement of its corporate governance.

The Board of Directors is responsible for the implementation of corporate governance within the Company in accordance with the Articles of Association. Its principal responsibilities include: implementing resolutions of the shareholders' general meetings; making decisions on important matters and administrative affairs of the Company within its authority, which include formulation of development plans and operational strategies; and supervision and assessment of the Company's management. The Board of Directors usually meets at least twice each year.

The existing Board of Directors of the Company consists of 15 members, comprising 11 executive directors, one non-executive director and three independent non-executive directors. All the executive directors of the Company are experienced in the operation and management of telecommunications institutions. The independent non-executive directors are independent of the shareholders of the Company and do not assume any management position in the Company. All of them satisfy the regulatory requirements for independence and are well-known specialists in economic, trading and financial fields, and are experts with extensive experience in corporate management. We believe that our Board, with its diverse composition, can fully, reasonably, and impartially represent and safeguard the interests of all shareholders, particularly the minority shareholders. At present, an audit committee (the Audit Committee) and a remuneration committee (the Remuneration Committee) have been set up under the Board of Directors.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee was set up in 2002, and consists of three members. At present all the members are independent non-executive directors. The Audit Committee is accountable to the Board of Directors and reports to it periodically. Usually, the Committee meets at least twice each year.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

The Articles of Association of the Audit Committee were approved by the Board of Directors of the Company in March 2005, according to which, the principal responsibilities of the Audit Committee include supervision of the Company to ensure authenticity and completeness of its financial statements, effectiveness and integration of the internal control system. It also supervises our internal audit department, and is responsible for the review and consideration of the qualification and appointment of independent auditors. The Audit Committee has the power to establish a mechanism for receiving and handling complaints or anonymous reports in respect of accounting, internal financial control and audit matters of the Company.

Remuneration Committee

The Remuneration Committee was set up in 2003. It consists of three members, all of whom are independent non-executive directors. The Remuneration Committee is accountable to the Board of Directors and reports to it on its work periodically. Usually, the Remuneration Committee meets at least twice each year. The Articles of Association of the Remuneration Committee were approved by the Board of Directors of the Company in March 2005, according to which, its principal responsibilities include ensuring that the Company's remuneration system complies with the relevant regulatory requirements, submitting assessment reports on the Company's remuneration system to the Board of Directors, and presenting recommendations to the Board of Directors on the overall remuneration policy and structure relating to directors and senior management of the Company.

Supervisory Committee

The Company has set up a supervisory committee (the Supervisory Committee) in accordance with the requirement under PRC law. The Supervisory Committee consists of five supervisors, including one external supervisor. The Supervisory Committee, as a stand-alone supervisory organisation, is accountable and reports to all shareholders. Generally, the Supervisory Committee meets at least once or twice each year. Its principal responsibilities include supervision of the Company's financial matters in accordance with the law and supervising the performance of duties by directors, managers and other senior management personnel and ensuring they do not abuse their authorities. In order to regulate further the operation of the Supervisory Committee, the Supervisory Committee has considered and adopted the Charter for Supervisory Committee of China Telecom Corporation Limited, which are proposed to be submitted to the 2005 annual shareholders' general meeting for consideration and approval.

Internal Control

The Company reviews the results of the implementation of its internal control mechanism on a regular basis in order to ensure that its internal monitoring and control mechanism operates soundly, stably and effectively, so that the investment of shareholders and assets of the Company can be safeguarded.

In accordance with the requirement of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 of the US, the Company has established an internal control mechanism in respect of financial reporting within the COSO framework. In 2004, the Board of Directors of the Company adopted the Manual of China Telecom Corporation Limited on Internal Control in Respect of Financial Reporting, and has started formulating detailed rules for its implementation.

In order to further strengthen the management of connected transactions, so as to protect the interests of the Company and shareholders, particularly minority shareholders, the Board of Directors of the Company adopted the Measures of China Telecom Corporation Limited on the Management of Connected Transactions in 2004.

In February 2005, a professional who is experienced in the auditing of financial statements, company secretarial matters and financial management of listed companies was appointed by the Company as a senior financial officer and the qualified accountant of the Company, in accordance with the requirement of the Listing Rules, to assist the Company in its improvement of financial reporting procedures and internal control systems as the qualified accountant of the Company.

Code of Ethics

In accordance with the requirement of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of the US, the Board of Directors of the Company adopted the Code of Occupational Ethics for Senior Management of China Telecom Corporation Limited, at the same time, the Board of Directors of the Company adopted the Code of Occupational Ethics for Employees of China Telecom Corporation Limited by reference to the provisions of the Corporate Governance Code issued by the New York Securities Exchange, for the purpose of regulating and guiding the senior management personnel and other employees of the Company, so as to ensure that they perform their duties legally and in good faith.

Corporate Transparency and Investors Communications

The Company stresses the importance of transparency, and has established a general office and an investor relations department to assist investors and facilitate information disclosure, so as to maintain a daily communication channel with shareholders, investors and media. In addition, the Company provides investors and media with important information and responds to investors' latest key questions through meetings with investment analysts, reverse road shows, press conferences, telephone conferences with investors and other means, to promote their understanding of the development of the Company's business and the overall telecommunications industry in China.

In March 2005, the Board of Directors of the Company adopted the Rules of China Telecom Corporation Limited on the Management of Information Disclosure (for Trial Implementation), with a view to strengthening the management of the Company's information disclosure.

REPORT OF THE INTERNATIONAL AUDITORS

To the Shareholders of

China Telecom Corporation Limited

(Incorporated in The People's Republic of China with limited liability)

We have audited the financial statements on pages 71 to 127 which have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards promulgated by the International Accounting Standards Board.

RESPECTIVE RESPONSIBILITIES OF DIRECTORS AND AUDITORS

The Company's directors are responsible for the preparation of financial statements which give a true and fair view. In preparing financial statements which give a true and fair view it is fundamental that appropriate accounting policies are selected and applied consistently, that judgements and estimates are made which are prudent and reasonable and that the reasons for any significant departure from applicable accounting standards are stated.

It is our responsibility to form an independent opinion, based on our audit, on those financial statements and to report our opinion solely to you, as a body, in accordance with our agreed terms of engagement, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

BASIS OF OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with Statements of Auditing Standards issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants. An audit includes examination, on a test basis, of evidence relevant to the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. It also includes an assessment of the significant estimates and judgements made by the directors in the preparation of the financial statements, and of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the Company's and the Group's circumstances, consistently applied and adequately disclosed.

