PART II

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers
Registrants Incorporated or Organized Under the Laws of Delaware

Delaware corporations

The following registrants are corporations incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware (collectively, the Delaware Corporations): OSI Co-Issuer, Inc., OS Capital, Inc., OS Mortgage Holdings, Inc., and OS Restaurant Services, Inc.

Section 145(a) of the DGCL authorizes a Delaware corporation to indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the person's conduct was unlawful.

Section 145(b) further authorizes a Delaware corporation to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper.

Section 102(b)(7) of the DGCL enables a corporation in its certificate of incorporation or an amendment thereto to eliminate or limit the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its stockholders of monetary damages for violations of the director's fiduciary duty of care, except (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) pursuant to Section 174 of the DGCL (providing for liability of directors for unlawful payment of dividends or unlawful stock purchases or redemptions) or (iv) for any transaction from which a director derived an improper personal benefit. These provisions will not limit the liability of directors or officers under the federal securities laws of the United States.

Neither the bylaws or articles of incorporation of OS Restaurant Services, Inc. contain provisions regarding the indemnification of directors and officers. The articles of incorporation of OSI Co-Issuer, Inc. provide that the corporation shall indemnify and upon request advance expenses to any current or former director or officer of OSI Co-Issuer, Inc., or any person who may have served at its request as a director or officer of another corporation, against any liability and expense (including attorney's fees) incurred in connection with any proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, to the fullest extent permitted by law.

The bylaws and articles of incorporation of OS Capital, Inc. provide that the corporation shall indemnify any of its current or former directors or officers, or any person who may have served at its request as a director or officer of another corporation, against any liability and expense (including counsel fees) incurred in connection with any proceeding, whether criminal, civil, administrative or investigative, to the extent permitted by law. OS Capital, Inc. shall also advance reasonable expenses to such parties to the extent incurred in connection with the proceedings. Finally, OS Capital, Inc. may, but shall not be required to, supplement the rights of indemnification and advancement of expenses by purchasing insurance on behalf of such persons, grant right to indemnification, and advance related expenses to such persons.

The bylaws of OS Mortgage Holdings, Inc. provide that the corporation shall indemnify any of its current or former directors or officers, or any person who may have served at its request as a director or officer of another corporation, against any liability and expense (including counsel fees) incurred in connection with any proceeding, whether criminal, civil, administrative or investigative, to the extent permitted by law. OS Mortgage Holdings, Inc. may also advance reasonable expenses to such parties to the extent incurred in connection with the proceedings. Finally, OS Mortgage Holdings, Inc. may, but shall not be required to, supplement the rights of indemnification and advancement of expenses by purchasing insurance on behalf of such persons, entering into individual or group indemnification agreements, and advancing related expenses to such persons.

The limited liability company agreement for OSI Restaurant Partners, LLC provides that the company shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless any director officer, partner, stockholder, controlling person or employee, each member of its board of managers and any person serving at its request from any liability, loss or damage incurred by the indemnified party, including reasonable attorneys' fees and costs and any amounts expended in the settlement of any such claims of liability, loss or damage. Section 10-2B-8.51 of the Alabama Business Corporation Act provides that a corporation may indemnify an individual who is made a party to a proceeding because he or she is or was a director against liability incurred in the proceeding if: (1) the individual conducted himself or herself in good faith; and (2) the individual reasonably believed: (i) in the case of conduct in his or her official capacity with the corporation, that the conduct was in the corporation's best interest; and (ii) in all other cases, that the conduct was at least not opposed to the corporation's best interests; and (iii) in the case of any criminal proceeding, the individual had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. A corporation may not indemnify a director: (i) in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation in which the director was adjudged liable to the corporation; or (ii) in connection with any other proceeding charging improper personal benefit to the director, whether or not involving action in his or her official capacity, in which the director was adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by him or her. Indemnification is mandatory for an officer or director who was successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding, or of any claim, issue or matter, against reasonable expenses incurred in connection therewith. The indemnification provisions of the Alabama Business Corporation Act are not exclusive and are deemed to be in addition to any provisions which may be contained in a corporation's articles of incorporation, bylaws, a resolution of its shareholders or board of directors, or in a contract or otherwise.

