Part II. Rule 12b-25(b) and (c)

If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. Check box if appropriate. [X]

(a) The reasons described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense.

(b) The subject annual report, semi-annual report, transition report on Form 10-KL, 20-F, 11-K or Form N-SAR, or portion thereof will be filed on or before the 15th calendar day following the prescribed due date, or the subject quarterly report or transition report on Form 10-Q, or portion thereof will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date; and

(c) The accountant's statement or other exhibit required by Rule 12b-25(c) has been attached if applicable.

Part III. Reasons for Delay in Filing Form 10-K Within Prescribed Time Period

The Company's Form 10-K has not been filed with the Commission within the prescribed time period (by March 31, 2003) for the following reasons which were outside the Company's control and which could not have been avoided without unreasonable effort or expense:

The Company's (six year) corporate headquarters lease expired on March 31, 2003 and the Company moved its corporate offices to a new location. Due to the substantial expenditure of time by the Company's senior management required to plan for and implement this move the Company was unable to hold all required meetings with its auditors and complete all necessary work to finish the Form 10-K prior to the March 31, 2003 deadline.

Part IV. Other Information