We planned and performed our audit so as to obtain all the information and explanations which we considered necessary in order to provide us with sufficient evidence to give reasonable assurance as to whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement. In forming our opinion we also evaluated the overall adequacy of the presentation of information in the financial statements. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

OPINION

In our opinion, the financial statements give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company and of the Group as at 31 December 2004 and of the Group's profit and cash flows for the year then ended and have been properly prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards promulgated by the International Accounting Standards Board and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

Annual Report 2004

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the year ended 31 December 2004

1. PRINCIPAL ACTIVITIES, ORGANISATION AND BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Principal activities

China Telecom Corporation Limited (the Company) and its subsidiaries (hereinafter, collectively referred to as the Group) are engaged in the provision of wireline telecommunications and related services in Shanghai Municipality, Guangdong Province, Jiangsu Province, Zhejiang Province, Anhui Province, Fujian Province, Jiangxi Province, Guangxi Zhuang Autonomous Region, Chongqing Municipality, Sichuan Province, Hubei Province, Hunan Province, Hainan Province, Guizhou Province, Yunnan Province, Shaanxi Province, Gansu Province, Qinghai Province, Ningxia Hui Autonomous Region and Xinjiang Uygur Autonomous Region of the People's Republic of China (the PRC). The Group offers a comprehensive range of wireline telecommunications services to residential and business customers, including local, domestic long distance (DLD) and international long distance (ILD) telephone services, Internet and managed data, leased line, and other related services.

The operations of the Group are subject to the supervision and regulation by the PRC government. The Ministry of Information Industry, pursuant to the authority delegated to it by the PRC's State Council, is responsible for formulating the telecommunications industry policies and regulations, including the regulation and setting of tariff levels for basic telecommunications services, such as local and long distance telephone services, managed data services, leased line and interconnection arrangements.

Organisation

The Company was incorporated in the PRC on 10 September 2002 as part of the reorganisation (the Restructuring) of China Telecommunications Corporation (China Telecom) and together with its subsidiaries other than the Company are referred to as China Telecom Group), a state-owned enterprise which is under the supervision and regulation of the Ministry of Information Industry. In November 2001, pursuant to a further industry restructuring plan approved by the State Council, China Telecom's wireline telecommunications networks and related operations in 10 northern provinces, municipalities and autonomous regions of the PRC were transferred to China Netcom Group. China Telecom retained the wireline telecommunications networks and related operations of 21 provinces, municipalities and autonomous regions of the PRC, including those of the Company's subsidiaries. In accordance with this industry restructuring plan, China Telecom and China Netcom Group own 70% and 30%, respectively, of the nationwide inter-provincial optic fibres.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

In connection with the Restructuring, China Telecom transferred to the Company the wireline telecommunications business and related operations in Shanghai Municipality, Guangdong Province, Jiangsu Province and Zhejiang Province together with the related assets and liabilities (the Predecessor Operations) in consideration for 68,317 million ordinary domestic shares of the Company. The shares issued to China Telecom have a par value of RMB1.00 each and represented the entire registered and issued share capital of the Company of that date. In connection with the Restructuring, certain assets historically associated with the Predecessor Operations were not transferred to the Company and were retained by China Telecom. These assets, which amounted to RMB11,285 million as at 31 December 2001, primarily related to investments in non-telecommunications industries, inter-provincial transmission optic fibres and properties. As a result of the segregation and separate management of these assets by China Telecom beginning 31 December 2001, the assets retained by China Telecom were reflected as a distribution to China Telecom in the consolidated statement of shareholders' equity as at 31 December 2001.

Pursuant to the resolution passed by the Company's independent shareholders at an Extraordinary General Meeting held on 15 December 2003, the Company acquired the entire equity interests in Anhui Telecom Company Limited, Fujian Telecom Company Limited, Jiangxi Telecom Company Limited, Guangxi Telecom Company Limited, Chongqing Telecom Company Limited and Sichuan Telecom Company Limited (collectively the First Acquired Group) and certain network management and research and development facilities from China Telecom for a total purchase price of RMB46,000 million on 31 December 2003 (hereinafter, referred to as the First Acquisition). The purchase price consisted of a cash payment of RMB11,000 million and a long-term payable of RMB35,000 million (Note 13). Prior to the First Acquisition and effective 31 December 2002, China Telecom transferred the wireline telecommunications business and related operations in Anhui Province, Fujian Province, Jiangxi Province, Guangxi Zhuang Autonomous Region, Chongqing Municipality and Sichuan Province together with the related assets and liabilities in consideration for the entire equity interests in each of the entities of the First Acquired Group. Certain assets historically associated with these operations were retained by China Telecom, and as at 31 December 2002, these assets amounted to RMB5,189 million and consisted primarily of investments in non-telecommunications industries and properties.

Pursuant to the resolution passed by the Company's independent shareholders at an Extraordinary General Meeting held on 9 June 2004, the Company acquired the entire equity interests in Hubei Telecom Company Limited, Hunan Telecom Company Limited, Hainan Telecom Company Limited, Guizhou Telecom Company Limited, Yunnan Telecom Company Limited, Shaanxi Telecom Company Limited, Gansu Telecom Company Limited, Qinghai Telecom Company Limited, Ningxia Telecom Company Limited and Xinjiang Telecom Company Limited (collectively the Second Acquired Group) from China Telecom for a total purchase price of RMB27,800 million on 30 June 2004 (hereinafter, referred to as the Second Acquisition). The purchase price consisted of a cash payment of RMB8,340 million and a long-term payable of RMB19,460 million. On 30 June 2004, the Company repaid RMB4,310 million of this payable amount using the net proceeds from issue of new H shares in May 2004 (see Note 13). Prior to the Second Acquisition and effective 31 December 2003, China Telecom transferred the wireline telecommunications business and related operations in Hubei Province, Hunan Province, Hainan Province, Guizhou Province, Yunnan Province, Shaanxi Province, Gansu Province, Qinghai Province, Ningxia Hui Autonomous Region and Xinjiang Uygur Autonomous Region together with the related assets and liabilities in consideration for the entire equity interests in each of the entities of the Second Acquired Group. Certain assets historically associated with these operations were retained by China Telecom, and as at 31 December 2003, these assets amounted to RMB10,762 million and consisted primarily of investments in non-telecommunications industries and properties.

Basis of presentation

Since China Telecom controlled the Predecessor Operations transferred to the Company and continues to control the Company, the accompanying consolidated financial statements for the periods prior to the legal formation of the Company have been prepared as a reorganisation of entities under common control in a manner similar to a pooling-of-interests (as-if-pooling-of-interests accounting). Accordingly, under as-if-pooling-of-interests accounting, the assets and liabilities of the Predecessor Operations transferred to the Company in connection with the Restructuring have been accounted for at historical amounts.

In addition, as the First Acquired Group and the Second Acquired Group (the Acquired Groups) were under the common control of China Telecom, the First Acquisition and the Second Acquisition (the Acquisitions) have been reflected in the accompanying consolidated financial statements as a combination of entities under common control in a manner similar to a pooling-of-interests. Accordingly, the assets and liabilities of the Acquired Groups have been accounted for at historical amounts and the consolidated financial statements of the Company prior to the Acquisitions have been restated to include the results of operations and assets and liabilities of the Acquired Groups on a combined basis. The assets retained by China Telecom in respect of the Acquisitions were reflected as distributions to China Telecom in the consolidated statement of shareholders' equity as at 31 December 2002 and 31 December 2003 respectively. The considerations paid by the Company for the acquisition of the Acquired Groups have been accounted for as equity transactions in the consolidated statement of shareholders' equity.

