NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(UNAUDITED)

1. Basis of Presentation

The Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements of The Neiman Marcus Group, Inc. and subsidiaries (the Company) have been prepared pursuant to generally accepted accounting principles for interim financial information and with the instructions to Form 10-Q and Article 10 of Regulation S-X. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by accounting principles generally accepted for complete financial statements. Therefore, the financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended July 28, 2001.

Edgar Filing: NEIMAN MARCUS GROUP INC - Form 10-Q

In the opinion of management, the accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements contain all adjustments, consisting only of normal recurring adjustments, necessary to present fairly the financial position, results of operations, and cash flows of the Company for the applicable interim periods. The results of operations for these periods are not necessarily comparable to, or indicative of, results of any other interim period or for the fiscal year as a whole.

The preparation of condensed consolidated financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make certain estimates and assumptions. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues, and expenses and the disclosure of gain and loss contingencies at the date of the consolidated financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Prior year revenue amounts have been reclassified to comply with the Emerging Issues Task Force Issue No. 00-10, "Accounting for Shipping and Handling Fees and Costs." As reclassified from selling, general and administrative expenses, shipping and handling revenues of $17.5 million are included in revenues and the related costs of $12.8 million are included in cost of goods sold. Such reclassifications had no impact on previously reported operating earnings, net earnings, shareholders' equity or cash flows. Certain prior period balances have been reclassified to conform with current period presentation.

2. Earnings per Share

The weighted average shares used in computing basic and diluted earnings per share (EPS) are presented in the table below. No adjustments were made to net earnings for the computations of basic and diluted EPS during the periods presented.

Options to purchase 1,269,650 shares of common stock for the thirteen weeks ended October 27, 2001 and 989,500 shares for the thirteen weeks ended October 28, 2000 were not included in the computation of diluted EPS because the exercise price of those options was greater than the average market price of the common shares.

3. Derivative Financial Instruments

The Company enters into forward exchange contracts to hedge forecasted inventory purchases denominated in foreign currencies for periods and amounts consistent with the Company's identified exposures. The purpose of the hedging activities is to minimize the effect of foreign exchange movements on cash flows. Gains and losses related to the Company's foreign currency exchange contracts that qualify as hedges are deferred and recognized in cost of sales in the period the inventory is sold.

As of October 27, 2001, the Company had foreign currency contracts in the form of forward exchange contracts in the amount of approximately $30.1 million. The contracts have varying maturity dates through August 2002. The settlement terms of the forward contracts, including amount, currency and maturity, correspond with the payment terms for the merchandise inventories. These contracts have been designated and accounted for as cash flow hedges. The Company recorded a charge of approximately $0.3 million resulting from hedge ineffectiveness in the first quarter of fiscal year 2002.

Edgar Filing: NEIMAN MARCUS GROUP INC - Form 10-Q

At October 27, 2001, the fair value of the Company's outstanding foreign currency exchange contracts was an asset of approximately $0.1 million and is recorded in other current assets and accumulated other comprehensive income (loss), net of taxes, in the accompanying condensed consolidated balance sheets.

4. Notes and Debentures

The Company has an unsecured revolving credit facility with 21 banks pursuant to which the Company may borrow up to $450 million. The rate of interest payable varies according to one of four pricing options selected by the Company. The facility, which expires in October 2002, may be terminated by the Company at any time on three business days' notice. The revolving credit facility contains covenants that require the Company to maintain certain leverage and fixed charge ratios. The Company currently pays a facility fee on the total commitment amount at a rate based on the Company's quarterly fixed charge coverage ratio. In the first quarter of fiscal year 2002, the Company borrowed $100 million under this facility to fund its seasonal working capital requirements. The Company expects to replace the existing facility on or before the expiration date.

5. Operating Segments

The Company has identified two reportable segments: Specialty Retail Stores and Direct Marketing. The Specialty Retail Stores segment includes all Neiman Marcus and Bergdorf Goodman retail stores. Direct Marketing includes the operations of Neiman Marcus Direct, which publishes NM by Mail, the Horchow catalogues, Chef's Catalogue and the Neiman Marcus Christmas Catalogue. Other includes corporate expenses, on-line operations of NeimanMarcus.com, and operations of Kate Spade LLC and Gurwitch Bristow Products LLC.

Such reclassifications had no impact on previously reported operating earnings, net earnings, shareholders' equity or cash flows.
- (2) Other includes the results of operations of Kate Spade LLC, Gurwitch Bristow Products LLC, NeimanMarcus.com and corporate expenses.

