On November 23, 2005, Encore Acquisition Company (the Company) issued and sold $150.0 million aggregate principal amount of 7.25% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2017 (the Notes). The Notes were issued pursuant to an Indenture, dated as of November 16, 2005 (the Original Indenture), between the Company and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as trustee (Trustee), as amended and supplemented by the First Supplemental Indenture, dated as of November 23, 2005 (the First Supplemental Indenture and, together with the Original Indenture, the Indenture), among the Company, the subsidiary guarantors of the Company party thereto and the Trustee.

There is no sinking fund for the Notes. The Notes are senior subordinated unsecured obligations of the Company, rank equally with the Company's existing and future senior subordinated indebtedness, and are subordinate to the Company's obligations under its existing revolving credit facility and any of the Company's existing and future senior indebtedness. The payment of the principal, interest and premium on the Notes is fully and unconditionally guaranteed on a senior subordinated basis by the Company's existing and some of its future restricted subsidiaries.

The Company will pay interest on the Notes on June 1 and December 1 of each year, beginning on June 1, 2006. The Notes mature on December 1, 2017.

Prior to December 1, 2008, the Company may redeem up to 35% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes originally issued, including any additional Notes that the Company may issue, from the proceeds of certain equity offerings at a redemption price of 107.25% of the principal amount of the Notes, plus accrued and unpaid interest. Prior to December 1, 2010, the Company may redeem the Notes as a whole at a redemption price that includes a make-whole premium and accrued and unpaid interest to the date of redemption. On or after December 1, 2010, the Company may redeem some or all of the Notes at any time at specified redemption prices, plus accrued and unpaid interest to the date of redemption.

The Notes also contain a provision allowing the holders thereof to require the Company to purchase some or all of those Notes at a purchase price equal to 101% of their principal amount, plus accrued and unpaid interest to the date of repurchase, upon the occurrence of specified change of control events.

The Company and its restricted subsidiaries are subject to certain negative and financial covenants under the Indenture. The provisions of the Indenture limit the Company's and its restricted subsidiaries' ability to, among other things:

incur additional indebtedness;

pay dividends on the Company's capital stock or redeem, repurchase or retire the Company's capital stock or subordinated indebtedness;

make investments;

incur liens;

create any consensual limitation on the ability of the Company's restricted subsidiaries to pay dividends, make loans or transfer property to the Company;

engage in transactions with affiliates; sell assets, including capital stock of the Company's subsidiaries; and consolidate, merge or transfer assets.

Table of Contents

The covenants in the Notes are substantially similar to the covenants in the Company's 6.0% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2015, except for changes in redemption premiums and date specific references.

The Indenture also contains customary events of default. Under the Indenture, events of default include, but are not limited to, the following:

default for 30 days in payment of interest on the Notes;

default in payment of principal on the Notes at maturity (including upon optional redemption, upon required repurchase, upon declaration of acceleration or otherwise);

failure by the Company or any subsidiary guarantor to comply with its covenants in the Indenture, in certain cases subject to notice and grace periods;

failures to pay at maturity (after applicable grace periods) and accelerations of other indebtedness of the Company, the subsidiary guarantors or any significant subsidiary (other than non-recourse purchase money indebtedness) if the amount of such indebtedness unpaid or accelerated exceeds $10.0 million, provided that such default is not cured or waived, or such acceleration is not rescinded, or such indebtedness is not repaid, within a period of 10 days from the continuance of such default beyond the applicable grace period or the occurrence of such acceleration; certain events of bankruptcy or insolvency with respect to the Company, a subsidiary guarantor and a significant subsidiary; certain judgments or decrees for the payment of money in excess of $10.0 million above the coverage under applicable insurance policies and indemnities under certain circumstances and after applicable grace periods; and certain defaults with respect to subsidiary guaranties.

Upon the occurrence of certain events of default, the Trustee or the holders of the Notes may declare all outstanding Notes to be due and payable immediately. Other events of default require action by the Trustee and the holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the outstanding Notes.

The Company will use the net proceeds of the offering of the Notes to repay indebtedness outstanding under its revolving credit facility, approximately 10% of which will be paid to Citibank, N.A., an affiliate of the underwriter of the offering. In addition, the underwriter and its affiliates or predecessors have in the past performed, and may in the future from time to time perform, investment banking, advisory, general financial and commercial services for the Company and its subsidiaries for which they have in the past received, and may in the future receive, customary fees and reimbursement of expenses.

A copy of the Original Indenture, the First Supplemental Indenture and the form of Note are attached hereto as Exhibits 4.1, 4.2 and 4.3, respectively, and are incorporated by reference herein.
