2007 Earnings Outlook

We are updating Pinnacle West's 2007 earnings outlook in light of the recent Arizona Corporation Commission (ACC) decision in APS' general retail rate case. See APS General Rate Case and Power Supply Adjustor in Item 8.01 of the Pinnacle West/APS Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) on June 20, 2007 for additional information about the ACC decision. In this discussion, earnings per share amounts are after income taxes and are based on diluted common shares outstanding. The earnings guidance in this Form 8-K supersedes all previous earnings guidance provided by Pinnacle West. Our earnings forecasts are subject to numerous risks, including those described under Forward-Looking Statements below.

We currently estimate that our consolidated earnings for 2007 will be within a reasonable range of $2.55 per share. We estimate that APS' earnings contribution included in such 2007 consolidated earnings will be within a reasonable range of $2.25 per share (equivalent to a return on APS' average common equity of 7.5%). These estimates include the $8 million after-tax ($0.08 per share) regulatory disallowance recorded in the second quarter of 2007 as a result of the general rate case decision. We currently estimate that net income for 2007 for our real estate subsidiary, SunCor Development Company (SunCor) will be approximately $30 million.

We previously estimated that our base level of consolidated earnings for 2007, before considering any potential earnings benefit derived from a base rate increase effective at any time during 2007, would be within a reasonable range of $2.45 per share. See the Pinnacle West/APS Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on January 30, 2007 for further information on our prior 2007 guidance. Our current guidance differs from our prior guidance principally due to the following factors, all of which relate to implementation of the retail rate decision effective July 1, 2007:

Table of Contents

The annualized pretax non-fuel rate increase of $7 million approved by the ACC increased our estimate $0.02 per share;

The increase in the base fuel rate approved by the ACC increased our estimate $0.11 per share because of the PSA sharing arrangement (under which APS absorbs 10% of variances between actual retail fuel and purchase power costs and the base fuel rate); and

The regulatory disallowance decreased our estimate $0.08 per share.

Forward-Looking Statements

This Form 8-K contains forward-looking statements regarding our 2007 earnings outlook. Neither the Company nor APS assumes any obligation to update these statements or make any further statements on any of these issues, except as required by applicable law. Because actual results may differ materially from expectations, we caution readers not to place undue reliance on these statements. A number of factors could cause future results to differ materially from historical results, or from results or outcomes currently expected or sought by Pinnacle West or APS. In addition to the Risk Factors described in Item 1A of the Pinnacle West/APS Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006, these factors include, but are not limited to, state and federal regulatory and legislative decisions and actions; the ongoing restructuring of the electric industry, including the introduction of retail electric competition in Arizona and decisions impacting wholesale competition; the outcome of regulatory, legislative and judicial proceedings, both current and future, relating to the restructuring; market prices for electricity and natural gas; power plant performance and outages; transmission outages and constraints; weather variations affecting local and regional customer energy usage; customer growth and energy usage; regional economic and market conditions, including the results of litigation and other proceedings resulting from the California energy situation, volatile fuel and purchased power costs and the completion of generation and transmission construction in the region, which could affect customer growth and the cost of power supplies; the cost of debt and equity capital and access to capital markets; current credit ratings remaining in effect for any given period of time; our ability to compete successfully outside traditional regulated markets (including the wholesale market); the performance of our marketing and trading activities due to volatile market liquidity and any deteriorating counterparty credit and the use of derivative contracts in our business (including the interpretation of the subjective and complex accounting rules related to these contracts); changes in accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and the interpretation of those principles; the performance of the stock market and the changing interest rate environment, which affect the value of our nuclear decommissioning trust, pension, and other postretirement benefit plans assets, the amount of required contributions to Pinnacle West's pension plan and contributions to APS' nuclear decommissioning trust funds, as well as the reported costs of providing pension and other postretirement benefits; technological developments in the electric industry; the strength of the real estate market in SunCor's market areas, which include Arizona, Idaho, New Mexico and Utah; and other uncertainties, all of which are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond the control of Pinnacle West and APS.