The bylaws of Outback Alabama, Inc. provide that the corporation shall indemnify any current or former director or officer of Outback Alabama, Inc., or any person who may have served at its request as a director or officer of another corporation, against any liability and expense (including counsel fees) incurred in connection with any proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, to the fullest extent permitted by law. Outback Alabama, Inc. shall also advance reasonable expenses to such parties to the extent incurred in connection with the proceedings. Finally, Outback Alabama, Inc. may, but shall not be required to, supplement the rights of indemnification and advancement of expenses by purchasing insurance on behalf of any one or more of such persons, entering into individual or group indemnification agreements with any one or more of such persons, and advancing related expenses to such a person.

The Company has purchased and maintains insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of Outback Alabama, Inc., and any person serving at its request in such capacity for any other entity, against any liability asserted against such person and incurred by such person in any such capacity, or arising out of such person's status as such, to the fullest extent permitted by law.

Registrants Incorporated or Organized Under the Laws of Florida

Florida corporations

The following registrants are corporations incorporated under the laws of the State of Florida (collectively, the Florida Corporations ): OS Asset, Inc., OS Management, Inc., and Outback Catering, Inc.

Section 607.0850(1) of the Florida Business Corporation Act (other section references under this sub-heading below also refer to this statute) provides that a corporation shall have the power to indemnify any person who was or is a party to any proceeding (proceeding other than a derivative law suit), by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer or employee or agent of the corporation, or serving in such a capacity for another business enterprise at the request of the corporation, against liability incurred in connection with such proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

Section 607.0850(2) also provides that a corporation shall have the power to indemnify any person, who was or is a party to any proceeding by, or in the right of, the corporation (i.e., a derivative law suit) to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or serving in such capacity for another business enterprise at the request of the corporation, against expenses and amounts paid in settlement not exceeding, in the judgment of the board of directors, the estimated expense of litigating the proceeding to conclusion, actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of such proceeding, including any appeal thereof. Such indemnification shall be authorized if such person acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation. However, no indemnification shall be made under this provision in respect of any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable unless, and only to the extent that, the court in which such proceeding was brought, or any other court of competent jurisdiction, shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability, but in view of all circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which such court shall deem proper.

Section 607.0850(3) provides that to the extent that any such director, officer, employee or agent has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any of the foregoing proceedings, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith. This provision is mandatory and applies irrespective of anything in the articles or the bylaws to the contrary.

Under Section 607.0850(4), any indemnification under the foregoing provisions, unless pursuant to a determination by a court, shall be made by the corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that the indemnification of the director, officer, employee or agent is proper under the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct. Notwithstanding the failure of a corporation to provide such indemnification, and despite any contrary determination by the corporation in a specific case, a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation who is or was a party to a proceeding may apply for indemnification to the appropriate court and such court may order indemnification if it determines that such person is entitled to indemnification under the applicable standard.

Section 607.0850(7) provides that the indemnification and advancement of expenses pursuant to Section 607.0850 are not exclusive and that the corporation may make any other or further indemnification or advancement of expenses of any of its directors, officers, employees, or agents, under any bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office. However, this statutory section provides that indemnification or advancement of expenses shall not be made to or on behalf of any director, officer, employee, or agent if a judgment or other final adjudication establishes that his actions, or omissions to act, were material to the cause of action so adjudicated and constitute: (a) a violation of the criminal law, unless the director, officer, employee, or agent had reasonable cause to believe his conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful; (b) a transaction from which the director, officer, employee, or agent derived an improper personal benefit; (c) in the case of a director, a circumstance under which the liability provisions of Section 607.0834 (relating to unlawful distributions to shareholders) are applicable; or (d) willful misconduct or a conscious disregard for the best interests of the corporation in a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor or in a proceeding by or in the right of a shareholder.

Section 607.0850(12) also provides that a corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or on behalf of another business enterprise at the request of the corporation, against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of Section 607.0850.

Neither the bylaws or articles of incorporation of OS Asset, Inc. contain provisions regarding the indemnification of directors and officers or limitations on the liability of directors and officers. The articles of incorporation of both OS Management, Inc., and Outback Catering, Inc. provide that each company shall indemnify and hold harmless all of its current and former officers and directors against all liabilities and obligations, including attorneys' fees, in connection with any action taken in their capacity as officers and directors, except to the extent caused by willful misconduct or gross negligence.

Florida limited liability companies

The following registrants are organized as limited liability companies under the laws of the State of Florida (collectively, the Florida LLCs): Carrabba's Italian Grill, LLC, Carrabba's of Baton Rouge, LLC, Carrabba's Shreveport, LLC, OS Developers, LLC, OS Realty, LLC, OS Speedway, LLC, OS Tropical, LLC, OSI International, LLC, Outback Steakhouse International, LLC, Outback Steakhouse of Florida, LLC, Carrabba's Italian Market, LLC and OSI Gift Card Services, LLC.

Notwithstanding that provision, indemnification or advancement of expenses shall not be made to or on behalf of any member, manager, managing member, officer, employee, or agent if a judgment or other final adjudication establishes that the actions, or omissions to act, of such member, manager, managing member, officer, employee, or agent were material to the cause of action so adjudicated and constitute any of the following: (a) a violation of criminal law, unless the member, manager, managing member, officer, employee, or agent had no reasonable cause to believe such conduct was unlawful; (b) a transaction from which the member, manager, managing member, officer, employee, or agent derived an improper personal benefit; (c) in the case of a manager or managing member, a circumstance under which the liability provisions of Section 608.426 (relating to improper distributions to members) are applicable; or (d) willful misconduct or a conscious disregard for the best interests of the limited liability company in a proceeding by or in the right of the limited liability company to procure a judgment in its favor or in a proceeding by or in the right of a member.

The operating agreements of the Florida LLCs allow, to the fullest extent of the law, for the indemnification of each Member, such Member's officers, directors and employees and the employees from any liability, loss or damage incurred by reason of any act performed or omitted to be performed by such person in connection with the business of such Florida LLC and from liabilities or obligations of such Florida LLC imposed on such person by virtue of such person's position with such Florida LLC, including reasonable attorney's fees and costs and any amounts expended in the settlement of any such claims of liability, loss or damage.

Florida partnerships

The following registrants are organized as partnerships under the laws of the State of Florida (collectively, the Florida Partnerships): OSF/CIGI of Evesham Partnership and Outback/Carrabba's Partnership.

Section 620.8401(3) of the Revised Uniform Partnership Act of 1995 (other section references under this sub-heading below also refer to this statute) provides that a partnership shall reimburse a partner for payments made and indemnify a partner for liabilities incurred by the partner in the ordinary course of the business of the partnership for the preservation of its business or property. Section 620.8405(2) provides that a partner may maintain an action against the partnership or other partners to enforce its rights under Section 620.8401.

Section 620.8103 provides that the partnership agreement among the partners governs relations among partners and between the partners and the partnership (subject to certain limitations or nonwaivable requirements described in such section). The statutory provisions govern such relations to the extent that the partnership agreement does not otherwise provide. Such nonwaivable requirements include the partner's duties of loyalty and care to the partnership and other partners and the partner's obligations of fair dealing and good faith, which could be enforced by the partnership and other partners pursuant to Section 620.8405.

The implication of the foregoing provisions is that a partner's expense reimbursement and indemnification rights would (a) not apply to conduct outside the ordinary course of business unless for the preservation of the partnership's business or property or unless the consent of all partners was procured as provided in Section 620.8401(10), and (b) be subject to limitations (or set off) in the event the conduct with respect to which the reimbursement or indemnification request involves a breach of such partner's duties of care and loyalty or its obligations of fair dealing and good faith.

The foregoing statutory provisions would apply only to the extent such matters are not otherwise governed by the partnership agreement, subject to the nonwaivable requirements described in Section 620.8103. The partnership agreements of the Florida Partnerships do not contain provisions regarding the indemnification of directors and officers or limitations on the liability of directors and officers.

Section 620.1406(6) of the Florida Revised Uniform Limited Partnership Act of 2005 (other section references under this sub-heading below also refer to this statute) provides that a limited partnership shall reimburse a general partner for payments made and indemnify a general partner for liabilities incurred by the general partner in the ordinary course of the activities of the partnership or for the preservation of the partnership s activities or property if such payments were made or such liabilities were incurred in good faith and either in the furtherance of the limited partnership s purposes or the ordinary scope of its activities.

Section 620.2001 provides that a partner may maintain an action against the limited partnership or other partners to enforce its rights under the partnership agreement or the limited partnership statute.

Section 620.1110 provides that the partnership agreement among the partners governs relations among partners and between the partners and the limited partnership (subject to certain limitations or nonwaivable requirements described in such section). The limited partnership statutory provisions govern such relations to the extent that the partnership agreement does not otherwise provide. Such nonwaivable requirements include the partner's duties of loyalty and care to the partnership and other partners and the partner's obligations of fair dealing and good faith, which could be enforced by the partnership and other partners pursuant to Sections 620.2001 (direct actions) and 620.2002 (derivative actions).

The implication of the foregoing provisions is that a general partner's expense reimbursement and indemnification rights would (a) not apply to conduct outside the ordinary course of business unless for the preservation of the partnership's activities or property or unless the consent of the requisite number of other general partners was procured as provided in Section 620.1406, and (b) be subject to limitations (or set off) in the event the conduct with respect to which the reimbursement or indemnification request involves a breach of such partner's duties of care and loyalty or its obligations of fair dealing and good faith.

The foregoing statutory provisions would only apply to the extent such matters are not otherwise governed by the partnership agreement, subject to the nonwaivable requirements described in Section 620.1110. The limited partnership agreements of each of the Florida LPs provide that no directors and officers of the general partner of such Florida LP will have any liability to such Florida LP for any acts taken or not taken in connection with the business or affairs of such Florida LP, except in the case of intentional misconduct or gross negligence as determined by a final order of a court of competent jurisdiction. In addition, each Florida LP shall indemnify the directors and officers of its general partner, solely out of the assets of such Florida LP and not its general partner, for any liabilities arising out of any claims brought in connection with the business or affairs of such Florida LP, provided the conduct of such officer or director was performed in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed by them to be in or not opposed to the best interests of such Florida LP and did not constitute intentional misconduct or gross negligence. In certain circumstances, costs and legal fees may be advanced to such officers and directors.

Section 14-9-108 of the Georgia Revised Uniform Limited Partnership Act provides that, subject to any limitations expressly set forth in the partnership agreement, a limited partnership may indemnify and hold harmless any partner or other person from and against any and all claims and demands whatsoever, provided that the partnership shall not indemnify any person for intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law or for any transaction for which the person received a personal benefit in violation or breach of any provision of the partnership agreement. To the extent that, at law or in equity, a partner has duties to a limited partnership or another partner (including fiduciary duties and liabilities), then the partner's duties and liabilities may be

Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, no indemnification is permitted in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person has been adjudged to be liable to the corporation, unless otherwise determined by the court in which such proceeding is pending.

The bylaws of Carrabba's Kansas, Inc. and Cheeseburger in Paradise of Kansas, Inc. provide that each corporation shall indemnify any current or former director or officer of such corporation, or any person who may have served at its request as a director or officer of another corporation, against any liability and expense (including counsel fees) incurred in connection with any proceeding, whether criminal, civil, administrative or investigative, to the extent permitted by law. Each corporation may also advance reasonable expenses to such parties to the extent incurred in connection with the proceedings. Finally, each corporation may, but shall not be required to, supplement the rights of indemnification and advancement of expenses by purchasing insurance on behalf of any one or more of such persons, entering into individual or group indemnification agreements with any one or more of such persons, and advancing related expenses to such a person.

The bylaws of Carrabba's Midwest, Inc. ( CM ) provide that no directors and officers of CM will have any liability to such Florida LP for any acts taken or not taken in connection with the business or affairs of CM, so long as such person exercised the same degree of care and skill as a prudent person would have exercised under the circumstances in the conduct of his or her own affairs or such person acted upon the advice of counsel or in reliance upon information such person had no reasonable grounds to disbelieve. In addition, CM may indemnify and advance expenses to, and purchase insurance on behalf of (even if they don't have the power to indemnify) any current or former director or officer, or any person who may have served at its request as a director or officer of another corporation, to extent permitted by the laws of the State of Kansas.

The right to indemnification shall also include the right to be paid by such corporation the expenses incurred in defending any civil or criminal action, suit, or proceeding in advance of its final disposition upon receipt by such corporation of an undertaking by or on behalf of such officer or director to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by such corporation as provided in this Article.

Registrants Incorporated or Organized Under the Laws of Maryland

Maryland corporations

The following registrants are corporations incorporated under the laws of the State of Maryland (collectively, the Maryland Corporations): Frederick Outback, Inc., Outback of Waldorf, Inc, Outback of Aspen Hills, Inc. and Outback of Germantown, Inc.

The Maryland General Corporation Law ( MGCL ) permits a Maryland corporation to include in its charter a provision limiting the liability of its directors and officers to the corporation and its stockholders for money damages except for liability resulting from actual receipt of an improper benefit or profit in money, property or services or active and deliberate dishonesty established by a final judgment as being material to the cause of action.

The MGCL requires a corporation to indemnify a director or officer who has been successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which he is made a party by reason of his service in that capacity. The MGCL permits a corporation to indemnify its present and former directors and officers, among others, against judgments, penalties, fines, settlements and reasonable expenses actually incurred by them in connection with any proceeding to which they may be made a party by reason of their service in those or other capacities unless it is established that (1) the act or omission of the director or officer was material to the matter giving rise to the proceeding and (a) was committed in bad faith or (b) was the result of active and deliberate dishonesty, (2) the director or officer actually received an improper personal benefit in money, property or services or (3) in the case of any criminal proceeding, the director or officer had reasonable cause to believe that the act or omission was unlawful. However, a Maryland corporation may not indemnify for an adverse judgment in a suit by or in the right of the corporation. In addition, the MGCL requires a corporation, as a condition to advancing expenses, to obtain (1) a written affirmation by the director or officer of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification by the corporation as authorized by the bylaws and (2) a written statement by or on his behalf to repay the amount paid or reimbursed by the corporation if it shall ultimately be determined that the standard of conduct was not met.

Neither the bylaws or articles of incorporation of Frederick Outback, Inc. contain provisions regarding the indemnification of directors and officers or limitations on the liability of directors and officers. The articles of incorporation of Outback of Waldorf, Inc. provide that no officer shall be liable to the company or its stockholders for any money damages except to the extent it can be proved that such officer actually received an improper benefit or profit or to the extent a final judgment determines such officer action or failure to act was both material to the action and the result of active and deliberate dishonesty or intentionally wrongful, willful or malicious. The articles of incorporation for both Outback of Aspen Hills, Inc. and Outback of Germantown, Inc. provide that the present and former directors and officers of such entity shall be indemnified to the fullest extent of the laws of the state of Maryland.

The following registrant is a corporation incorporated under the laws of the State of West Virginia: Outback Steakhouse West Virginia, Inc.

Under Section 31D-8-831 of the West Virginia Code, a director is not liable to the corporation or its shareholders for any decision to take or not to take action, or any failure to take any action, as a director, unless the party asserting liability in a proceeding establishes that: (1) any provision in the corporation's articles of incorporation does not preclude liability; and (2) the challenged conduct consisted or was the result of: (A) action not in good faith; or (B) a decision: (i) which the director did not reasonably believe to be in the best interests of the corporation; or (ii) as to which the director was not informed to an extent the director reasonably believed appropriate in the circumstances; or (C) a lack of objectivity due to the director's familial, financial or business relationship with, or a lack of independence due to the director's domination or control by, another person having a material interest in the challenged conduct: (i) which relationship or which domination or control could reasonably be expected to have affected the director's judgment respecting the challenged conduct in a manner adverse to the corporation; and (ii) after a reasonable expectation has been established, the director does not establish that the challenged conduct was reasonably believed by the director to be in the best interests of the corporation; or (D) a sustained failure of the director to devote attention to ongoing oversight of the business and affairs of the corporation, or a failure to devote timely attention, by making or causing to be made appropriate inquiry when particular facts and circumstances of significant concern materialize that would alert a reasonably attentive director to the need for inquiry; or (E) receipt of a financial benefit to which the director was not entitled or any other breach of the director's duties to deal fairly with the corporation and its shareholders that is actionable under applicable law.

Chapter 31D-8-832 of the West Virginia Code provides that a director who votes for or assents to a distribution in excess of what may be authorized and made pursuant to applicable law is personally liable to the corporation for the amount of the distribution that exceeds what could have been distributed without violating applicable law, if the party asserting liability establishes that when taking the action the director did not comply with applicable law. A director held liable under this subsection of the West Virginia Code for an unlawful distribution is entitled to: (1) contribution from every other director who could be held liable for the unlawful distribution; and (2) recoupment from each shareholder of the pro rata portion of the amount of the unlawful distribution the shareholder accepted, knowing the distribution was made in violation of the law., all subject to certain limitations on the timing of such proceedings.

In addition, Chapter 31D-8-857 of the West Virginia Code allows that a corporation shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is a current or former director or officer, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director or officer of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust employee benefit plan or other entity against any liability asserted against such person or incurred by such person in any such capacity or arising out of such person's status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability.

(1) To be filed by amendment.

Item 22. Undertakings

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) to file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

(ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amend) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement; and

(iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

(2) that, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof; and

(3) to remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) That, for the purpose of determining liability of the registrant under the Securities Act to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities:

The undersigned registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

(i) Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;

(ii) Any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned registrant;

(iii) The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant; and

(iv) Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Item 4, 10(b) 11 or 13 of Form S-4, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(c) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.

(d) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue
