OUTSTANDING STOCK AND VOTING RIGHTS

Only stockholders of record at the close of business on July 14, 2004 (the "Record Date") are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. As of the Record Date, there were issued and outstanding 27,220,393 shares of the Company's common stock, $.001 par value per share (the "Common Stock"), the Company's only class of voting securities. Each share of Common Stock entitles the holder to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote at the Annual Meeting.

VOTING PROCEDURES

The directors will be elected by the affirmative vote of the holders of a plurality of the shares of Common Stock present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting, provided a quorum is present. All other matters at the Annual Meeting, including ratification of the appointment of BDO Seidman, LLP as the Company's independent auditors for its fiscal year ending January 31, 2005, will be decided by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Common Stock present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting and entitled to vote on the matter, provided a quorum is present. A quorum is present if at least a majority of the shares of Common Stock outstanding as of the Record Date are present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting. Votes will be counted and certified by one or more Inspectors of Election who are expected to be employees of the Company. In accordance with Delaware law, abstentions and "broker non-votes" (i.e., proxies from brokers or nominees indicating that such persons have not received instructions from the beneficial owner or other person entitled to vote shares as to a matter with respect to which the brokers or nominees do not have discretionary power to vote) will be treated as present for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum. For purposes of determining approval of a matter presented at the meeting, abstentions will be deemed present and entitled to vote and will, therefore, have the same legal effect as a vote "against" a matter presented at the meeting. Broker non-votes will be deemed not entitled to vote on the subject matter as to which the non-vote is indicated and will, therefore, have no legal effect on the vote on that particular matter.

Proxies will be voted in accordance with the instructions thereon. Unless otherwise stated, all shares represented by a proxy will be voted as instructed. Proxies may be revoked as noted above.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

At the Annual Meeting, seven (7) directors will be elected to hold office for a term expiring at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held in 2005. Each director will be elected to serve until a successor is elected and qualified or until the director's earlier resignation or removal. The directors who were first appointed after last year's Annual Stockholders' meeting were recommended to the Nominating/Governance Committee for re-appointment by the Company's Chief Executive Officer.

Edgar Filing: CANDIES INC - Form DEF 14A

At the Annual Meeting, proxies granted by stockholders will be voted individually for the election, as directors of the Company, of the persons listed below, unless a proxy specifies that it is not to be voted in favor of a nominee for director. In the event any of the nominees listed below is unable to serve, it is intended that the proxy will be voted for such other nominees as are designated by the Board of Directors. Each of the persons named below, who are presently members of the Company's Board of Directors, has indicated to the Board of Directors of the Company that he will be available to serve.

Mr. Cole is also entitled to customary benefits, including participation in management incentive and benefit plans, reimbursement for automobile expenses, reasonable travel and entertainment expenses and a life insurance policy to benefit Mr. Cole's designated beneficiaries in the amount of $3,000,000, $4,000,000, and $5,000,000, respectively, for each year in the term. The employment agreement provides that Mr. Cole will receive an amount equal to three times his annual compensation, plus accelerated vesting or payment of deferred compensation, options, stock appreciation rights or any other benefits payable to Mr. Cole in the event that within twelve months of a "Change in Control", as defined in the agreement, Mr. Cole is terminated by the Company without "Cause" or if Mr. Cole terminates his agreement for "Good Reason", as such terms are defined in his employment agreement. If the Company is sold, Mr. Cole will receive a payment equal to 5% of the sale price in the event that sale price is at least $5 per share or equivalent with respect to an asset sale. In connection with his employment agreement, Mr. Cole was granted under one of the Company's stock option plans, options to purchase 600,000 shares of Common Stock at $2.75 per share, which options vest over a three year period.

The Company has entered into an employment agreement with Deborah Sorell Stehr that was effective on February 1, 2004 and expires on January 31, 2006 and provides for her to receive a base salary of $240,000 for the first year and $245,000 for the last year of the agreement. Ms. Sorell Stehr is also eligible to receive any bonuses determined by the Board of Directors or the nominating/governance committee of the Board and to customary benefits, including participation in management incentive and benefit plans, reimbursement for automobile expenses, reasonable travel and entertainment expenses and a life insurance policy. The agreement provides that Ms. Sorell Stehr will receive an amount equal to $100 less than three times her annual compensation, plus accelerated vesting or payment of deferred compensation, options, stock appreciation rights or any other benefits payable to Ms. Sorell Stehr in the event that within twelve months of a "Change in Control", Ms. Sorell Stehr is terminated by the Company without "Cause" or Ms. Sorell Stehr terminates her agreement for "Good Reason", as such terms are defined in her employment agreement.

The Company had entered into a two year employment agreement with Richard Danderline, which expired on June 26, 2004, and provided for Mr. Danderline to receive an annual base salary of $225,000. In connection with his employment in 2000, Mr. Danderline received a grant of 150,000 options, vesting over a period of five years.

Compensation of Directors

During Fiscal 2004, Messrs. Emanuel and Mendelow (each an "Outside Director") each received a grant of Common Stock from the Company under the Company's Non-Employee Director Stock Incentive Plan having a value of $20,000 in compensation for attending board meetings.

Each Outside Director also received $1,000 for each Committee meeting that he or she attended. In addition the chair of each of the Company's Audit, Compensation and Nominating/Governance Committees received a fee of $5,000 per year. None of Messrs. D'Loren, Caruso, Groveman or Cohen were members of the Company's Board in Fiscal 2004.

Under the Company's 2002 Stock Option Plan (the "2002 Plan"), 2001 Stock Option Plan (the "2001 Plan"), 2000 Stock Option Plan (the "2000 Plan") and 1997 Stock Option Plan (the "1997 Plan"), non-employee directors are eligible to be granted non-qualified stock options.

The Company's Board of Directors, or the Stock Option Committee of the 2002 Plan, 2001 Plan, 2000 Plan or the 1997 Plan, if one is appointed, has discretion to determine the number of shares subject to each non-qualified option (subject to the number of shares available for grant under the 2002 Plan, 2001 Plan, 2000 Plan or the 1997 Plan, as applicable), the exercise price thereof (provided such price is not less than the par value of the underlying shares of the Company's Common Stock under the 2000 Plan or not less than the fair value of Common Stock under the 1997 Plan, 2001 Plan and 2002 Plan), the term thereof (but not in excess of 10 years from the date of grant, subject to earlier termination in certain circumstances), and the manner in which the option becomes exercisable (amounts, intervals and other conditions). During Fiscal 2004, Mr. Emanuel received a grant of 250,000 shares of options, with an exercise price of $1.72 per share under 2000 Plan. Mr. Mendelow received a grant of 150,000 shares of options with an exercise price of $1.72 per share under 1997 Plan.

Report on Executive Compensation

During Fiscal 2004 the Company had a Compensation Committee originally consisting of Ann Iverson, Barry Emanuel and Steven Mendelow and later in the fiscal year consisting of Steven Mendelow, Robert D'Loren and Michael Caruso. The Compensation Committee was dissolved in July 2004 and the functions previously handled by the Committee will be undertaken in the future by the Nominating/Governance Committee. Compensation of the Company's executive officers is determined by the Board of Directors pursuant to recommendations made by the applicable Board Committee and in accordance with the terms of the respective employment agreements of certain executive officers in effect prior to the formation of the Board Committee. There is no formal compensation policy for the Company's executive officers, other than the employment agreements described above. Compensation for executive officers consists of base salary, bonus and stock option awards.

Base Salary. The base salaries of the Company's executives are fixed pursuant to the terms of their respective employment agreements with the Company and, when a contract is up for review, upon a comprehensive review of salaries for executives in the market place for comparable positions and abilities, experience and, where applicable, performance of the executive. The applicable Committee reviews the salaries of executive officers for reasonableness based on job responsibilities and a review of compensation practices for comparable positions at corporations which compete with the Company in its business or are of comparable size and scope of operations. The Committee's recommendations to the Board of Directors are based primarily on informal judgments reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the Company. In determining the base salaries of certain of the Company's executives whose employment agreements were up for renewal, the Committee considered the Company's performance and growth plans.

Bonuses. To the extent not covered by the Company's employment agreements with its executive officers, the Committee determines bonuses for its executive officers, based on the Company's overall performance, profitability, working capital management and other qualitative and quantitative measurements, including individual performance goals based upon the Company's budget and financial objectives. In determining the amount of bonuses awarded, the Committee considers the Company's revenues and profitability for the applicable period and each executive's contribution to the success of the Company. The Company's executive officers received bonuses which were deemed appropriate based upon existing employment agreements and the Company's operating results during the fiscal year.

Stock Options. Stock option awards are intended to attract, retain and motivate personnel by affording them an opportunity to receive additional compensation based upon the performance of the Company's Common Stock. The size and grant of actual awards is determined by the Committee on an individual basis, taking into account the individual's role in the Company and standard principals of reward, retention and recognition to which option grants are geared. The Committee's determination as to the size of actual awards to individual executives is subjective, after taking into account the relative responsibilities and contributions of the individual employee.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

On May 1, 2003, the Company granted Kenneth Cole Productions, Inc. the exclusive worldwide license to design, manufacture, sell, distribute and market footwear under the BONGO brand. The CEO and Chairman of Kenneth Cole Productions, Inc. is Kenneth Cole, who is the brother of Neil Cole, the CEO and President of the Company.

Edgar Filing: CANDIES INC - Form DEF 14A

During Fiscal 2002, Neil Cole, Chairman of the Board, President and CEO of Candie's, Inc. founded the Candie's Foundation ("the Foundation"), a charitable foundation whose purpose is to raise national awareness concerning to the problems of teenage pregnancy. During Fiscal 2002, the Company advanced $1,058,000 to the Foundation on which interest was charged at a rate per annum that was equal to the prime rate, and at January 31, 2002 the Company had a balance of $699,000 due from the Foundation. The Company had originally recorded $350,000 reserve against its receivable in Fiscal 2002. During Fiscal 2003, the Foundation paid the Company $470,000, and the Company reversed the reserve of $350,000 recorded in Fiscal 2002. The Foundation paid the Company $56,000 in Fiscal 2004. At January 31, 2004, the Company had a balance of $174,000 due from the Foundation. The Company believes that the amount due will be recovered in full although the Foundation's operating history in fund raising activities is limited.

The Company has a license for BONGO branded bags and small leather/PVC goods with Innovo Group, Inc. ("Innovo"), a company in which Hubert Guez, a principal of Sweet, is a principal shareholder. Until August 5, 2004, Sweet was the manager of the Company's subsidiary, Unzipped Apparel, LLC ("Unzipped") during Fiscal 2004, Under this license, which expires March 31, 2007, the Company recorded $126,000, $214,000 and $58,000 in royalty income for the years ended January 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively, and royalties receivable from Innovo were $6,000, $179,000 and $49,000 at January 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively.

During Fiscal 2004, Unzipped had a supply agreement with Azteca Productions International, Inc. ("Azteca") for the development, manufacturing, and supply of certain products bearing the BONGO trademark for the exclusive use by Unzipped. Hubert Guez is the Chief Executive Officer and President of Azteca. As consideration for the development of the products, Unzipped paid Azteca pursuant to a separate pricing schedule. For the year ended January 31, 2004, Unzipped purchased $50.9 million of products from Azteca. Azteca also allocated expenses to Unzipped for Unzipped's use of a portion of Azteca's office space, design and production team and support personnel. The supply agreement was terminated by the Company on August 5, 2004.

On April 23, 2002, the Company acquired the remaining 50% interest in Unzipped from Sweet for 3 million shares of the Company's common stock and $11 million in debt evidenced by an 8% senior subordinated note due 2012. In connection with the acquisition of Unzipped, the Company agreed to file and have declared effective a registration statement with the SEC for the 3 million shares of the Company's common stock issued to Sweet. The terms of this agreement provided that in the event the registration statement was not declared effective by April 23, 2003, the Company would be required to pay $82,500 to Sweet as a penalty and thereafter be required to pay $82,500 per calendar quarter for each calendar quarter thereafter in which the registration statement is not effective for more than 30 days of such calendar quarter. Since the registration statement was not declared effective until July 29, 2003, the Company was required to pay $82,500 to Sweet as a penalty. The Company recorded $82,500 expense for such penalty in the quarter ended April 30, 2003.

In connection with the acquisition, the Company entered into a management agreement with Sweet for a term ending January 31, 2005, which provided for Sweet to manage the operations of Unzipped in return for a management fee, commencing in Fiscal 2004, based upon certain specified percentages of net income that Unzipped achieves during the term of the agreement. In addition, Sweet guaranteed that the net income, as defined, of Unzipped shall be no less than $1.7 million for each year during the term commencing in Fiscal 2004 ("the Guarantee"). In the event that the Guarantee is not met, Sweet is obligated to pay the difference between the actual net income, as defined and the Guarantee ("the Shortfall Payment"). The management agreement was terminated by the Company on August 5, 2004.

For the year ended January 31, 2004, Unzipped had a net income (as defined, for the purpose of determining if the Guarantee has been met) of $74,000, resulting in a Shortfall Payment of $1.6 million. This payment has been recorded in the consolidated income statements as a reduction of Unzipped's cost of sales (since the majority of Unzipped's operations were with entities under common ownership with Sweet, including all of the purchases of inventory) and on the balance sheet as a reduction of the 8% senior subordinated note due to Sweet, because of a legal right of offset provided for in the management agreement. After adjusting for the Shortfall Payment, Unzipped's reported GAAP net income for the year ended January 31, 2004 was $1.4 million. Sweet, as manager of Unzipped during such period, is disputing the Company's January 31, 2004 Shortfall Payment computation, which could result, among other things, in litigation among the parties in the future.

