Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

We are actively engaged in dialogues with regulators around the world to secure all necessary approvals. While we continue to work towards our goal of closing the merger before the end of this year, completion may extend into the first calendar quarter of 2015.

We continue to make significant progress in all aspects of our integration planning and have increasing confidence that we will be ready to operate as a single company with aligned operating rhythm and shared mission, vision and values immediately following the closing.

Forward-Looking Statements

This Form 8-K contains forward-looking statements, including but not limited to those regarding the proposed business combination between Applied Materials, Inc. ("Applied Materials"), and Tokyo Electron Limited ("Tokyo Electron") (the "Business Combination") and the transactions related thereto. These statements may discuss the anticipated manner, terms and conditions upon which the Business Combination will be consummated.

Forward-looking statements may contain words such as expect, believe, may, can, should, will, forecast, similar expressions, and include the assumptions that underlie such statements. These statements are subject to known and unknown risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such statements, including but not limited to: the ability of the parties to consummate the Business Combination in a timely manner or at all; satisfaction of the conditions precedent to consummation of the Business Combination, including the ability to secure regulatory approvals in a timely manner or at all; the possibility of litigation (including related to the transaction itself); Applied Materials' and Tokyo Electron's ability to successfully integrate their operations, product lines, technology and employees and realize synergies, growth and tax assets from the Business Combination; unknown, underestimated or undisclosed commitments or liabilities; the potential impact of the announcement or consummation of the proposed transactions on the parties' relationships with third parties; the level of demand for the combined companies' products, which is subject to many factors, including uncertain global economic and industry conditions, demand for electronic products and semiconductors, and customers' new technology and capacity requirements; Applied Materials' and Tokyo Electron's ability to (i) develop, deliver and support a broad range of products, expand their markets and develop new markets, (ii) timely align their cost structures with business conditions, and (iii) attract, motivate and retain key employees; and other risks described in the Applied Materials' filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. All forward-looking statements are based on management's estimates, projections and assumptions as of the date hereof. Except as required under applicable law, Applied Materials undertakes no obligation to update any forward-looking statements.