6. Commitments and Contingencies

The Company is involved in various suits and claims in the ordinary course of business. Management does not believe that the disposition of any such suits and claims will have a material adverse effect upon the consolidated results of operations, cash flows or the financial position of the Company.

7. Recent Accounting Pronouncements

During June 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 142, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets." SFAS No. 142, upon adoption, eliminates goodwill amortization and the amortization of other indefinite-lived intangible assets. However, goodwill and indefinite-lived intangibles will be subject to at least an annual assessment for impairment by applying a fair-value based test. The Company will adopt the provisions of SFAS No. 142 as of the beginning of fiscal year 2003. The Company has not yet determined the ultimate impact of the provisions of SFAS No. 142 on its consolidated financial statements. Amortization of goodwill and intangible assets was $1.5 million in the first quarter of fiscal year 2002.

During June 2001, the FASB issued SFAS No. 143, "Accounting for Asset Retirement Obligations." SFAS No. 143 addresses financial accounting and reporting for obligations associated with the retirement of tangible long-lived assets and the associated asset retirement costs. SFAS No. 143 requires that the fair value of a liability for an asset retirement obligation be recognized in the period in which it is incurred with the associated asset retirement costs being capitalized as a part of the carrying amount of the long-lived asset. SFAS No. 143 is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2002. The Company has not determined the ultimate impact of the provisions of SFAS No. 143 on its consolidated financial statements.

In August 2001, the FASB issued SFAS No. 144, "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets." SFAS No. 144 addresses the accounting and reporting for the impairment or disposal of long-lived assets and supersedes FASB Statement No. 121, "Accounting for the Impairment of Long-Lived Assets and for Long-Lived Assets to Be Disposed of" and Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 30, "Reporting the Results of Operations Reporting the Effects of Disposal of a Segment of a Business, and Extraordinary, Unusual and Infrequently Occurring Events and Transactions." SFAS No. 144 establishes a single accounting model for long-lived assets to be disposed of by sale and resolves implementation issues related to Statement No. 121. SFAS No. 144 is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2001. The Company has not yet determined the ultimate impact of the provisions of SFAS No. 144 on its consolidated financial statements.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

OVERVIEW

The Neiman Marcus Group, Inc., together with its operating divisions and subsidiaries (the Company), is a high-end specialty retailer. The Company's operations include the Specialty Retail Stores segment, which consists of Neiman Marcus and Bergdorf Goodman stores, and the

Edgar Filing: NEIMAN MARCUS GROUP INC - Form 10-Q

Direct Marketing segment, which conducts operations through Neiman Marcus Direct.

Set forth in the following table is certain summary information with respect to the Company's operations for the thirteen weeks ended October 27, 2001 and October 28, 2000.

THIRTEEN WEEKS ENDED OCTOBER 27, 2001 COMPARED TO THIRTEEN WEEKS ENDED OCTOBER 28, 2000

Revenues. Revenues for the first quarter of fiscal year 2002 of $681.1 million decreased $76.1 million, or 10.0 percent, from $757.2 million for the prior year period. This decrease in revenues in the current year was primarily attributable to a 10.9 percent decrease in comparable revenues offset, in part, by the revenues from one new store and the incremental sales of one replacement store added during the quarter.

Comparable revenues for the first quarter of fiscal year 2002 decreased 12.1 percent for Specialty Retail Stores and 6.1 percent for Direct Marketing. The Company believes the comparable revenue decreases in the first quarter of fiscal year 2002 were primarily due to economic conditions and the general softening in the retail industry that began in fiscal year 2001 and a pronounced decrease in consumer spending that occurred subsequent to the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks in the United States. The Company expects a mid-single digit decline in comparable revenues in the second quarter of fiscal year 2002 compared to the prior year.

Gross Margin. Gross margin was 36.0 percent of revenues in the first quarter of fiscal year 2002 compared to 39.4 percent for the prior year period. The decrease in gross margin as a percentage of revenues was primarily due to higher markdowns and an increase in buying and occupancy costs as a percentage of revenues.

The Company incurred a higher level of markdowns in the first quarter of fiscal year 2002 than in the first quarter of fiscal year 2001 in connection with additional and more aggressive promotional events in September and October 2001. These events were necessary to clear inventories in response to the decline in retail sales.

A significant portion of the Company's buying and occupancy costs tend to be fixed in nature. As a result, buying and occupancy costs increased as a percentage of revenues in the first quarter of fiscal year 2002 compared to the prior year period as a result of lower sales in the current year.