Unzipped is in default of certain covenants under its credit facility (the "Unzipped Credit Facility") with GE Capital Commercial Services, Inc. (the "Lender"), including the tangible net worth covenant. Unzipped has not obtained a waiver for these defaults and there can be no assurance that it will be able to do so. As a result, the Lender, in addition to other possible remedies, has reduced the advance rates, ceased advancing funds, or could demand immediate repayment of the outstanding loan amount (which was approximately $13.4 million as of July 31, 2004), any of which could negatively impact the operations and financial condition of Unzipped. While the Company believes that it is unlikely that the Lender would accelerate Unzipped's obligations under the Unzipped Credit Facility, in the event that it did so, Unzipped would not be able to immediately repay the existing loan balance, which could result in the Lender foreclosing on Unzipped's assets, among other remedies.

In the event that the Lender forecloses on the Unzipped Credit Facility, the Company believes, based on Unzipped's current financial condition, that Unzipped would have more than sufficient assets and net worth to allow the Lender to recoup its entire loan, although there can be no assurance that it will be able to do so. An acceleration of the Unzipped Credit Facility would impact the operating results and financial condition of Unzipped in Fiscal 2005 (including a possible write-off or impairment of assets), which could result in a reduction in the Company's consolidated revenues in Fiscal 2005. Sweet, the former Manager of Unzipped, has guaranteed that the net income of Unzipped, as defined in the Management Agreement, in Fiscal 2005 shall be no less than $1.7 million and the Company believes that this guarantee is enforceable even in the event of foreclosure or acceleration of the Unzipped Credit Facility. Additionally, Candie's, Inc., the parent of Unzipped, is not a signatory or a guarantor of the Unzipped Credit Facility and would not be liable for Unzipped's obligations thereunder. As of August 2, 2004, the Company has licensed the rights to Bongo jeans wear to a third party licensee, TKO Apparel Licensing, Inc. ("TKO"), which will provide the Company with additional licensing revenues, and agreed to sell Unzipped to TKO by January 31, 2005. Unzipped currently has a royalty free non-exclusive sublicense for Bongo jeans wear.

During Fiscal 2004, Unzipped had a distribution agreement with Apparel Distribution Services ("ADS"), an entity that shares common ownership with Sweet. The agreement provided for a per unit fee for warehousing and distribution functions and per unit fee for processing and invoicing orders. The agreement also provided for reimbursement for certain operating costs incurred by ADS and charges for special handling fees at hourly rates approved by management. These rates were adjustable annually by the parties to reflect changes in economic factors. The distribution agreement was consummated upon Unzipped's formation and was amended and restated on substantially the same terms effective April 23, 2002 through January 31, 2005. The Distribution Agreement was terminated by the Company on August 5, 2004.

During Fiscal 2004, Unzipped occupied office space in a building rented by ADS and Commerce Clothing Company, LLC (Commerce), a related party to Azteca. As of August 5, 2004, all such operations ceased out of such location.

The related party transactions are summarized as follows:

	Fiscal Ended Janu
	----- 2004 -----
(`000 omitted)
Products purchased from Azteca	$50,907
Allocated office space, design, and production team and support personnel expense from Azteca	452
Shortfall payment per Management Agreement	1,626
Expenses of distribution services per distribution Agreement with ADS	3,262

At January 31, 2004, the total amounts (included in accounts payable and accrued expenses) due to Azteca and ADS were $2.2 million and $179,000 respectively.

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors has re-appointed BDO Seidman, LLP as the Company's independent accountants for the Company's fiscal year ending January 31, 2005. The Audit Committee has established its pre-approval policies and procedures, pursuant to which the Audit Committee approved the foregoing audit services provided by BDO Seidman in Fiscal 2004. Consistent with the Audit Committee's responsibility for engaging the Company's independent auditors, all audit and permitted non-audit services require pre-approval by the Audit Committee. The full Audit Committee approves proposed services and fee estimates for these services. The Audit Committee chairperson or his or her designee has been designated by the Audit Committee to approve any services arising during the year that were not pre-approved by the Audit Committee. Services approved by the Audit Committee chairperson are communicated to the full Audit Committee at its next regular meeting and the Audit Committee reviews services and fees for the fiscal year at each such meeting. Pursuant to these procedures, the Audit Committee approved all the foregoing audit services and permissible non-audit services provided by BDO Seidman.

The Audit Committee has considered whether the provision of services covered in the preceding two paragraphs is compatible with maintaining BDO Seidman, LLP's independence.

Recommendation

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF BDO SEIDMAN, LLP AS THE COMPANY'S INDEPENDENT AUDITORS FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING JANUARY 31, 2005.
