PROXY STATEMENT

ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

April 25, 2001

This Proxy Statement is furnished to the holder of Class A common stock, $0.01 par value per share ("Class A Shares"), and holders of Class B common stock, $0.01 par value per share ("Class B Shares") (collectively, the "Common Stock"), of R&G Financial Corporation (the "Company"). Proxies are being solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors of the Company to be used at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders ("Annual Meeting") to be held at The Bankers Club of Puerto Rico, 208 Munoz Rivera Ave., PH Floor, Hato Rey, San Juan, Puerto Rico 00918, on Wednesday, April 25, 2001 at 10:00 a.m., local time, for the purposes set forth in the Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders. This Proxy Statement is first being mailed to stockholders on or about April 6, 2001.

The proxy solicited hereby, if properly signed and returned to the Company and not revoked prior to its use, will be voted in accordance with the instructions contained therein. If no contrary instructions are given, each proxy received will be voted FOR the nominees for director described herein, FOR ratification of the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as the Bank's independent auditors for 2001 and upon the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting in with the best of the persons appointed as proxies. Any stockholder giving a proxy has the power to revoke it at any time before it is exercised by (i) filing with the Secretary of the Company written notice thereof (Secretary, R&G Financial Corporation, R-G Plaza, 280 Jesus T. Pinero Avenue, Hato Rey, San Juan, Puerto Rico 00918); (ii) submitting a duly-executed proxy bearing a later date; or (iii) appearing at the Annual Meeting and giving the Secretary notice of his or her intention to vote in person. Proxies solicited hereby may be exercised only at the Annual Meeting and any adjournment thereof and will not be used for any other meeting.

VOTING

Only stockholders of record at the close of business on March 30, 2001 ("Voting Record Date") will be entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. On the Voting Record Date, there were 18,440,556 Class A Shares outstanding, 10,240,829 Class B Shares outstanding, and the Company had no other class of equity securities outstanding. The holder of Class A Shares, the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, is entitled to two votes per share and the holders of Class B Shares are entitled to one vote per share at the Annual Meeting on all matters properly presented at the meeting. The Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer, who through his holdings of Class A Shares controls 64.3% of the outstanding Common Stock, has indicated his intention to vote his shares "FOR" the election of directors and ratification of the Board of Directors' selection of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as the Company's independent auditor for 2001. Accordingly, the proposals presented for consideration by the stockholders at this Annual Meeting are expected to be approved as presented.

Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast with a quorum present. The four persons who receive the greatest number of votes of the holders of Common Stock represented in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting will be elected directors of the Company. Abstentions are considered in determining the presence of a quorum and will not affect the vote required for the election of directors. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the total votes present in person or by proxy is required to ratify the appointment of the independent auditors. Abstentions will not be counted as votes cast, and will have no effect on the voting of the appointment of the Company's independent auditors. Under rules applicable to broker-dealers, the proposals for consideration at the Annual Meeting are considered "discretionary" items upon which brokerage firms may vote in their discretion on behalf of their clients if such clients have not furnished voting instructions. Thus, there will be no "broker non-votes" at the Annual Meeting.

Executive officers of the Company and R&G Mortgage who also serve on the Board of Directors are not compensated for serving on the Board of Directors or committees thereof.

During fiscal 2000, members of the Board of Directors of the Bank received fees of $650 per meeting attended. Executive officers of the Bank who also serve on the Board of Directors are not compensated for their services on the Board of Directors or committees thereof. Non-officer members of the Board of Directors of the Bank serving on committees received additional compensation in the amount of $500 per committee meeting attended in fiscal 2000, except for members of the Trust Committee, who each received $400 per committee meeting attended in fiscal 2000.

BENEFITS

Stock Option Plan. The Company maintains a Stock Option Plan. The Stock Option Plan is designed to attract and retain qualified personnel in key positions, provide officers and key employees with a proprietary interest in the Company as an incentive to contribute to the success of the Company and reward key employees for outstanding performance and the attainment of targeted goals. An amount of Common Stock equal to 10% of the aggregate number of Class B Shares sold in the Company's initial public offering (869,400 shares, as adjusted for the Company's stock dividends and splits) were authorized under the Stock Option Plan, which may be filled by authorized but unissued shares, treasury shares or shares purchased by the Company on the open market or from private sources. The Stock Option Plan provides for the grant of stock options and stock appreciation rights (collectively "Awards"). Awards are available for grant to key employees of the Company and any subsidiaries.