The results of operations for the year ended 31 December 2003 and the financial condition as at 31 December 2003 and the shareholders' equity as at 31 December 2003 and 1 January 2003 previously reported by the Group and the Second Acquired Group and the combined amounts presented in the accompanying consolidated financial statements are set out below:

	The Group (as previously reported) RMB millions	The Second Acquired Group RMB millions	Combined RMB millions
Results of operations:
Operating revenues	118,451	33,102	151,553
Operating profit	32,448	404	32,852

Basic earnings/(loss) per share (RMB)	0.33	(0.15)	0.18
Financial condition:
Current assets	25,504	7,589	33,093
Total assets	305,605	98,337	403,942
Current liabilities	96,666	52,469	149,135
Total liabilities	173,064	78,815	251,879
Shareholders' equity as at 31 December 2003	131,272	19,522	150,794
Shareholders' equity as at 1 January 2003	152,848	34,177	187,025

For the periods presented, all significant balances and transactions between the Group and the Acquired Groups prior to the Acquisitions have been eliminated.

For the year ended 31 December 2004

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Basis of preparation

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) promulgated by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB). IFRS includes International Accounting Standards (IAS) and interpretations. These financial statements also comply with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance and the applicable disclosure provisions of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited.

These financial statements are prepared on the historical cost basis as modified by the revaluation of certain property, plant and equipment (Note 3).

The preparation of the financial statements in accordance with IFRS requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. The accounting policies described below have been consistently applied by the Group.

The IASB has issued a number of new and revised International Financial Reporting Standards and International Accounting Standards (collectively new IFRSs) which are effective for accounting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2005.

The Group has not early adopted these new IFRSs in the financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2004. The Group has already commenced an assessment of the impact of these new IFRSs but is not yet in a position to state whether these new IFRSs would have significant impact on its results of operations and financial position.

(b) Basis of consolidation

A subsidiary is an enterprise controlled by the Company. Control exists when the Company has the power, directly or indirectly, to govern the financial and operating policies of an enterprise so as to obtain benefits from its activities.

The financial results of subsidiaries are included in the consolidated financial statements from the date that control commences until the date that control ceases, and the share attributable to minority interests is deducted from or added to profit before minority interests. All significant intercompany balances and transactions and any unrealised gains/losses arising from intercompany transactions are eliminated on consolidation.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

(b) Basis of consolidation (continued)

An associate is a company, not being a subsidiary, in which the Group exercises significant influence over its management. Significant influence is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investee but is not control over those policies.

The consolidated statement of income includes the Group's share of the results of its associates for the period. In the consolidated balance sheet, interests in associates are stated at the Group's attributable share of net assets.

(c) Translation of foreign currencies

The functional and reporting currency of the Group is Renminbi (RMB). Foreign currency transactions during the year are translated into RMB at the applicable rates of exchange quoted by the People's Bank of China (PBOC rates) prevailing on the transaction dates. Foreign currency monetary assets and liabilities are translated into RMB at the applicable PBOC rates at the balance sheet date.

Exchange differences, other than those capitalised as construction in progress, are recognised as income or expense in the consolidated statement of income. For the periods presented, no exchange differences were capitalised.

(d) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash at bank and in hand and time deposits with original maturities of three months or less when purchased. Cash equivalents are stated at cost, which approximates fair value. None of the Group's cash and cash equivalents is restricted as to withdrawal.

(e) Accounts receivable

Accounts receivable are stated at cost less allowance for doubtful accounts. An allowance for doubtful accounts is provided based upon the evaluation of the recoverability of these accounts at the balance sheet date.

(f) Inventories

Inventories consist of materials and supplies used in maintaining the wireline telecommunications network and goods for resale. Materials and supplies are valued at cost less a provision for obsolescence.

81 China Telecom Corporation Limited

Annual Report 2004

(f) Inventories (continued)

Inventories that are held for resale are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

(g) Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are initially recorded at cost, less subsequent accumulated depreciation and impairment losses (Note 2(1)). The cost of an asset comprises its purchase price, any directly attributable costs of bringing the asset to working condition and location for its intended use and the cost of borrowed funds used during the periods of construction. Expenditure incurred after the asset has been put into operation is capitalised only when it increases the future economic benefits embodied in the item of property, plant and equipment. All other expenditure, including the cost of repairs and maintenance, is expensed as it is incurred.

Subsequent to the revaluations (Note 3), which were based on depreciated replacement costs, property, plant and equipment are carried at revalued amount, being the fair value at the date of the revaluation, less subsequent accumulated depreciation and impairment losses. When an item of property, plant and equipment is revalued, any accumulated depreciation at the date of the revaluation is restated proportionately with the change in the gross carrying amount of the asset so that the carrying amount of the asset after revaluation equals its revalued amount. The separate classes into which the Company groups assets for the revaluation are buildings and improvements; telecommunications network plant and transmission and switching equipment; and furniture, fixture, motor vehicles and other equipment. When an item of property, plant and equipment is revalued, the entire class of property, plant and equipment to which that asset belongs is revalued simultaneously. When an asset's carrying amount is increased as a result of a revaluation, the increase is credited directly to shareholders' equity under the component of revaluation reserve. However, a revaluation increase is recognised as income to the extent that it reverses a revaluation decrease of the same asset previously recognised as an expense. When an asset's carrying amount is decreased as a result of a revaluation, the decrease is recognised as an expense in the consolidated statement of income. However, a revaluation decrease is charged directly against any related revaluation surplus to the extent that the decrease does not exceed the amount held in the revaluation reserve in respect of that same asset. Revaluations are performed with sufficient regularity such that the carrying amount does not differ materially from that which would be determined using fair value at the balance sheet date. Revaluations are performed annually on items which experience significant and volatile movements in fair value while items which experience insignificant movements in fair value are revalued every three years.

Assets acquired under leasing agreements which effectively transfer substantially all the risks and benefits incidental to ownership from the lessor to the lessee are classified as assets under finance leases. Assets under finance leases are initially recorded at amounts equivalent to the present value of the minimum lease payments (computed using the rate of interest implicit in the lease) which approximate the fair value at the inception of the lease. The net present value of the future minimum lease payments is recorded correspondingly as a finance lease obligation. Assets under finance leases are amortised over their estimated useful lives. As at 31 December 2004, the carrying amount of assets held under finance leases was RMB314 million (2003 : RMB239 million).

Gains or losses arising from retirement or disposal of property, plant and equipment are determined as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and are recognised as income or expense in the consolidated statement of income on the date of disposal. On disposal of a revalued asset, the related revaluation surplus is transferred from the revaluation reserve to retained earnings.

