Section 1 Registrant's Business and Operations

Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Effective as of August 10, 2013, Exelon Corporation (Exelon) and Commonwealth Edison Company (ComEd) entered into amendments to each of their respective revolving credit facilities (the Amendments). The Amendments relate to the IRS's challenge to the position taken by Exelon on its 1999 federal income tax return with respect to the sale of ComEd's fossil generating assets in a like-kind exchange transaction (Like-Kind Exchange Matter). The Amendments are intended to carve-out the non-cash impact of the Like-Kind Exchange Matter from the calculation of the interest coverage ratio under each of Exelon and ComEd's respective credit facilities. The description of the Amendments set forth above is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Amendments, copies of which are attached as exhibits 99.1, and 99.2, respectively, which are incorporated herein by reference.

Concurrently with the execution of the Amendments, Exelon, Exelon Generation Company, LLC, PECO Energy Company and Baltimore Gas and Electric Company each extended the maturity of each of their unsecured revolving credit facilities with aggregate bank commitments of $500 million, $5.3 billion, $600 million and $600 million, respectively, for an additional one year, to August 10, 2018.