Profit Sharing Plan. R-G Mortgage and the Bank have adopted the R&G Mortgage Corporation and R-G Federal Savings Bank Profit Sharing Plan (the "Plan"), which is intended to comply with the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, and the Puerto Rico Income Tax Act of 1954. All employees of R&G Mortgage and the Bank are eligible to participate in the Plan except, among others, for those employees who are non-resident aliens. Eligible employees may enter the Plan on January 1, April 1, July 1, and October 1 following attaining age 21 and completing one year of service. Under the Plan, a separate account is established for each participating employee and R&G Mortgage and the Bank may make discretionary contributions to the Plan which are allocated to employees' accounts. Employees may also contribute to the Plan by making salary reductions up to 10% of annual compensation for the year. Such contributions defer the employee's earning up to a maximum of $8,000 in each plan year. In 2000 R&G Mortgage and the Bank each matched an employee's contribution to the Plan up to 62.5% of the first 5% of an employee's compensation as follows: 12.5% when an employee has 0 to 5 years of service, 25% when an employee has 6 to 10 years of service, 39.5% when an employee has 11 to 15 years of service, 50% when an employee has 16 to 20 years of service, and 62.5% when an employee has 21 or more years of service. Employees' contributions to the Plan are immediately vested, and employees become 100% vested in employer contributions upon the completion of 5 years of service. All funds contributed to the Plan are held in a trust fund. R&G Mortgage and the Bank direct the investment of matching and discretionary contributions and employees direct the investment of elective contributions and rollover contributions. Contributions may be directed into eight separate funds. Distributions from the Plan are made upon termination of service, death, or disability in a lump sum or installment payments. The normal retirement age under the Plan is age 65.

TRANSACTIONS WITH CERTAIN RELATED PERSONS

The operations of R&G Mortgage and the Bank are linked to a material extent by a series of ancillary agreements which govern the significant affiliated transactions between the two companies (the "Affiliated Transaction Agreements"). These agreements have been prepared with a view to compliance with Sections 23A and 23B of the Federal Reserve Act, which require that the terms and conditions of transactions between a financial institution and an affiliate be on terms which are substantially the same, or at least as favorable to the financial institution, as those prevailing for comparable transactions with or involving other non-affiliated companies.

During the year ended December 31, 2000, VIG Leasing, S.E., a Puerto Rico real estate partnership which is 95.8% owned by the family of Victor J. Galan, the Company's Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer, received lease payments from R&G Mortgage and the Bank on properties owned of $1,271,000 and $955,000, respectively. R&G Mortgage and the Bank believe that the lease terms are on terms substantially the same as they would have negotiated with a non-affiliated party.

Under applicable federal law, loans or extensions of credit to executive officers and directors must be made on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with the general public and must not involve more than the normal risk of repayment or present other unfavorable features.

The Bank's policy provides that all loans made by the Bank to directors and officers of the Company are made in the ordinary course of business, on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with other persons. The Bank's policy provides that such loans may not involve more than the normal risk of collectibility or present other unfavorable features. As of December 31, 2000, mortgage and consumer loans to directors and executive officers of the Company in excess of $60,000 aggregated approximately $3,804,000 or 1.23% of the Company's consolidated stockholders' equity as of such date. All such loans were made by the Bank in accordance with the aforementioned policy.

In July 1995, R&G Mortgage made a $900,000 construction loan to a real estate development company owned by Pedro Ramirez, a director of the Company, R&G Mortgage and the Bank. The subject real estate development project was scheduled to be completed in phases. At December 31, 2000, the loan had an outstanding balance of $1.2 million at an interest rate of 2% over the prime rate. The outstanding balance of the loan is related to the second phase of the construction project. The portion of the loan related to the first phase of the project was repaid in January 1998.

During the year ended December 31, 2000, Enrique Umpierre-Suarez, a director and Secretary of each of the Company and the Bank, each provided legal services to borrowers of the Bank and R&G Mortgage in connection with the closing of consumer and commercial loans. During the year ended December 31, 2000, Mr. Umpierre-Suarez received $743,000 in fees for such legal services, all of which were paid for by customers of the Bank and R&G Mortgage in connection with loan closings.

During the year ended December 31, 2000, R&G Mortgage referred customers requiring hazard insurance in connection with their mortgage transactions to Home & Property Insurance Company, an insurance company which was owned by Mr. Jean Francois Dumazet, son-in-law of Mr. Victor J. Galan, the Company's Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer, until October 2000. Each customer has the ability to seek insurance coverage required from an alternative acceptable insurance company of his choice. During the ten month period ended October 30, 2000, Home and Property received $825,000 in premiums for writing hazard insurance policies for R&G Mortgage's customers. The Company acquired Home & Property Insurance Company in October 2000 from Mr. Dumazet, who remains as President of Home and Property.

R&G Mortgage originates first mortgage loans secured by single-family residential properties which are either insured by the Federal Housing Administration ("FHA") or guaranteed by the Veterans' Administration ("VA"). R&G Mortgage pools such FHA/VA loans into mortgage-backed securities which are guaranteed by the GNMA, which securities are sold to securities broker dealers and other investors. During the year ended December 31, 2000, R&G Mortgage sold approximately $50,000 of such GNMA securities to Mario Ruiz, the Executive Vice President of the Bank, approximately $1,000,000 to Enrique Umpierre-Suarez, a director and Secretary of the Company and approximately $125,000 to Benigno Fernandez, a director of the Company.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

The Executive Committee of the Company's Board of Directors reviews the compensation and benefits for the Company's employees and recommends to the Board adjustments in such compensation. During fiscal 2000, the members of the Executive Committee were Messrs. Victor J. Galan (Chairman), Prats (Vice Chairman), McCormack, and Victor L. Galan. Mr. Victor J. Galan does not participate in the Committee's consideration of his own compensation.

The report of the Executive Committee with respect to compensation for the President and Chief Executive Officer and all other executive officers for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2000 is set forth below:

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The purpose of the Committee qualified, competent management; motivating executives to achieve a range of performance goals consistent with a business plan approved by the Board of Directors of the Company; and insuring that the financial costs of current or proposed compensation and benefit programs are reasonable and consistent with industry standards, management performance and shareholders' interest.

The Committee considered the following criteria in recommending to the

Edgar Filing: R&G FINANCIAL CORP - Form DEF 14A

Board the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer as well as the approval of compensation of other executive officers of the Company and its subsidiaries:

1. The overall financial, market and competitive performance of the Company and its subsidiaries during the fiscal year under consideration after adjusting for economic conditions occurring during the year.
2. The level of and/or increases in return on assets and return on equity without encouraging short-term profitability through unreasonable risk-taking or a deterioration of long-term asset quality.
3. Consideration of individual as well as combined measures of progress of the Company and its subsidiaries including the quality of the loan portfolio, the level of the changes in capital ratios, the overall growth of the Bank and R&G Mortgage, the improvement in market share, the improvement in book value per share, the improvement in earnings per share, the level of non-performing loans and real estate owned, efficiency ratio levels as compared to peer groups and other objectives as may be established by the Board of Directors of the Company.

4. The individual commitment of the Chief Executive Officer relative to overall management efficiency, inspirational leadership, professional involvement, civic activities and the maintenance of corporate stature enhancing the image of the Company and its subsidiaries in their market place.
5. The compensation and benefit levels of comparable positions to peer group institutions within the financial services industry, and similar asset and operating characteristics with a concentration on those institutions operating in Puerto Rico.

The compensation arrangements and recommendations of the Committee include a base salary and a bonus component if the Executive's performance is judged to warrant such a bonus.

The base compensation of Victor J. Galan, Chief Executive Officer of the Company and the Bank, was established at $276,999 on January 1, 2000. Mr. Galan's compensation level, determined consistent with the before mentioned criteria, was based on an examination of four peer group comparisons relative to salary and bonus compensation for Chief Executive Officers. Mr. Galan's performance is measured by the profit, capital position, asset quality and the low ratio of operating expenses of the Company, the Bank and R&G Mortgage, as well as the other measures of executive compensation so noted in determining his specific compensation. Mr. Galan was given a bonus of $200,200 for his service during 2000 based on his overall performance as well as other activities which ensued during the course of the year.

With respect to the other executive officers of the Company and its subsidiaries, the Committee considered salary and bonus recommendations prepared by the Chief Executive Officer to establish 2000 compensation. The salary adjustment recommendation and bonus was based on the Company's overall performance in the past year as well as an analysis of competitive compensation levels necessary to maintain and attract quality personnel.

Following extensive review and approval by the Committee, all issues pertaining to executive compensation were submitted to the full Board of Directors for their approval. Mr. Victor J. Galan does not participate in the review of his compensation.