Merchandise inventories aggregated $790.7 million at the end of the first quarter of fiscal year 2002 compared to $735.0 million at the end of the first quarter of fiscal year 2001. As a result of the current declines in revenues and on-hand merchandise inventories at the end of the first quarter of fiscal year 2002, the Company expects that a higher level of inventory markdowns will be required in the second quarter of fiscal year 2002 than in the comparable quarter of the prior year.

Selling, general and administrative expenses (SG&A). SG&A was $203.0 million in the first quarter of fiscal year 2002, or 29.8 percent of revenues, compared to $212.0 million, or 28.0 percent of revenues, in the prior year period. This increase was primarily due to 1) higher pre-opening costs, 2) a higher ratio of SG&A as a percentage of revenues for the Company's less mature stores, and 3) a higher level of SG&A as a percentage of revenues for the Company's Direct Marketing operations, primarily due to the fixed nature of a large portion of such costs.

The Company incurred pre-opening costs of $2.6 million in the first quarter of fiscal year 2002 in connection with the opening of a new store in Tampa, Florida during September 2001 and a replacement store in Plano, Texas during August 2001. The Company incurred pre-opening costs of $1.2 million in the first quarter of fiscal year 2001 in connection with the opening of a new store in Palm Beach, Florida.

Interest expense. Interest expense was $4.0 million for the first quarter of fiscal year 2002 compared to $4.3 million for the first quarter of fiscal year 2001. The decrease of $0.3 million is principally due to capitalized interest associated with store development.

Income taxes. The Company's effective income tax rate was 38 percent for both the first quarter of fiscal year 2002 and fiscal year 2001.

QUARTERLY DATA AND SEASONALITY

The specialty retail industry is seasonal in nature and a disproportionately higher level of the Company's revenues and earnings are generated in the fall and holiday selling seasons. The Company's working capital requirements and inventories increase substantially in the first quarter in anticipation of the holiday selling season.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

The Company's cash requirements consist principally of the funding of its merchandise purchases, capital expenditures for new store growth, store renovations, upgrades of its management information systems and debt service requirements. The Company's working capital requirements fluctuate during the year, increasing substantially during the fall season as a result of higher planned seasonal inventory levels.

During the first quarter of fiscal year 2002, cash used in operating activities was $34.0 million compared to cash provided by operations of $22.5 million in the first quarter of fiscal year 2001. The decrease in cash flows from operating activities was primarily due to a $27.0 million decrease in net earnings in the first quarter of fiscal year 2002 and a $41.7 million decrease in the growth of accounts payable and accrued liabilities, offset in part by a $14.8 million decrease in the growth of merchandise inventories during the first quarter of fiscal year 2002 compared to the first quarter of fiscal year 2001. During the first quarter of fiscal year 2002, the Company's receipts of fall and holiday season merchandise occurred earlier than in the prior year. In the first quarter of fiscal year 2001, merchandise receipts of fall and holiday season inventories were negatively impacted by manufacturing delays incurred by a number of the Company's suppliers. As a result, outstanding account payables at the end of the first quarter of fiscal year 2001 were unusually high. At the end of the first quarter of fiscal year 2002, the level of outstanding accounts payable was more in line with historical seasonal trends.

As of October 27, 2001, the Company had cash and equivalents of $86.8 million and outstanding borrowings of $100 million pursuant to the Company's $450 million unsecured revolving credit facility. At October 28, 2000, the Company had cash and equivalents of $26.7 million and no revolving credit facility borrowings. During November 2001, the Company borrowed an additional $30 million under the revolving credit facility. The Company has used the $130 million proceeds from the revolving credit facility to fund its seasonal working capital requirements.

Edgar Filing: NEIMAN MARCUS GROUP INC - Form 10-Q

The Company may terminate its outstanding revolving credit facility, which expires in October 2002, at any time with three business days' notice. The revolving credit facility contains covenants that require the Company to maintain certain leverage and fixed charge ratios. The Company expects to replace the existing facility on or before the expiration date.

The Company currently plans to open four new Neiman Marcus stores over the next three fiscal years and has consistently focused on renovating and modernizing its stores to improve productivity. The Company anticipates capital expenditures for fiscal year 2002 to be approximately $140 million to $150 million.

Management believes that operating cash flows, currently available vendor financing, amounts available pursuant to its $450 million revolving credit agreement and its outstanding accounts receivable securitization facility should be sufficient to fund the Company's operations, debt service and currently anticipated capital expenditure requirements through the end of fiscal year 2002.

IMPACT OF INFLATION

The Company believes changes in revenues and net earnings that have resulted from inflation and changing prices have not been material during the periods presented. The Company adjusts selling prices to maintain certain profit levels and will continue to do so as economic conditions permit. There is no assurance, however, that inflation will not materially affect the Company in the future.

RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

During June 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued SFAS No. 142, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets." SFAS No. 142, upon adoption, eliminates goodwill amortization and the amortization of other indefinite-lived intangible assets. However, goodwill and indefinite-lived intangibles will be subject to at least an annual assessment for impairment by applying a fair-value based test. The Company will adopt the provisions of SFAS No. 142 as of the beginning of fiscal year 2003. The Company has not yet determined the ultimate impact of the provisions of SFAS No. 142 on its consolidated financial statements. Amortization of goodwill and intangible assets was $1.5 million in the first quarter of fiscal year 2002.

During June 2001, the FASB issued SFAS No. 143, "Accounting for Asset Retirement Obligations." SFAS No. 143 addresses financial accounting and reporting for obligations associated with the retirement of tangible long-lived assets and the associated asset retirement costs. SFAS No. 143 requires that the fair value of a liability for an asset retirement obligation be recognized in the period in which it is incurred with the associated asset retirement costs being capitalized as a part of the carrying amount of the long-lived asset. SFAS No. 143 is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2002. The Company has not determined the ultimate impact of the provisions of SFAS No. 143 on its consolidated financial statements.

In August 2001, the FASB issued SFAS No. 144, "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets." SFAS No. 144 addresses the accounting and reporting for the impairment or disposal of long-lived assets and supersedes FASB Statement No. 121, "Accounting for the Impairment of Long-Lived Assets and for Long-Lived Assets to Be Disposed of" and Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 30, "Reporting the Results of Operations Reporting the Effects of Disposal of a Segment of a Business, and Extraordinary, Unusual and Infrequently Occurring Events and Transactions." SFAS No. 144 establishes a single accounting model for long-lived assets to be disposed of by sale and resolves implementation issues related to Statement No. 121. SFAS No. 144 is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2001. The Company has not yet determined the ultimate impact of the provisions of SFAS No. 144 on its consolidated financial statements.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES THAT MAY AFFECT FUTURE RESULTS

This report contains forward-looking statements, including statements regarding the Company's objectives and expectations regarding its merchandising and marketing strategies, the extension or replacement of its $450 million revolving credit agreement, store renovation and expansion plans, inventory performance, capital expenditures, liquidity, development of its management information systems and productivity and profitability that are based upon management's beliefs as well as on assumptions made by and data currently available to management. These forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and a variety of factors could cause the Company's actual results to differ materially from the anticipated or expected results expressed in these forward-looking statements. Factors that could affect future performance include, but are not limited to: current political and economic conditions subsequent to the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks on the United States of America; changes in economic conditions, political conditions or consumer confidence resulting in a reduction of discretionary spending on goods that are, or are perceived to be, "luxuries"; changes in demographic or retail environments; changes in consumer preferences or fashion trends; competitive responses to the Company's marketing, merchandising and promotional efforts; seasonality of the retail business; adverse weather conditions, particularly during peak selling seasons; delays in anticipated store openings; significant increases in paper, printing and postage costs; litigation that may have an adverse effect on the financial results or reputation of the Company; changes in the Company's relationships with designers, vendors and other sources of merchandise; changes in key personnel who have been hired or retained by the Company; changes in the Company's private label credit card arrangement which might adversely impact its ability to provide consumer credit; and changes in government or regulatory requirements increasing the Company's cost of operations. The Company undertakes no obligation to update or revise (publicly or otherwise) any forward-looking statements to reflect subsequent events, new information or future circumstances.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

The Company's exposure to market risk primarily arises from changes in interest rates. The Company seeks to manage exposure to adverse interest rate changes through its normal operating and financing activities. The Company is exposed to interest rate risk through its securitization and borrowing activities, which are described in the Company's Annual Report to Shareholder's on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended July 28, 2001. At October 27, 2001 and October 28, 2000, the fair values of the Company's fixed rate senior notes and debentures were less than the aggregate carrying value.

The Company uses derivative financial instruments to manage foreign currency risk related to the procurement of foreign merchandise inventories. The Company enters into foreign currency contracts denominated in the Euro and British pound. The Company does not enter into derivative financial instruments for trading purposes.

Based on the Company's market risk sensitive instruments (including variable rate debt and derivative financial instruments) outstanding at October 27, 2001, the Company has determined that there was no material market risk exposure to the Company's consolidated financial position, results of operations, or cash flows as of such date.