Depreciation is provided to write off the cost/revalued amount of each asset over its estimated useful life on a straight-line basis, after taking into account its estimated residual value, as follows:

	Depreciable lives primarily range from
Buildings and improvements	8 to 30 years
Telecommunications network plant, transmission and switching equipment	6 to 10 years
Furniture, fixture, motor vehicles and other equipment	4 to 10 years

(h) Lease prepayments

Lease prepayments represent land use rights paid to the PRC's land bureau. Land use rights are carried at cost and are written off on a straight-line basis over the respective periods of the rights which range from 20 years to 70 years.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

(i) Construction in progress

Construction in progress represents buildings, telecommunications network plant, transmission and switching equipment and other equipment under construction and pending installation, and is stated at cost less impairment losses (Note 2(l)). Cost comprises direct costs of construction as well as interest charges, and foreign exchange differences on related borrowed funds to the extent that they are regarded as an adjustment to interest charges, during the periods of construction. Capitalisation of these costs ceases and the construction in progress is transferred to property, plant and equipment when the asset is substantially ready for its intended use.

No depreciation is provided in respect of construction in progress.

(j) Investments in subsidiaries

In the Company's stand-alone balance sheet, investments in subsidiaries are accounted for using the equity method.

(k) Investments

Investments in non-marketable equity securities are stated at cost less provision for impairment losses (Note 2(l)). A provision is made where, in the opinion of management, the carrying amount of the investments exceeds its recoverable amount.

(l) Impairment

The carrying amounts of the Group's long-lived assets, including property, plant and equipment, are reviewed periodically in order to assess whether the recoverable amounts have declined below the carrying amounts. These assets are tested for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that their recorded carrying amounts may not be recoverable. When such a decline has occurred, the carrying amount is reduced to the recoverable amount. The amount of the reduction is recognised as an expense in the consolidated statement of income. The recoverable amount is the greater of the net selling price and the value in use. In determining the value in use, expected future cash flows generated by the assets are discounted to their present value. For the year ended 31 December 2004, a provision for impairment loss of RMB88 million (2003: Nil) was made to fully impair the carrying value of certain equipment for outdated telecommunications services.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

(m) Revenue recognition

The Group's revenues are principally derived from the provision of local, domestic long distance (DLD) and international long distance (ILD) telephone services which consist of (i) usage charges for telephone services, which vary depending on the day, the time of day, distance and duration of the telephone call, (ii) a monthly telephone service fee, (iii) service activation and installation fees, and (iv) charges for value-added telecommunications services, such as call waiting, call diverting and caller number display. The Group records wireline service revenues over the periods they are earned as follows:

- (i) Revenues derived from local, DLD and ILD telephone usage are recognised as the services are provided.
- (ii) Upfront fees received for activation of wireline services and wireline installation charges are deferred and recognised over the expected customer relationship period. The related direct incremental customer acquisition costs are deferred to the extent of the upfront fees and are amortised over the same expected customer relationship period.
- (iii) Monthly telephone service fees are recognised in the month during which the telephone services are provided to customers.
- (iv) Revenues from sale of prepaid calling cards are recognised as the cards are used by customers.
- (v) Revenues derived from value-added telecommunications services are recognised when the services are provided to customers.

Other related wireline telecommunications service revenues are recognised as follows:

- (i) Revenues from the provision of Internet and managed data services are recognised when the services are provided to customers.
- (ii) Interconnection fees from domestic and foreign telecommunications operators are recognised when the services are rendered as measured by the minutes of traffic processed.
- (iii) Lease income from operating leases is recognised over the term of the lease.

(m) Revenue recognition (continued)

- (iv) Sale of customer-end equipment is recognised on delivery of the equipment to customers and when the significant risks and rewards of ownership and title have been transferred to the customers.

(n) Advertising and promotion expense

The costs for advertising and promoting the Group's wireline telecommunications services are expensed as incurred. Advertising and promotion expense, which is included in selling, general and administrative expenses, was RMB8,701 million for the year ended 31 December 2004 (2003: RMB5,758 million).

(o) Net financing costs

Net financing costs comprise interest income on bank deposits, interest expense on borrowings, and foreign exchange gains and losses. Interest income from bank deposits is recognised on a time proportion basis that takes into account the effective yield on the asset.

Interest costs incurred in connection with borrowings are expensed as incurred, except to the extent that they are capitalised as being directly attributable to the construction of an asset which necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use.

(p) Research and development expense

Research and development expenditure is expensed as incurred. For the year ended 31 December 2004, research and development expense was RMB172 million (2003: RMB166 million).

(q) Employee benefits

The Group's contributions to defined contribution retirement plans administered by the PRC government are recognised as an expense in the consolidated statement of income. Further information is set out in Note 33.

(r) Provisions

A provision is recognised in the consolidated balance sheet when the Group has a legal or constructive obligation as a result of a past event, and it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation.

(s) Income tax

Income tax comprises current and deferred tax. Current tax is calculated on the taxable income for the year by applying the applicable tax rates. Deferred tax is provided using the balance sheet liability method, providing for all temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for taxation purposes. The amount of deferred tax is calculated on the basis of the enacted tax rates that are expected to apply in the period when the asset is realised or the liability is settled. The effect on deferred tax of any changes in tax rates is charged or credited to the consolidated statement of income, except for the effect of a change in tax rate that results in a change in the carrying amount of deferred tax assets and liabilities is charged or credited directly to shareholders' equity, to the extent that such deferred tax assets and liabilities are previously charged or credited to equity. A deferred tax asset is recognised only to the extent that it is probable that future taxable income will be available against which the asset can be utilised. Deferred tax assets are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realised.

(t) Dividends

Dividends are recognised as a liability in the period in which they are declared.

(u) Segmental reporting

A business segment is a distinguishable component of the Group that is engaged in providing products or services and is subject to risks and rewards that are different from those of other segments. For the periods presented, the Group has one operating segment which is the provision of wireline telecommunications services. All of the Group's operating activities are carried out in the PRC.

Deferred tax assets/ (liabilities)	10,805	10,523	(2,302)	(1,325)	8,503	9,198

A valuation allowance on deferred tax assets is recorded if it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realised through recovery of taxes previously paid and/or future taxable income. The allowance is subject to ongoing adjustments based on changes in circumstances that affect the Group's assessment of the realisability of the deferred tax assets. The Group has reviewed its deferred tax assets as at 31 December 2003 and 2004. Based on the level of historical taxable income and projections for future taxable income over the periods which the deferred tax assets are deductible, management believes that it is more likely than not the Group will realise the benefits of these temporary differences. Therefore, no valuation allowances were provided for the years ended 31 December 2003 and 2004 in respect of deferred tax assets arising from temporary differences.

8. DEFERRED TAX ASSETS AND LIABILITIES (continued)

Note:

- (i) Represents net tax loss carry forward of the Second Acquired Group for the year ended 31 December 2003. As the tax loss was utilised by China Telecom in the same tax year, the utilisation of the deferred tax asset was reflected as a distribution to China Telecom in the statement of shareholders' equity.
- (ii) As described in Note 3, in connection with the Restructuring and the Acquisitions, the property, plant and equipment of the Predecessor Operations, the First Acquired Group and the Second Acquired Group were revalued as at 31 December 2001, 2002 and 2003, respectively. The tax bases of these assets were adjusted to conform to the respective revalued amounts. In addition, in connection with the Restructuring and the Acquisitions, the tax bases of the assets and liabilities of the Predecessor Operations and the Acquired Groups that gave rise to the temporary differences were adjusted to conform to the related financial carrying amounts. As a result, the timing differences that gave rise to the net deferred tax liabilities relating to these items were eliminated. The reductions in net deferred tax liabilities of RMB4,887 million as at 31 December 2001, RMB20 million as at 31 December 2002 and RMB150 million as at 31 December 2003 were credited to shareholders' equity.
- (iii) In connection with the Restructuring and the Acquisitions, the land use rights of the Predecessor Operations, the First Acquired Group and the Second Acquired Group, which as at 31 December 2001, 2002 and 2003 had a total carrying amounts of RMB2,638 million, RMB617 million and RMB1,251 million, respectively, were revalued as required by the relevant PRC rules and regulations. The revalued amounts of the Predecessor Operations and the Acquired Groups' land use rights as at 31 December 2001, 2002 and 2003 were determined at RMB14,939 million, RMB7,913 million and RMB8,464 million, respectively. The tax bases of the land use rights were adjusted to conform to such revalued amounts. The land use rights were not revalued for financial reporting purposes and accordingly, deferred tax assets were created with carrying amounts of RMB4,059 million, RMB2,408 million and RMB2,209 million as at 31 December 2001, 2002 and 2003, respectively, with corresponding increases in shareholders' equity. Based upon the level of historical taxable income and projections of future taxable income, management believes that it is more likely than not the Group will realise the benefits of the deferred tax assets.

In 2004, certain subsidiaries of the Group with operations in the western region of the PRC obtained approval from tax authority to reduce the income tax rate from 33% to 15% for the period from 1 January 2004 to 31 December 2010. In addition, certain subsidiaries of the Group obtained approval from tax authority to reduce income tax rate from 33% to 15% with effect from 1 January 2004. Accordingly, the effect of the change in tax rate on the amount of the deferred tax asset expected to be realised during the relevant periods amounting to RMB244 million was charged to shareholders' equity.

- (iv) As described in Note 3, in accordance with the Group's accounting policy, the property, plant and equipment of the Group were revalued as at 31 December 2004. The tax bases of these assets were not adjusted to conform to such revalued amounts and accordingly, a deferred tax asset and a deferred tax liability in the respective amount of RMB356 million and RMB378 million in respect of the revaluation deficit and surplus were recognised. The deferred tax asset was credited to the income statement while the deferred tax liability was charged to shareholders' equity.

19. RESERVES (continued)

Note:

- (i) According to the Company's Articles of Association, the Company is required to transfer 10% of its net profit, as determined in accordance with the PRC accounting rules and regulations, to a statutory surplus reserve until such reserve balance reaches 50% of the registered capital. The transfer to this reserve must be made before distribution of any dividend to shareholders. For the year ended 31 December 2004, the Company transferred RMB2,421 million (2003: RMB1,748 million), being 10% of the year's net profit determined in accordance with PRC accounting rules and regulations, to this reserve.

According to the Company's Articles of Association, the Directors authorised, subject to shareholders' approval, for the year ended 31 December 2004, the transfer of RMB7,747 million (2003: RMB5,592 million), being 32% (2003: 32%) of the year's net profit determined in accordance with PRC accounting rules and regulations, to a discretionary surplus reserve.

The surplus reserves are non-distributable other than liquidation and can be used to make good of previous years' losses, if any, and may be utilised for business expansion or converted into share capital by issuing new shares to existing shareholders in proportion to their shareholdings or by increasing the par value of the shares currently held by them, provided that the remaining reserve balance after such issue is not less than 25% of the registered capital.

- (ii) According to the Company's Articles of Association, the Company is required to transfer 5% to 10% of its net profit, as determined in accordance with the PRC accounting rules and regulations, to a statutory common welfare fund. This fund can only be utilised on capital items for the collective benefits of the Company's employees such as construction of dormitories, canteen and other staff welfare facilities. This fund is non-distributable other than on liquidation. The transfer to this fund must be made before distribution of any dividend to shareholders. For the year ended 31 December 2004, the Directors authorised, subject to shareholders' approval, the transfer of RMB2,421 million (2003: RMB1,748 million), being 10% (2003: 10%) of the year's net profit determined in accordance with the PRC accounting rules and regulations, to this fund.
- (iii) According to the Company's Articles of Association, the amount of retained earnings available for distribution to shareholders of the Company is the lower of the amount determined in accordance with the PRC accounting rules and regulations and the amount determined in accordance with IFRS. At 31 December 2004, the amount of retained earnings available for distribution was RMB20,609 million (2003: RMB14,212 million), being the amount determined in accordance with the PRC accounting rules and regulations. Final dividend of approximately RMB5,576 million in respect of the financial year 2004 proposed after the balance sheet date has not been recognised as a liability at the balance sheet date (Note 28).

27. PROFIT ATTRIBUTABLE TO SHAREHOLDERS

The profit attributable to shareholders includes a profit of RMB28,023 million (2003: RMB13,882 million) which has been dealt with in the stand-alone financial statements of the Company.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the year ended 31 December 2004

28. DIVIDENDS

Pursuant to a resolution passed at the Directors' meeting on 31 March 2005, a final dividend of equivalent to HK$0.065 per share totalling approximately RMB5,576 million for the year ended 31 December 2004 was proposed for shareholders' approval at the Annual General Meeting. The dividend has not been provided for in the consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2004.

Pursuant to the shareholders' approval at the Annual General Meeting held on 3 May 2004, a final dividend of RMB0.069083 per share totalling RMB5,224 million in respect of the year ended 31 December 2003 was declared and was paid on 20 May 2004.

29. BASIC EARNINGS PER SHARE

The calculation of basic earnings per share for the year ended 31 December 2004 is based on the net profit of RMB28,023 million and the weighted average number of shares in issue during the year of 78,839,968,917 shares. The weighted average number of shares in issue for the year ended 31 December 2004 reflects the issuance of 5,318,181,818 new H shares in May 2004 (Note 18). The calculation of basic earnings per share for the year ended 31 December 2003 is based on the net profit of RMB13,882 million and the weighted average number of shares in issue during the year of 75,614,186,503 shares.

The amount of diluted earnings per share is not presented as there were no dilutive potential ordinary shares in existence for all periods presented.

30. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

Operating lease commitments

The Group and the Company lease business premises through non-cancellable operating leases. These operating leases do not contain provisions for contingent lease rentals. None of the rental agreements contain escalation provisions that may require higher future rental payments nor impose restrictions on dividends, additional debt and/or further leasing.

30. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES (continued)Operating lease commitments (continued)

As at 31 December 2004 and 2003, future minimum lease payments under non-cancellable operating leases having initial or remaining lease terms of more than one year were as follows:

	The Group		The Company
	2004 RMB millions	2003 RMB millions	2004 RMB millions	2003 RMB millions

Total rental expense in respect of operating leases charged to the consolidated statement of income for the year ended 31 December 2004 was RMB1,271 million (2003: RMB1,262 million).

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

30. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES (continued)

Capital commitments

As at 31 December 2004 and 2003, the Group and the Company had capital commitments as follows:

	The Group		The Company
	2004 RMB millions	2003 RMB millions	2004 RMB millions	2003 RMB millions
Authorised and contracted for Properties	918	2,184	17

Telecommunications network plant and equipment	9,168	9,668	15
	10,867	11,601	302

Contingent liabilities

- (a) The Company and the Group were advised by their PRC lawyers that, except for liabilities arising out of or relating to the businesses of the Predecessor Operations and the Acquired Groups transferred to the Company in connection with the Restructuring and the Acquisitions, no other liabilities were assumed by the Company or the Group, and the Company or the Group are not jointly and severally liable for other debts and obligations incurred by China Telecom Group prior to the Restructuring and the Acquisitions.

30. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES (continued)Contingent liabilities (continued)

- (b) As at 31 December 2004 and 2003, the undiscounted maximum amount of potential future payments under guarantees given to banks in respect of banking facilities granted to the parties below were as follows:

	The Group		The Company
	2004	2003	2004	2003
	RMB	RMB	RMB	RMB
	millions	millions	millions	millions
China Telecom Group and the Group's investees		42
Subsidiaries			1,884	1,492
		42	1,884	1,492

The Group monitors the conditions that are subject to the guarantees to identify whether it is probable that a loss has occurred, and recognises any such losses under guarantees when those losses can be estimated. At 31 December 2004 and 2003, it was not probable that the Group would be required to make payments under these guarantees. Thus no liability was accrued for losses related to the Group's obligations under these guarantee arrangements.

Legal contingencies

The Group is a defendant in certain lawsuits as well as the named party in other proceedings arising in the ordinary course of business. While the outcomes of such contingencies, lawsuits or other proceedings cannot be determined at present, management believes that any resulting liabilities will not have a material adverse effect on the financial position or operating results of the Group.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the year ended 31 December 2004

31. CONCENTRATION OF RISKS

Credit and concentration risks

The carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents, time deposits, accounts receivable and other receivables represent the Group's maximum exposure to credit risk in relation to financial assets. The majority of the Group's accounts receivable relate to provision of telecommunications services to residential and corporate customers operating in various industries. The Group performs ongoing credit evaluations of its customers financial condition and generally does not require collateral on accounts receivable. The Group maintains an allowance for doubtful accounts and actual losses have been within management's expectations.

The Group has a diversified base of customers. No single customer contributed more than 10% of revenues for the periods presented.

The Group does not have concentrations of available sources of labour, services, franchises, licenses or other rights that could, if suddenly eliminated, severely impact its operations. The Group invests its cash with several large state-owned financial institutions in the PRC.

Business and economic risks

The Group conducts its principal operations in the PRC and accordingly is subject to special considerations and significant risks not typically associated with investments in equity securities of United States and Western European companies. These include risks associated with, among others, the political, economic, legal environment and social uncertainties in the PRC, influence of the Ministry of Information Industry over certain aspects of the Group's operations and competition in the telecommunications industry. In addition, the ability to negotiate and implement specific business development projects in a timely and favourable manner may be impacted by political considerations unrelated to or beyond the control of the Group. Although the PRC government has been pursuing economic reform policies for the past two decades, no assurance can be given that the PRC government will continue to pursue such policies or that such policies may not be significantly altered. There is also no guarantee that the PRC government's pursuit of economic reforms will be consistent or effective and as a result, changes in the rate or method of taxation, reduction in tariff protection and other import restrictions, and changes in State policies and regulations affecting the telecommunications industry may have a negative impact on the Group's operating results and financial condition.

*For the year ended 31 December 200431. CONCENTRATION OF RISKS *(continued)Currency risk

Substantially all of the revenue-generating operations of the Group are transacted in RMB, which is not fully convertible into foreign currencies. On 1 January 1994, the PRC government abolished the dual rate system and introduced a single rate of exchange as quoted by the People's Bank of China. However, the unification of the exchange rate does not imply convertibility of RMB into United States dollars or other foreign currencies. All foreign exchange transactions must take place either through the People's Bank of China or other institutions authorised to buy and sell foreign exchange or at a swap center. Approval of foreign currency payments by the People's Bank of China or other institutions requires submitting a payment application form together with suppliers' invoices, shipping documents and signed contracts.

Interest rate risk

The interest rates and terms of repayment of the Group's debts are disclosed in Note 13.

32. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Companies are considered to be related if one company has the ability, directly or indirectly, to control the other company or exercise significant influence over the other company in making financial and operating decisions. Companies are also considered to be related if they are subject to common control or common significant influence.

The Group conducts business with enterprises directly or indirectly owned or controlled by the PRC government (state-owned enterprises). Furthermore, the PRC government itself represents a significant customer of the Group both directly through its numerous authorities and indirectly through its numerous affiliates and other organisations. The Group considers that the provision of wireline telecommunications services to the PRC government authorities and affiliates and other state-owned enterprises are activities in the ordinary course of business in the PRC and has not disclosed such services as related party transactions.

The Group is part of a larger group of companies under China Telecom and has significant transactions and relationships with members of China Telecom. Because of these relationships, it is possible that the terms of these transactions are not the same as those that would result from transactions among wholly unrelated parties. Under IFRS, state-owned enterprises, other than China Telecom and its affiliates, are not disclosed as related parties. Related parties refer to enterprises over which China Telecom is able to exercise control or significant influence.

32. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS (continued)

The principal related party transactions with China Telecom Group, which were carried out in the ordinary course of business, are as follows:

121 China Telecom Corporation Limited

Annual Report 2004

32. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS (continued)

In connection with the Second Acquisition, the Group and China Telecom Group entered into a number of agreements on 13 April 2004. The principal terms of these agreements are similar to those disclosed in Note 32 to the Group's 2003 consolidated financial statements, other than an increase in the maximum commission rate for domestic equipment procurement from 1.8% to 3.0% to reflect the latest market price.

In addition, the Company entered into a comprehensive services framework agreement with China Telecom on 13 April 2004 to govern the terms and conditions of transactions between the Group and entities within China Telecom Group which were not within the scope of the agreements entered into previously. Such transactions include procurement of telecommunications equipment, network design, software upgrade, system integration, manufacture of calling cards and other services. Pursuant to this agreement, China Telecom Group charges the Group for these services in accordance with the following terms:

government prescribed price;

where there is no government prescribed price but where there is a government guided price, the government guided price will apply;

where there is neither a government prescribed price nor a government guided price, the market price will apply; where none of the above is available, the price is to be agreed between the relevant parties, which shall be based on the cost incurred in providing the services plus a reasonable profit margin.

The directors of the Company are of the opinion that the above transactions with related parties were conducted in the ordinary course of business and on normal commercial terms or in accordance with the agreements governing such transactions, and this has been confirmed by the independent non-executive directors.

33. EMPLOYEE BENEFITS PLAN

As stipulated by the regulations of the PRC, the Group participates in various defined contribution retirement plans organised by municipal and provincial governments for its employees. The Group is required to make contributions to the retirement plans at rates ranging from 18% to 20% of the salaries, bonuses and certain allowances of the employees. A member of the plan is entitled to a pension equal to a fixed proportion of the salary prevailing at the member's retirement date. The Group has no other material obligation for the payment of pension benefits associated with these plans beyond the annual contributions described above. The Group's contributions for the year ended 31 December 2004 were RMB2,031 million (2003: RMB1,996 million).

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

34. STOCK APPRECIATION RIGHTS

The Company implemented a plan of stock appreciation rights for members of its senior management in order to provide further incentives to these employees. Under this plan, stock appreciation rights were granted in units with each unit representing one H share. No shares will be issued under the stock appreciation rights plan.

Under the plan, all stock appreciation rights will have an exercise period of six years. A recipient of stock appreciation rights may not exercise the rights in the first 18 months after the date of grant. As at each of the third, fourth, fifth and sixth anniversary of the date of grant, the total number of stock appreciation rights exercisable may not in aggregate exceed 25%, 50%, 75% and 100%, respectively, of the total stock appreciation rights granted to such person.

In March 2003, the Company's compensation committee approved the plan for stock appreciation rights pursuant to which the Company granted 276 million stock appreciation right units to eligible employees during 2003.

The exercise price of stock appreciation rights granted in 2003 is the initial public offering price of the Company's H shares. Upon exercise of the stock appreciation rights, a recipient will receive, subject to any applicable withholding tax, a cash payment in RMB, translated from the Hong Kong dollar amount equal to the product of the number of stock appreciation rights exercised and the difference between the exercise price and market price of the Company's H shares at the date of exercise based on the applicable exchange rate between RMB and Hong Kong dollar at the date of the exercise.

During the year ended 31 December 2004, 70 million stock appreciation right units were exercised. No stock appreciation right units were exercised in the year ended 31 December 2003.

The Company recognises compensation expense of the stock appreciation rights over the applicable vesting period. For the year ended 31 December 2004, compensation expense recognised was RMB70 million (2003: RMB97 million).

35. FAIR VALUES OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Financial assets of the Group include cash and cash equivalents, time deposits, investments, accounts receivable, amounts due from China Telecom Group, advances and other receivables. Financial liabilities of the Group include debts, accounts payable, amounts due to China Telecom Group, accrued expenses and other payables. The Group does not hold nor issue financial instruments for trading purposes.

35. FAIR VALUES OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS (continued)

The disclosures of the fair value estimates, methods and assumptions set forth below for the Group's financial instruments are made to comply with the requirements of IAS 32 and IAS 39, and should be read in conjunction with the Group's consolidated financial statements and related notes. The estimated fair value amounts have been determined by the Group using market information and valuation methodologies considered appropriate. However, considerable judgment is required to interpret market data to develop the estimates of fair values. Accordingly, the estimates presented herein are not necessarily indicative of the amounts the Group could realise in a current market exchange. The use of different market assumptions and/or estimation methodologies may have a material effect on the estimated fair value amounts.

The following summarises the major methods and assumptions used in estimating the fair values of the Group's financial instruments.

Long-term debt: The fair values of long-term indebtedness are estimated by discounting future cash flows using current market interest rates offered to the Group for debt with substantially the same characteristics and maturities. As at 31 December 2004 and 2003, the carrying amounts and fair values of the Group's long-term debt were as follows:

	2004		2003
	Carrying amount RMB millions	Fair value RMB millions	Carrying amount RMB millions	Fair value RMB millions
Long-term debt	84,208	82,850	82,589	83,070

The Group's long term investments are unlisted equity interests and there are no quoted market prices for such interests in the PRC. Accordingly, a reasonable estimate of their fair values could not be made without incurring excessive costs.

The fair values of all other financial instruments approximate their carrying amounts due to the short-term maturity of these instruments.

36. ULTIMATE HOLDING COMPANY

The directors consider the ultimate holding company of the Group at 31 December 2004 to be China Telecommunications Corporation, a state-owned enterprise established in the PRC.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION FOR ADS HOLDERS

The Group's accounting policies conform with IFRS which differ in certain significant respects from US GAAP. Differences which have a significant effect on net profit and shareholders' equity are set out below.

(a) Revaluation of property, plant and equipment

In connection with the Restructuring, the property, plant and equipment of the Predecessor Operations were revalued as at 31 December 2001 (see Note 3 on the financial statements). The net revaluation deficit has been reflected in the consolidated financial statements as at 31 December 2001. Such revaluation resulted in an increase directly to shareholders' equity of RMB4,154 million with respect to the increase in carrying amount of certain property, plant and equipment above their historical cost bases, and a charge to income of RMB11,930 million with respect to the reduction in carrying amount of certain property, plant and equipment below their historical cost bases.

In connection with the First Acquisition, the property, plant and equipment of the First Acquired Group were revalued as at 31 December 2002 (see Note 3 on the financial statements). The net revaluation deficit has been reflected in the consolidated financial statements as at 31 December 2002. Such revaluation resulted in an increase directly to shareholders' equity of RMB760 million with respect to the increase in carrying amount of certain property, plant and equipment above their historical cost bases, and a charge to income of RMB14,690 million with respect to the reduction in carrying amount of certain property, plant and equipment below their historical cost bases.

In connection with the Second Acquisition, the property, plant and equipment of the Second Acquired Group were revalued as at 31 December 2003 (see Note 3 on the financial statements). The net revaluation deficit has been reflected in the consolidated financial statements as at 31 December 2003. Such revaluation resulted in an increase directly to shareholders' equity of RMB1,537 million with respect to the increase in carrying amount of certain property, plant and equipment above their historical cost bases, and a charge to income of RMB14,832 million with respect to the reduction in carrying amount of certain property, plant and equipment below their historical cost bases.

In accordance with Group's accounting policy, the property, plant and equipment of the Group were revalued as at 31 December 2004 (see Note 3 on the financial statements). The net revaluation deficit has been reflected in the consolidated financial statements as at 31 December 2004. Such revaluation resulted in an increase directly to shareholders' equity of RMB1,233 million with respect to the increase in carrying amount of certain property, plant and equipment above their historical cost bases, and a charge to income of RMB1,262 million with respect to the reduction in carrying amount of certain property, plant and equipment below their historical cost bases.

Under US GAAP, property, plant and equipment are stated at their historical cost less accumulated depreciation unless an impairment loss has been recorded. An impairment loss on property, plant and equipment is recorded under US GAAP if the carrying amount of such asset exceeds its future undiscounted cash flows resulting from the use of the asset and its eventual disposition. The future undiscounted cash flows of the Group's property, plant and equipment, whose carrying amount was reduced as a result of the above revaluations, exceed the historical cost carrying amount of such property, plant and equipment and, therefore, impairment of such assets is not appropriate under US GAAP. Accordingly, the revaluation reserves recorded directly to shareholders' equity and the charges to income recorded under IFRS as a result of the above revaluations are reversed for US GAAP purposes.

However, as a result of the tax deductibility of the net revaluation deficit, a deferred tax liability related to the net revaluation deficit is created under US GAAP with a corresponding decrease in shareholders' equity.

(b) Disposal of revalued property, plant and equipment

Under IFRS, on disposal of a revalued asset, the related revaluation surplus is transferred from the revaluation reserve to retained earnings. Under US GAAP, the gain and loss on disposal of an asset is determined with reference to the asset's historical cost carrying amount and included in current earnings.

(c) Effect of change in tax rate

Under IFRS, the effect of a change in tax rate that results in a change in the carrying amounts of deferred tax assets and liabilities is charged or credited directly to equity, to the extent that such deferred tax assets and liabilities are previously charged or credited to equity. Under US GAAP, the effect of a change in tax rate for all items of deferred tax assets and liabilities is recorded in the income statement.

(d) Related party transactions

Under IFRS, transactions with state-controlled enterprises other than China Telecom and its affiliates are not required to be disclosed as related party transactions. Furthermore, government departments and agencies are deemed not to be related parties to the extent that such transactions are in the normal course of business. Therefore, related party transactions as disclosed in Note 32 on the financial statements only refer to transactions with China Telecom Group.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION FOR ADS HOLDERS

Under US GAAP, there are no similar exemptions. The Group's principal transactions with state-controlled telecommunications operators in the PRC were as follows:

	2004 RMB millions	2003 RMB millions
Interconnection revenues	8,964	6,931
Interconnection charges	2,190	1,154
Leased line revenues	2,701	3,476

The amounts set out above represent the historical costs incurred by the related parties in carrying out such transactions.

(e) Recently issued accounting standards*SFAS No. 123R*

In December 2004, the FASB issued SFAS No. 123 (revised 2004), Share-based payment (SFAS No. 123R). SFAS No. 123R addresses the accounting for share-based payment transactions in which an enterprise receives employee services in exchange for equity instruments of the enterprise or liabilities that are based on the fair value of the enterprise's equity instruments or that may be settled by the issuance of such equity instruments. SFAS No. 123R requires an entity to recognize the grant-date fair-value of stock options and other equity-based compensation issued to employees in the income statement. SFAS No. 123R generally requires that an entity account for those transactions using the fair-value-based method, and eliminates an entity's ability to account for share-based compensation transactions using the intrinsic value method of accounting, which was permitted under Statement 123, as originally issued. For the Group, SFAS No. 123R is effective at the beginning of the reporting period that begins after 15 June 2005. Currently, the Group does not expect the application of SFAS No. 123R will have a material impact on its consolidated financial statements.

(e) Recently issued accounting standards (continued)SFAS No. 151

In November 2004, the FASB issued SFAS No. 151, Inventory costs. SFAS No. 151 clarifies accounting for abnormal amounts of idle facility expense, freight, handling costs, and wasted material (spoilage). SFAS No. 151 requires that those items be recognised as current period charges. Additionally, SFAS No. 151 requires that allocation of fixed production overheads to the costs of conversion based on normal capacity of the production facilities. For the Group, SFAS No. 151 is effective for fiscal years beginning after 15 June 2005. Currently, the Group does not expect the application of SFAS No. 151 will have a material impact on its consolidated financial statements.

SFAS No. 152

In December 2004, the FASB issued SFAS No. 152, Accounting for Real Estate TimeSharing Transactions. SFAS No. 152 amends SFAS No. 66, Accounting for Sales of Real Estate to reference accounting and reporting guidance for real estate time-sharing transactions. SFAS No. 152 amends SFAS No. 67, Accounting for Costs and Initial Rental Operations of Real Estate Projects, so that the guidance in SFAS No. 67 about incidental operations and costs incurred to sell real estate projects does not apply to real-estate timesharing transactions. For the Group, SFAS No. 152 is effective for fiscal years beginning after 15 June 2005. Currently, the Group does not expect the application of SFAS No. 152 will have a material impact on its consolidated financial statements.

SFAS No. 153

In December 2004, the FASB issued SFAS No. 153, Exchanges of Non-monetary Assets. SFAS No. 153 addresses the accounting for non-monetary exchanges of productive assets. SFAS No. 153 requires non-monetary exchanges to be accounted for at fair value, recognising any gains or losses, if the fair value is determinable within reasonable limits and the transaction has commercial substance. For the Group, SFAS No. 153 is effective for fiscal years beginning after 15 June 2005. Currently, the Group does not expect the application of SFAS No. 153 will have a material impact on its consolidated financial statements.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION FOR ADS HOLDERS

Summary of the Significant Ways in Which the Corporate Governance Practices of China Telecom Corporation Limited (the Company) Differ from Those Followed by Domestic Companies under NYSE Listing Standards

As a company incorporated in the People's Republic of China (the PRC) and listed on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the HKSE) and the New York Stock Exchange (the NYSE), the Company, as a foreign private issuer, is not required to comply with all of the corporate governance rules of Section 303A of the NYSE Listed Company Manual, but should disclose the significant ways in which the corporate governance practices of the Company differ from those followed by domestic companies under NYSE listing standards.

Under currently applicable PRC or Hong Kong laws and regulations, the Company is not required to have a board with a majority of independent directors. As a company listed in HKSE, the Company is subject to the requirement of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the Hong Kong Listing Rules) that at least three members of its board of directors be independent as determined thereunder. The Company currently has three independent directors out of a total of fifteen directors, who satisfies both the requirement regarding independence of the Hong Kong Listing Rules and Section 303A.02 of the NYSE Listed Company Manual.

Currently, the Company does not have a nomination/corporate governance committee and is not required to do so under currently applicable PRC or Hong Kong laws and regulations.

All members of the audit committee of the Company have extensive management experience. However, they do not possess direct experience or expertise in respect of the reconciliation of financial statements with U.S. GAAP and the evaluation of reports filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) by SEC-reporting issuers. Our audit committee is in the process of considering appointing, from time to time, an external financial expert as a consultant.

The Company has not adopted a separate set of corporate governance guidelines and is not required to do so under currently applicable PRC or Hong Kong laws and regulations. However, the Company is in compliance with the Code on Corporate Governance Practices promulgated by the HKSE.

Note: On 30 June 2004, we acquired the entire equity interests in Hubei Telecom Company Limited, Hunan Telecom Company Limited, Hainan Telecom Company Limited, Guizhou Telecom Company Limited, Yunnan Telecom Company Limited, Shaanxi Telecom Company Limited, Gansu Telecom Company Limited, Qinghai Telecom Company Limited, Ningxia Telecom Company Limited and Xinjiang Telecom Company Limited (the Acquired Companies) from China Telecommunications Corporation. As we and the Acquired Companies were under the common control of China Telecommunications Corporation, our acquisition of the Acquired Companies has been treated as a combination of entities under common control, which was accounted for in a manner similar to a pooling-of-interests (as-if-pooling-of-interests accounting). Accordingly, the assets and liabilities of the Acquired Companies have been accounted for at historical amounts and our financial statements for periods prior to the acquisition have been restated to include the financial position and results of operations of the Acquired Companies on a combined basis.
