Item 5.05. Amendments to the Registrant's Code of Ethics, or Waiver of a Provision of the Code of Ethics.

(a) On March 14, 2007, the Board of Directors of the Company voted to amend the Registrant's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (the Code). Pursuant to the amendment, IDT supervisors and managers are now responsible for the enforcement of and compliance with the Code and appropriate management will periodically be required to certify compliance with the Code. Supervisors and managers must advise employees of their reporting obligation and encourage employees to report any prohibited or unlawful activities of which they are aware. Any manager having knowledge of any prohibited or unlawful acts or any allegations of fraud or improper behavior must promptly report such matters to the Chief Legal Officer or General Counsel. The amendment also reiterates that the Company does not permit retaliation of any kind against supervisors and managers for good faith reports of ethical violations and refers employees to IDT's Whistleblower Procedure for anonymous reporting procedures.
