- (a) Non-income producing security.
- (f) All or a portion of the security has been segregated as collateral for an open futures contract.
- (g) The rate shown represents a weighted average coupon rate on settled positions at period end.
- (i) Interest only security for which the trust receives interest on notional principal (Par amount) and does not reflect the cost of the security.
- (k) As of February 28, 2007, the trust held securities fair valued in accordance with the policies of the Trustees, aggregating $503,896,626 and 94.73% of market value. An independent pricing service valued the securities at 92.97% of the market value.
- (n) Securities exempt from registration under Rule 144A of the Securities Act of 1933. These securities are held in the ordinary course of business in transactions exempt from registration, normally to qualified investors. At period end, the aggregate value of these securities was $60,031,131, representing 11.3% of net assets.
- (o) All or a portion of this position has not settled. Upon settlement date, interest rates will be determined.
- (r) Remaining maturities of floating rate loans may be less than stated maturities shown as a result of prepayments by the borrower. Such prepayments cannot be predicted with certainty. These loans are held on resale. Floating rate loans generally have rates of interest which are determined periodically as the lending rate plus a premium.
- (t) Security exempt from registration with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission under Section 3(a)(7) of the Securities Act of 1933.
- (y) The rate shown represents an annualized yield at time of purchase.
- (z) Restricted securities are not registered under the Securities Act of 1933 and are subject to resale restrictions. These securities generally may be resold in transactions exempt from registration or to the public if they are subsequently registered. Disposal of these securities may involve time-consuming negotiations and the price may be difficult. The trust holds the following restricted securities:
