A complaint in the Eighth Judicial District Court in Clark County, Nevada, dated November 23, 2011, captioned Robert Ackerman, et al. v. Force Protection, Inc., et al.

The plaintiffs in these complaints generally allege, among other things, that members of the Board breached their fiduciary duties to our stockholders in connection with the sale of the Company and that the Company, Parent and Purchaser aided and abetted the purported breaches of fiduciary duties. In support of their claims, the plaintiffs allege that the proposed transaction between the Company and Purchaser undervalues the Company, involves an inadequate sales process and preclusive deal protection devices, and involves conflicts of interests. The plaintiffs in several of the complaints also allege that the parties failed to disclose all material information about the transaction and/or that the disclosure documents contain misleading information. The plaintiffs seek to obtain damages and/or to enjoin the transaction. They also seek attorneys' and other fees and costs, in addition to seeking other relief. The Company believes that the plaintiffs' allegations lack merit and intends to contest them vigorously.

The plaintiff in the complaint captioned Nicola Saulle v. Frank Kavanaugh, et al. also makes additional claims on behalf of the Company against various present and former directors and officers of the Company that are unrelated to the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.
